We have a large family to feed and to make comfortable, to keep in health and peace, and to instruct in English, Siamese, sewing and housework. Our graduating class numbers four, and each one is willing to return and give her services to the school. One is a Christian in name; all are in heart. The past year has been a glad year—a year of work; a year of health; a year of prosperity. Our needs for the coming year are more wisdom, more love, more patience, more buildings. Our school is overcrowded, and many more children are asking admittance. Help us plan larger things.

The Christian Boys' High School.—The past year has been the most prosperous in the history of this school. The attendance has grown steadily and is now 214, with an enrollment for the year of 252. The revenues have increased about 25 per cent. Accommodations have been enlarged slightly; but they are all taken up and many applicants have had to be put on the waiting list for want of room.

The year has been marked by the introduction of systematic physical training as a part of the course. This is greatly needed by these people. The attendance has been more regular than ever before, and the work has been done with increased interest on the part of both teachers and students. The teaching force has been increased by the addition of two members of last year's graduating class.

The new chapel building adds greatly to the equipment of the school. The old chapel room would not seat comfortably one-third of the students. It was literally crammed at morning chapel services. The new chapel will seat 320 on chairs, and its beauty and comfort enhance the interest of all religious services, and at the same time give opportunity for scientific lectures for the public that will increase the prestige of the school and its influence for good.

But the most important part of the improvement has been along spiritual lines. There has been a quiet work of grace which has greatly quickened all the students. As an immediate result, during the year thirty-two of the boys have confessed their faith in Christ, and many of them are doing personal work among their companions who have not yet believed. They have their own prayer meeting on Sabbath morning, and their prayers are earnest and full of the spirit of soul-winning. We are expecting a great blessing in connection with the meetings of the Conference. One instance of the spirit that has taken possession of the school is seen in the fact that two of the older students have volunteered to go out on tours next term, one as medical assistant and the other as evangelist, promising to keep up with their studies meantime and not to drop out of their classes.

The Sumray Day-school.—This school, under the care of two Siamese teachers, has been well sustained, having an enrollment of 118. The head teacher, Kru Heng, is an elder in the First Church, and sometimes preaches in the new chapel or in place of the pastor at home.

The assistant teacher has had a remarkable history. After three years in the Christian High School, he became a Buddhist priest to please his mother. He was dissatisfied with what he saw of Buddhism in the daily life of the priests, and started to travel on foot through Burmah and India in search of a purer faith. By the time he reached Ceylon, he was ready to give up the search and returned to Bangkok, determined to be a Christian. He applied to his old teacher, Dr. Eakin, for employment. He was referred to Kru Heng, still dressed in the yellow robes of the Buddhist priesthood. Kru Heng needed an assistant in the Sumray school, and it was decided to accept him on the strength of his former record while in school. He soon left the priesthood and has been doing faithful work as teacher in the day-school and Sunday-school. He has recently been baptized on confession of his faith.

MEDICAL WORK.—Dr. Bulkley appreciates his good fortune during this, his first year in Siam, in being associated with Dr. and Mrs. Dunlap on their tours. During the "Kalamazoo" trip in December and January, 404 patients were treated. These were suffering from 119 different diseased conditions. This is enough to show that one must expect great variety in this kind of work and must carry something of an outfit, if he is to prescribe for all that come. Some instruments were carried and twenty-six operations were performed, including two for cataract.

Some patients were anxious to have the doctor do more than was practicable with the facilities at command. When advised to go to a hospital, they as often as not refuse; it is too much trouble. In Rayong, they brought a boy of thirteen who had been burnt back of the leg when three months old. A broad web of scar tissue had formed, drawing the calf close to the thigh. In all these thirteen years, the parents had never taken the trouble to take the boy in a boat to Bangkok where surgeons would have operated; but were willing to have him grow up a helpless cripple. For lack of time, the doctor was unwilling to operate then, but told them to bring the boy to Chantaboon, where they would stay a week or more. But even that they would not do; but would wait until the doctor would return next year.

The Government laboratories supplied virus and 617 persons were vaccinated on this trip.

About thirty persons came for tooth extraction. The betel-chewing habit tends to prevent decay of the teeth, though it loosens them, forming a coating of lime often a half inch in diameter.

On the second tour down the Malay Peninsula, longer stops made it possible to perform more major surgical operations. It is no longer a novelty to hear of native prescriptions; but to see their effects brings the matter home to one more forcibly. One formula for eye drops was Chinese ink, bear's gall and whiskey.

One poor fellow in Renong illustrates the need of our medical work. He was a Chinese coolie, and a month before had suffered compound fracture of the lower leg, both bones broken. Since then he had been steadily going down and was badly emaciated, his leg as foul as could be imagined, and the bone protruding. The only thing the people had done for him was to encourage him in the opium habit to relieve the pain. He could have been taken to the hospital at Puket; but no one would take the trouble. Amputation at the knee was what he needed, and that was what we gave him, after getting him in condition for the operation.

On this latter tour 1,055 patients were treated. There were 157 different varieties of disease, fifteen cases of dysentery, eighty of fever of all kinds, most of which could have been avoided by sufficient precaution. Two hundred and ten teeth were extracted on this tour. Aside from these and vaccinations, thirty-seven operations were performed.

THE MISSION PRESS.—A large font of Siamese type and a new cylinder machine press are the most important additions to the Press plant during the past year. The cost was a little over 5,000 ticals. The stock of paper, type, and other requisites is now better than usual. The patrons of our Press have been, as usual, the best in the city, and the influence of the Press is much wider than that of the Scriptures and tracts alone. The job work done keeps the Press self-supporting, and ready at any time for new work of our missionary endeavor.

"The Daybreak" has been resumed since April, 1906.

This magazine of the Mission is now in its twelfth year. Its contents are largely contributed by Christian Siamese writers. It is training up a goodly number of writers on ethical and religious subjects, who will help us by and by to provide a much needed Christian literature.

An edition of the new Siamese Revival Hymnal has been printed. The hymns have mostly been translated from those used in the Torrey and Alexander meetings.

The stock of Scriptures for the American Bible Society required only three portions of the New Testament printed during the year. Of these there were over 16,000 copies printed. Quite a number of our best tracts in stock will require reprinting soon.

Laws, edicts, text-books, concessions, contracts, agreements and other documents of a private or confidential nature between the Government and foreigners are entrusted to our Mission Press, showing the special favor and confidence of the Government. It is not only an honor but educational and missionary to put such works as these forth in the best possible form. At the same time such efforts secure the support we need for our own direct missionary publications.

THE MISSION GODOWN.—Almost all imports for the Siam and Laos Missions are cleared through the customs by the manager of our godown.

This means a great deal of clerical work, recording every entry in duplicate for the customs, giving the name, date, and whence the steamer came; the owner and the country from which the goods came; the mark and number for every box and package, the quantity and description and value of contents. For example, there was one shipment of fifty-six boxes for sixteen persons. These were all entered and applied for as above on thirty-two sheets. But only thirty-five boxes came by that first steamer. Later, when another steamer came, new duplicates were entered applying for the balance of twenty-one boxes, with reference to the date, name, etc., of former steamer, and number of entry for each person concerned. But the second steamer brought only seventeen boxes of that balance. Again, when the last four boxes came, a third and final set of duplicate blanks were entered, and that shipment was finally cleared.

Since the first of May this year to time of writing, our godown manager has cleared eighty-six shipments through the customs, amounting to 1,253 boxes, crates, or packages. In addition to this, the godown manager and his wife fill a great many orders for outstation and Laos missionaries by purchases in the local markets.

PETCHABURI STATION.

During the past year the members of this Station have been the recipients of manifold blessings, but illness has been a serious factor. During nearly the whole of the year the little son of Dr. McDaniel was ill, but he is now much improved.

In January bubonic plague made its appearance, and all steps toward its eradication have thus far failed. Two of our Christian families have lost dear ones from the ravages of this pestilence. There have been 200 deaths from this cause. Again our Christian families have been bereaved by death from this disease. Typhoid has also been common. Indeed, it has been a year of plague and pestilence.

But through it all our lives and the lives of our dear ones have been graciously preserved. And when it is understood that a polluted water supply must be drawn on for kitchen uses, our thankfulness for preserved health may be still better understood.

Our most earnest Chinese Christian was recently called to his final reward. In our efforts for his countrymen we greatly miss his wise and helpful counsels. But the work is God's, and we know He cares always.

Railroad conveniences still continue to prevent complete isolation, and fellow-missionaries and friends have very frequently gladdened us by their presence.

EVANGELISTIC.—The evangelistic work under the earnest direction of Rev. W. G. McClure has been energetically carried on, though lack of helpers has been a serious handicap.

On the departure of Mr. and Mrs. Jones for a well-earned furlough, Mr. McClure took full charge of this department, having Kru Song as an assistant during the early months. During the latter part of the year Kru Boon has assisted at the Station, and Kru Song has accompanied Dr. Dunlap on his long tour on the Peninsula. Each of our Siamese preachers did faithful and efficient work.

Mr. McClure spent a month on an evangelistic tour down the west coast of the Gulf of Siam. He had three companions and made the tour walking, having a bullock-cart to convey the necessary equipment of such a tour, i.e., food, bed, clothing, books, medicines, stereopticon, etc.

The region through which they passed is one in which a reign of terror has prevailed recently, brigands frequently plundering and murdering, both in the villages and along the public highway. The missionary party was not molested. On one occasion one of the most notorious brigands visited the camp.

On this tour a point was reached 100 miles from home, eighteen days being spent on the outward journey and many places being visited on the way. A number of places were also visited on the return trip.

This is a region which had not been visited for a number of years, and while many were found who remembered former visits and were somewhat interested, few believers were found, except that a few members of the Petchaburi Church, who had become scattered, were found and visited. Everything possible was done to strengthen and encourage them.

The method of work in the villages was to spend a night when practicable. A stereopticon service was usually announced for the evening and attendance was good as a rule. These services afford a good opportunity of giving the Gospel message in its fullness, as the pictures hold the audience to the end. A roll of large pictures served the same purpose to smaller companies by day. A small concert roller organ assisted greatly in attracting the people.

Officials and private homes were visited in many cases and pleasant intercourse was had with the people everywhere. Christian tracts and medicines were dispensed whenever persons were found who were willing to receive them, sometimes by sale and sometimes by donation.

Vaccination proved to be very popular almost everywhere in places distant from Petchaburi. An abundant supply of virus having been provided, nearly 1,000 people were vaccinated on this trip and many were left still desiring it.

While none were found who were ready to accept Christ the workers were encouraged, and they believe that this sowing beside all waters is according to God's will and will be blessed by Him. Mr. McClure was accompanied on this trip by Kru Rit, one of our Siamese preachers.

He gave very efficient and enthusiastic service. He was eager to have as many as possible hear the Gospel story, himself doing a good deal of the preaching, and he was especially anxious to find as many as possible of the Christians who had become scattered. He was sometimes heard talking with them far into the night. He has now returned to his distant home with books, medicines and a picture roll, to be used as he can find opportunity in the Master's service.

Several visits have been made to the villages where we have church organizations, but no church buildings and very irregular services. Mr. McClure reports some very encouraging services with the brethren in those villages, and thinks that he can see signs of a reviving interest on their part. Communion services were held at two of the villages, with a fair attendance of the members. The service at Bangkaboorn was especially encouraging. One new member was received and he and his little daughter were publicly baptized.

Regular services have been maintained at the Station, both at the church and in the market place. In the latter the attendance has been variable, ranging from all the house would hold to an audience of one, when a neighboring theatre and one of those feminine quarrels for which Siam is noted were counter-attractions too strong for us.

The services have been varied to attract the people from the street and country people going and coming, and during the year a large number of people have heard the Gospel.

The Sabbath-school attendance has been about eighty. Dr. McDaniel is superintendent and also teaches a class of boys.

Some of our people have joined the prayer circle, seeking a special spiritual blessing on our next annual meeting and conference.

We have for some time past been having a Saturday meeting for Christian workers, for reports, conference and prayer for God's blessing on our work. A printed form is used for the weekly reports. The present membership is five.

EDUCATIONAL.—The boys' school was under the direction of Mr. Jones until shortly before his departure, when Mrs. McClure took charge. The yearly enrollment has been sixty-three boys and sixteen girls. Even here is seen the effect of cholera and plague, three of the students having died from these diseases.

For some months there have been a number of little girls among the pupils of the school. Strong efforts have been made to secure two new teachers, a man for the boys' school and a woman for the girls'. The former has not been secured, but an assistant woman teacher was secured and with the above mentioned little girls as a nucleus a girls' school has been started.

The boys' school is practically self-supporting. Since a teacher cannot be found, Mrs. McClure gives all her time to teaching, except when interrupted by more necessary work.

For a time four priests of "the noble order of the yellow robe" were among the pupils studying English.

MEDICAL.—Though there has been an unusual amount of sickness in this vicinity with a very high mortality, yet the statistics of our work do not show any marked increase due to the epidemics of plague and cholera. At the request of the local authorities, Dr. McDaniel counseled with them at various times as to the best means of fighting these diseases.

From the great prevalence of water-borne diseases and from the fact of the Mission compound being below the market-place, special care must be exercised to prevent serious outbreaks among the missionary families. During the time of lowest water the use of the river water has to be absolutely prohibited. To this end it is imperative that means be provided for the storage of sufficient rainwater to tide over the time of greatest danger.

A smaller number heard the Gospel message through the medical work, as there was practically no vaccinating done at the hospital this year. This was partly because there was no cool season, and the Siamese have a strong prejudice against vaccinating at any other time, and partly because nearly every one within easy reach was vaccinated last year.

There were twenty-six in-patients at the hospital and twenty-four operations. Out-patients, visits, and prescriptions aggregated 1,601, and receipts were ticals 1,621. This is not a large work, but it shows a healthy advance over last year's report.

The operating room has recently been thoroughly renovated and refurnished with modern fittings, operating table, etc. The Mission has a good plant in the hospital here, capable of caring for a much larger work than it has ever done. That it may fulfill its mission, steps have already been taken that will, it is hoped, result in a greatly increased work, with consequent increased opportunities for reaching the people.

Efforts are being made to secure a new building centrally located in the market-place, and it is proposed to open a dispensary and preaching place there. We are also seeking the services of an old assistant who is a Christian and who has been practicing in the market-place for the past two years. If the place and this man are secured, we believe that this department will have entered upon the fulfillment of its proper mission as an evangelizing agency.

For the past five months we have been without an assistant of any kind except a coolie. Several tours have been taken in company with Mr. McClure, but sickness in the family has prevented any extended absence from home.

"The Kingdom of God is come nigh into thee." This is the message which the medical work should bring, and to the extent it does this can it be called successful.

RATBURI STATION.

Teaching in the schools, preaching the Gospel, healing the sick, distributing the Word, visiting the homes of the people and the study of the Siamese language have all been kept up constantly during the year. In December, Mr. and Mrs. Post were transferred to Nakawn Sri Tamarat. Mr. and Mrs. Moody, who came a few days later, have proved a welcome addition.

EDUCATIONAL.—The girls' school in charge of Mrs. Wachter has been in session ten months. The Siamese teacher has been faithful, and besides spending six hours a day in the schoolroom has taught a large class of boys in the Sunday-school. Mrs. Moody has also given valuable help in the girls' school, teaching two and three classes daily. Thirty-two have received instruction in Siamese and English, as well as in plain and fancy needlework. Two pupils have lately asked to be received into the church.

The Suriwongse boys' school, under Mr. Moody, has had an average enrollment of thirty-one. The school fees were paid in full, with few exceptions, and the two new native teachers are doing very good work.

MEDICAL.—The dispensary was open every day of the year. The number of sales is larger than the year before, and so are the receipts, notwithstanding more patients were treated free of charge than in previous years. Visits to the homes of the sick exceed those of last year at least 100 per cent. The hospital patients numbered forty, all but one surgical cases.

EVANGELISTIC.—The usual church and Sunday-school services have been attended by the scholars from both schools, the servants and a few visitors, besides the Christians. Two infants were baptized and two pupils from the girls' school have asked admission to the church.

During the first part of the year, Mrs. Wachter held a little prayer meeting with the girls on Sunday afternoons, and during the latter part Mr. Moody had a Sunday evening service for English-speaking young men.

PITSANULOKE STATION.

As the year began, we little dreamed that one of our small band of workers, and she the one of all others whose youth and buoyant activity seemed to give brightest promise of a long and useful career, was so soon to be promoted from the earthly service to the heavenly. The death of Mrs. C. C. Walker on the 19th of April last (1906) left Pitsanuloke with the smallest working force of any Station in Siam. But even in his great sorrow and loneliness, Dr. Walker did not allow bereavement to interrupt his work. The endeavor to "close up the ranks" and still maintain the various activities of the Station as aggressively as possible have made the year a busy one for all.

EVANGELISTIC.—The Gospel meetings at the market chapel and the daily services on the compound have been kept up as hitherto. Four children of believing parents have been dedicated to God in baptism.

EDUCATIONAL.—The school reopened in May after the hot season vacation. Thirty-six pupils have been enrolled.

Three of our more advanced boys have been transferred during the year to the Bangkok Christian Boys' High School, and others look forward to going there later. Mrs. Cooper has continued to give daily assistance in this department, also taking Mr. Cooper's school work whenever he was away.

MEDICAL.—The hospital building, so long "reporting progress," is now really completed.

It looks very neat, with its tile roof and newly painted walls and ceiling. The wards are enclosed with galvanized sheathing, while the floor is cement, making it the coolest place on compound during the hot season. It can comfortably accommodate fourteen patients, while twenty-four can be crowded in, if necessary. This is still a new feature of our work, and the opportunities it offers to patients from a distance are not yet so widely known as they will be in time. This year there have been but fifty in-patients. The Siamese shrink from pain, even to relieve pain, and will postpone a visit to the hospital as long as they can. Again our extensive touring this year carried our medicines into "the regions beyond," where patients were able to secure medicines and thus treat themselves. A large number of ulcer cases were in this way treated away from the hospital.

Dr. Walker has made about sixty visits to the homes of the sick in Pitsanuloke.

The people still prefer, in most cases, the native "doctor" with his herbs and roots. In many cases when the Mission doctor has been called, it was only after several village "doctors" had failed. But we have had several remarkable cures, which won for us the respect of the common people and a united opposition from the native doctors.

There were about 7,000 prescriptions during the year at the dispensary, and 5,000 more on tours. The dispensary gives a tract or Gospel free to every patient who comes to buy medicines. In this way many volumes have been introduced into the homes.

The medical revenues for the year were a little over 10,000 ticals, which met all expenses and left a reserve fund of 1,000 ticals. These receipts of the past year alone exceeded the total of any two former years.

GENERAL TOURING.—Aside from such work as could be done in Pitsanuloke and nearby villages, Dr. Walker and Mr. Cooper have taken turns in making outside tours with native helpers, one always remaining at home to keep up the local work while the other was away. Their seven tours have occupied in all five months of the Mission year, besides an eighth tour by the first hospital assistant, Kru Kean Koo, alone. On each of these tours a large medical stock was taken along, besides Gospels and tracts. Colporteur sales for the year totaled over 1,000 portions of Scripture and 5,000 tracts. Medical revenues from touring during the Mission year were 2,620 ticals, mostly from people who would not have come to the dispensary, and 2,800 persons have been vaccinated free of charge.

This medical touring, and especially the renting of a place for sale of medicines during the week of the great annual market at Phra Taan, has also proved a most effective means of advertising our work far and wide, and gaining confidence and future patronage.

These tours have covered only a limited portion of our immense field, namely, the territory drained by this one branch of the Chow Phya (Menam) River. But we are hoping and planning, after annual meeting, for an extensive tour by Dr. Walker up the Maa Yome River to Sawankaloke and beyond, and one by Mr. Cooper up the Maa Ping River to Rahang, which would just cover the territory we have found no opportunity to visit the past year.

On account of the approaching transfer of Dr. Walker to take charge of the Boon Itt Memorial, Dr. and Mrs. Carl Shellman were appointed to Pitsanuloke and are now on the field. The furlough of Mr. and Mrs. Cooper, already a year overdue, will leave the Pitsanuloke parish of more than half a million souls without even one ordained missionary until the arrival of Mr. and Mrs. Jones, now at home on furlough.

NAKAWN SRI TAMARAT STATION.

Mr. and Mrs. Post arrived from Ratburi in December. Mr. and Mrs. Eckels left for their well-earned furlough in March, having been at Nakawn ever since the opening of the Station in 1899, and often the only family for months at a time.

A three-weeks' visit from Dr. and Mrs. Wachter and a two-weeks' visit from Dr. and Mrs. Dunlap and Dr. Bulkley were events of the year.

EDUCATIONAL.—The little school for girls, started by Mrs. Eckels, has had the faithful services of a native teacher. Since Mrs. Eckels left, Mrs. Post has had the oversight of the school.

MEDICAL.—The physician has had to divide his time between the large number of sick and the construction of the new Memorial Hospital, which has just been finished. The building work demanded daily supervision in order to insure the proper carrying out of the plans. Difficulties were encountered also in procuring materials.

It may be interesting to note that while the brick were made at Nakawn, the lumber came from Bangkok, where it had been sawed after being brought from the teak forests of Laos; cement from Copenhagen; hardware from New York City, save the stamped steelite ceilings which were made in London; lime and roofing tiles from Singapore, and paints, etc., from Bangkok, after being mixed in London. The cost, including fittings, was 24,000 ticals.

Pending the completion of the hospital, great difficulty was experienced in providing places for in-patients.

Early in the year we built a temporary bamboo house, which we divided into three little wards. We have had these and the two old wards filled nearly the whole year. About a month ago, we were also using the guest room of the chapel and had one patient in our own house. This patient was a woman of rank, who had come all the way from Singora to have an operation for extraction of cataract. When leaving us she paid double the regular fee charged, and said she would recommend the hospital at Nakawn to all of her friends.

Of the sixty in-patients treated during the year, we have had no deaths to report at the hospital. Besides the care of these sixty in-patients, nearly all surgical cases, we have treated 7,379 out-patients, dispensed 9,056 prescriptions and portions of medicine, made 506 visits, treated 135 patients in their homes, and vaccinated 1,271 persons. The receipts for the last fiscal year were ticals 5,601.44. The whole amount was expended in the work. During the four months of the present year just ended we have received ticals 3,109.

In June, the doctor was called to Singora to treat Lady Sukum, the wife of the High Commissioner of our Monthon.

EVANGELISTIC.—Regular services have been held through the year, beside the morning chapel service at the hospital. The only new features have been the organization of a Sunday-school and the use of the "baby organ" in all the services by Mrs. Swart. Two new elders, Kru Chang and Dr. Swart, were elected in the Bethlehem Church. Kru Chang is "first assistant" in the hospital and also local preacher.

Nineteen new members have been received into the Church this year, sixteen being baptized by Dr. Dunlap on his recent tour of the Peninsula. There has been quite an interest at the little chapel services before the opening of the dispensary. Two others have asked to be baptized.

Mr. Post reports on his work as follows:

Before Mr. Eckels left, all of the groups of Christians, except the one at Ha Mok, were visited. Eight days were spent at Ta Mak with a very earnest group of Christians. We were cordially welcomed and there was reverent attention at the services.

After a week at home, we started on a 100-mile walk in order to visit the Christians at Ko Kreng, Pak Chang, Ta Chee, Kean Sa and Bandon. The solitary member at the first-named place and the little group at Pak Chang seemed to be letting their light shine. But at Ta Chee the group of twenty was in turmoil because of the sin of the suspended elder. At Kean Sa almost all were away from home, and at Bandon affairs were not satisfactory. Great patience is required.

All the groups of Christians having been visited, a few days later Mr. and Mrs. Post and little Mary started by boat for Ta Song, about eight hours distant by the road. No missionary had visited the place for several years, but a number of persons showed interest and we were invited to come again. This was true of Lam Kow, reached after a five hours' walk from Nakawn. Pak Ying and Pak Poon were on the whole not so encouraging, yet the latter place should be visited often. From three to eight days were spent at each of the above places. Ta Song was revisited, with good results; four persons are earnest inquirers. Ta Mak was also revisited, where three more were enrolled as inquirers who have been reading Gospels and tracts. As no missionary had as yet gone to Patalung, four days distant, with a large population accessible by canal, I was impelled to start for that town. When within four hours of the town the high winds and waves of the Inland Sea did not permit me to go farther.

It was quite novel to be invited to bow to idols and have to explain why I did not. Over 500 Gospels and tracts were disposed of and a considerable quantity of medicine was sold. Scripture portions and Mission tracts and medicines were of great help on all of the trips mentioned. Station duties, difficulty and delay in securing carriers and boatmen and illness made it impossible to take all the trips planned

THE LAOS MISSION.

CHIENG MAI: on the Me Ping River, about a month and a half by Laos boat or 600 miles north of Bangkok; occupied as a Mission Station 1867. Missionaries—Rev. Daniel McGilvary, D.D., and Mrs. McGilvary, Rev. D. G. Collins and Mrs. Collins, J. W. McKean, M.D., and Mrs. McKean, Rev. Howard Campbell and Mrs. Campbell, Rev. J. H. Freeman and Mrs. Freeman, Rev. William Harris, Jr., and Mrs. Harris, Rev. M. B. Palmer and Mrs. Palmer, C. W. Mason, M.D., and Mrs. Mason, Miss E. M. Buck and Miss Mabel Gilson.

LAKAWN: on the Me Wang River, four days' land journey or 65 miles southeast of Chieng Mai; occupied as a Mission Station 1893. Missionaries—Rev. Jonathan Wilson, D.D., Rev. Hugh Taylor, D.D., and Mrs. Taylor, C. C. Hansen, M.D., and Mrs. Hansen, Rev. Roderick Gillies and Mrs. Gillies, Miss Elizabeth Carothers, and Miss E. Van Vranken.

PRE: on the Me Yom River, four days' land journey or about 65 miles southeast of Lakawn; occupied as a Mission Station 1893, and carried on by missionaries of other Stations.

NAN: on the Me Nan River, eight days' land journey or about 110 miles northeast of Pre; occupied as a Mission Station 1894. Missionaries—Rev. S. C. Peoples, M.D., and Mrs. Peoples, Rev. David Park and Mrs. Park, Rev. Arthur Barrett and Mrs. Barrett.

CHIENG RAI: on the Me Kok River, eight days' land journey or 110 miles a little east of north of Chieng Mai; occupied as a Mission Station 1897. Missionaries—Rev. W. A. Briggs, M.D., and Mrs. Briggs, and Rev. Howell S. Vincent and Mrs. Vincent, Rev. Henry N. White and Mrs. White, C. H. Crooks, M.D., and Mrs. Crooks.

KENG TUNG: in the Shan States (British), north of Chieng Rai; occupied as a Station 1903. Missionaries—The Rev. W. C. Dodd and Mrs. Dodd, the Rev. C. R. Callender and Mrs. Callender.

IN THIS COUNTRY: Rev. W. A. Briggs and Mrs. Briggs, Rev. Robert Irwin and Mrs. Irwin, and Dr. Wilson.

It has been a good year. It has had its share of trials and discouragements, but it is not on these that the missionaries dwell. The number received on confession is a little larger than we reported last year; that, in its turn, was somewhat greater than in any of the ten preceding years. We also report a somewhat larger number of village schools, and a larger total of pupils enrolled. In other ways, less easily measured we feel that there has been growth. We can see promise, with God's blessing, of larger fruitage in years to come.

NATIVE WORK.—In every Station of the Mission there seems to be a growing determination to place greater emphasis on the native work. At the annual meeting this feeling was the keynote. The Mission asks for no present increase of force. It does ask that vacancies be supplied; but it urges still more strongly for means to make efficient use of our native forces in evangelism and in the schools.

We are not as badly off as the missionary of another Board in India, whose work for the year included the oversight of some dozen widely scattered churches and some score of village schools, and who was granted but $20 for the expense of his tours, insufficient for a single hurried visit to each; but especially in Chieng Rai, where the work demands wide and constant touring, the missionaries have felt seriously hampered by lack of funds. So long as we are financially embarrassed and hampered in our itinerating work, so long will our reports of growth and progress be spiritually meagre. Coming from one who despite all embarrassments has toured and labored, in season and out of season, with most excellent results, these words means much.

Dr. Taylor's report on the boys' school in Lakawn illustrates the feeling of the Mission. The net running expenses of this school does not exceed 400 rupees for the entire year. Time was when the school received 1,500 rupees per year, and it could wisely use that sum to-day. Especially this year, when rice is almost a complete failure and the people can help but little, yet would gladly place their boys in the school, a larger sum should be at the disposal of those in charge. With the limited means at our disposal, we are doing something: five of the boarders and one day-pupil made confession of their faith in Christ the past year. We aim to train the future elders and leaders of the church; we could do much more if more means were at our disposal. If, incidentally, we also train boys for responsible positions in business and in the Government offices, so much the better.

Another says:

Owing to scarcity of funds it is impossible for Chieng Rai Station to plant, foster and develop village schools in her weaker and more needy out-stations, where schools must be planted if we are to maintain our hold on the community. Such are some of the reasons why there is among us a growing conviction that we must have larger means for our native work. The contributions of the native church are increasing year by year. A wise use of mission funds will stimulate, not diminish this healthy growth.

These extracts are fairly representative of hundreds of letters that come to the Board from all over the world. Nowhere is the grant of the Board adequate; the reason, of course, being that the gifts of the Church are not adequate. The only wise and permanent relief would be such an enlarged support of the general treasury of the Board that it could supply these imperative needs.

THE CHURCHES.—Nong Leh Church.—Two new churches appear upon our rolls this year. That of Nong Leh was organized from that part of the Chieng Rai field lying to the north of the city on January 28, 1906. Starting with fifty-eight charter members, it has since received eight by letter and eighteen on confession, and reports a total of eighty-four members, with three chapels and regular services in six other villages, one of which plans to build a chapel soon. Nine catechumens are enrolled, one of whom was the former head-priest of Chieng Sen. The new church seems to promise vigorous and rapid growth.

Chieng Tung Church.—This church was organized a little later with sixteen charter members, and eight have since been added on confession, making a total of twenty-four in all, which includes besides three Europeans and two Indians, representatives of nearly every branch of the Laos people—Youen, Lü, Kun and Tai Nua—a cosmopolitan church.

Chieng Sen Church.—Last year the French overnment forbade the missionaries to visit this church, or even to send to them our printed Sabbath-school helps. In November, 1905, rather than submit to these unjust restrictions, the two elders and most of their people, eight families in all, left their well-built houses, their rice-fields and their beautiful chapel, to make for themselves new homes on the British side of the Me Kong River, where they are free to worship as they choose. Twenty heathen families, rather than part from their honorable Christian neighbors, went with them. In spite of physical difficulties and present disorganization, the situation is one of promise for the future.

Wieng Pa Pao Church.—In April, 1906, the Session of Chieng Rai City Church voted to dismiss eighty-nine of its members to unite with the Wieng Pa Pao Church, and on April 12 this reorganized church, including all Christians within the bounds of Chieng Rai Station, but south and west of the city itself, was launched with a membership of 180, living in some twenty-three villages, in six of which chapels have already been built, with nine elders and three deacons. Four schools, with a total attendance of fifty-one and terms of two to four months, are reported. Eight have been received on confession and eight by letter; eight backsliders have been restored, and eleven catechumens have been received under the care of the church. Mr. White writes:

We spent five very happy weeks among these Christians in the Me Kawn, Nawng Kwang and Muang Fang districts. We found much to encourage us, and their anxiety to provide chapels, their interest in the distribution of Christian literature, and the tried faithfulness of many of the leaders give us great reason for thanksgiving. We regret to have to report dishonesty in handling the Lord's money on the part of two elders and a deacon, and the lapse of two promising catechumens, but we feel assured that the day of better things has begun for Wieng Pa Pao Church. The present total membership is 203.

Chieng Rai Church.—Of this church also Mr. White has had charge since Dr. Briggs left for furlough in America. Dr. and Mrs. Crooks have taken charge of the Sabbath-school, and it has prospered under their hands. They have also spent each Sabbath afternoon, in company with some of the Christians from the city, in adjacent villages. Much Christian literature has been distributed, and often as many as seventy-five have listened to the Gospel story. The gramophone has been used to draw the people together, and the meetings have been followed by visits to the homes. "We urged them to come and visit us, and many have come," says Mrs. Crooks, "and a good deal of our time has been spent in entertaining them when they came." These meetings have been blessed of God and will yet yield large results.

The Christian Endeavor service Sabbath afternoon is entirely under native control and the interest of the young people is intense. Mrs. Vincent has presided at the organ, and she and Mr. Vincent have trained a choir of boys and girls, thus helping to make the church services attractive and helpful. Mrs. Vincent has also given time and thought to developing the women's prayer meeting.

During the year two-thirds of the membership of Chieng Rai Church has been transferred to form the new churches of Nong Leh (fifty-five) and Keng Tung (fifteen), and to the reorganized Pa Pao Church (eighty-nine), so that instead of reporting, as last year, 258 members, it reports but seventy-seven. This means, however, not loss but gain to the work at large.

Muang Pao Church.—West and a little south across the mountains brings us to Muang Pao, the first church in the bounds of Chieng Mai Station, a vigorous, growing Christian community. Again this year it shows a larger proportionate increase than any other church within the bounds of the Station. Twenty-one have been received on confession, and a Sabbath-school of 112 and a church membership of ninety-three are reported.

No little credit is due to Kru Chai Ma for the healthy growth of the church. Although not actively employed as their minister, he is still their leader. As last year, too, the constant touch with the missionaries in Chieng Mai, maintained through the vaccinators, and the medical and evangelistic work of the vaccinators themselves, has had much to do with the steady progress of the work. Twenty-one infants have been baptized, and the contributions reported for the year amount to 118 rupees, a large sum in a community where money is as scarce as it is there.

Chieng Dao Church.—Westward again across high mountains, and directly up the river from Chieng Mai, is Chieng Dao.

The past year some of its leading men have been in the vaccinators' class, and here, as in Muang Pao, the constant touch with the missionaries and the strong Christian community in Chieng Mai have resulted in more vigorous life at home. Seven have been received on confession and several new families have "come in,"

Chieng Mai Church.—The "mother-church" of Laos continues its vigorous growth. It really is not a single church but a group of churches, some of its out-stations being distant from the centre twenty, thirty, even fifty miles. Regular services are maintained in seventeen out-stations, and four parochial schools with a membership of 102 have been maintained. Eighty-three have been received on confession the past year, of which number sixty-one were adult baptisms; thirty-one came by letter, and a total membership of 1,141 and a Sabbath-school attendance of 721 are reported. Contributions for all purposes amounted to 1,201 rupees.

In the care of this large congregation all the missionaries of the Station have given their assistance, especially at and near the city, and the help of faithful native workers during part of the year has accomplished what would otherwise have been beyond our strength and time. The year has given us a nucleus of Christians in two new centres. During the rains, when distant touring was impracticable, Mr. and Mrs. Campbell spent several weeks in visits to each of the more than 100 Christian homes distant not more than four miles from the church. A brief service was held in each, usually with the help of the baby-organ, and in many cases non-Christian as well as Christian neighbors came to listen. Mr. Collins has had the care of the Nong Fan and Ta K1 Quai sections. The interest in the Woman's Missionary Society has been well maintained under Mrs. McKean's leadership.

Me Dawk Deng Church.—Mr. Harris made the usual number of Sunday visits to this church, and Miss Gilson spent a week there, but owing to building operations at the boys' school, Mr. Harris could not make any extended visit. The fall of two prominent members somewhat disheartened the people, but on the whole they have been faithful and zealous. Two native evangelists were employed a part of the year, and four persons united with the church on confession of their faith.

Bethlehem and San Sai Churches.—Both these churches have been under the care of Mr. Collins. He says:

During the year the spiritual condition of both churches has improved. Sabbath attendance has been good, and the people as a whole fairly faithful in their Christian duties. Ten have been received on confession in San Sai and the same number in Bethlehem, and the total membership is now 108 and 102 respectively. Most of the people of Bethlehem Church live in one village, and they have maintained a school for four months in the year without outside assistance; attendance about twenty.

The San Sai people, on the other hand, are scattered in twelve different villages, with too few in any village to maintain a school but the Sabbath congregation often taxes the little chapel, and the people hope to build the coming year.

Me Pu Ka Church.—This "church of the martyrs," as it is rightly called in an inscription on a communion set presented to them by an American physician, had an excellent school for four months with an attendance of thirty-one, largely from heathen homes.

In spite of the pressure of medical work, Dr. McKean, who is in charge of this church, has made them many visits on Sunday. Miss Gilson spent two weeks of her vacation there, and at the close of a month's visit by two evangelists eight were received on confession. The adult membership is now sixty-four.

The Lamphoon Churches.—Lamphoon, Bethel and Wang Moon churches are under the care of Mr. Freeman. The most notable event of the year was the completion and dedication of Lamphoon City Chapel. During the year a considerable number of the members of each of these churches have moved away, either in search of work or of better rice-fields. This movement has been going on for three years and has already taken from the Lamphoon churches about 100 adult members, and nearly as many children, and the end is not yet. Lamphoon Church has received ten on confession, Bethel two and Wang Moon four. The present total membership is: Lamphoon, 117; Bethel, 95, and Wang Moon, 84. Five village schools have been in session for terms of about three months with sixty-one pupils in all.

Lakawn Church.—The past year has been a prosperous one in the Lakawn Church. Twenty-seven have been received on confession, a larger ingathering than for a number of years, and some of them have been cases of unusual interest. Not a few of them have been the direct fruit of evangelistic effort in the hospital; several have been men of unusual intelligence and influence. Six from the boys' school and as many from the girls' school were among the number.

For nearly three years Dr. Wilson has had care of the congregation in the city, and it is with much sadness that we record his determination to resign the work he loves, and in which God has made him a blessing, to younger hands. Dr. Taylor and Mr. Gillies have divided the care of the out-stations. The Bible woman under Mrs. Hansen's care and the woman's club directed by Mrs. Taylor have done good work. As for some years past, Lakawn Church leads all the Laos churches in its gifts in proportion to its membership—a total of 841 rupees from 263 members.

Pre Church.—It will be remembered that Pre has been without a resident missionary the past year, and that the responsibility was from the first thrown upon the elders. Mr. and Mrs. Gillies spent six weeks among them in June and July. They report that on the whole the elders have exercised good judgment and done faithful work, but the aggressive, outreaching work of the church has fallen to a minimum. One of the elders has fallen grievously away, having been tempted into the liquor business. His defection was a sad blow to the Pre Church, nor did it prove other than disastrous, even financially, to himself and to his family.

The elders have found it difficult, in the absence of a missionary, effectively to control the people, especially in times of illness. Four have been received on confession, but a larger number of names than that have been erased from the roll. Both elders and people, without exception, plead for a missionary to reside among them. The church reports a total membership of 157. They have raised 170 ticals and maintained a school for several months.

Nan Church.—The church in Nan also reports a substantial advance, both material and spiritual. The reception of twenty-four members on confession, and the restoration of six who had been under discipline, indicates a very substantial outward growth, and this is indicated also by the increase in all contributions, and especially in that for the new chapel now nearing completion. Spiritual growth is indicated by the united efforts of all at the time of their Laos convention to reach those who as yet know not the truth by united prayer for God's blessing, and by accessions from without. The roll now shows 158 names.

In summing up the church work of the year, we report just 250 received on confession of their faith in Christ, of whom about 156, coming to us from without, received the rite of baptism. We report a total membership of 3,162 in eighteen churches. Save Chieng Sen Church, where special reasons render a report impossible at present, every church reports accessions on confession. From the little band of orphans among the Kamu beyond the Cambodia, whom the French forbid us to visit, we have no report. But God will care for His own, and in His own time open a way of access to them. When last we heard our membership there was ninety-seven, but a larger number had renounced the spirits and desired further instruction and baptism.

LAOS CONVENTIONS.—These conventions were reported somewhat fully in "The Laos News" as they occurred in Nan, in Chieng Rai and in Lakawn. Held at a time of the year when little work is done in the fields, embodying something of the light-hearted good-fellowship that marks native festivals, giving an opportunity to the isolated Christians in distant villages to realize once in the year the meaning of Christian fellowship, these gatherings have become a regular part of the program for the year. In suggesting and developing this fruitful work, Dr. Denman has left us one of the things which will constantly remind us of him till he is able to return.

The missionaries in Lakawn had thought that on account of the hard times it might be best to omit the convention; but the church promptly took it up, and contributions more than sufficient to meet the expenses were promptly forthcoming, neighbors who are not members of the church cheerfully helping to make up the sum required. "The whole meeting," says Dr. Wilson, "was a time of good things from God that refreshed and gladdened us."

"The annual conference," says Mr. Park, in Nan, "proved a blessing to us all. Delegates were present from five out-stations, four coming seven days' journey from Chieng Khun." Dr. Crooks, in Chieng Rai, says: "The gathering was well attended and richly blessed of God. The Christians returned to their villages helped and stimulated. The impressions made were followed up by visits by Mr. White south of the city, and Mr. Vincent to the north."

TOURING AND EVANGELISTIC WORK.—Every member of the Mission has shared to a greater or less extent in this work, but many of them are tied down, especially in Chieng Mai, by various forms of institutional work—schools, hospitals, the Press, literary work, building, etc. Yet where there is a will a way is found. Mr. Collins, though busy in the Press six days in the week, has found time to spend thirty-five Sabbaths in the out-stations of which he has the charge, and has had the pleasure of receiving twenty-four on confession of their faith.

In Chieng Mai, only Mr. Campbell and Mr. Freeman have been free to do any extended touring, and the large amount of work in Bible translation and revision devolving on Mr. Campbell and illness in Mr. Freeman's family have shortened the time they could give to it. Mr. Campbell has made longer tours, but Mr. Freeman has spent in all a longer time in the out-villages. The large ingathering in Muang Pao, Chieng Dao and Me Teng show the results of Mr. Campbell's work there. He and his evangelists have also found entrance into some new villages and two new out-stations have been developed. We all welcome the return of Dr. McGilvary, who for many years has given practically his whole time to this direct, hand-to-hand work—the best evangelist among us despite the weight of years.

In Lakawn, Dr. Taylor has been too closely tied down by the school and building operations to spend much time in touring. He also spent nearly three months in two visits to Chieng Mai and one to Pre on business of the Property Committee. He had the charge of the Muang Nyao field, and made to it several more or less extended visits. Mr. Gillies did not return until March, and June and July were spent in a visit to Pre, which is also under his charge at present. The time Mr. and Mrs. Gillies were able to give to out-village work in Lakawn was therefore limited, although Mr. Gillies managed to visit at least once even the most isolated Christian families and to make their homes the centres for evangelistic effort. He says:

One visit in a year makes little impression, and isolated Christians, two or three days' journey distant from a missionary, are apt to fall in with their heathen neighbors. May we not hope that in the next few years the force of native helpers can be so enlarged that the results we see everywhere in possibility will be actually secured. Our meetings in the out-villages were attended by considerable numbers of outsiders, but there seemed to be little immediate response. The prevalent feeling seemed to be: Christianity is good, but we will not accept it yet.

In Pre, Mr. and Mrs. Gillies visited all villages where there are Christians save one. "Our object," says Mr. Gillies, "was more especially to consult with and encourage the elders, but our meetings were attended by considerable numbers of outsiders."

Mr. and Mrs. Park spent two weeks at Chieng Khun, the most distant out-station of Nan, and received three members on confession there. Crossing over the mountains eastward, they visited the four out-stations north of the city of Nan. Representatives from all of these places were present at the convention in April, and later in the year visits were made both by the Parks and the Barretts to the nearer out-stations.

Chieng Rai Station has set the pace for touring work this year. In season and out of season, in heat and in rains, touring has been done, and the results of the year, in wanderers recalled, in adults and children baptized, in catechumens received, show the fruit of this loving labor. Mr. White spent 117 days in touring. Mr. Vincent does not report the number of days, but seems to have been out quite as much, Dr. Crooks was unable to be away so much, but despite all hindrances he made one long tour and many shorter trips, and his presence in the Station made it possible for the others to be out more constantly. The ladies and children, too, shared in the work.

Mr. White says:

Early in February we packed up our belongings, closed the house and spent five very happy weeks among the Christians south and west of the city. When we stopped for dinner at Me Sooie, several men doing business at the court that day called on us, and gave us urgent invitations to visit their villages. Two said: "Do you not remember us? You gave us tracts in a temple in Chieng Rai?" Since it has been my privilege to receive one of them into full communion. He had confessed Christ in Chieng Mai, but was a backslider.

Baby Elizabeth, "Baby Bilhorn" (the organ), and a magic lantern were irresistible attractions, and wherever they went they had splendid audiences. The chief prince of Muang Fang invited us to his residence to show the pictures, and the immense house was literally packed with his friends and retainers, an orderly and attentive audience. The old prince sat close to the screen, and by his remarks and questions showed that he was not a total stranger to the story of the Christ. I have since learned that Dr. McGilvary and Dr. Dodd had had like opportunities to witness for Christ before this famous old Laos chief.

In Wieng Pa Pao, homes that were closed to us a year ago welcomed their minister, and begged him to hold services with them. Professed Christians in Chieng Mai, these people were attracted to Wieng Pa Pao by the hope of cheap rice, but rice happened that year to be scarcer than ever before in the history of Pa Pao. Several children died, their immediate neighbors would not help them in any way, indeed jeered and persecuted them in endless distressing little ways. They were more than three miles distant from the chapel. It was a glad day for Pa Pao Church when these for whom Christ died returned to the fold.

We found two men over sixty years of age (and therefore exempt) who paid the four tical poll-tax rather than take a heathen oath as to their age. At another village we found a good old deacon, at whose feet we sat and learned. This man is certainly living near the throne; his prayers for the sick and erring ones in the community have had most remarkable answers. An elder with beaming face invited us to come and examine seven catechumens. Poor spirit-ridden people, chased from village to village by the threat to burn their houses over their heads (no mere empty threat, for it is often done), they had fled to the Christians at Wieng Pa Pao, by whom they were gladly received and kindly treated. Altogether this trip, and the year, was a most happy one.

In Keng Tung, the interest of the year's evangelistic work outside the city centred in the work among the illiterate Hill tribes, the Sam Tao and Sam Töen, in Muang Yawng itself, and in a village of seventy houses in the Muang Yawng plain, all of whose people are believed by their neighbors to be possessed of evil spirits.

To Muang Yawng, Mr. Callender made one visit and Dr. Dodd two. Of his experiences there Dr. Dodd says:

Never have I been in any other place where so many people, including the chief himself, expressed such a cordial wish that our Laos Mission establish a Station. I preached in the courthouse to the court, to the second chief in his home, to the common people in their homes, in the market-place, and in our tent.

Mr. Callender says:

The Gospel message was especially appreciated in Muang Yawng. Never before had I such opportunity to present the Gospel to a people eager to hear and to take our literature. Already several from that city have accepted Christ and others seem almost persuaded.

The witch village mentioned above is near Muang Yawng City. Dr. Dodd made them two visits and Elder Kan one. On his second tour Mr. Dodd found one family fully convinced and ready to confess Christ. The Raja (head man of the village) says that he prays to Jesus every day and that his house is free from demons, but he has not yet fully cut loose from Buddhism. There are many others in the village who are in about the same position. They desire Christ's power over demons, but they are not yet ready for a full surrender to Him.

One family only had the courage to ask us to tear down all vestiges of demon worship and hold Christian services in their house. The husband in this household and another who seems an earnest inquirer came back with us to Keng Tung, and are to go with us as carriers to annual meeting. We pray that on their return they may be able to dispel the fears of their fellow-villagers, and that many may be delivered from their present bondage of Satan.

Dr. Dodd took a tour among the Sam Tao last year. At that time, an official having nominal jurisdiction over ten villages told him that if no obstacle was placed in his way by the Keng Tung officials, he would accept Christianity himself and bring the ten villages with him. Messrs. Dodd and Callender each made a tour into that district this year, but although they took with them a proclamation of religious liberty, this official seemed to avoid them. However, all ten villages were visited, and the missionaries were cordially received everywhere. The people now understand that they are at liberty to accept or reject Christianity without interference from the Government. The women and children among the Sam Tao are exceedingly shy, and at first they would not come near Mrs. Dodd, but gradually their fears were allayed and they came to see the pictures and listen to the Gospel story. Only a woman can win their confidence, and the missionary children, their toys and the organ proved most helpful accessories.

The Buddhist monks refused to accept Christian literature; the Sam Tao are most conservative, orthodox Buddhists and venerate the monks; so only now and then would they accept literature. But heart-to-heart talks with individuals revealed deep interest and a sincere desire to know the truth. One head-monk frankly admitted that the people did not believe as of old; he expressed the belief that they will accept Christianity in large numbers in the not distant future.

"For immediate results," says Mr. Dodd, "a tour I once took in Lamphoon surpassed this one; but for immediate and prospective fruit combined, this was the best tour of my life."

Evangelistic work in and near the city of Keng Tung was carried on throughout the year as strength and opportunity were given. Especial interest was developed in a village a few miles northeast of the city. The loving care for a man ill unto death with chronic dysentery displayed both by the missionaries and the native Christians made a profound impression on his relatives and friends. For a time it seemed as if Hoa Sam would recover. He at least died in the faith of the Son of God, and his friends since have shown their gratitude in many ways. We trust they, too, will be led to Hoa Sam's Saviour.

This year, as last, many who have come from places many days' journey distant in every direction on trading expeditions were met in the bazaar. One who could read our literature told us that our written character was in use as far north of Keng Tung as Raheng is to the south, nearly 400 miles. One feature of the work in the bazaar chapel was the quiet talks with those already interested, coming from far, it may be, the third or fourth time.

MEDICAL WORK.—As Dr. Taylor well says in the Lakawn report: "In relieving the sufferings of the sick, the way is open to preach the Gospel of God's love to hearts freed from prejudice by the touch of a loving hand." Some instances, illustrating the possibilities of evangelistic work in the hospital wards, have already been given under the heading "Lakawn Church." Here is another:

Far to the north of Lakawn City, in a small village on the borders of the province, a man welcomed our evangelists as Christian brothers. Some eight years ago, he had received tracts and portions of Scripture at the hospital, and ever since, he says, he has been trying to do just as the doctor taught him. So hundreds, even thousands, each year come under Christian influences for a greater or less length of time at each of our hospitals. Who can tell what shall be the harvest of this daily effort among the more than 30,000 who came to our dispensaries for medicines the past year, or the nearly 800 who were tenderly cared for in the wards of our hospitals?

It should be remembered that neither the past year, nor any year for some years past, have any of our hospitals and dispensaries drawn from the treasury of the Board anything, either for running expenses, for drugs, or for buildings. The Board pays only the salaries of the physicians in charge. The only exception has been in the new Station in Keng Tung, and there, although we have no physician, sales of medicine amounted to 211 rupees ($70).

In spite of the medicines and medical care freely given to all who are unable to pay, and despite the increasing number of opium outcasts and other poor unfortunates, blind, lame, hopelessly ill, who manage to crawl to the hospital gate, or are abandoned there by relatives, Chieng Mai Hospital continues to pay its way.

How to be merciful and yet not be imposed upon by the "baser sort" is as yet an unsolved problem. Dr. McKean is still seeking the co-operation of the Siamese Government in establishing a leper asylum, and progress has been made. We hope to report more definitely another year. Meantime, both in Chieng Mai and in Lakawn, missionaries and other foreign residents, as well as princes, merchants and our Christian people, subscribed to give blankets, clothing and food to some of these poor unfortunates.

The vaccinating work, reported somewhat fully last year, has continued along the same lines. An important feature of the work is that while these 140 Christian men gain an adequate livelihood in this way, and incidentally do not a little voluntary evangelistic work, the physician is able to train them in the use of the simpler remedies and remedial measures. Some of them have become quite skillful, and a corps of Christian native physicians, imperfectly trained it is true, but infinitely superior to the native doctors of the old régime, is being trained up.

At Chieng Mai, Lakawn, Nan and Chieng Rai we have dispensaries and hospitals under the direct charge of a missionary physician. Reports are more or less incomplete, but where estimated are probably under rather than over the mark:

|-----------------------------------------------------------|--------|
| Attendance at the four dispensaries named, over | 25,000 |
| Calls made by the physicians, about | 1,200 |
| Patients cared for in the hospitals, about | 800 |
| Operations performed (Lakawn, 240), probably. | 600 |

In addition, in Lamphoon, Pre and Keng Tung are dispensaries in charge of the Mission, and doing not a little to relieve suffering, but without a resident physician. Chieng Rai has branch dispensaries in fourteen villages, where the more common remedies are kept on hand in reach of the people at all times. The plan is working well. Definite statistics cannot be given, because only a cash account is kept with these branch dispensaries, but they help the missionary and the Christian people in many ways. Attendances in these village dispensaries are estimated at 2,500, in Keng Tung at 2,000, in Lamphoon at 4,000, and Pre would probably add 2,000 more. The total attendances for the Mission, therefore, were fully 35,000, probably more. As most of the vaccinators and some others kept on hand a stock of the simpler medicines and made free use of them, a very much larger number of patients in all than 35,000 received the benefits of foreign medicine through our medical work.

BOARDING SCHOOLS.—While the other Stations have at times made arrangements for boarding pupils from out-villages, who only in that way could receive the benefit of the Station school, the Mission has authorized boarding schools only in Chieng Mai and in Lakawn. In Chieng Mai, both the boys' and girls' schools held their regular sessions, but in Lakawn, on account of lack of funds, they were obliged to refuse boarders during the Fall term. Dr. Taylor says:

In Lakawn there are about 300 baptized children, much the larger part of whom are in the country, too much scattered to make parochial schools practicable. We are not doing for these children what we should unless we give them an opportunity that they can avail themselves of, that is within their means to attend the boarding schools.

Much the same might be said in all Stations, but the poverty of the people in Lakawn Province probably renders the problem especially difficult there.

Chieng Mai Boys' School.—The laying of the cornerstone of the new recitation hall by the Crown Prince of Siam during his visit in January, 1906, has been abundantly reported and illustrated in the home magazines. At that time the Prince was pleased to give to it the name of "The Prince Royal's College." We wish that the grade of its work entitles it to bear so high a title. A college, in the full sense, we ought to have; and Mr. Harris and Miss Gilson are doing their best, with the loyal help of the native teachers, to raise the grade of the work done; but colleges, like cities, are not built in a day.

Throughout the year, a large share of Mr. Harris' time has been taken up with building. The principal's house was completed in June and at once occupied. Not many days after, the high wind caught the still incomplete frame of the recitation hall and leveled it with the ground. It had been Mr. Harris' hope to occupy it in the Fall, but although Lakawn kindly allowed Mr. Taylor to come and help for six weeks, November 1 saw it but little farther advanced than when it fell. It is now nearing completion, and much of the material for the permanent dormitory is now on hand. The school has been in session eight months the past year; we hope next year to make it nine months. Sixty-seven boys were enrolled during the Spring, and fifty during the Fall session.

With the help of a new Siamese teacher and of Miss Gilson, who has assisted in the school the entire year, the courses both in Siamese and in English have been much broadened, and there has been an excellent spirit in both teachers and pupils. Mr. Harris and the school look forward with high anticipations to the help of Mr. and Mrs. Palmer who have just come.

Girls' School.—Under the principalship of Miss Buck the girls' school has made good progress. Industrial training has been made more prominent. The monetary value may not be great, but its moral value is very large. It also helps the poorer girls to do something toward meeting their financial obligations to the school. English has been introduced in all grades and has increased the popularity of the school. Miss Gilson has continued to give instruction in instrumental music, with a view of furnishing organists as fast as the out-stations can supply themselves with organs. Forty-six were enrolled during the first term, and forty-five the second.

Lakawn Boys' School.—During January, as the preceding year, the boys were admitted as day-pupils to the girls' school; but as soon as their building could be made habitable, Mr. Taylor began with an attendance of about fifty, which kept up well during the year.

It was cause of great regret to all that the boarding boys, all from our Christian families in the country, and who exercised a wholesome influence on the whole school, could not be called for the second term on account of lack of funds. The day-school attendance the second term averaged twenty-six; enrollment about forty.

Girls' School.—The total enrollment of the girls' school the first term was seventy-one, twenty of them boarders. But owing to lack of means, after April the boarders had to be sent home and the enrollment the second term fell to thirty-eight, all day-pupils. Classes were doubled up and one teacher dismissed. In this way appropriations were not overrun, but it was pitiful to have to turn away the country girls who came eager to be received. Miss Carothers says:

We would plead for the boarding school. It is by coming in daily contact with the girls that we are able to make a lasting impression on their lives and win them for Christ. With a famine pending the people can give little, and we must appeal to friends in America for money to carry on the school. In our building is room for a school four times as great.

VILLAGE SCHOOLS.—Besides the day-pupils in boarding schools, twenty-two primary schools, most of them conducted by the native people and entirely supported by them, are reported. The total enrollment of these schools is 409.

We are doing something in the way of primary instruction, but we are still very far from the expressed aim of the Mission, "An elementary school within the reach of every Laos Christian child." Some of these village schools have been doing excellent work. The teachers of most of them are former pupils in our boarding schools. The daily sessions and the terms are often short; attendance is sometimes irregular, but even thus much good is done.

TRAINING CLASSES.—The usual autumn session of the class for Christian workers was held in Chieng Mai. Eighty-three were in attendance, including four native ministers and licentiates and twenty elders. Ten churches and thirty-five villages were represented. This training class was admirably supplemented by the instruction given during the four sessions of the "Vaccinators' Class," which enrolled 140 and included most of those who attended the training class in September. The Mission at its last meeting had urged each Station to hold one or more such classes during the year, but only Nan reports having done so. Immediately preceding the annual conference in April, this Station held a well-attended class for five evenings, which will we hope prove the forerunner of a training class for two weeks or more each year.

WOMAN'S WORK.—As one of the missionaries well says: "Besides her own specific work, my wife was my efficient helper in all my work." The greater part of woman's work is unrecorded. Still nearly every woman in the Mission has some specific work. Mrs. McKean is the efficient editor of our Laos monthly paper, and much of its matter is from her pen. The publication of "Chundra Lela: A Tale of Indian Life," translated by Mrs. McKean, marks the completion of a long task and the beginning of a Laos literature, Christian, but at the same time attractive apart from its religious teaching.

Mrs. Campbell in Chieng Mai, Mrs. White in Chieng Rai, Mrs. Dodd in Keng Tung, and Mr. and Mrs. Barrett in Nan have each given much time and strength to the oversight of the Station day-school. Mrs. Gillies took charge of the boys' school in Lakawn for two months during the absence of Dr. Taylor in Chieng Mai and in Pre. Miss Wilson also took the girls' school in Lakawn, while Miss Carothers went to Bangkok to meet Miss Van Vranken.

The development of the native gift of the Laos people for music is mainly the work of the ladies. Miss Wilson in Lakawn and Mrs. Vincent in Chieng Rai have spent much time in drilling choirs that have done much to make the services of the church attractive and helpful. They and others who have drilled the children in the schools and the members of the training classes have rendered a like service to the people of our out-stations. The Gospel in song makes its way where preaching does not.

Many of the ladies have made itinerating trips with their husbands, and, as Mr. Dodd reports in Keng Tung, among the timid, shy women and children of the Sam Tăo: "Only a woman could win these women and children, and the missionary's children and their toys and the organ are most helpful accessories." Mrs. White and Elizabeth spent "a happy five weeks" with Mr. White in fruitful out-village work. Mrs. Park spent more than two months in a trip that included most of the Stations of the Mission and visited the distant out-stations of Nan. "There was not a village which did not receive them kindly and listen attentively." Mrs. Gillies spent six weeks with Mr. Gillies in a tour in Pre which reached every Christian village but one in the province.

Mention has already been made of Miss Gilson's tours to Me Dawk Deng and Me Pu Ka churches. In Chieng Rai, too, Mrs. Vincent spent three weeks in villages belonging to Nong Leh Church with the children, while Mr. Vincent was busy in house-building in the city. She conducted school for the children and Bible-study classes for the women in each of three villages. Mrs. Freeman in Lamphoon has carried on her work for the women in a different way. Rather than take the children out with her, she rode back and forth while the weather permitted and, with the help of a Bible woman, carried on weekly classes for the women in seven different villages. Mrs. Hansen in Lakawn, too, directed the work of one or more Bible women.

LITERARY WORK AND THE PRESS.—Mention has already been made of the Laos paper. Under Mrs. McKean's care the number of contributors, both native and among the missionaries, has increased. A necessary increase in the price has somewhat diminished its subscription roll, but it is winning its way. Dr. Denman prepared the material for the July "Laos News," but with his departure for America the editorial work passed to Mr. Gillies.

No account of the year's work that did not dwell on Bible translation would be complete. Besides some new editions called for, Ruth, Isaiah, Jonah, Galatians, Colossians, Philemon, First and Second Peter, First, Second and Third John, and Jude have all been issued for the first time. Greater progress has been made than in any preceding year, but one-fourth of the New Testament and three-fourths of the Old are yet to be translated ere the Laos people can have the whole Bible in their own tongue. Revised editions of some of our tracts have been issued; a "Harmony of the Gospels," by Mr. Irwin, a "First Reader" ("Bep Rien Rio"), transliterated with some necessary changes from the Siamese, and "Chundra Lela," the story of Indian life, translated by Mrs. McKean and already spoken of, were the main new issues for the year.

During the year the Press moved into larger quarters, those vacated by the boys' school. A new motor has been installed which, as soon as it works satisfactorily, promises to facilitate very much the work of the Press. The manager, Mr. Collins, reports for the year:

Number of pages printed:

| | | | |
|---------------------------------|----------------|-----------|---------------------|
| For the Bible Society | 418,000 pages. | Last year | 232,000 |
| For the Mission | 1,004,000 | " " | 1,515,000 |
| Jobwork | 1,930,000 | " " | 1,860,000 |
| Total | 3,352,000 | " | Last year 3,607,000 |

The total receipts of the Press for the year have been 29,183 rupees, somewhat over $9,000 in gold. The large edition of the Hymnal last year, itself amounting to over 600,000 pages, made the total of last year somewhat greater than this. Otherwise the work of the year just past was larger. We constantly do printing in three languages—Laos, Siamese and English.

PERSONNEL.—We record with pleasure the coming of Miss Van Vranken to fill the place left vacant by the death of Miss Fleeson in Lakawn. The arrival of Dr. Mason and Mrs. Mason in Chieng Mai grants what the Mission has long asked, a second physician to make systematic medical instruction possible, and relieve Dr. McKean from a burden that is telling on him severely. The coming of Mr. and Mrs. Palmer will, we hope, make possible in the near future academical, if not real college work in the boys' school. The new missionaries arrived after November 1, but their coming really belongs to the year that is past. We welcome them to a growing work and a great opportunity.

Before the last annual report was written, Mrs. Irwin had gone to America in search of the health she could not regain here on the field. Mr. Irwin left in January to rejoin her, and with him went Mrs. Denman and her little daughter. Dr. Denman remained behind, hoping that the condition of Mrs. Denman's health would be such as would enable him to remain until Dr. Peoples arrived. In this he was disappointed. Immediately on her arrival in San Francisco, Mrs. Denman had to undergo a serious operation. Although she bore it well and recovered well, both the Board and the Mission felt that Dr. Denman's request to join her was only reasonable. As it became painfully evident that the health conditions of both Mrs. Irwin and Mrs. Denman would compel an indefinite stay in the homeland, their husbands were sorrowfully led to resign. Both the Board and the Mission deeply regret the loss of these faithful men and their wives. The Mission report says:

Not the gentlemen only, but the wives as well have done service the Mission will not soon forget, and won the heartfelt love of the people to whom they ministered. "The Laos News," the annual Laos conventions, and "The Mission Manual" are some of the things we as a Mission owe to Dr. Denman's efforts. If we cannot so readily point to specific results of Mr. Irwin's service, it is not because it was less efficient. More perhaps than almost any one else among us, he had the gift of teaching our native helpers, and making of them "workmen that need not be ashamed."

Dr. McGilvary also, after twelve years of continuous service, was called to America by the illness of Mrs. McGilvary. We rejoice to know that Mrs. McGilvary so improved that she was able to return to Laos with her beloved husband. Dr. and Mrs. Peoples also returned to the field after a well-deserved furlough. Dr. and Mrs. Briggs, who left on furlough last June, are now the only members of the Mission in America. Dr. Briggs arrived quite ill, but his health is now steadily improving. Mr. and Mrs. Freeman were sorely bereaved by the death of their little daughter Margaret.

STATISTICS.—The following is a brief statistical summary for the year.

Missionaries.—Men, ordained, 15; physicians (one ordained), 6; total, 21. Women, wives, 20; single ladies, 5; total, 25. Total missionaries, 46.

Native Helpers.—Ordained, 5; licentiates, 2; evangelists, 16. Teachers, men, 17; women, 16; Bible women, 3. Other helpers, 16. Total reported native helpers, 72.

N.B.—Only a part of these helpers are paid out of foreign funds.

Church Statistics.—Organized churches, 18; places of regular worship (Stations and out-stations), 70; communicants, total, 3,168; received on confession, 252. Sunday-schools, 68; Sunday-school pupils, 2,614.

Educational.—Boarding schools, 4; pupils, boys, 123; girls, 117. Day-schools, 22; pupils enrolled, 409. Total pupils, 649.

SOUTH AMERICA

MISSIONS IN BRAZIL.

The same careful and capable student of affairs in Brazil, whose opinion was quoted in last year's report, has furnished the following summary of the general situation in Brazil at the present time.

Politically and commercially, Brazil seems to be awakening. It is beginning to see that it can no longer be bound down by the traditions of poor little Portugal; that it really has an important place among the nations of the earth, by reason of its immense possessions, its great natural riches and the extent of its fertile lands; that the world is too crowded to allow them to hold this undeveloped on the dog-in-the-manger plan. The narrow Jacobinistic spirit is very slowly but surely giving way to the broader and more tolerant spirit of our own country.

Socially and religiously Brazil is still under a strong adverse pressure. Perhaps in no part of the world and at no time in its history has the Roman Church made a stronger or more effective campaign against the broadening of a nation, the development of the sense of personal and national responsibility, than she is making in Brazil to-day. A thoroughly organized, completely equipped and skillfully directed campaign is being made in all parts of the country, lacking neither money nor men, enlisting all the numerous agencies of the Church—monks, priests, nuns, hospitals, asylums, schools and social and political organizations. Canons and high dignitaries of the Church may be found in both houses of State and national Congress and among governors of States. The Pope is flattering the rich with trumpety titles of nobility, with hereditary and military honors and sending his portrait with autograph dedication to prominent men, granting indulgences for a lifetime, etc.

The last President of the Republic was completely under the influence of the new Brazilian Cardinal in all matters that even indirectly affected the Church, and the present incumbent is likely to follow in the same direction, as both were for years resident pupils of the great Jesuit school at Caracas. Some of the clear-headed men of the country see the danger of these retrograde influences, but are powerless to check them. We may safely trust to a natural reaction. This state of affairs directly affects us and obliges us to be vigilant. We are the objects of their special attention; this and the quality of our work are the only advertisement we have. It also affects the Protestant churches, and under the pressure they grow and flourish.

Politically and commercially, and socially too, the event of the year was the meeting of the Pan-American Congress in Rio. The friendly gathering together of delegates of rival nations, the free discussion of vexed international questions, though purely academic, the opportunity it afforded the delegates of other American States of seeing something of the wonderful natural resources of Brazil, see the warm-heartedness of the people in Brazil and enjoy her generous hospitality, were all educative in the highest degree. It also gave the people of this part of Brazil an opportunity of meeting some really representative North Americans. The influence of the Congress in itself would have been productive of good, though more transitory if detached from the striking personality of our Secretary of State, Mr. Root. His attitude and speeches, representing the best sentiment of our country, setting up a standard of political ethics above all Latin tradition, produced a lasting impression. His wisdom, tact, and frankness in treating of delicate questions made friends for our country.

Another event of no small significance was the meeting of the First National Congress of Education. Its meetings continued for three months. The States were chiefly represented by their Congressmen, but many of the prominent educators of the country took part in the discussions.

The country at large has made some advance towards a real Republic, though in most of the States the people take no interest in politics and things are left in the hands of corrupt political bosses. Elections are still a farce, with here and there an exception. The middle and northern States are very poor. They have no influx of foreigners and the native population drifts south. Public funds are derived from taxes levied on goods from other States and export duties on goods sent abroad. In spite of this localistic poverty there is a considerable balance of trade in favor of Brazil, due, however, to its two high-grade exports, coffee and rubber.

The Independent movement still continues, although at the last meeting of the Synod action was taken advising the withdrawal of all church members from the secret organizations, which constituted one of the grounds for the withdrawal of the Independents from the Synod. Both the Synod and the Independents have grown steadily. The churches connected with the Synod now number 7,580 communicants, with seventy-five churches and congregations. The Independents claim 3,500 communicants. The relations between the two bodies are still strained, the organ of the Independents having raised the question as to whether or not the baptisms celebrated by ministers of the Synod should be accepted. The Independent movement is weak in the North.

CENTRAL BRAZIL MISSION.

CACHOEIRA: founded 1873; 45 miles west of Bahia. Missionaries—Rev. H. J. McCall, Mrs. H. J. McCall, Mr. Burr Gould Eells, Mrs. Eells, Miss Belle McPherson and Miss Elsa Cory.

VILLA NOVA DA RAINHA: founded 1900; 250 miles north of Bahia. Missionaries—Rev. Pierce A. Chamberlain and Mrs. Chamberlain.

ESTANCIA: founded 1902; 180 miles northeast of Bahia. Missionaries—Rev. C. E. Bixler and Mrs. Bixler.

SERTAO: founded 1906, at Ponte Nova (P.O. address, Lençoes), 230 miles west of Bahia. Missionaries—Rev. W. A. Waddell, D.D., and Mrs. Waddell. Substation: S. Joao do Paraguassú—Miss Williamson. At Porto da Santa Maria da Victoria—Rev. W. E. Finley and Mrs. Finley.

IN THE UNITED STATES: Rev. C. E. Bixler, Mrs. Bixler and Mrs. Finley.

The field of the Central Brazil Mission naturally divides itself into three districts: one comprises the State of Sergipe, with the independent parish of Aracaju, Larangeiras and Lavandeiras, together with the Station of Estancia; the second is the remainder of the coast, lying in the State of Bahia, comprising the large and flourishing congregations of Bahia City, Cachoeira and Cannavieiras, all three of which now have or have called native pastors, and includes as well little groups in various localities adjacent to the larger parishes; the third is the vast interior (sertao) region, including the district of the Villa Nova Station, the diamond districts, or Lavras, and the Sao Francisco Valley, which latter includes part of the States of Minas and Goyas. The 400,000 square miles of territory contain 3,000,000 inhabitants.

From every section of the field come encouraging reports of results accomplished and of bright promises for the future. The number of persons received on profession of faith for the seventh consecutive year exceeds that of the preceding years. An epoch in our history is marked by (1) the installation of the native pastor in Cannavieiras, (2) the call issued by the Cachoeira church, and (3) the formation of the Bahia-Sergipe Presbytery, authorized by the Synod in July. The last one of the older Stations, Cachoeira, thus passes to Brazilians; and the Mission advances toward the interior with its grand opportunities. With small and ever-decreasing expense in support of these pastors, the Mission is covering nearly all the territory reached by missionary effort seven years ago, while the present force is free to carry the Gospel to new fields.

There is an ever-growing healthful desire on the part of the native Church to secure its independent national existence and to assume its legitimate responsibilities and obligations, both evangelistic and financial. Large contributions have been made for Home Missions, Church Erection and Education. There is a cordial and helpful relationship between the missionaries and native pastors. The year 1907 will see on the field four of these young pastors, the very best product of Brazil, men of broad scholarship and of devout faith. The sacrifices they have made in leaving the work in the south to take up the less remunerative and more arduous life here is one of the most hopeful signs of the times. Rev. Mattathias Gomes dos Santos, of Bahia, has done valiant service in visiting the Aracaju and Ponte Nova fields, in his controversial writings, and especially by his conciliatory attitude toward the independent movement on the floor of the Synod.

Rome has not been inactive during the year; but she has had to explain as usual the misconduct of many friars and priests, and therefore has not harmed or hindered our work. Missions conducted by traveling friars in many parts of the field have stirred up a temporary antagonism among the lower classes; but their opposition to civil marriages alienates the law-abiding classes; their counsel to burn Bibles and their base lies about the Protestants discount all their utterances in the minds of the well-informed. In the larger cities generously endowed schools are maintained, demanding a very small fee from pupils; in this way the Church of Rome hopes to retain its prestige. In the interior she still fosters ignorance.

The Mission meeting of 1906 at Ponte Nova, 100 miles by horse from railway for Cachoeira members, 200 miles for others, gave the Mission opportunity to see the conditions of the interior. Native church members from the vicinity had been invited to the special services, and in spite of swollen rivers and bad roads many were present. Some came 100 miles from the Canal district. Others from localities less distant had to swim rivers, at no small risk of life, to be present.

Aracaju-Larangeiras-Lavandeiras.—During the greater part of the year this parish has been without a pastor, the Rev. Manoel Machado having joined the independent movement in April. Thanks to the services of the teacher in the Mission school in Aracaju, Dona Jovina, a strong Sunday-school was continued and the church saved from dissolution. Rev. Mattathias visited the three churches in November and brought back most encouraging reports, especially from Larangeiras, where audiences of 600 to 800 listened to him. He received several on profession of faith and reports many inquirers.

Bahia City.—Pastor, Rev. Mattathias Gomes dos Santos. Under the able direction of its pastor, this church has made good progress. Twenty-five have been received on profession of faith. The attendance at the services has been good and a live Sunday-school of forty children has been conducted by one of the elders of the church. Besides the services in the church in the Mangueira, regular worship has been held at various other points in the city with increasing interest. The members, largely drawn from the poorer classes, have contributed well toward the payment of the debt on their church building, toward pastor's salary and Home Missions. The contributions have amounted to 2,700$000 ($900) this year.

CACHOEIRA STATION.

This Station includes the work at Cannavieiras, Feira de Sta. Anna, S. Amaro do Catul, S. Gonsalo and the Reconcavo.

Cannavieiras.—The remarkable work in this town, which had its origin in the removal of seven members of the Cachoeira church, has gone on in so satisfactory a manner that the church has with some assistance from the Mission installed a Brazilian pastor, and paid for its church building and contributed to missions as well. With only two years of history, this is surely one of the most noteworthy facts in the progress of the Gospel in Brazil. Mr. McCall writes:

In June the Rev. Salomão Barbosa Ferraz was called to the Cannavieiras church. . . . Owing to a change in the date of sailing of his steamer, he did not get there until late in August. It was a great pleasure to turn over the work to him. He is a very spiritual man, intelligent, modest, earnest. The people were captivated by him and services are being largely attended. A letter dated November 11 tells of eight being received on profession of faith. When I first went to Cannavieiras in January, 1905, the church had twenty members. During 1905, seventy were added to the church; this year, twenty-one were added before June. Of the 111, ten have been suspended, dismissed or have died. The contributions until September amounted to over 900$000 ($300).

Cachoeira.—The work in Cachoeira has been especially trying this year. Smallpox has been raging in the whole district for months, and there were cases in many families of the church. The falling of the church building was a hard blow just as they were congratulating themselves on seeing the end of the church debt.

It has not been a year of unmixed trials. God has blessed the work and some twenty-seven have been added to the church—twenty-two by profession and five by letter. Numbers, however, cannot adequately represent spiritual results, and I feel that there has been a real growth in the different branches of the church work. The Christian Endeavor Society has done excellent work.

The Sunday-school is well attended. Mrs. McCall conducts a class for the training of teachers. A spirit of systematic giving has been inculcated in church members, the good results of which appear in the contributions. The reconstruction of the church building is already in progress, and a native pastor, the Rev. José Ozias Gonçalves, has been called to enter on his charge in January, 1907.

There have been some professions of faith in S. Amaro do Catu and S. Gonsalo, in both of which places a good work seems opening up.

VILLA NOVA DA RAINHA STATION.

The Villa Nova field was vacant a little over a year during the period of Mr. Chamberlain's furlough. Four months were spent by Mr. Chamberlain on his return in short trips from Villa Nova to seven villages, during which period eight were received on profession of faith.

In October a mule trip of 500 miles was made in which eighteen towns were visited, in every one of which there is a distinct interest in the Gospel. Twenty were received on profession of faith, twenty-two children baptized and some forty inquirers dealt with.

At Queimadas a disgruntled ex-colporteur has been working insidiously for the independent cause, and three women were received into that church.

In general the older centres of work remained intact with slowly increasing interest. Some newer localities are interested, while new places like Brejo Grande and Cannaveiras (not the coast city) are presenting open doors of great opportunity.

ESTANCIA STATION.

The Estancia field has been vacant the latter half of the year in the absence of Mr. Bixler. The church work at Estancia was entrusted to the native evangelist, who sends glowing reports of large congregations, interested people and numerous inquirers. Contributions to Home Missions have been kept up in good sums. On account of the press of other work none of the missionaries has been able to visit this field; but Mr. McCall expects to go at the beginning of 1907. At least ten members were received by Mr. Bixler previous to his furlough.

SERTAO (INTERIOR) STATION.

Dr. Waddell writes of his field:

The Palmeiras or Lavras field has had a year of steady growth. It is just five years since the Gospel began to be preached in this region, and we now have groups of believers in all four of the diamond-mining county seats. While Palmeiras is much the strongest and only the first fruits have been plucked at S. Joao do Paraguassú, Miss Justice's long labors and Miss Williamson's later efforts have given us a fine beginning there. Fifty children of the best families of the town in Sabbath-school, with a large adult class, is the especially encouraging feature here. The Palmeiras group are building them a neat church, which will give room for their congregation to assemble. At present they have no hall large enough. The Guiné group have found their chapel of great value in holding them together and promoting Christian growth.

Tabocas is a new centre (some forty miles beyond S. Joao), which promises to become the centre of a large congregation. Only two have been received, but fourteen families are interested.

The groups at Orobó and Cachoeirinha have been unprofitable soil this year, because of the unwise actions of some independent missionaries; but by the building of a central church at Orobó it is hoped that the factions of the former district may unite in common worship. Outlying localities in the vicinity of Orobó and new work at Cachoeirinha give promise of good results.

Miss Williamson writes most interesting accounts of her work in S. Joao do Paraguassú, where the lack of social life and the fact that ladies rarely appeared on the street in the day-time made it very difficult to get into relations with them. Some of the expedients employed she describes:

To find an entrance I opened a little Sunday-school in my house. At first I invited only the children of Dona Virginia's school, but shortly after joined with them the children of Miss Justice's school. Hearing that some grown people would like to be present at the services, if invited and guaranteed that no questions would be asked, I gave a general invitation, and changed the manner of teaching. Very soon the number of attendants grew too large for my parlor, and Dona Leonor, daughter of the intendente (mayor), offered her own parlor. To have the services in the house of the intendente strengthened the work at once.

Very shortly after my arrival I accepted the two eldest daughters of Sr. Machado as music pupils, to gain an informal footing in their home.

The influence of the Gospel is healing a bitter quarrel between two families. Little by little kind and pleasant relations are establishing themselves. No word has ever been spoken on the subject. By the same silent influence the question of closing the shops on Sunday is being discussed by the merchants. All desire it except Sr. Propercio, the intendente, who is the greatest diamond dealer and general merchant of the city.

A Monday evening hymn practice is well attended. A sewing class of about twenty young girls was opened in July. From July to October I had the little boys at the house for games. It has gained me the friendship of the parents.

UPPER SAO FRANCISCO.

Mr. Finley reports having traveled 3,500 miles by mule during the year, with constant preaching to large audiences. Carinhanha, in the State of Bahia, and Montes Claros, in Minas Geraes, form the centres of vast districts. In the older section many are anxious to profess their faith. Twenty-two have been received this year. In the newer localities there is great interest everywhere.

EDUCATIONAL WORK.

The educational work of the field in general has been excellent. The parochial and contract schools especially have been most satisfactory. In Aracaju the parochial school and teacher were the means of saving a large part of the congregation when the pastor united with the independents. In Bahia the parochial school has been reorganized by the pastor and has improved immensely.

The S. Felix-Cachoeira school has had a hard year. With the coming of the Brazilian pastor, who has offered his services for some school work, it is hoped that the school may recover some of the ground lost. The Boarding departments, because of the continued financial depression of the district, must be held in abeyance for some time.

The contract schools have done a splendid work this year, giving us an opening in Roman Catholic families and paving a way for grand work, as in S. Joao do Paraguassú, where two schools are maintained at an expense to the patrons of over $2,000, to the Mission practically nothing. As a result of this influence, we have received our first convert there this year.

The co-operative school plan which has been tried experimentally on a small scale this year at Ponte Nova seems to be solving the problem of supplying the cheap teachers required in the interior. Dr. Waddell reports:

The class was taught by a Brazilian teacher whose salary was the sole expense to the Mission. Mrs. Waddell superintended the work which was carried on in her home. The girls were all of an age to have serious purpose. All took an equal share in all kinds of housework. No servants were kept. Some of the girls were taken free. The expenses of others were borne by their fathers. It was found that taking a reasonable number of girls at 20$000 a month—a price easily obtainable—the expense to the Mission would be reduced to a small fraction of the teacher's salary.

Dr. Waddell, after six and a half years of faithful service as Superintendent of Schools, has been succeeded by Mr. Eells.

SOUTHERN BRAZIL MISSION.

RIO DE JANEIRO: capital of the Republic; population 500,000; occupied as a Mission station 1860. Rev. M. A. Menezes.

EAST RIO STATION, NOVO FRIBURGO: 60 miles east of Rio; occupied as a Mission station in 1891. Missionaries—Rev. J. M. Kyle, D.D., and Mrs. Kyle.

CASTRO: opened as a Mission station 1895. Missionaries—Rev. G. L. Bickerstaph and Mrs. Bickerstaph.

SAO PAULO: 300 miles west-southwest of Rio; capital of the State of the same name; population 125,000; occupied as a Mission station in 1863. Missionary—H. M. Lane, M.D., Rev. M. P. B. Carvalhosa.

CURITYBA: about 300 miles southwest of Sao Paulo; the capital of the State of Parana. Missionaries—Rev. G. A. Landes and Mrs. Landes, Miss Ella Kuhl, Miss Mary P. Dascomb, Miss E. R. Lenington and Rev. Lino da Costa.

FLORIANAPOLIS: Missionaries—Rev. R. F. Lenington and Mrs. Lenington, Rev. J. B. Kolb and Mrs. Kolb.

The work of the Southern Brazil Mission lies in the States of Rio, San Paulo, Parana, and Santa Catharina. The work of the Mission in these States, especially San Paulo, both through educational and evangelistic agencies, has made a real impress upon the nation and the people.

This State of San Paulo increases in population and wealth. It produces this year more than 15,000,000 bags of coffee. Its great coffee estates have an aggregate of about 600,000,000 bearing trees. Its manufactures and public enterprises exceed those of all the rest of the Republic. It has more railways, spends more money on education and advances in all directions more than any other State of the Union. Socially it is also in the lead. Women are here more respected, very early marriages are rarer, public morals are better and the judiciary is purer.

Protestantism is a recognized force. In spite of the internal dissensions the Protestant Church grow in numbers, and this body of men and women who fear God and keep His commandments (after their own fashion) exerts a powerful elevating and purifying influence in political as well as social life. Many of the public men of to-day were educated in our schools. The editors of two of the leading daily papers were educated by us. Many of the mothers of young men now coming to the front in political, professional, and commercial life were educated in our Girls' School under Misses Dascomb and Kuhl, the veteran educators of the Presbyterian Board. May we not justly claim to have done something to produce this better state of affairs, noticed by all who visit San Paulo? We are credited with it by the best people and it is placed to our debit by the ultramontane element of the Roman Catholic Church. The first Presbyterian missionaries, in selecting San Paulo for the seat of their educational work, builded better than they knew.

The report of the Mission states of the general religious conditions in the field:

We encounter not only the present false teachings of the Romish Church, but the results of her false teachings for the last 300 years; which teachings have made many atheists, materialists, and a host of people who do not know what they believe. Many have gone off into Spiritualism. Most intelligent persons in the country are very shy of all religions, realizing that they have been so cruelly cheated by the Church which claims to be The Church.

In most mission fields the hope of the cause of the Gospel depends on getting the youth of the country trained in the Gospel truth. This, it seems to us, is especially true in Brazil. The fathers and forefathers of these people were brought up and trained in the religious, economic, and civil life of the Romish Church; in all of which the main idea has been to keep the great majority in ignorance and superstition.

If some other instructors and guides are not furnished to the present youth of the country, they too will be left in the same condition of ignorance and in the same religious, economic and civil life.

That something should be done at once in this line is evident from the fact that monks, priests and nuns, who are being expelled from France, Italy and the Philippines, are coming into Brazil by the hundreds and are establishing schools and colleges in almost every State. They see the opportunity here in Brazil of getting the youth under their care and guidance and they are making good use of the opportunity. In every State that our Mission represents these orders are at work. They have a large three-story building in Curityba; in Santa Catharina they are building on a still larger scale, and get help from the Government; in Novo Friburgo they are putting up a large building and have already under their instruction 400 students. These orders of the Roman Catholic Church come with money and make propositions to the General or State Government to use their money in such and such institutions of education if the Government will help with a certain amount, and often it does. This is the case in Santa Catharina. Thus the Government is helping to keep the youth of Brazil under the teaching of the Jesuits and other orders of the Roman Catholic Church. The same privileges, in many cases, would, no doubt, be given to any other Church or to any individual or body of individuals who would come with the means to help forward the cause of education in Brazil. Of course our Church would not wish aid from the Government, but to have the good will of the Government is a great thing, and that it is almost certain could be counted upon.

Brazil has many wealthy men in every State in the Union, and yet there is not, so far as we know, a single college or educational institution in the whole land that is owned or carried on by private capital, except those that are carried on by the various orders of the Roman Catholic Church and the two or three carried on by the Protestant Church in Brazil. There are a number of private schools and small colleges, but none that are on a par with the State Universities or institutions as above mentioned.

We would emphasize Industrial Schools, directed by thorough Christian men and women, as one of the helps most needed by our Church in Brazil.

We have suffered no direct persecution in our field, though there has been some persecution in other parts of Brazil, such as interrupting the public worship and the burning of Bibles. Notwithstanding the separation in our Church in Brazil, brought about by a spirit of intolerance, a few years ago, there is, it seems to me, at present a growing spirit of liberty and tolerance manifesting itself more and more. The uncharitable and intolerant spirit shown by the Independents is beginning to react upon themselves.

It is worth noting also that lately there have appeared several acts on the part of officials in high places that show more of a tendency to respect the law of separation between Church and State, which has been little respected in the past. We have, as a rule, a free press and free speech in Brazil.

EVANGELISTIC.—The work of the Mission is largely evangelistic.

In the East Rio field, represented by Dr. Kyle, there has been a constant increase in the interest for the Gospel. In one place, called Manhuassu, the Gospel has had such an influence that there are now more Protestants than Romanists in the town. Two new churches have been organized in this field. Two Brazilians are employed in this district. The field has no Independents in it. Part of Dr. Kyle's time was spent in helping to get out the new translation of the New Testament. He reports that the four Gospels and the Acts of the Apostles have been translated.

Since Mr. Lenington's return he has made several trips, visiting various places in the State of Santa Catharina. He spent a month with the believers in Sao Francisco and a short time with those at a place called Jordao, where there is an organized congregation of fifty-five members. The work in Sao Francisco has been hindered some by the Independents.

Mr. Bickerstaph made a number of trips through his vast field, visiting twenty or more out-stations or communities of believers. He made one trip of three months to the extreme southern part of the State. The work in Castro and other points has been hindered by the opposition of the Independents and by the Adventists, but both of these are beginning to show signs of weakness. Mr. Bickerstaph, who attended the meeting of the Synod, reports the following action of the Synod in regard to the Masonic question:

"After an animated discussion of the relation of the Church to Freemasonry, it was unanimously resolved to counsel all members of the Church to abstain from 'Freemasonry.' Also another decision that should be noted was as to Home Missions. It was decided that under the present Constitution, the different Presbyteries had full liberty to organize Presbyterial missions for work within their borders, raising and spending money for that purpose as they saw fit."

Mr. Kolb reports the opening of one or two parochial schools in his field. One man became so interested in the Gospel at Camboriu that he stirred up the whole village; so much so that the Vicar of the place called upon him to convince him of the error of his way, but after three hours' work had to give it up and could only threaten his rebellious son of the Church that he would denounce him to the Pope. All was of no avail.

The religious interest in our Church in Curityba and in the city is growing slowly. The Independents treat us with more respect and have ceased to incommode our church members. The contributions of this church for the year were $1,086. It contributed to Home Missions about $270. Seven persons were received on profession of faith and several children were baptized.

In Dr. Kyle's field forty-seven were received on profession of faith.

In Santa Catharina, by Messrs. Kolb, Lino and Lenington, twenty-nine persons were received on profession. Mr. Bickerstaph received on profession twenty-seven persons. The total number received on profession is 110.

EDUCATIONAL.—As Mr. Kolb's report indicates there are some effective parochial schools under the care of the Mission, and the Eschola Americana at Curityba, under the most capable care of Miss Kuhl, Miss Dascomb and Miss Lenington, has continued its remarkable work.

The report of the Curityba school is especially encouraging. It has grown from 160 pupils in 1904 to 226 at present. This increase is more important when we remember that since 1904 there have been opened in Curityba and in various parts of the State quite a number of schools by the nuns and other parties. The pupils are from fourteen nationalities and some six or seven creeds or religions. The interest in the school is apparent from the number of pupils in attendance upon it. The income from the school during the last year was $4,928.

Catholics, Lutherans, Presbyterians, Independents, Adventists and Spiritualists joined in the opening hymn. Children of Brazilians, Americans, English, Germans, Swedes, Spaniards, Italians, Turks, Syrians, Poles, French, Portuguese and Africans came flocking as doves to their windows. Even Iceland was represented. Our number soon went up to 200; before the end of the year there were 226 on our list, besides some who came only for English.

One great reason that our school is successful is that we have trained many of our own teachers. They are perfectly at home in any class and know what is necessary to prepare that class for the next grade. They also work well together, for their love for each other and for us is a love that has borne the strain of years of hard work. Our primary rooms have been unusually full this year.

San Paulo.—The work of the McKenzie College and its affiliated schools has been maintained at a high degree of efficiency. The work is intimately associated with the work of the Board in Brazil, out of which it grew, but is now under its own Board of Trustees, to which Dr. Lane, the President of the institution, reports:

Our Work.—During the year the total enrollment was 684 pupils of both sexes, 249 being girls. Four hundred and seventy-one of this number were of Brazilian parentage, eighty-four of Italian, forty of German, sixteen of Syrian, twelve of American, and the rest of eight different nationalities. One hundred and sixty-six, carefully selected, were entirely free and ninety-three at greatly reduced prices. Under the present administration no less than 10,369 pupils have passed through the different departments of the San Paulo School and College, of whom 2,325 day scholars and 365 boarders were free.

This year we graduated four promising young men from the Civil Engineering course, six from the Higher Commercial course, and thirteen from the Gymnasium or "Maturity" course. Seventeen of our students pursued special courses in American colleges and technical schools, no less than ten in Cornell.

Athletics.—This department of college life, though a growing and very popular element, bid fair to eclipse the legitimate work of the institution. The same questions that are vexing our great home

Universities came up in our little college. Athletics, as an incidental element of value, was losing its educational character and degenerating into ungentlemanly struggle for gate money with clubs and associations in no way connected with education. I was obliged to withdraw the college teams from all outside contests and all connection with leagues. It created almost a revolt, but was carried through and the teams organized on more dignified educational lines.

Our Future.—No man can foresee it. It has a mission and if adequately supported may have much to do with the future of Brazil, both as relates to the advance of Protestant Christianity and the political and social life of the country, advancing American thought and principles of Government. It has already deeply influenced the ideals of the leaders of the people. This no careful observer can fail to recognize. We are doing something in the way of support? Protestantism is growing rapidly in Brazil, not so much in church membership as in belief, in spite of the furious opposition to it. It is really stimulated by it. The number of Protestant children is increasing rapidly also and the legitimate demands upon us to educate them increase in proportion. Instead of four or five schools in the interior, we should have twenty. We are really doing something for these churches, by putting their young men and women on an equal footing with the best of the land. Our work has advanced the knowledge of the English language and opened its literature to a large number of its people.

Last year eighteen of our students were in the United States—ten in Cornell, two in Union, four in the University of Pennsylvania, and two in Wooster, besides one young woman in the Women's Medical College of Philadelphia.

MISSIONS IN CENTRAL AND SOUTH AMERICA.

CHILI MISSION.

SANTIAGO: capital of Chili; population about 250,000, connected by rail with Valparaiso, 187 kilometres distant. Missionaries—Rev. W. H. Lester, Jr., D.D., and Mrs. Lester, Rev. W. B. Boomer and Mrs. Boomer, Rev. W. E. Browning, Ph.D., and Mrs. Browning, Rev. F. Diez and Mrs. Diez; four American teachers in the English Institute and eight other teachers. One out-station, San Fernando; one sub-station.

VALPARAISO: the principal port of Chili; population about 125,000. Missionaries—Rev. C. M. Spining and Mrs. Spining, Miss F. E. Smith, one American lady teacher, Miss Beattie, and five other teachers in the school. One out-station, Vina del Mar.

COPIAPO: capital of the Province of Atacama; population about 8,000. Missionaries—Rev. J. F. Garvin and Mrs. Garvin, Rev. J. H. McLean and Mrs. McLean; three out-stations and many other groups. Out-stations: Tocopilla, Taltal, Chanaral.

TALCA: capital of the province of Talca, south of Santiago 250 kilometres by rail; population about 45,000. Missionaries—Rev. J. S. Smith and Mrs. Smith. Out-stations: Chillan, Concepcion, Traiguén, and three other sub-stations.

SANTIAGO STATION.

The field includes the four provinces of Santiago, O'Higgins, Colchagua and Curico, and regular work has been carried on in the capital, Santiago, Rancagua, San Fernando, the city of Curico and commenced in Nancagua. There are two churches and four other regular meeting places in Santiago, one church in San Fernando and meetings are held in the other three towns.

Between twenty and thirty members of the two churches have continued their voluntary work, aiding in meetings and in visits. Mr. Diez has continued as pastor of the church of the Most Holy Trinity, and Mr. Boomer has been in general charge of the evangelical work of the Station, including the Church of the Redeemer. The same plan of organizing the work of the church that was followed last year has been continued this, viz., by dividing the membership and candidates into sections under leaders who look after their spiritual welfare by means of visits and weekly devotional meetings, and through permanent and temporary committees appointed by the Session for different terms of work. The elders, two of the deacons and the student helpers, afterwards elected elders, have been the section leaders. The sections have been increased to six this year, but as there were but four places for the simultaneous meetings, in two places two sections were accustomed to meet together. Mr. Boomer writes after reporting in detail on the work:

An exact census of Santiago is not at present attainable, but computations based on data worthy of credence place the figure beyond 300,000 if the immediately adjacent suburbs be included, and the city is constantly growing. It is par excellence the city that influences the nation, in almost every line, socially, intellectually, morally, and religiously, as well as politically. There is a constant stream of people coming from every part of the republic to visit or live for a while in the capital—people of all positions in the social scale. From here there is constantly flowing out not only a crowd of the same kind, but the Government functionaries, the military, the clergy, the doctors, dentists, pharmacists, engineers, lawyers and, last but not least for influence, the teachers. There are, roughly speaking, in this city some 7,000 pupils in the higher schools and universities. The wealth of the nation is largely represented here. The fashions and the publications, of a popular as well as of a serious nature, come to light here. The population and influence of Santiago on the life of Chili greatly surpasses that of any other city, and humanly speaking will for a long time be greatly in the ascendancy over any city for more than half the length of the west coast of South America—if we ought not to say on the whole coast. Let it be borne in mind that as for the commercial importance of Valparaiso, and in fact that of any city on the coast of the Western continent south of San Francisco, California, and as for the influence of a city on the destinies of this nation, and to some extent on the future of Peru and Bolivia, there is no city comparable to Santiago on the west coast.

Now if this be so, the Christian Church and Christian missionary must look with special solicitude on this strategic point, and plan to occupy it with an adequate force and one appropriate to the existing conditions. There are three small churches for the foreign communities with as many ministers; four Chilean Protestant churches and six other rented places, besides a few cottage meetings; five ministers and five other workers who give the whole or part of their time to evangelistic work, and three colporteurs, a part only of whose time is occupied in the capital; two permanent church buildings and two houses temporarily arranged for churches plus two small sites; two boarding schools well attended, and two weekly religious papers and the publication of a few tracts annually. This surely is not a very imposing array of workers or equipment for the evangelization of the largest and most important city of the west coast of South America.

It is to be noted that there is much lacking compared with other centres of evangelization at home and abroad. There is no Christian hospital in this city for foreigners or natives, and while the Government provides free hospital service Protestants are so persecuted and poorly treated that many natives are afraid to go to the hospital after becoming evangelicals. There is no Young Men's Christian Association, nor any kind of institution like it doing a work for the multitude of young men who leave home to study for their life's work and for the thousands who make the city their home. There is no distinctive Christian work of any kind for women, except one woman visitor. There are no night or rescue missions, no employment bureaus, no Christian boarding houses, no rooms for lodgers. There are no Christian libraries worth mentioning, nor reading rooms, nor places of meeting outside of religious services; in a word, no institutional work under Christian auspices. There are no parish or Christian day-schools for our growing evangelical community. There is no school in all the country for training Christian workers. And yet we are seeing under our very eyes that the students are federating and the working people are organizing societies and night schools. They are beginning and have already come to a consciousness of their existence and to something of a realization of their power. They have formed a political party, are represented in Congress, have become federated and are waiting for a wise leadership to become a menace or a power for good. The University has come under radical influence; the schools are infidel in their tendencies; the public conscience—or is it rather expediency?—has become aroused on the prevailing intemperance among the lower classes, and a movement has been made towards purifying the corrupt administration of government. A great increase in business has been noted for two years. The Roman Church is making a great effort to recover some of its lost influence. All, all seems to move, and some things for Chili at a giant pace, except the Christian Reformed Church. There has been movement and progress here, too, but it has been so slow for forty years, so little up to the times, so wofully behind the opportunities, that one is tempted to cry again, "How long, O Lord, how long?"

EDUCATIONAL WORK.—Instituto Ingles.—Dr. Browning reports:

The matriculation during the year reached the highest figure in the history of the school—350. The average attendance, however, was but little, if any, superior to that of 1905, when but 294 students were enrolled. Two hundred boys were turned away because of lack of accommodations in the boarding department. And this in spite of the fact that it was announced through the daily press that there was no room and that no one need apply. It may be said that the Instituto Ingles has reached the point in its history where it is not necessary to advertise to any great extent, and that our number of students may be as large or as small as we care to make it. This also means that the best or most worthy may be chosen from among the applicants, thus raising the tone of the school from year to year.

In this connection it may be said that there is no finer body of students in the capital of Chili, and probably in the entire republic, than those of the Instituto Ingles, as is very evident when they are in a position to be compared with those of other schools. On all such occasions, the clearness of eye, the manly bearing, their treatment of others, the esprit de corps among themselves, their affection for and interest in their own school, their enthusiasm and respect for their teachers, the absence of smoking or bad language—at least in public—and their cheerful submission to and upholding of school discipline, show that we have made at least some advance in implanting high ideals in the student body and in our endeavor to help the lads entrusted to our care to look out upon life from a view-point somewhat different from that occupied by the average Chilean boy or young man.

It may be said that school athletics are the only meets of this kind which are not held on Sunday. In this matter the Instituto has led and others have had to follow, if they wished to compete with our students. The schools of the priests, however, have taken little or no part in general school athletics, for the reason that they could not hold the field day on Sunday. In their own schools all such exhibitions are given on that day, and they cannot or will not understand why we will not play foot-ball or hold the athletic games on the same day. Our new students, too, do not at first understand our reasons, but are soon quite willing to enter into the spirit of the school, and no one thinks of arranging a game on Sunday or asking permission to take part in any sport whatever. This means a great deal, if we consider the widespread Sabbath desecration which, as already stated, is encouraged by the priests in their schools and by their own example. The attitude of our boys on this question is one of our encouragements in the work of the Instituto Ingles.

In the work of the classroom during the year we have tried not only to maintain our usual high standard of work, but also to advance. Logic, Political Economy and Trigonometry have been added to the curriculum, and we hope to be able to include other higher studies from year to year. Our course of study is considerably higher than that of any other private school in Chili, except those that follow the schedule of the Government, and in the amount of general knowledge imparted, as well as the branches studied, to say nothing of our more practical methods of instruction, the Instituto Ingles ranks with the best lyceums of the country. Our curriculum is considerably more inclusive than the curricula of the "High Schools" in the United States, although our students do not study either Latin or Greek except as an elective. But the loss in dead languages is more than compensated for by the work done in the modern tongues. Our graduates have been able to enter the Freshman year of the usual college or university of the homeland, and in at least one case the Sophomore year, and with credits to spare. Our diploma and certificates will be accepted in several colleges and universities for admission to the Freshman class.

Our Commercial course, which was carried on as a species of annex to the regular course, has given excellent satisfaction in the preparation of young men for commerce, but it has been decided to suspend it.

Christian work has been carried on much as in former years. Our advanced classes have had the advantage of having Dr. Lester as their teacher in Bible and Logic, and have been very much interested in and benefited by their work. The lower classes were under the charge of Sr. Castro, who is a master hand in the giving of Bible instruction, especially with smaller boys. In these classes the Bible has been in the hands of every boy and he has been obliged to use it. This called forth energetic protests from many of the mothers and a few boys were taken out. In other cases the mother contented herself with taking the boy to mass or confession every morning before sending him to school, hoping thus to ward off the contamination. One father objected to having the Bible taught to his boys and did not care to leave them in the Instituto for that reason, since he believed it to be "Un libro pernicioso." But the fathers in general are indifferent as to the religious teaching to be given to their boys, or are frankly in favor of the Bible as opposed to the priest.

VALPARAISO STATION.

Last year was memorable in the history of Valparaiso Station on account of the scourge of small-pox. This year will go down in history marked by the earthquake. The earthquake this year caused the suspension of all work for a time, and limited the meetings to one day's service per week for a period of two months. When at the end of that time the reign of martial law ceased, the streets were so dark and unsafe that but few found their way to the Escuela Popular. Our congregations were further reduced by the removal of many of the members and adherents to other parts, but on the whole the Church has suffered less than would be expected. Very soon after the earthquake the dangerous part of the walls of the new building were taken down and the end of the building closed in with sheet iron.

Fourteen new members were received during the year, ten on confession of faith. We rejoice, however, in the large number of new faces which have appeared, and the good number who have expressed their desire to become members of the church. A large class will be ready to begin a course of instruction as soon as we are ready to care for it.

Contrary to expectations the financial showing has been better than ever before in the history of the church. It is due simply to the fact that since the earthquake the people have been earning more, and consequently give more.

During the year $1,130 was contributed to the new building, and nearly $3,000 was raised for all purposes. The new church promises to fulfill all expectations. The main floor, seating nearly 500 people, was filled to overflowing on Christmas Eve, and enough people were turned away to have filled the galleries had they been in use. The acoustics of the building are excellent. The average attendance at the evening service, including the four months in the Escuela Popular, during which it was very small, was 175 for the year. Recently our evening audiences have numbered about 200 on ordinary occasions. The Sunday-school has an enrollment of 365.

The work of the Station was made all the heavier by the relief work which it had to take up, and the rebuilding which the earthquake made necessary.

Miss Smith's work has been largely with the women of the church; Mrs. Spining having taken the home visitation for the Escuela Popular, of which Miss Beattie has had charge.

COPIAPO STATION.

Mr. Garvin writes:

We have much to be thankful for, and no right to be discouraged. The outlook is distinctively good all along the line. Our principal centres are four: Tocopilla, the farthest north, Taltal, Chanaral and Copiapo.

Tocopilla, a port of some 6,000 inhabitants, the outlet of eight saltpetre establishments and a considerable number of small copper mines, with another 6,000 to 8,000 of population. In general this population, like most of that in the north of Chili, is exceedingly mobile. A very small percentage own any real estate, and the personal belongings of 90 per cent. of the people is purposely kept at its lowest terms, so as to facilitate migration when it suits them. Of course there is no agriculture in this desert region, with the exception of a few small oases, and naturally no inducement to the people to own land, which is worthless save to the large companies for extracting the nitrate of soda.

Our work is limited to the congregation of the port, a weekly visitation of the neighboring mines, and about one-third of the time of the evangelist in the interior. Free passage is given us on the railway, and it is to be hoped that more time may be given to the interior in the future.

One hundred and ten miles to the south of Tocopilla is Antofagasta, the boom city of the north at the present time. It is said to have 20,000 inhabitants, and its commerce has doubled and trebled within the past twelve months, so that shipping is woefully hampered by the utterly inadequate facilities for discharging cargo. This large and important field is worked by our Methodist Episcopal brethren, and during the past year with considerable success and encouragement.

Taltal, 110 miles farther to the south, with upwards of 10,000 population, is our next centre of work. Next to Iquique and Antofagasta in commercial importance, it should also be our chief centre of operations in the north. Of the eight or nine saltpetre establishments already in operation some are enlarging their productive capacity, and seven or eight others are in construction, and still others projected. There is also no little mining activity, naturally increased by the high price of copper. Here we have a church of some sixty members.

Over 600 pesos has been gathered for the reconstruction of the church building, and there are good prospects of this sum being increased to 2,000 pesos within another six months. Here also is a large colony of English-speaking people, many of them occupied on the railway, but others holding important positions in the saltpetre companies. These residents could easily support a minister, and it is my hope that if our missionary makes Taltal his residence he may be able to help them get a suitable man for the place. Chanaral is a place of less importance, but here are two large smelting works and there are hundreds of small mines in the interior, as well as a few more considerable ones. Chanaral has a population of some 3,000 or 4,000 inhabitants at present, and as many more in the interior. Enrique Reyes, evangelist, is our worker there, and he has done faithful work.

The way has not seemed open, for various reasons, to organize a church in Chanaral, but I hope this may be done during the present year. The group at Salado has been weakened by removals, but another has been started in Pueblo Hundido, at the Tres Gracias mine and at the Germania mine. The latter is now to be abandoned, but the leader of our group will carry on his work wherever he goes. A recent visit to the Inca district opens up new and promising fields. We are welcomed by the mine administrators and given facilities for the distribution of books and holding of meetings.

In Chanaral we have the use free of the church built by the English residents years ago, and now not used by them. Our worker lives in rooms alongside of the church, so that no rent has to be paid.

As showing the general sentiment of the people towards religion, or at least that phase of it which believes in God, it is interesting to note that in a recent visit of the ex-priest, Juan Julio Elizalde, to one of the mines, the announcement of his new-found belief in a Godless religion was met by a general departure of his audience; and in Chanaral not a single soul came out to hear him the second night. Yet in our conferences with the magic lantern, the pictures of the life of Christ are received with reverent attention, barring very few exceptions. The people of the north of Chili are not given to church-going, nor have they much affection for the priests, but this is not because the people do not care for religion so much as because they have lost faith in the representatives of religion. If the Church were separated from the State, so that the priests were dependent immediately upon the people for their support, and would give themselves to looking after the spiritual welfare of the people, they would still find a hearty response from the latter. Our work is slow, simply because we have so few workers, and of so limited preparation. Could we quadruple them in the north we should see wonderful results.

Copiapo. This centre is the only one of the four not on the sea-coast. It lies fifty miles southeast of Caldera, which in turn is forty-seven miles south of Chanaral and 112 south of Taltal. Copiapo has a population said to be 10,000, but probably at present 20 per cent. less. It is the first city south of Arica (500 miles distant) that has any vegetation to speak of. This it has because of the Copiapo River, a small and variable stream, that may become an unmanageable torrent or a mere rivulet, according to the fall of snow in the Cordilleras. This city is noted for its superior educational facilities, so that miners and others keep their families here, where the children can attend school, while they themselves, away off in the mountains, earn the means of support.

In spite of removals the services have increased in attendance. The Sabbath-school has reached over 100 and averages about eighty.

Of the itinerating work in the northern field, Mr. Garvin writes:

In the northern fields itinerating consists chiefly of visits by rail to the principal saltpetre and mining establishments, where meetings are held when possible and the places canvassed from house to house with Bibles, Testaments, religious books and pictures. Sometimes the magic lantern is taken along on these trips and affords an attraction to gather more listeners to our message. These public meetings are held sometimes in a schoolroom (where there is such), as in the principal oficinas or saltpetre establishments; sometimes in the restricted quarters of a ranch or the more roomy but less attractive bodega, or storeroom. The frequency of these visits depend upon the exigencies of the work in the place where the church is located. Where a Sabbath-school preaching service and one or two week-night meetings are carried on regularly for the benefit of the congregation, as in Tocopilla, Taltal, Chanaral and Copiapo, it is not easy to pull away for a week or two, knowing that the church work must suffer for one's absence. Especially is this the case if the worker is one of comparatively little experience, as has been the case in one or two instances. Sometimes sickness in the family has delayed these visits. But on the whole our workers are enthusiastic for this outpost work, and consider it most needful and hopeful. Especially have they taken hold of the colportage feature as a most efficient method and means of getting at the people, and interesting them in our work. In this they recommend the sale not only of religious books but of common text-books—anything that will serve to turn the attention of the people from the attractions of drink and gambling and other vices so universal in all the north. In these visits we have almost universally the approval, and in many instances the decided co-operation, of the administrators of mines and oficinas. In Tocopilla we get free transportation on the railway and almost everywhere free entertainment.

It should be borne in mind that there is far more fanaticism and hostility to the Gospel than in the north, where the priests are looked upon with little favor. On the other hand, the expense of traveling and the number of towns to be reached within a short distance is immensely in favor of the south.

TALCA STATION.

Mr. Smith, who has charge of the southern field, with headquarters at Talca, reports:

Talca Station, which includes all the south field of the Chili Mission, includes all the region from Curico to Traiguén, which is the point farthest south that our Mission reaches. In this district there are three cities of over 30,000 inhabitants and ten or more of more than 10,000, not to mention the population that is in the country.

In nine of these points we have some kind of work more or less developed, especially in the larger centres. In the past year there has been no movement of especial importance, but there has been a gradual and constant growth in all the field. There is no point where there has not been gain along some line, and in all but one gain in the number of the members enrolled. The three paid workers in this part of the field have all done splendid work, and the only lack that we can mention is that of more like them, that we might be enabled to enter some more of these points that are so needy and where the Gospel has never been preached.

Traiguén is a city of about 6,000 inhabitants in the midst of a very prosperous agricultural district of almost 29,000 people. The city is a terminus of a branch line of the central railway of Chili and is a very prosperous and growing town. It has been several years since our work was begun in Traiguén and almost from the first it has been a growing one, with a few exceptions, having an average attendance at the Sunday evening meetings for the entire year of sixty and in the Sunday-school fifty-six. During the year past there have been added ten new members, five of whom were from the family of a Spaniard named Castillo, who had been in belief a Protestant for years before they left Spain, where they had suffered considerably for disobeying the priest, but they had never publicly professed their faith, and now by the work of the eldest daughter the whole family have entered the Church.

This Spring, at the petition of those in Los Sauces, there was a church organized by the Committee of the Presbytery consisting of the thirteen persons residing there, twelve of whom were members of the church in Traiguén and one of the M. E. Church in Angol. This new church was named by the desire of the members The Evangelical Church of the Resurrection. An elder and a deacon were elected and installed in due form and the new church began its existence with great enthusiasm.

The next point north of Traiguén at which we have work is in the city of Concepcion, which has a population of some 45,000. In this city the M. E. Church also has extensive work. We have a well-organized church of many years' standing. At present it is efficiently served by Senor Tulio Moran, one of the best preachers in our Mission.

There have been eight additions to the membership of the church, six of whom were by profession of faith. They have held seven meetings per week, three of which have been in a room which they have rented in a very thickly populated part of the city.

Chillan is the only point where there has been no gain in the south field.

Linares has for some years been a point where there was but little progress in the work, but in this last there has been some bettering of things, and we have four who will soon join as members.

Talca is a city of about 40,000 inhabitants. Many attempts were made to establish work, but nothing permanent was accomplished till Mr. Spining went there, which resulted in the establishing of the present work. We have a nice little chapel which will easily seat 250, and the house of the missionary is immediately behind it and in connection with it. During the first part of the year the work of the church was rather discouraging, but from the time of the earthquake there was an increase, nothing very great at once, but a gradual increase till the end of November, at which time the high water-mark was made in the attendance, especially in the Sabbath-school, which at that time was 104. Meetings have been held every night in the week and three times on Sunday for the greater part of the year, and at the present time there are fourteen in the communicants' class. We are in hopes that a number of these will be prepared to enter as members early in the present year. There have been six additions to the church in the year. The financial obligations have been met by the aid of the English residents.

COLOMBIA MISSION.

BOGOTA: the capital of the country; situated on a plateau about 8,800 feet above the sea level and four degrees north of the equator; climate cool; population estimated at 120,000; occupied as a Mission Station in 1856. Missionaries—Rev. T. H. Candor and Mrs. Candor and Miss Mary L. Freeman.

BARRANQUILLA (Bar-ran-keel-ya): capital of the Department Del Atlantico, on the Magdalena River, 17 miles by rail from the sea; about twelve degrees north latitude; climate hot as the thermal equator passes through; population estimated at 45,000; occupied as a Mission Station in 1888. Missionaries—Rev. W. S. Lee and Mrs. Lee, Miss M. L. Hastings, Miss Jessie Scott, and Rev. M. W. Graham and Mrs. Graham.

MEDELLIN (Me-del-yeen): capital of the Department of Antioquia; situated in a river valley about 6,500 feet above sea level; climate perpetual Spring; population estimated at 50,000; occupied as a Mission Station in 1889. Missionaries—Rev. J. G. Touzeau and Mrs. Touzeau, Rev. W. C. Meeker and Mrs. Meeker.

CARACAS, VENEZUELA: capital of the country; situated at an elevation of 3,500 feet above the sea level; about 10 degrees north latitude; 23 miles by rail from the sea; climate like late Spring; population 75,000; occupied tentatively 1897. Missionaries—Rev. T. S. Pond and Mrs. Pond.

BOGOTA STATION.

At the opening of the year there were five members of the Station, viz., the Rev. and Mrs. T. H. Candor, Miss Mary L. Freeman and the Rev. and Mrs. Roy W. Walker. But soon after the latter, on account of ill health, was compelled to leave the field and with her husband returned to the United States. This left but three members at the Station, and the work of the year has been virtually all the time in their hands.

The work of the Station has been along three lines, as it has been conducted for several years. There is the organized church work, a school for girls, and a school for boys. A special effort has been made to give these the character of mission institutions, with a marked emphasis on the evangelistic element.

As the city is the capital of the republic, there is a considerable degree of political, intellectual and social activity among the people; and as the great mass of the people profess the Roman Catholic faith, the power of that Church and its priesthood is very great. This city is also the educational center of the country and there are public educational institutions of all grades, from the National University to primary schools, supported by the Government. There are also schools of all grades supported by the Roman Catholic Church, and, in addition, many private institutions offer instruction in their respective lines. Thus it is evident that the ground is pre-occupied by an active form of religion, and by educational institutions, and that whatever is accomplished must be done against deeply rooted prejudice.

CHURCH WORK.—There is an organized church with about 100 active members, although several families do not live in the city. This is the only organized evangelical work in this section of the republic. Mr. Candor has served as pastor during the year, and with the help of several students in a special Bible training class, regular services have been sustained on the Sabbath and on Monday and Wednesday evenings. The ladies of the Mission have attempted to do special work among the women, and have found that time fails them to do as much as they have wished. It is believed that the people have grown in both knowledge and grace; fifteen persons were received on profession of faith. This, in connection with the renewed interest on the part of many of the members of the church, makes us feel that the year has been one of growth in many ways.

June 20th, the Station celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of the establishment of the work in Bogota. On this date in 1856, the Rev. Henry B. Pratt reached the city and established the oldest permanent Presbyterian Mission in South America.

The celebration consisted of a reception for the friends of the church during the day and a public meeting in the evening. At the reception a lunch was served, and many of those who attended brought something to be given to the church for the care of the poor and needy, of which there are many in the city. The decorations consisted of the United States and Colombian flags, ferns and flowers, and, occupying the place of honor, a large picture of the founder of the Mission, Rev. H. B. Pratt, reproduced by one of the members of the church from a recent photograph. Although Mr. Pratt remained in the city but a short time and has been absent from the country for some thirty years, his influence is still felt, and his name well known. The statement was made that of the Mission workers who have come to Bogota from the United States but one has died on the field, the Rev. Samuel M. Sharp, who died October 30, 1860, after being in the work but little more than two years. After this tribute to his memory, the pupils of the Mission schools brought flowers and placed them on a crown and star, both of which were afterward taken and placed on the graves of Mr. Sharp and his infant son in the foreign cemetery. The church would not contain all who came to the evening meeting to hear the music, recitations and addresses.

The contributions of the members and friends of the church have been larger than usual, amounting in all to about $400 gold. Considering that the people are not wealthy, and that there are very few foreigners at present in the city, this appears quite a respectable sum.

EDUCATIONAL. — The Girls' Boarding School.—This school was again conducted by Mrs. Candor and Miss Freeman. The enrollment was 124. The faculty consisted of two missionaries, three native teachers, three assistants, two music teachers, one drawing teacher and one teacher of dressmaking. There were twenty-one boarding pupils, and with the teachers and some who came for breakfast and lunch only, there was often a family of forty persons.

Financially, the school was not altogether a success. Times were hard and the parents did not comply with their obligations, so that the income was not what it was hoped it would be. There were necessary expenses which left the school rather crippled for the three months of the present year, but the native teachers—all Christians and interested in the work—have offered to teach for whatever can be secured, even if it should be less than they received last year. In June Miss Freeman took charge of the Boarding department, leaving Mrs. Candor time for other things. The pupils of the Superior department were enthusiastic over their Bible class and unanimously requested a public examination. They gave evidence of thorough training and careful teaching which must bear fruit.

There were four events during the year in which the school participated: the celebration of the Church's fiftieth birthday, the mid-year entertainment, the closing entertainment of the school and a bazaar given for the benefit of the Presbyterian cemetery. At the bazaar about $190 gold was netted.

As to results, who can tell what they may be? There were many opportunities to plant the good seed, and there were hopeful signs. When a roomful of girls at the most impressionable age tell you that one lesson to be learned from the barren fig tree is not to waste your life in a convent, and on another occasion one little girl, noted for her hasty temper, says that the thing she would be most anxious to ask our Lord would be that He change her heart, and all agree that the Christ who can do this is very different from the many images called Christ strewn all over this country, may we not hope some day for intelligent Christians even among these pupils who come from ignorant, superstitious homes?

The Boys' Boarding School.—Mr. Walker opened this school February 1, but his early return to the United States left the school to Mr. Candor, who had charge of it the greater part of the year. About seventy-five pupils were enrolled, with an average attendance of fifty-eight.

A Colombian family, members of the church, was secured to take charge of the Boarding department, and an additional teacher or caretaker of the pupils out of school hours was employed. All of the employes of the school were either active or associate members of the church, and as far as possible the spirit of the school was frankly and openly evangelical in its practice, especially so in all branches of its teaching.

The receipts of the school include the use of the building that is the property of the Mission, the income from tuitions and boarding, and a grant of $500 made by the Board. The Boarding department was conducted without expense to the Mission as the pupils paid their board in full. The expenses to the Mission were for repairs on the property, for keeping it in order, and for part of the salaries of the teachers, so far as not paid by charges for tuition.

While some of the pupils were indifferent and careless, as is generally the case in any school, others were anxious to learn and have shown a real interest in everything for which the school stands.

BARRANQUILLA STATION.

After the close of the boys' school in November, Mr. and Mrs. Lee departed to take their much-needed furlough in the United States, expecting to return by June 15, 1907. Mr. and Mrs. Graham moved to the Boys' School Home, to remain during the absence of the Lees.

CHURCH AND EVANGELISTIC WORK.—A review of the church and evangelistic work of the year gives cause for thankfulness.

There has never been an impediment to the accomplishment of great results in evangelistic work in Barranquilla, except the lack of a missionary who could devote his entire time to it. This lack is now supplied by Mr. Graham. In addition to the regular services of the church, Mr. and Mrs. Graham arranged special meetings to celebrate Good Friday, Children's Day, the Colombian Independence Day, Christmas Eve and New Year's Eve. The average attendance at these meetings was 170. Services preparatory to communion were held according to the custom in the church, and one English service was held in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Graham. This service was conducted by Mr. Hardy, an English lay worker passing through the city. No effort was spared to have the church open as often as possible and to draw attention to the Gospel proclamation.

Inquirers' classes were conducted and the visible results were the admission of seventeen members on profession of faith. Of these, seven girls and five boys received their first Christian education in the Mission schools. The total additions for the year were twenty-two, an increase of 45 per cent. over the number reported last year. Early in the year two elders were elected, Sr. Cortez and Sr. Coll, Colombians, who have for many years been faithful and active members of the church. They assisted Mr. Graham by speaking at some of the special services and alternating in the care of the prayer meeting while Mr. Graham was absent. In the first six months of the year Sr. Alejandro Gonzalez, the Colombian assistant evangelist of the year before, was continued in the employ of the Station, assisting in church work, and together with Mr. Graham completed a valuable translation.

The increase in contributions for the services has been gratifying.

The Sunday-school became able to repair the piano which belongs to the church. Special collections and gifts amounted to $57, which is the beginning of a fund for the erection of a church building, one of the great needs of the work. The total contributions of church and Sunday-school are a gain of 196 per cent. over last year.

One of the most important lines of the work was that of holding cottage meetings in different parts of the city. The interest shown by those outside the church was great, and the average attendance was sixty-four. The small rooms in which the meetings were held were always filled. Choir practice and the training of children for special services were directed by Mrs. Graham, who also made and received many calls. Miss Hastings' work, except for the Jamaican Bible class, which continued to be taught by her, was among women and children.

In October, Rev. A. R. Stark, of Peru, agent of the British and Foreign Bible Society, spent some time in the city and visited the schools and church services, giving excellent Gospel addresses on every occasion. All the departments of the work received an impulse from his sympathetic and helpful presence.

Beginning December 1, Elder Coll undertook evangelistic work under the direction of the Station, in connection with his work as colporteur of the British and Foreign Bible Society. He held two evangelistic meetings in the village of Tubará, and had a long discussion with a Capuchin monk before an interested audience at Puerto Colombia.

WOMAN'S WORK.—Ten meetings for women were arranged by Miss Hastings. Six of them were held in the homes of non-church members, and most of those present were quite unacquainted with Protestant teachings. The average attendance at the meetings, exclusive of workers, was twenty. Evangelical literature was given on those occasions, and also from house to house when Miss Hastings passed through parts of the city more distant from the schools.

Miss Hastings spent three afternoons a week in house-to-house visiting, and made in all 131 evangelistic visits, a few of these on foreigners, some on the families of school-boys, but most of them on non-church members. In the course of many of those visits, some part of the Gospel was read and explanations given. The welcome, the attention and the hearty invitation to come again which the missionary received were encouraging.

EDUCATIONAL.—The Girls' Boarding School.—As no new missionary was sent to join her, Miss Scott had the entire burden of the Boarding and School departments of the girls' school. The enrollment was seventy, seven of whom were received free. The income from tuitions was irregular and scant, necessitating severest economy.

There were no boarding pupils, but two of her-own teachers and one from the boys' school lived in the school, and the three teachers with nine pupils took breakfast there. Miss Scott taught in the school two Bible and two English classes daily and to the middle of the year one in Roman History, besides having the constant oversight of class work, all the discipline, the care of the house and the direction of inefficient servants.

Earnest work was done in the Bible teaching department. Near the end of the year nine pupils, having been carefully led to take the step by Miss Scott, promised to try to lead the Christian life; but because of their youth and the almost certain opposition of the parents, they were not urged to unite with the Church. Two of the teachers of the school, one of whom received her entire education through Miss Hunter's efforts, and another young lady who was formerly a pupil and teacher were married during the year to Christian men.

Boys' Boarding School.—There were sixty-four pupils enrolled in the boys' school, and the average attendance was better than in any previous year. There were four boarding pupils, and of these one worked his way. The largest number of teachers and pupils accommodated for the midday meal was eighteen, and one Colombian teacher lived in the school.

Mr. Lee spent in the school all the time between the hours of half past seven in the morning and five in the afternoon. Miss Hastings taught in the forenoon. Mrs. Lee managed the Boarding department and assisted in the school work.

¶ One of the boarding pupils, from having been a troublesome pupil and a bad boy, became remarkably earnest and faithful during the year. He attended the inquirers' class for a time and showed much interest. Another one also showed great appreciation of the home and an intelligent interest in the religious teaching of the school. Fearing that the tuitions would not support the school, Mr. Lee continued to teach night classes in English. On several occasions the young men whom he thus met asked him questions relating to religion, and he took such occasions for explaining Scriptural truths and lending literature.

— The school again maintained its record of complete self-support. The entire receipts from the different departments of the school, including the receipts from the night classes in English, amounted to about $2,500 gold. At the end of the year a surplus remained to the credit of the school, which was used for important improvements on the Boys' School Home and the purchase of a number of pieces of furniture for the Boarding department.

MEDELLIN STATION.

Regular preaching services have been kept up during the year. Mr. Touzeau, the missionary pastor, had charge on Sunday evenings, and Mr. Meeker did the preaching on Wednesday evenings, and also had charge of the music. Mrs. Meeker is the church organist. Two new members have been received, one a member of Mrs. Touzeau's Sunday-school class and the other a man who was formerly a pupil in the school. The Sunday-school is very well attended by the church members, who never seem to think that they should not come to all the services, Sunday-school, prayer meeting and all. The missionaries do as much visiting as they can, but as there are no street cars and carriage hire is so high, they are compelled to go from one part of the city to another on foot. Mr. Touzeau writes:

During the year I have done evangelistic work in the city, distributing tracts and posting handbills of Scripture texts and temperance in workshops, offices, and wherever it was permitted. The temperance literature of our Committee is much appreciated and asked for. The tracts are received largely by those to whom they have been given regularly for some time. The result in increased attendance at the services is not great, but the disposition to brave public opinion is not strong in this people. Still, the interest in the reading matter, practically sermons, which is furnished is shown in conversations. Many show great willingness to read these non-controversial presentations of Gospel truth and appeals to the Christian life. It certainly takes a great deal of faith to work in this country, for the visible results are very meagre.

I have just returned from an itinerating journey of three weeks in which a large number of Scriptures, mostly portions, were sold, as well as other evangelical literature. The journey was much more encouraging in every respect than that of one year ago, both in the quantity of literature disposed of and in the reception accorded to the missionary. And the receipts were larger, so that the deficit between expenses and income were less than in the former journey. The farthest limit of the journey was a mining region visited by me fifteen years ago. Then, on the way back, I was refused by people along the road when I desired to buy something to eat. On this occasion the people readily bought evangelical literature. In one little town where a priest had preached against me my room was crowded in the evening by people who bought Bibles, biographies of Luther, Moody's Sermons, and Expositions of Evangelical Doctrine as compared with Roman Catholicism. In the mining region, a service was held in the sickroom of an Englishwoman, and the manager of the largest mining company entertained me and readily consented to a canvass of the working people with Scriptures and other books. If the means were available, two or more such journeys could be made each year, and the number of people thus reached with the Gospel is almost incalculable. Tracts are given to those who will not or cannot buy, when they seem likely to read them. Many think that the literature should be given gratis, and are not willing to buy, although willing to read when given.

The school had an enrollment of forty-one and has been under the charge of Mr. and Mrs. Touzeau, with the assistance of one Colombian teacher. Mr. Meeker taught for one hour each day. School closed with the public examinations in November. The pupils all did well and the visitors seemed pleased with the work done during the year. Later came the Christmas entertainment, which was very well attended. The members gave money enough to have for each pupil a small gift as well as the candy they always receive.

We have been busy, for the school always keeps one of us at work. Sometimes two of us are at work in the schoolroom at the same time. We teach the Bible in the school every day, and no class is more enjoyed by the pupils than the study of God's Word. We are so thankful to be able to teach them the way of salvation, for ours is the only school in the city where the Bible is taught. Mr. Meeker and Mr. Touzeau have both sold books and Bibles during the year.

Mr. Meeker has given lessons in English in his home, and tries in this way to reach the young men. He has always used the Bible as a text-book in these lessons. He has also had charge of the church work during Mr. Touzeau's absence from the city.

CARACAS STATION.

In the early part of the year, Mr. and Mrs. Pond returned to the field after a furlough of eight months in the homeland. They express themselves as deeply grateful for their restored health and strength and their ability to "return to the field better equipped than before." During their absence, the regular church services, the Society of Christian Endeavor, the Sunday-school and the day-school were maintained by the native brethren. They received the rent of the hall and the schoolhouse, but little in the way of salary, and paid the expenses of lighting, etc. Not a member was lost; new probationers were received; so that the church may be said to have more than held its own in trying circumstances. Five new members have been received into the church since Mr. Pond's return.

The usual "Watch Night" meeting at the close of the year was of special interest. The long suffering wife of one man of brutal ways has testified that her husband is changed to a gentle and affectionate man as a result of that meeting, which he forbade his wife to attend and attended himself. Two former pupils have been removed by the epidemic of measles, but during their illness they gave proof of their faith in Jesus only, albeit they were of Romish families. The mother of one, an Italian, not only acquiesced in the desire of her daughter to see no priest in her last hour, but since her daughter's death has read diligently her New Testament—"which," she says, "possesses for me a great charm."

Our smaller hall was for several weeks our only place of worship. Two or more times have we formally rented a hall in a fairly good locality, only to be told that the owner had changed his mind and withdrawn from the contract. After this trial of patience and after continued prayer, the Lord gave us the very hall we could have chosen in the central part of the city, on the busiest street. Now our congregation seems to be growing day by day. Certainly we have new auditors as well as old at every service, since the singing and organ attract the notice of the passing crowd, and not seldom one and another is induced to enter and listen, then to take a seat near the door, then to become a regular attendant, and then a true child of faith. This describes the steps in the conversion of a number of the best converts that we have. Whole families have thus been led to confess their faith.

More than ever we come in contact with men and families in every part of the city who are interested in the Scriptures and will converse upon the great theme. Not a few have bought the New Testament or the Bible, and many who attend casually our meetings have received a portion as they left. Hundreds of papers and tracts are distributed at the door of the hall at every service. The priests are making every effort to warn the people against "our wiles," preaching against us from the pulpit and counseling them not to throw stones against the doors of our chapel, as has been done, "but to treat us with contempt."

It is worthy of note that the church has this year contributed to the general fund of the Board the sum of $25; also that there are preaching services in another part of the city, the expenses of which are in part borne by the people; and also that the church members hold a Sunday midday prayer meeting in which the women as well as the men take part, a marked advance upon the prejudices of this country. These meetings are held from house to house and already good results are visible.

A Christmas entertainment with a tree was held in the hall. There was a program of recitations of Scripture, and then the Gospel was presented to an audience many of whom seldom, and some of whom never, had heard it. Mr. Pond has been much helped by Mr. Barton, the newly arrived agent of the British and Foreign Bible Society for the northern part of South America. Mr. Pond has also been much encouraged by the arrival of a young Spaniard of good education.

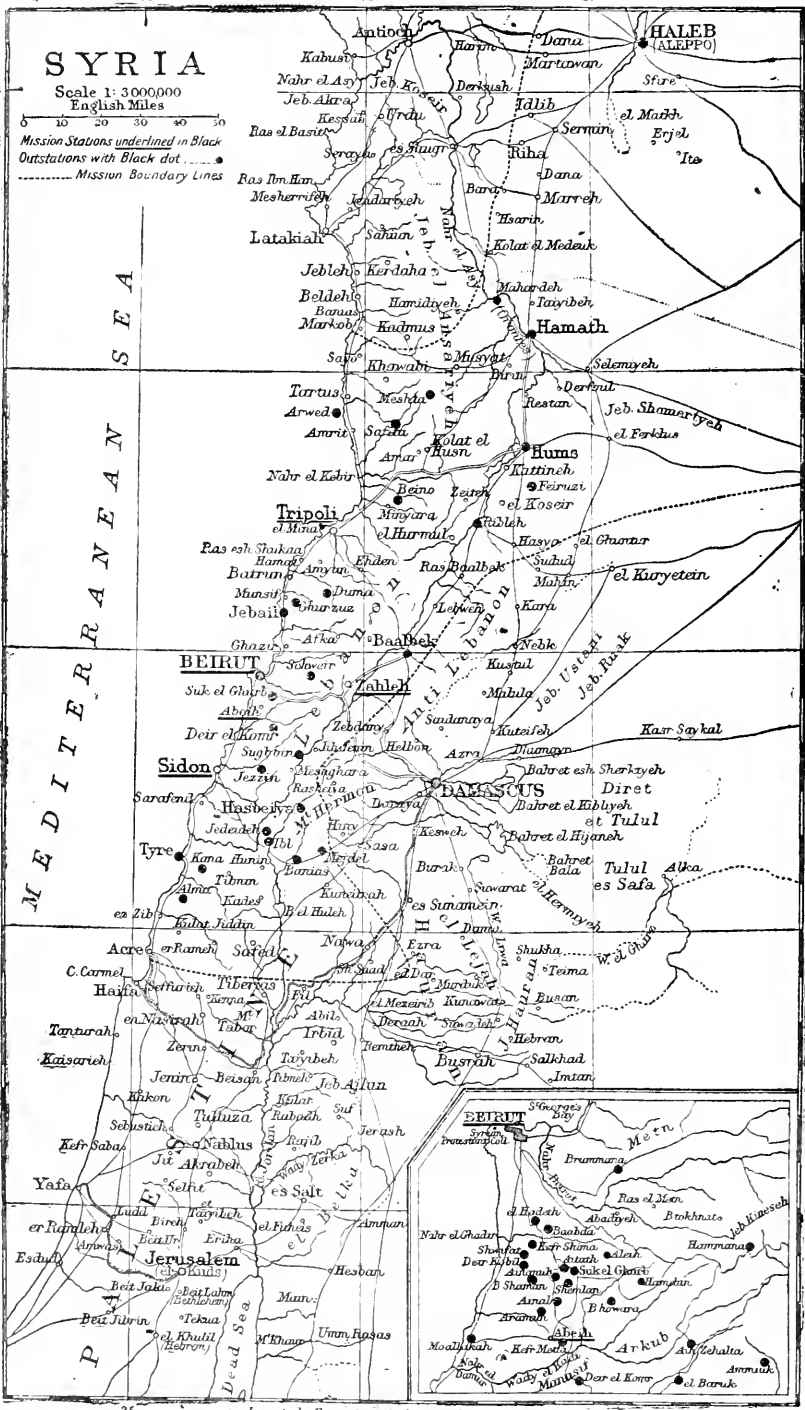

He was educated in theology, licensed to preach, and was ordained two years ago in Bolivia, whither he was sent to preach. He has preached in Chili, Argentine and Peru. In all of these places he received letters of commendation for ability and blameless conduct. The general corruption of the clergy opened his eyes to see the truth. He read the Scriptures and had a judicious Protestant to aid him. He has finally determined to leave Rome and all of her delusions. This young man has come to us of his own will, not knowing what should befall him, but hoping to find a refuge. We have been praying the Lord to send us help, and may it not be that it is of the Lord that this enlightened and well-educated young man has presented himself to become a true yoke-fellow? It is yet too soon to judge of his fitness for the work, yet he is very modest, and is intelligently and wholly resolved to follow the truth, at not a little cost to himself and his aged mother in Spain. Meanwhile we feel more than ever constrained to pray and look for help in this work, which, in despite of all difficulties, is now at a stage when it can be and ought to be pushed as never before.

INTRODUCTORY.—1906 has been a year of great blessing in the work of the Syria Mission. While for many reasons there was an actual decrease in the number of native workers, there has been a notable increase in every main item of the statistics. Ordained pastors, 8 (5 in 1905); preaching places, 96 (93 in 1905); additions to the thirty-four churches, 241 (154 in 1905). The schools have been filled to overflowing and the whole matter of self-support in the churches and the schools has made unusual progress. The meetings of the three Presbyteries have been harmonious and helpful and the advance in self-government is well marked. Home Mission work in the opening of schools, caring for the poor, distribution of Bibles, formation of societies for charitable ends has become a marked feature of religious life.

The visitors who have entered the Mission field and have stayed for a longer or shorter period were many.

Among them we mention the Rev. George Alexander, D.D., President of the Board; Messrs. Wilson and Jordan, of the Persia Mission; the Rev. Mr. Frauson; Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Pierson, of the "Missionary Review"; the Rev. S. W. Guntle Cockett, of the Bible Lands Missions Aid Society; Prof. and Mrs. Wright, of Oberlin College; Prof. and Mrs. H. N. Scott, of Chicago; Admiral Sigsbee, with three American warships, and the Hon. W. J. Bryan, on his tour around the world. There are many references in all the reports to the helpfulness and warm sympathy extended to the members of the Mission and the whole work of the field.

Would that we could begin and end this general review in gladness! But for the workers of the Mission it has been a sad year. It began in sunshine, with all the members of the Mission on the field and in good health. In February the celebration of Dr. H. H. Jessup's jubilee, including Dr. and Mrs. Daniel Bliss, was a bright and memorable occasion. The coming of Miss Catherine Booth as Mrs. George Ford was also of blessing and good cheer to all. But in the Autumn the shadows began to fall and the year closed in deep gloom.

Mrs. George Wood, who has long been so helpful at Sidon, was compelled by reduced strength to go to Switzerland; Dr. Nelson was sent by the physicians for an enforced furlough in Egypt, while death suddenly claimed one of the most active, useful and best beloved men of all our American community—Rev. William K. Eddy. That lonely tent in the silent valley far from human habitation; that midnight call of the Angel of Death; the heroic response of his triumphant spirit, pathetic, sublime; the homeward journey of his lifeless form, carried on the hands of loving weeping friends, buffeted by the waves of the blue sea, swayed upon the ungainly camel, met at each stage by larger gatherings of mourners until its midnight entrance to his Sidon home, will ever remain one of the precious memories of Mission history. The throngs at his funeral, the sorrowing widows and orphans in a thousand hamlets, the loving tributes from absent Syrians in every continent, and the heartfelt sorrow within the Mission, the church at Nyack, the Presbytery and the great Church crown a life which to our weak vision seems ended all too soon.

Just as the annual meeting came to an end the College and Mission were plunged in grief a second time by the death of Prof. Robert H. West, of the faculty of the Syrian Protestant College. He entered Syria in 1833, and had given over twenty-three years of diligent and active service to the highest interests of the College. His loss to that enterprise much resembles the loss of Mr. Eddy to the Mission. He left a wife and six children, the same as did Rev. William K. Eddy.

BEIRUT STATION.

The Station has had its full complement of missionaries throughout the year, except that Dr. and Mrs. Hoskins left on furlough. No serious illness has occurred or other hindrance to the usual course of the work.

Sunday, February 4, Dr. H. H. Jessup preached in Arabic in the church, reviewing his fifty years of missionary life in Syria. The same day, Drs. Mackie and Hoskins made addresses suitable to the occasion before the Anglo-American congregation. Monday evening Drs. Jessup and Daniel Bliss gave addresses full of interesting incidents of the fifty years. Wednesday, February 7, being the exact anniversary of the arrival of Dr. Jessup and Dr. and Mrs. Bliss, the Mission with many other friends called upon them at their respective residences and a clock was presented to Dr. Jessup as a souvenir of the day. In the afternoon a reception was given to Dr. and Mrs. Bliss and Dr. Jessup in Memorial Hall, the building being elaborately decorated with flowers and flags. In the evening there was a great meeting in the church. The whole anniversary occasion was a time of thanksgiving for so long and distinguished service in different departments of work. The sight of these venerable missionaries themselves, thankful and happy in the privilege of long service, was an object lesson especially to the young of the excellence and beauty of lives spent in the service of Christ.

Theological Seminary.—The class of seven students continued their studies and did evangelical work in the city of Beirut and in some of the surrounding villages, especially in connection with the medical work at Junieh.

American School for Girls.—Cheering words continue to come from the American Mission in Egypt and the C. M. S. in Palestine in commendation of the service and influence of former graduates.

One hundred and thirty-four pupils were enrolled, 54 boarders and 80 day-scholars. Of these 58 were Orthodox Greeks, 30 Jews, 26 Protestants, 8 Moslems, 6 Greek Catholics and 6 Maronites. A year ago it was voted "that every piaster of foreign money spent in this school attracts another piaster from native sources." This year's accounts show that out of every ten dollars of the running expenses, seven came from native sources.

The removal of the Primary department to the new premises, formerly the home of the native pastor, has freed the main building from annoyances and made provision for an increasing attendance.

July 9, we graduated a class of six, and as we now look back to that happy afternoon in Memorial Hall, we cannot but remember that for some of us it was our last sight of our beloved friend, Rev. William Eddy, who was unexpectedly with us, and who gave the Scripture reading from the Psalms. One of the pleasantest features of the commencement season was the large attendance of alumnae, particularly teachers from Egypt returning to Syria for the Summer. At the triennial alumnae meeting, following commencement, messages were read from a number of absent members, also from Miss Alice Barber, who in spite of her prolonged absence still retains all her old love for the school.

Of the six graduates who were welcomed at that meeting, three are now teaching, one in Mardin and two in our own school. A fourth began work in a French school, but has given it up.

There was a thoughtful atmosphere in all the religious life of the school and three of the girls united with the church. Dr. Howard Johnson's visit was a blessing.

The Foreign Mission offering of $22.90 was sent to San Francisco as a gift toward the rebuilding of the Home for Chinese Girls. Another gift of $4 was sent to help complete the roof of the Mejdalma Church. Miss Ferha Haddad, who for more than thirty years has been one of the most valued teachers, was obliged to resign on account of the poor health of her sister, also a teacher; so that the staff of helpers for the opening year was almost entirely new. There can be no question concerning the constantly enlarging influence of the school through its former graduates and the present pupils.

Beirut Church.—The church has reached another epoch in its history. For more than ten years references have been made to the sad division which broke the congregation into two unfriendly fragments. About a year ago the Second Church accepted the services of the pastor of the Beirut Church and the students of the Theological class. The Session or committee was practically dissolved and all candidates for admission came before the Session of the Beirut Church. One communion service embraced all the communicants in both congregations. There was a rapid melting away of old asperities, and before 1906 closed a formal union took place, the hope and expectation of a year ago was realized, and this sad chapter of division closed forever. Something yet remains to be done to keep them in line with the other churches in Lebanon Presbytery, but with the good spirit prevailing we hope this will be successfully accomplished.

While the Beirut Church has not been self-supporting during the past ten years, it ought to be said that it has not received anything from the Board's appropriations. In this reunited form the Church at once assumes all the financial obligations of the congregation, while continuing to enjoy the free use of the large Mission church building. Another result will be to render available some funds from native and foreign sources for the reopening of a boys' school in the Eastern Chapel in the eastern part of the city. In connection with this school there will be, as formerly, a Sunday service.

The additions on confession of faith were eleven. The payments for the pastor's salary showed an advance on the previous year, but will now need to be doubled. The Rev. Assad er Rasy deserves commendation for his patient and tactful Christian efforts during these trying years.

The Sunday-school has four of its sixteen classes taught in English. It gave 500 piasters toward the pastor's salary; 700 to Home Missions in the Hauran and Bukaa, and 300 to the American Bible Society. The Sunday-school in connection with the Ras Beirut school for girls has had an attendance of 125 and participated in the annual Sunday-school rally in June.

The Christian Endeavor Society, with a membership of twenty-five, has sustained all its meetings and has expended about 1,000 piasters in charities. The Junior Society has also met under the guidance of Miss Horne and Mrs. March.

The Helping Hand Society, with Mrs. H. H. Jessup as president, has continued all its meetings and acts of charity toward the poor and needy. One hundred and fourteen garments were given to ninety-one persons.

The Christian Temperance Reading Rooms enlarged their premises in March, gaining needed facilities for private conference, Bible and other classes. Evening classes were opened in November. That Society is still hoping that some generous friend of the Y. M. C. A. and Temperance work may present Beirut and Syria with a building worthy of the needs and the opportunity.

Syria suffered a great loss in the death of Miss Jessie Taylor, January 7; but we may also say that Syria has received a great blessing in her faithful and efficient service of forty years in a work which she had chosen because it was a hard discouraging work. Her work goes on and others are now building efficiently upon the foundation which she laid.

Medical.—Dr. Mary P. Eddy reports:

During the early part of the year, the large number of patients necessitated the services of a Syrian assistant physician, Dr. Harfoosh. He is a member of the Beirut Church, and at his request services were regularly maintained by Mrs. Hoskins at his home in Beirut for the patients under treatment there. Miss Liza entered upon her twenty-eighth year of service as Bible woman and teacher. The dispensary assistant and his niece continue in this work and the teacher of the day-school helps in receiving and returning calls.

A day-school was opened in January and the Capuchin monks duplicated the enterprise, but their effort lasted but a few weeks. An evening class for young men desiring to learn English are studying the New Testament.

Clinics for Moslem women were regularly maintained throughout the winter—Wednesdays in Beirut and Mondays and Thursdays in Mamaltain, and during the Summer months wherever our tents were pitched. Our Kurdish and Bedouin friends furnished us with a large share of work. A malignant case of smallpox imported from the mountains caused a panic. Despite the popular fear of vaccination at a time when smallpox is prevalent, all of those exposed were persuaded, after great effort, to be vaccinated and there were no more cases.

The Bedouin have learned that Dr. Eddy is a skillful friend, and whenever their tents are invaded by sickness they take refuge in her vicinity.

One tent with one surgical and three medical cases required our services during a period of three months. In February we had a fearful storm along our coast. In the morning, above the sound of the rolling of the surf was heard the cries of a woman in distress. With difficulty I pushed my blind open, and directly under my window was a solitary black haircloth tent soaked with rain and seemingly a wretched shelter for the woman seated in the door, rocking back and forth with pain, and on the wet ground by her side was a tiny baby wrapped only in rags. The husband and father had gone to beg their breakfast, and it did not take long to diagnose the nature of their immediate needs. I had just finished two baby wrappers. One of these I rolled into a tight ball, and threw it with such force that despite the wind it reached its destination, and in it the baby was wrapped before the hot soup for the mother and outer blanket wrap for the baby had traversed the regular route by the road. The name of my little guest was "Khalil Ullah," the Friend of God. Two years ago on the Persian border, in fulfillment of a vow, the father and mother set out for Jerusalem; they were seeking the land for which Abraham of old left his country. The mother's heart turned to the Holy City as the goal of her fondest hopes. Poverty and ignorance of the language made their progress slow. It was a year before they saw Jerusalem, but what mattered privation, exposure and weary marches? Their petitions had been heard, their vow accepted and their poverty forgotten when the little boy, asked of the God of Abraham, came to their tent. The terrific storm endangered the mother's life, for she refused to leave her tent and she was very ill for days. She was so grateful and patient, and it was a new sensation for us who teach Bible stories to our nominally Christian neighbors to be asked by this Kurdish woman if we knew or had heard of her boy's famous ancestor, Abraham, the friend of God. I told her that I too had often been a dweller in tents, and that I never sat in the tent door at the close of day without also thinking of Abraham. She firmly believed that in some way the care and help she received were in answer to her prayers the night of the storm, and both she and our tiny guest endeared themselves greatly to us. After we and they have finished with these frail earthly tabernacles, will our feet tread together the streets of that Eternal City of which we often spoke together?

Services, including Sunday-school, have been regularly held. The ignorance of the women and children regarding Bible incidents and truths is beyond belief.

All pupils in the Maronite schools in the Kesrawan were required to give towards the statue of the Virgin ordered from Italy. It is now waiting the erection of a convent three stories high which is to be its pedestal, and above which it will rise to a height of fifty feet. One shrine cures pains in the knees and another all diseases of the eye. Monasteries abound and monks and nuns are innumerable. The 250,000 inhabitants of the Kesrawan are beginning to awake to the fact that the best of their country is in the hands of these non-producers, to whom it yields not less than 50,000 pounds yearly.

The Press.—The American Press in Beirut is not only a printing and publishing establishment, but also a "missionary clearing house" for our own Mission and for all the other Missions working within the Arabic-speaking world. It is a center to which gravitates a large variety of missionary interests and from which radiate lines of helpful contact to every continent of the world. The "Weekly Neshera" was the pioneer forty-one years ago, with perhaps one exception, of all the newspapers in Arabic. To-day there are twenty Arabic newspapers in Beirut, many influential ones in Egypt, at least ten in New York City, two dailies and eight weeklies, and half a dozen in Brazil.

Mr. Freyer reports the year 1906 to have been a normal one, after the extraordinary record of 1905. The output in pages (37,260,358) represents an advance of 4,500,000 pages over 1904. Sixty per cent. of the total production was Bibles and parts (91,000 copies) for the American Bible Society.

The year has seen the completion of the first font Reference Bible, a work which has taken much time and patience and which is probably the most difficult work undertaken by the Press.

While the Press report seldom makes mention of individuals and their efforts, it being understood that we are all here to do our best, it will not be amiss in this instance to accord to Rev. Dr. F. E. Hoskins and Mr. Ibrahim Haurani our sincere thanks for the persevering and painstaking labor so faithfully given for two and a half years to what can truly be designated a labor of love.

The Children's Special Service Mission of London continues to aid all the societies laboring in Syria and Palestine by annual gifts of illustrated leaflets.

The Religious Tract Society has continued its liberal discounts to the missionaries, by means of which we have been able to dispose of 3,759 volumes, while 7,231 copies have been given gratuitously. Sets of the Society's publications have been freely given to schools and libraries, and are much appreciated.

Already we are working on a new lot of the leaflets; 720,000 leaflets representing 2,880,000 pages have arrived with the pictures printed thereon. Translators are at work, and when the manuscript copy is finished it will be sent to the censor at Constantinople, to make sure that nothing seditious has been imported, nothing that could turn the minds of the young in the wrong direction. The text will then be printed with whatever alterations the censor has seen fit to make, and by the time the next report is ready the new lot of leaflets will be on their way.

Of the works completed, mention may be made of the large and the small Abcarius English-Arabic Dictionary, for which there has been a steady demand. We have also been able to print and to distribute gratuitously 1,000 copies each of "Quiet Talks on Power" and "The Growing Christian." Those of us who know their value in English feel that they will accomplish similar good and prove most helpful in Arabic. The Arabic-speaking race is as alert to new things as the Anglo-Saxon

The Russian schools continue to buy our books and Scriptures, and recently the Roman Catholic Frères made large purchases of "Songs of Victory" and the English New Testament for use in their Beirut schools. Let us hope and pray that the use of these books may be attended with much blessing.

Most reports, whether of the Press or some other department of Mission work, have some particular topic which is made the keynote. We regret that our keynote this year must be that of finances, perhaps for the first time in the history of the Press.

Within recent years, the past five years in particular, there has been a steady increase in all prices here in Syria. The cost of living will well illustrate this. Foodstuffs are dearer now than five years ago. Not only the missionary, but also the workman under his charge has felt this ever increasing pressure upon his purse. In consequence the wages of the workmen have been considerably raised, and as well the cost of production has steadily increased, because of the higher wages paid to the men and the greater cost of materials.

When it is considered that the Press receives nothing whatever from the Board for its publication work; that it is entirely dependent upon its profits; that fully 70 per cent. of the work in the printing department is done at actual cost, and that the profits made rarely exceed 5 per cent., it is easy to see that it is impossible to make both ends meet when within two years the price of paper has advanced from 5 to 7 per cent.; of leather from 25 to 30 per cent.; of strawboard 3 per cent.; of antimony (used in the manufacture of type) 503 per cent.; while the cost of copper, lead, roller composition and nearly every other article used in the manufacture of books has advanced by leaps and bounds. In addition to all this, we are now confronted with an addition of 3 per cent. to the present 8 per cent. rate of duty, which we must hereafter pay on all goods brought into the country.

When we consider these figures and reflect on what they must mean to an establishment like ours the oft-asked question, "How is it that the Press does not earn more?" is easily answered. The very fact that we have had work, and a great deal of it during the past two years, has been the cause of our falling behind financially. Give us plenty of work under present conditions, and we should reach the point where it would be necessary to close the Press. In this country competition is certainly not the "life of trade." I could take you to binderies in the town where little girls from five to nine years of age are employed by the dozen. They "paste" books together and receive five metallics (four cents) a day. For such books about fifteen piasters are paid per hundred, while for books of similar size "bound" we must charge not less than 200 piasters per 100 copies in order to make expenses.

The principle for which the Press has stood from its foundation—that is, to do the largest amount of good possible, with money making as not even a secondary consideration—has never been lost sight of.

¶ Both the Mission and the Bible Society are considering the advisability of advancing the prices of the more popular school-books and those editions of the Bible most in demand in the schools. But this will not greatly benefit the necessity for new publications, which can never be expected to reach a self-supporting basis. The American Press has for fifty years been the pioneer and leader in the production of missionary literature in Arabic, and its greatest work is yet to be done in the spiritual uplifting of Syria and the whole Arabic-speaking world.

TRIPOLI STATION.

Native Communities.—At Maherdeh, where the Protestants have borne persecutions for a quarter of a century, there was a serious recrudescence of evils, which were much abated by the vigorous efforts of Mr. Bergholz, the American Consul-General. At Yezedeyeh the church has been losing members by emigration, but those who remain have shown great zeal in securing and protecting their own rights, with now and then a reverse, which means a certain amount of persecution.

Emigration.—This movement began in Bethlehem in 1876, then in Lebanon some five years later, and has now worked its way into the most remote corners of the field. At first only Christians ventured; but now none of the sects escape the temptation, and Moslem, Nusainiyeh and Jew have joined the throng. About half our church membership are now in the United States or South America. Most of them are seeking the mighty dollar, but in several places they have formed groups and meet for worship.

‡ The emigrant business has become a very profitable one; the method used in Germany in the seventies is used here. A native, usually one that has been to America, visits a village, holds meetings, tells of the wonderful way to make money, where to go, what to do—in fact every thing necessary for an emigrant to know. It is a poor day when he does not obtain a number of deposits for steamer tickets. This man is one of a long chain whose links are located all the way from Syria to North and South American seaports. From time to time this chain of workers will send and receive warnings to avoid or go to this or that place. Word will come to avoid New York if diseased; go to Mexico and then go north, etc. No doubt this is an ingenious plan for making favorable commissions from steamship companies. At the present writing the flow is towards Argentina.

We could tell of the harvest of gold that has been reaped by the officials, steamship agents, boatmen, etc., at the ports. It is a system that results in much of human suffering, troubles, jealousies and sometimes crime.

The much talked of extension of the French railroad from Hama to Aleppo has been completed and opened for traffic. Now the iron horse makes its way over the plain that once was the abiding place of hundreds of thousands of busy people living in towns and villages, but which for over a thousand years has been sparsely settled, never having recovered from the butchery and rapine of the Arab invader. It is possible that this rich farming land will now come into the market, as there is a way to send produce quickly to the seaboard.

Last winter, a native woman complained there was so little that women could do in the way of self-improvement and to help others. A Dorcas Society was therefore formed, consisting of about twenty members, seventeen of which were Greeks. They meet every week at the home of Mrs. Harris and the greatest interest and pleasure are manifested by all.

It did not take long for a report of what was being done to reach the Bishop. He came from the city to the Meena, and ordered all the Greeks who had enrolled themselves into "a society which was a trap of the very Shatan (Satan) himself," to explain themselves and purge away their great sin. At first some were inclined to refuse to obey, but after a week of strenuous work on the part of Bishop and his priests, they succeeded in obtaining the consent of the women to form a society of their own to meet in the home of a Greek, and not that of a Protestant. Some refused to obey the Bishop when he directed them not to visit the American ladies socially. It was reported a member of their society said, "What do we do? Meet, talk gossip, sew some, then go home; no reading, no Bible, no prayer."

Hamath.—This has been a difficult Station by reason of the pride and bigotry of the people.

About twenty years ago a native inherited £200, a vast sum to a man used to having little money to spend. He purchased a plot overlooking two-thirds of the city and started a house. The enclosing of the lot with a high stone wall and the improving of the same proved so expensive that his money was exhausted before he had completed more than two rooms and a part of a third. Soon after he went to Constantinople. At that time the property was offered to the Station, but we had no money to purchase. A fund was gradually accumulated and we are pleased to report that the place is now in our possession at a cost of about $300. The native church has contributed generously toward the improvement of the property to make it available for the use of the pastor's family. We hope in the future to add other rooms, and that will make a home within one compound for all the work of Hamath. The brethren are very much encouraged to have this church home that has been so long needed, and the future looks bright in this large and bigoted Moslem city.

Hums.—This city, with its large population of busy workers, still remains our most interesting out-station. Many of its church membership are in the United States, where their ability as good weavers enables them to earn five to sevenfold what they could in their own city. The members that remain, as if to make up for the depletion, are increasing their zeal and interest.

Mr. Rafool and the preacher have been for several years advocating a boarding school. They wished the Station to further the plan and provide part of the money. This was utterly impossible, for it would mean closing up other work. This year they have started the boarding school on their own responsibility, and any deficit at the end of the year Mr. Rafool will meet. They have expended about $1,500 to improve the Mission property to make it possible to accommodate boarders, they themselves providing the money. They have at present thirty-two boarders, twenty half boarders, and thirty who eat their dinners at the school, they themselves providing the food. The other school work remains as last year.

Village Work.—The work in the Syriac villages to the east of Hums is in a prosperous condition. Gradually the Gospel truth is gaining a foothold in communities where we have no direct work.

A church member visits a place; in the evening he reads his Bible; a crowd assembles to listen; a discussion follows on the merits of our way of thinking; some word remains in the mind; the man asks for an explanation; in after-days two or three are first interested, then convinced of the truth and join the church. This leaven has been going on for years, and to-day we have the churches at Faruzi, Em-Dulab, and an interesting work at Fahalieh supported by the native church through its home committee. Zidan, the most important village of the group, has several church members and several interested ones who in time will be ready to be received into the church.

Prison Work.—One of the most striking sights at Tripoli is the Crusaders' Castle, dating from the year 1103 and now used as a prison. The majority of its prisoners are here for murder, fifteen years being the usual term, though some are in for life. They are a hard lot of men and come from every part of the Empire. Dr. Harris has made frequent visits to this place and has found the convicts susceptible to religious influences. They gladly accept a Bible or a tract, which they read to themselves and to others who, like them, feel the hopelessness of the surroundings. Some of the Tripoli church members make occasional visits on Sunday afternoons, and they are received with great pleasure by the prisoners who know Arabic. Several men have left this place converted, and with a resolve to live a good life. The last of these has just been released and is now ready to join the church. He makes no secret of his belief to his Maronite friends, and he is living a consistent life in his village.

Education.—The item of education leads every other in the matter of self-support. The people pay 26,700 gold piasters for the support of common schools, and receive from the funds of the Board 25,300. When we consider the field as a whole, taking into consideration all forms of school work, boarding, high and common schools, the people pay a total of 168,700 gold piasters, and the Board assists in the sum of 54,300; that is, the people pay more than two-thirds of the cost of the schools. These sums do not include what the students pay to the College at Beirut for their tuition.

Tripoli Girls' School.—Miss La Grange writes that the sixty-three pupils have taxed the boarding department to its utmost capacity. The teachers, though mostly new to the work, were beyond expectation efficient and faithful.

The kindergarten was a great success. The head teacher has developed into an ideal kindergartner for Syria. Last spring the kindergarten room was enlarged, a new floor laid, and the magic circle of red painted on it, and here are placed the eighteen little chairs right from America, while all around the products of the busy little fingers adorn the walls.

Twenty-five girls of the boarding department this year were from Protestant families or affiliated with them. This is the largest Protestant contingent we have ever had.

A pupil from a family of the Greek Church was the most exemplary girl in the school. She united with the church before the close of the year. Remembering a similar occasion some years ago and the mob then created we feared disturbance, but there was none and she entered the evangelical community quietly. She has to-day a far greater influence. She is truly a shining light. Three other school-girls united with the church during the year. Another girl from the present graduating class, also a Greek, is a candidate for the same privilege, encouraged no doubt by the example of the first mentioned who is her classmate and from the same village.

After the close of school Miss Hunting went to the country, over the ground tilled by her during cholera year, to see if any seed was coming up. She spent three weeks in this way and, though not finding any large harvest to gather, was thankful for some signs that her work had not been wholly unproductive. Miss La Grange remained in the city to superintend some repairs in the school.

At the beginning of the fall term the numbers in both boarding and day departments were small. The number of boarders has risen to fifty-two, and there are more day pupils in the Primary department than in past years.

It would not seem to be a true report of our work if we do not disclose its shady as well as its bright side. For months back we have had to bear a large amount of criticism which seemed severe and unfriendly, but we have tried to be patient and to profit by it. We hope to live it down and to be greatly used in this present year, as in time past our Lord has condescended to use us.

Tripoli Boys' School.—Dr. Nelson writes of improvements in the rented premises, which are still inadequate for the sixty-two boarders. The Station has, in addition, sent more boys than ever to the Sidon and Suk boarding schools.

Iron beds were secured for all the boarders early in the year and American desks were installed in the school-room for pupils. A large clock in the study-room and a smaller one upstairs regulate all the school work and are daily reminders of the generous donor, Dr. D. Stuart Dodge, of New York. An Estey organ was also in place on the platform to lead the singing of the school, and so in every way the opening of the year was under improved conditions, and it was possible to do far better work.

The teaching force was improved by the addition of a college graduate and a higher class was undertaken, bringing the standard of the school within one year of the scope of the college preparation. Mrs. Nelson taught some classes and directed the music. After New Year Mr. Erdman took regular class work and a share in the administration, and in the Spring Mr. Nicol gave regular gymnastic drill leading up to Field Day, which was heartily enjoyed and gave much pleasure to the friends who were in attendance. The writer, while keeping oversight of the school, was not prevented from touring, but was in the field as usual.

The health of the school was a cause of great thankfulness. There was little call for severe discipline and one of the teachers said, "Somehow the boys don't have a chance to be bad here ; the atmosphere does not favor it."

The boarders represented twenty-seven different towns and villages, in seventeen of which the Mission has no work, and in eight of which no evangelical work has ever been done, showing clearly how the boarding schools reach homes and centers touched in no other way. Forty-nine of the boarders were Orthodox Greeks, twelve Protestants, two Maronites and one Moslem. The day pupils included a number of Jews. During the year three of the older pupils united with the Church.

During the year there were enrolled sixty-four full and two half boarders who paid nearly 66,000 piasters. Fifty-two day-pupils paid over 5,000 piasters. Of this income only 1,600 piasters were paid by friends in assistance of needy pupils. The Tripoli Church continued its contribution of 2,400 piasters and some small gifts were made by American and Syrian friends. The total income from all sources was nearly 93,000 piasters. This covered the entire expense account, including all teachers' salaries and a large addition to the permanent plant. Not one cent of Mission funds was received by the school on any account except for rent, and in this case the appropriation did not cover two-thirds of the outlay.

At the close of two years the Tripoli boys' school has reached entire self-support in current expense, has been able to supplement the Mission appropriation for rent by 6,000 piasters, and has secured an equipment of American desks for 122 pupils and iron beds for eighty.

The new year has opened with seventy-five boarders paying over £650 sterling. The salary budget is much larger and all expenses are increased over last year; but there seems no reason to fear that the past financial record will not be maintained.

Hadeth.—The families of the members of the Station spent the Summer at Hadeth. The people were friendly; the priests, who made our lives miserable for a time a few years ago, now indicated a kindlier feeling.

Presbytery.—The event of the year was the meeting of the Presbytery. All the churches were well represented, and the best of feeling prevailed. The various topics under discussion were of a nature that indicated a lively recognition of the needs of the field, an earnest desire to do all in their power to increase the interest, not every man for his own church, but for the work as a whole, that Christ be glorified and His kingdom advanced in North Syria. The evening meetings at Talcott Hall were of special interest. Large audiences listened in wrapt attention to the thought expressed by the very best men in the field.

Those who have had the privilege of seeing the progress of this Presbytery from the first meeting at Amar in 1891 feel like thanking God for the splendid progress along all lines of Gospel effort, as our hope for the future of the work lies in the hearty co-operation and conscientious devotion of the men who make up this Presbytery. That they may be guided by the Holy Spirit is our daily prayer.

Medical.—Medical work was begun as a part of the regular work of the Station in 1863, Dr. George E. Post in charge, and four years after he resigned to take part in the organization of the Syrian Protestant College.

He was succeeded by Dr. G. B. Danforth, who after four years of faithful labors died of typhoid fever. He in turn was succeeded by his brother-in-law, Dr. Charles W. Calhoun, in 1879, who died July, 1883. December 15 of the same year Dr. Harris arrived at Tripoli, and has ever since labored for the sick and deformed in this large and needy field. He writes:

A long tour was made to the north in the Spring. The services in the hospital chapel and Sunday-school with their usual attendance were kept up during the year. Many non-Christians heard the Gospel preached, the Bible being read before the clinics, and then explained by the Bible woman. The Greek Bishop during his memorable visit to the Meena last Spring paid our medical work a compliment by saying, "Those Americans knew how to make religious work interesting to the people. They use means that are noble and good; they have a hospital and a dispensary; they treat the sick and operate upon the deformed, and use that as a means to make Protestants." He induced some young Greeks to start a rival dispensary. Some of them told us that they were afraid we would get angry. We replied, "Bless your hearts, we have carried the load for twenty-three years, and we are only too glad that the Greek young men are willing to do something for their own sick and deformed." At present we see no falling off in the numbers at our clinics.

There is a growing desire among Moslems to read the Bible, and we are taking advantage of it by giving Bibles or portions to every one we know will read and take care of it. There are twenty-seven Bibles with the name of the donor written on the fly-leaf in the hands of Moslems in the Tripoli field. The money was sent to Mrs. Harris by a little boy from his savings to buy Bibles for Moslems. He soon after passed away, and he can see from heaven the silent Word of God that by the aid of the Holy Spirit may work great things in the hearts of the readers.

Work among Women.—Mrs. Nelson reports an increased attendance at her women's meetings. Her visits to the homes of Moslem women were occasions of special interest. She has reached in this way over twenty-five Moslem families. Miss Hunting has used every opportunity to reach as many women, Moslem and Christian, as possible. The women's meetings at the Meena were held every Thursday at the hospital chapel, and until the closing of the girls' school the pupils were in attendance. Since September meetings are held weekly at the homes of some of the women who are interested in the work, though not church members.

Home Missions.—The Home Mission Committee of the native Church is pushing its efforts to arouse the church members in this land and abroad to give liberally. This work of the committee is one of the hopeful signs of the coming of better things.

Their work in the Greek villages of Teen Sabeel, Bersheen and others on the border land of the Ansairiyeh, under the care of M'Elia Mak-hool is receiving constant attention, and if preaching and visiting will bring men to Christ, his efforts will be rewarded. There were letters sent from the home churches to the absent members abroad, and some handsome gifts were returned with the answers. This annual letter has become a regular thing in the Station and is appreciated by the receivers, who are sometimes in need of just such reminders to bring them in touch with the work at home.

The native committee for the systematic distribution of the Scriptures reported to the Presbytery a successful year, both as to the contributions received and Bibles and portions put into the hands of persons who will make good use of them. We appreciate the generous way in which the Bible Society makes it possible for us to put the Word of God into the hands of Moslems and all non-Christian sects.

There is one paper-covered book that the Moslems and other sects are very fond of, that is, "Christ in the Old and New Testament." It is printed at the Mission Press, Beirut. It is in large type, very easy to read even by the poor lights used in the villages, and because of this they can use it as a text-book for the children. We are glad to put this book into the hands of Moslems, and God will bless the reading of His Word. The demand for Bibles among the Moslems is increasing. The large Moslem bookstore keeper at Tripoli recently sold twenty Reference Bibles, and ordered twenty more.

There have been received into the church upon confession of their faith sixty persons, and there are many more that are about ready to be received.

LEBANON STATION.

The personnel of the Lebanon Station for the past year at Abeih, Suk el Ghurb and Tahleh has remained unchanged. Mrs. Hardin and Miss Hardin were absent on furlough, while Mr. Hardin took but a short vacation. Dr. and Mrs. Carlaw, formerly of the Scotch Mission, have continued their valuable services in conducting the Shweir boys' school and the Shweir Church and parish, and in the oversight of the day-schools of that district. This they have done while bearing increasing bodily infirmities. We are glad to report that Miss Bird, after much suffering, has improved in health.

The Syrian workers employed by the Station are three ordained pastors, twelve unordained preachers, forty-nine men teachers and twenty-one women teachers. We have also employed one Bible woman and one bookstore and reading-room keeper. The total is eighty-seven.

By direction of the Presbytery three of the licentiates were ordained in Beirut by a commission of the Presbytery during the visit of Dr. Johnson. To the Lebanon Station this meant a great deal. In the outlying districts of the mountains the roads frequently become impassable in Winter, preventing the missionaries from reaching the people. The knowledge that we have at such times capable Syrian pastors to minister to these isolated parishes is a great comfort. These men have done well in their fields under their increased responsibility. The membership of their parishes has grown in numbers, and much satisfaction has been evinced by the people in having these good men of their own race as overseers and pastors.

While many changes have occurred in the native force, the licentiates, the lay preachers and the teachers have shown a good spirit and have done a good year's work. The church rolls have again been revised until the total number (662) of communicants in the nine churches more nearly represents the actual membership. Fifty-six were added during the year on confession, the largest number ever reported. Some of the churches, such as Suk el Ghurb and Abeih, have large summer audiences by reason of vacation visitors in the Lebanon. The Rev. John Walters, assistant teacher in the Suk school, held services in English at the Shemlan school from time to time during the year.

The total gifts of the churches this year aggregate 21,832 piasters, a gain of 4,814 piasters over the gifts of last year. In the meeting of Presbytery of August, 1906, a further increase to pastor's salaries was voted amounting to 2,900 piasters.

The average of congregations throughout the Station was 1,683. The attendance upon our Sunday-schools amounted to 2,285. Preaching has been carried on regularly in forty different places during the year and in four other places there has been preaching occasionally.

Rev. Michael Ibrahim, a well-tested evangelist and one of the three newly ordained pastors, continues a righteous warfare in the darker towns adjacent to his Station. In Marooj, the Maronites now supporting the school made a deposit of money to insure their contract. Several appear to be converted and are asking to be admitted to the church. They live in a little Lebanon hamlet near Shweir, over 4,000 feet above sea level. From their reforms in conduct they seem to be in earnest. One man is a muleteer. He used to arrange his trip to Beirut so that he returned on Sunday. He now reaches home on Saturday and keeps Sunday. Another used to sell arak (native liquor) from his shop to his customers; he no longer does so. A third has had to separate from his parents because of their opposition to the Gospel. As some of the Presbyters were returning from Shweir in August, they passed through this Maronite village of Marooj and asked if any members of the Greek Church lived there. The blunt reply was, "No! All are Christians except a few who turned Protestant."

A marked feature of the past year was the clearing up of several old quarrels among the communities in the churches. The spirit of the Gospel made some splendid victories for peace and brotherhood.

In one instance the peacemakers sent from two neighboring churches refused to touch food in the village until peace had been declared. In spite of evils within and taunts, insults and persecution from without, the Church is getting stronger in the Lebanon Station. In the towns and hamlets of the mountain a body of men and women, old and young, is being formed capable of showing their neighbors what it really means to follow Christ. The Presbytery too is becoming more of a reality to the Lebanon churches. The assessments this year were paid promptly. The Moderator was a Syrian. The assignment of the salaries and posts was loyally agreed to and the ordination of another licentiate, Mr. Rasheed Raad, was settled upon. This young man has been a valued teacher and a faithful preacher for more than twenty years, and during the annual meeting there was great joy at his formal ordination to the Christian ministry.

Schools.—In direct connection with our forty regular preaching places are our forty-five day-schools, with an enrollment of 2,269 pupils. These are taught by seventy teachers. Toward the support of these schools the people have paid in cash fees over 30,000 piasters, and enough more on rents of schools and houses to make the total 32,671 piasters. This outstrips all previous records. It exceeds last year's receipts by 7,321 piasters. This amount has, with few exceptions, been received in coppers of small denominations, month by month, from pupils of all grades and sizes. It did them good to give it, and it did the Station work good to receive it.

Our teachers, as a rule, are thoughtful and peace-loving, and though they may find their surroundings uncongenial at times, they generally finish up the year's work before asking to be moved elsewhere. Our schools are more than ever in demand. We need the best young men and women that Syria can afford to meet the demands of our village schools. The education given in the rival Catholic and Greek schools is a showy veneer. It is our purpose to have American day-schools give a substantial knowledge of rudiments, a clear understanding of God's Word and to awaken the pupils to normal independent thinking. The day-school building is the place where the preacher holds his services in most cases, and as such it becomes a mark for the attacks of monks, nuns and ecclesiastics, who anathematize all who have anything to do with our school.

Since the opening of the Aleppo Railway, Ras Baalbec may be visited and three hours spent there between trains, which come and go the same day. Formerly it took four days of travel from Tahleh to go and come.

In general the results of the day-school examinations were satisfactory. Our examinations test the teacher as much as the children, for it is he who is reflected in them.

Chapel Building.—Through the kind interest of Miss Appia fifty Napoleons were collected in Switzerland for a chapel building in Hadeth. This sum she wisely put at the service of the Mission.

Mr. Tamuis Saad and his brother, Mr. Mitry Saad, generously gave to the Board of Missions a suitable site. The building is plain but neat and admirably adapted for both Sunday services and for the day-school. It is expected to be without debt and it will mark the commencement of better things for Hadeth. We heartily thank Miss Appia, her friends in Switzerland, and the Messrs. Saad for their generous gifts.

On the chapel in Abeih a new tile roof has replaced the old leaky zinc roof, under which Mr. Bird used to crawl in winter to place dishes to catch the leaks. The laceworkers under Miss Bird's direction raised 1,000 piasters to help meet this expense. They also support a teacher in a day-school for girls.

Persecution.—Persecution has pressed hard in Iobb Elias and Jeditha on the best families of the church. Bigoted officials have made unsuccessful attempts to force them to leave the church and become Greeks. Through trumped-up charges soldiers were quartered in their homes for several days at a time, though the soldiers themselves protested against the injustice of it, and the officials openly declared that a return to the Greek Church would bring them relief.

The Khunshara Protestants were denied the right to bury their dead in their town, so one interment had to be made in the cemetery at Shweir. Through the aid of our Consul-General the permit has now been given them for a cemetery.

New Reading-Room.—A new feature of the work this year has been the combination of the bookstore in Zahleh with a free reading-room. The Willett Memorial Library of the Station has been brought into service for the reading-room. Periodicals have also been provided.

The sale of books and Bibles has gone on as usual. One man manages the whole enterprise. He is a good accountant and true Christian gentleman. Quite a contingent has assembled for reading throughout the year. The room is a large one in the very center of the city. Sunday evening our Men's Christian Endeavor Society meets there, and on Thursday, twice a month, the Women's Sewing Society takes possession of the place in the afternoon.

The Christian Endeavor Society, the Men's Society and the Sewing Society all report a full year's work and increasingly liberal offerings for objects as widely separated as San Francisco and the poor of Lebanon.

Suk-ul-Ghurb Boys' School.—Mr. Hardin reports a successful year with 176 boys, of whom 152 were boarders, seven lodgers and twenty day-pupils. They paid in fees over $5,000, which equals nearly four-fifths of the running expenses. With 159 persons sleeping on the premises the cry is a loud one for larger and better dormitories. The sects represented were Greek Orthodox 92, papal sects 36, Maronites 20, Protestants 31, and 16 non-Christian. The number of Maronites is larger than ever before and in this connection Mr. Hardin writes:

There are not lacking indications of a great change in the Maronite people, shown by their growing independence of the hierarchy. The tide has set toward our schools and the English language, so before long we may expect a large proportion of our scholars from this sect. This, together with a renewed interest in our school among the Druzes, are hopeful indications for the future.

After eight years of earnest work, Miss Hardin having gone to America for a visit, it became a very serious question how to fill her place in the school. Providentially, just before opening day there came to our help Rev. John Walters, of Louisiana, who gave valuable and conscientious assistance in teaching. He became a favorite with both teachers and boys and his influence was excellent, morally and religiously.

In August, Dr. Selim Ateeyah died suddenly. He had been physician of the school for over twenty years, attending to his duties with good success. We greatly miss him in the school and community.

In order to obviate a difficulty we have long experienced in having an undue number of elementary day-scholars, a new departure was made by opening a first-rate day-school conducted by two of our former pupils. As it was hoped to make this experiment pay its way, the charge was made one pound sterling for those taking English and half that sum for beginners in Arabic. Though eight of the forty pupils paid nothing 3,300 piasters were collected, and as a consequence there was daily attendance and good progress in study.

To make the school a success no boy from the vicinity who can attend this day-school is allowed to enter the boarding school as a day-pupil until he has finished this primary course satisfactorily. It is hoped that this will fit them for our third class. Though it has not paid expenses, we regard the experiment as very promising and worthy of continued effort.

Counting this school as a worthy branch of our work, we had in all 219 boys under instruction in Suk-el-Ghurb last year—a field of influence large enough and important enough for any man to covet, and to engage his best energies and efforts.

Shweir School for Boys.—Dr. Carslaw reports that the year was one of the best in the history of the school. The finances were sound, the conduct and health of the students were exceedingly good and the relations between the teachers excellent. Much credit is accorded to the head teacher, Mr. Murad Saleeby, whose loss to the school is a great one. He has gone to the Philippine Islands to undertake the management of a large estate in conjunction with an older brother, also a graduate of the Shweir School.

Thus the influence of this fine school widens. A member of the last graduating class obtained the prize scholarship of £6 offered by the faculty of the Syrian Protestant College to the candidate who passed highest in the special examination.

Dr. Carslaw's advancing years and Mrs. Carslaw's great suffering from ill health constitute a most serious problem in connection with the future of this school, which for over twenty-four years has sustained such an excellent record and has exerted such a wide influence in Lebanon.

SIDON STATION.

The year which began in sunshine closed in deep shadows of sorrow.

In the death of the Rev. W. K. Eddy, not only the members of Sidon Station, but the whole Syrian community have suffered what seems an irreparable loss.

Saturday night, November 3, Mr. Eddy received the final summons to which we must all answer. In the sudden call that came to him there is much that is sad and noble, pathetic and beautiful. Life in a tent he had always been peculiarly fond of, and though the most genial and companionable of men, he loved at times to get off in the wilderness to comparative solitude. And it was far from habitations and in a tent, with only a reformed robber, his servant, and two young sons near him, that he breathed his last. The unselfishness of his nature, which was one of his most prominent characteristics, showed itself to the very last, when, although in great pain and knowing that the hand of death was on him, he insisted on his tired servant retiring to rest, instead of remaining to wait on him. His thoughtfulness, to which we all have owed so much at one time or another, appeared in his giving his servant minute directions as to what to do and how he was to be brought home to Sidon.

His two boys, Clarence and William, were each in turn called and received farewell messages. He asked Clarence to repeat the 23d Psalm and, after bidding each good-by, sent them to rest, telling them they would have a hard day before them. All this was done while suffering excruciating pain and when every word added to his agony. Early Sunday morning he seemed to sink into a merciful unconsciousness and quietly passed away shortly after 1 o'clock.

His place in the hearts of the people was clearly shown at the funeral, when among the thousands who attended were many from distant places, who came with tear-stained faces simply to be present and bid him the last farewell. His many and diversified gifts and his place in the councils of the Mission need no comment. As was fittingly said, "The widows and orphans, the poor and oppressed of Sidon field have lost their best earthly friend." A nobler tribute or more adequate crown can hardly be offered to our dear friend's memory.

Dr. Ford's marriage to Miss Catharine Booth has enriched the Station circle very happily. They have been most warmly greeted.

Native Co-operation.—Great encouragements are reported from the side of native co-operation in the matter of self-support and self-government. The year will prove one of the milestones by which the advance of mission work in this Station is to be marked.

As we review the causes which led to the forward step we feel like saying, "Blessed be adversity!" Closing the financial year in debt and with new openings for work springing up around us, the situation seemed well-nigh desperate. At a meeting of the Station it was decided that the circumstances seemed to point to the necessity of asking the native churches to assume a greater burden of responsibility. After considerable thought and prayer, it was decided to ask the twelve churches of Presbytery to take over the financial and moral responsibility for the schools, in addition, in most cases, to paying some portion of the preacher's salary.

It was decided that the Mission should pay nothing for schools in these churches, its contribution going entirely towards the support of preaching. In those churches where the licentiate is also a teacher, and hence a more expensive man than the church would have as a teacher only, the Mission would contribute a part of the salary.

When Presbytery met and the situation was explained and the proposition laid before the churches there was almost a panic. As one elder put it, "All this time we have leaned on you and you have led us; now you suddenly drop our hands and tell us to walk alone, and we are afraid. How can we engage our teachers and guarantee their salaries and superintend our schools?" It took nearly a day and a half before the Presbytery could see its way clear to accept, and it was very interesting to see how the chance "to walk alone" gradually grew in attractiveness and practicability. Much was due to the effective persuasion of the lamented Mr. Eddy. When the proposition was first made only one member stood up for it. One of the most determined opponents was the oldest of our pastors, a very good man, but a little too conservative to accept the new order of things easily. In the end he gave a very grudging assent; so imagine our pleasure on visiting his church at Judeideh Merj Ayouu, a few days after Presbytery closed, to find him enthusiastically at work with his Session, devising ways and means to meet the situation, for in his church the charge was likely to require almost double the former contribution. Since then, we are happy to report that the Judeideh school has opened as a high school with two teachers and a fair number of pupils, the fees demanded for the first and second classes have jumped from two mejedies to two napoleons, while the primaries pay, instead of half a mejedy, two mejedies. In all the schools, where before the churches claimed it was quite out of the question for them to pay more than half a mejedy, or at most a mejedy, on a pupil, they are now quite cheerfully paying from twice to four times as much as formerly, because it is their own school and they, not the Mission, must make the ends meet.

In the town of Memis, on the slopes of Hermon, where there is not a single Protestant, the people, assisted by absentees in America, having raised a fund for a good school, placed the same under the control of the Rev. Taameh Rahhal, the native pastor of Hasbeya, a telling tribute of the people's confidence in the Protestant pastor and mission methods. They also plead that the missionaries should visit their school, for as they quaintly said, "The school will then grow large in the eyes of the people." Needless to say this new school has not yet secured the bishop's blessing.

The Native Evangelical Society raised over $107, and, after supporting a reading-room, undertook to open a small school in a village which has appealed in vain to the Mission. The Society for Bible Distribution raised $72.89, almost all of which was spent in Bible work, eighty copies being given away and the remainder sold at a fraction of the cost.

Sidon Presbytery.—The report for the year to Presbytery was most encouraging. The number admitted to the church was 114, a considerable advance over any previous year. The total amount raised by the churches was 40,000 piasters ($1,428.57), of which nearly half was contributed for special purposes, principally building and repairing, and 7,462 piasters ($266.57) were contributed for home missionary work. Presbytery received an application from Aines Shara for admission at the next Presbytery as a regular church, and a native pastor and an elder were appointed to visit it and organize the church for admission.

A year ago, when the Presbytery was so stirred by news of the work in the Hauran, Rev. Assad Abbood was directed to visit the churches and raise a fund for this Home Mission enterprise. The sum of $193.25 was enough to defray the expenses of extensive touring by two men filled with apostolic zeal. A part of the report of Rev. Assad Abbood reads:

I spent two weeks there in the Hauran, most of the time at Kharaba, where there was the greatest interest and where the work of Miss Mary

Ford and others had borne abundant fruit. I found nearly eighty applicants for church membership. Of this number twenty-one were received, also three from the village of Khasfeen. The following Summer I again visited these places, spending a week at Khasfeen and neighborhood and two weeks at Kharaba. The interest and zeal of the people was most refreshing, and they gathered in numbers every day to talk and pray and have the Scriptures explained to them. As we sat on the floor, arguing, discussing, and questioning, I realized more fully than ever before that only the Spirit of God could so work in the hearts of those poor ignorant down-trodden people.

The last Sunday of my stay we had a communion service preceded by an examination of candidates for church membership. Of the fifty-two applicants, twenty-five were received, the others being advised to wait until the next time, when they should have had further opportunity for instruction and to prove by their lives that they were really striving to walk in the footsteps of their Master. We talked at length about a church organization and some one to look after their spiritual welfare, and it seemed wisest to try and train one of their own number to be their teacher and preacher, for, as they said, "No one except one of our own number could ever stand the life here."

Many of the native churches have taken up the matter of building and enlarging their schools and places of worship. The total expenditures of the churches in this line were over 22,000 piasters ($785), of which part still hangs over as a debt; but there seemed to be a feeling of confidence that this debt would be wiped out, as those members of the churches absent in America will answer appeals for money for building, where they will give nothing for preaching or schools.

Mejdeloona finished the building of its large new church; El Khiyan finished its schoolhouse and Hasbeyah its manse, and now Deir Mimas and Judeideh have the building fever, and after Presbytery the members of the Station visited Deir Mimas to consult with the preacher and church Session as to the plans to enlarge the church and put on a tile roof, also to rebuild and enlarge the old and dilapidated school premises. Kerm-el-Hanash, under the impetus of the energetic preacher who has been moved there from Mughdushi, has so quickened to life that the people decided to try and buy a very available site and build a church on it. The elder, an almost blind old man, was especially zealous, and soon half the price was raised.

The Sidon church shows some encouraging results, which have appeared in larger audiences and the addition of several members from Sidon itself, besides a number from the adjoining villages. At the last meeting of the Presbytery, it was decided to call the preacher, Mr. Khalil Rasi, to become the pastor, and we are hoping that the ordination may soon take place.

Schools.—This year for the first time a school was opened in Kaituli, formerly considered one of the most bigoted centers. When part of the village asked for a school, the Sheikh said, "I dare not help you; but I hope you will succeed, and then in a few years, when the opposition dies down, I can send my children."

Lack of money and failure of the people to respond to the call of the Mission for increased school fees have led to the closing of four schools. In Magdushah, for so many years a storm center, things have been quiet and the people are now being slowly led along in the lines of self-support. While persecutions and lawsuits were fierce and unrelenting the people were under a financial strain that was almost more than they could carry and from which they are only beginning to recover.

Gerard Institute.—The year has been a successful one of unbroken work, with an increased attendance. There was a total of 284 pupils enrolled. Gerard Institute has two distinct divisions, one in the city of Sidon, where the six higher classes are trained and where three industrial departments are carried on; the other is at Dar-es-Salam, about two miles away, where are three primary classes, the orphanage and extensive farmlands. Dr. George A. Ford has the direct charge of the part at Dar-es-Salam, while Dr. Samuel Jessup and Mr. S. D. Jessup have charge of the work in Sidon. Mrs. George Wood, after having been actively and intimately connected with the Institute for several years, at the close of the Summer, finding her health seriously impaired, was compelled to give up her work in Syria and seek restoration elsewhere. Her absence is most keenly felt. She has provided munificent endowments for orphanage and industrial departments, with extensive farmlands for an agricultural department.

She has lived a self-denying life, giving the best of her time and strength daily to the Institute, teaching two and sometimes three classes a day. But, more than in anything else, we shall miss her motherly influence over the boys and her earnest efforts for the saving of their souls. It is our earnest hope that she may ere long get that measure of health which shall enable her to return to this land and school which we know she so dearly loves.

While the aim of the department is not financial profit, the surplus was about half the cost of the industrial instructors. The spirit of the school was very satisfactory. Two boys received gold medals for having passed two years without a single misconduct mark, and six others the usual medal for having no misconduct marks during a single year.

There were twenty church members at the beginning of the school year and forty at the close. Earnest addresses from Dr. H. A. Johnson, Rev. Stuart Crawford, of the college, and those in charge, blessed by the Spirit of God, brought about this happy result.

The gift of $8,000 from the church at Ramapo, N. Y., announced at the wedding of Dr. and Mrs. Ford, is to supply a new building for the Institute and is one of the gleams of sunshine amid the shadows.

Sidon Seminary.—The mimeograph has entered the seminary, and a little text-book printed in this way has helped pay the cost of this modern invention. The total enrollment was 125, of which fifty-five were boarders and seventy day-pupils. The graduating class was composed of six girls. Three of those are already teaching. Seven were admitted to the church during the year.

In December we received a request to accept a girl from east of the Jordan, where the people are hungering for the Word of Life. Miss Caroline Thompson, of the B. S. M., offered to pay 600 piasters toward her tuition. She came in her Bedouin garments, and after a plentiful use of soap and water and a new suit of clothes a remarkable change came over her. At first she was fearfully homesick, but later became contented and happy. Her father reported that during her vacation she was able to pass on what she had learned to those less fortunate.

At commencement time the teachers, with the help of some of the missionaries, prepared a little surprise for Miss Brown, who had completed more than twenty years of faithful loving service in the seminary, and Miss Almaz Hourani, who had taught for twenty-five years, always ready to do the hard things and competent in every time of need. Although only a few of the graduates could return to join in the celebration, many sent loving messages and with their gifts and those of some other friends two handsome rugs and other mementoes were purchased.

The Missionary Society held its regular meetings during the year and collected 1,404 piasters (about $50). Over half of this amount was sent by former students, who were still interested in their society and better able to give than when they were here. One-third of the money was sent to Africa to Mrs. Edward Ford, one-third to Arabia and the remainder was given to help in the building of the Kerm-el-Hanash church and the Sidon reading-room.

SAN FRANCISCO CHINESE MISSION.

It has been an eventful year. Some of the trials the world already knows, others not. Few men have had to carry such burdens as Mr. Laughlin, for not only did he lose his own home, but multitudes of the homeless Chinese turned to him for help and counsel. None of cosmopolitan San Francisco's many races suffered more from the great disaster than the Chinese; it is doubtful if any endured so much. Their strong attachment to Chinatown accustomed many of those who lived elsewhere to retain investments in its business, or to hold clothing and other possessions in storage there, so that when Chinatown perished—as it did to the last vestige—a much larger portion of the race than was actually resident felt the pain. They, too, were the ones to be slighted by the insurance adjuster, who, working ever for the advantage of his company, would not, at any rate in California, be excited to emotions of justice and generosity by the claims of Chinese policy-holders. And in their city of refuge, Oakland, whither many of the sufferers fled, rents began to soar in Chinatown even earlier than in other parts of the municipality. Thus much of what was saved from the fire has since been going at the rate of ten dollars a month for a room of mere boards, with but scant perquisite of light and air.

In most respects our Christian people fared just as the others. Financially they were hard hit.

Our one rich member, Low Tsoy, who formerly had in the city a fine store of Japanese and Chinese antiques and curios, saved a remnant from the fire by spending hundreds of dollars in the hire of wagons. Other invoices arriving from the Orient and piling up enormous charges for storage in the Customs warehouses, necessitated the leasing and fitting up of a store in Oakland. In addition to the large rental, he had to pay a thousand dollars to induce the former occupant to vacate the premises.

Our most widely known member, Rev. Ng Poon Chew, who as a lecturer has attained considerable celebrity in late years, has given to all a fine example of pluck and energy. For some years he has been managing editor of the principal Chinese daily paper in San Francisco. Office, machinery, books, home—all were destroyed. He and his interesting family escaped to Oakland. In reconstructing his plant, no hustling American could have been more energetic. Presses were at once ordered from the East and new fonts of type from Japan, but the paper waited not for their arrival; seven days only was its issue suspended. Its eager readers in various regions of the earth found the new paper smaller, but faultless in make-up. Every character had been written by the skilled hand of a Chinese scholar, photographed on zinc and engraved. Costly? Yes, indeed. All the more honor to the enterprise of Mr. Chew and his fellow-publishers. His cheeriness, too, throughout the struggle was inspiring. Uniformly happy and hopeful he appeared. But that might be said of all our Chinese who met with disaster. As one "adjuster" put it: "They are good losers."

Among them I have heard nothing of suicide from despondency, or drowning of trouble in drink. All that I know have adjusted themselves to the new conditions and gone to work without a whine. Happily for the young men who could cook and do other housework, there was immediate demand for their services. Clerks, tailors, and those who run sewing machines in factories had a harder time. Only gradually could they find profitable jobs. Many of them took advantage of the interruption of their business to make a visit to the mother country. Many have, for the time being, scattered to different cities in this and neighboring States. For these causes our Sabbath congregations have been greatly reduced, averaging hardly one-half of what they used to be in the city.

Nor, we regret to add, has there been an ingathering from the outside. Of both the Chinese and the whites, it is notable that the hearts of the ungodly were not softened by the calamity that brought them face to face with death. Only one man has been baptized since the earthquake. A girl had been received in February; these two are all who joined our division of Christ's army in 1906. This dearth may be due to the enforced suspension of some of our important activities, such as day-schools and King's Daughters' meetings, and the restrictions put upon others, as Sunday-schools and night schools, which have had only one-third of their ordinary power.

And the Exclusion Law is ever with us, diminishing the material we have to work on.

Yet the future has a good deal of brightness in it. Chinatown in San Francisco is being rebuilt more rapidly than any other portion of the burned city. Soon business there will be re-established, and the streets once more be alive with a yellow population. Our wandering Christians will return, and before this New Year grows old we shall hope to have a church building, much better fitted to our needs than was the former, going up on the old site which was more than half a century ago dedicated to the worship of God and the salvation of men. For the ever-increasing army of children—American-born Chinese—we hope to do more than in the past.

For a good while after the disaster, we derived comfort from the thought that the life of not one of our members had been lost, but for some months grave doubt has oppressed us concerning the fate of Fung Miu Kwun, a paralytic, who lived in the top story of one of the buildings in the path of the fire-fiend. Of him the most diligent inquiry fails to elicit information. If he met his end in the fiery furnace we can only trust that, as in the case of the Hebrew children, he had with him for comfort and support one "Like the Son of God."

Outside of San Francisco and Oakland, the Board continues to carry on work among the Chinese in Alameda, San Rafael, Santa Rosa, and Los Angeles. In Alameda a weekly prayer meeting is conducted by the San Francisco Chinese pastor, and insurance on the chapel is paid out of the Board's treasury; salary of night school teacher, and all other expenses, are paid from funds procured from other sources.

In Santa Rosa the Board has no expense, regularly, but the paying of insurance on the chapel. This year the Board had the additional outlay of $116.59, for laying a sidewalk in front of the chapel. The number of Chinese has become so reduced that they cannot longer raise such large sums of money.

In San Rafael the Board is at no expense. The San Francisco pastor makes bi-weekly visits to the Mission there, conducting meetings for preaching and prayer.

The work in Los Angeles has been under the care of Rev. J. H. Stewart, the bulk of whose salary is paid by the Board, the balance being received from the Los Angeles Presbytery.

Other work, as at Santa Barbara, Riverside, and other places, is carried on by local churches, without help from the Board. At all the Stations there is a good deal of voluntary work done by Christians whose lives are consecrated to good deeds.

In all the Stations, while the depressing operation of the Exclusion Law is plainly seen in the steady decrease of the Chinese population, there is yet sufficient encouragement to make glad the hearts of the workers.

Mr. Stewart reports concerning his last communion season that more communicants were present than on any previous occasion. Some outsiders, too, have been manifesting more than ordinary interest in the truth.

It is worthy of note that at least ninety Presbyterian Christians are found among the Koreans of California, and sixty others who are applicants for baptism. At this moment Rev. S. A. Moffett, D.D., on furlough from Korea, is making a tour among these groups of people, in company with the Korean evangelist, and it is hoped that he may find a goodly number prepared to receive the rite of baptism at his hands.

Just now it looks as if the enemies of Asiatic immigration had the upper hand, and that Japanese and Koreans, as well as the Chinese, would be largely shut out of this country for some time to come; but many of us feel that this settlement of the question is not right, and cannot, therefore, be permanent. A conference of representative people is called to meet at Mt. Hermon the last week of the coming June, for the purpose of gathering information on this whole question, digesting it, and making known to the President and others in the East, who have a right to know, what is the deliberate sentiment of the soberer portion of California's population. Let the prayers of God's people ascend in behalf of this convention.

JAPANESE WORK ON THE PACIFIC COAST.

Dr. and Mrs. Sturge have had a year of exhausting labor, for our Japanese Mission in San Francisco, which is the oldest and largest Presbyterian Mission for these people in the United States, received a heavy blow in the awful catastrophe which visited that city in April, 1906.

Though the conflagration came so near that a stone could have been thrown into the flames from our Mission building, the property was saved by a sudden change in the wind. The earthquake, which shook down a large frame building adjoining our property, did us no very serious damage. This was fortunate, as we were able to give temporary shelter and assistance to about 500 Japanese refugees, who were glad to sleep upon the floors of all the rooms and halls and in tents erected in the back yard. Nearly every Japanese place of business in San Francisco was destroyed, and the owners were scattered to the four winds. Last year our chapel was too small to accommodate those who wished to attend the services, but since the great fire there has been no lack of room.

Though the Japanese are gradually returning to the city, their attention has been so taken up by their efforts to re-establish themselves and by the petty persecution to which they have been recently subjected, that they have shown less interest than usual in religious matters. Seventeen have been added to the San Francisco Church upon profession and one by certificate during the past twelve months. The whole number received by this church since its organization twenty-two years ago is 452. The greater portion of these are now in Japan.

Connected with the San Francisco work is a Japanese Y. M. C. A., having 125 members. With the one exception of the day of the earthquake, religious services were conducted every Sabbath and Wednesday evening during the year. Day and night educational classes were taught as usual. The most interesting of these have been a couple of small daily gatherings for the study of the Bible. Two of our members have just returned to Japan as evangelists, having completed three years of study in the San Francisco Theological Seminary, while two others are still students in that institution.

THE LOS ANGELES WORK.

In our Japanese work the next Station in importance is Los Angeles. As the result of four years of work in that city, a Presbyterian Japanese Church was organized, which now has seventy-three members. A couple of Japanese elders were elected, and last November the Rev. J. K. Inazawa was installed pastor. A larger and more pleasantly located building has been found for the Mission Home, and the future outlook for this organization seems very bright. As the Japanese in Los Angeles are obliged to pay $65 per month rent for the property which they occupy, their greatest need appears to be the possession of a suitable building of their own. Thirty-three were added to this church during the past year. Twenty-nine of these were received upon profession of faith and four by letter. A successful school with Mrs. Stever at its head has been carried on in connection with this Mission. Several consecrated ladies have freely given of their time to help in this work.

WORK IN THE FARMING DISTRICTS.

In order to reach the Japanese in the rural districts, Missions have been established in Monterey, Santa Cruz and Orange Counties. These are all growing, but have not yet been organized into churches.

THE SALINAS WORK.

This Mission in Monterey County has never received any help from the Board, but it has received a little assistance from a few American friends. There are twenty-six Japanese Christians connected with this Mission, and these, with the assistance of a few of their countrymen, recently purchased for $1,200 the property which they have for several years rented for a Mission home. In addition to this they have paid a small salary to Mr. Kobayashi, who has been in charge of this work. This self-sacrificing young man is about to give up this position in order that he may fit himself for a larger work as an evangelist. During the past year six adults made a public confession of their faith in Christ and received baptism in the Mission.

THE WATSONVILLE WORK.

A couple of years ago the Japanese of Watsonville purchased their present Mission home for $2,400, but a mortgage of $1,500 was allowed to rest upon the property. A third of this sum has been paid off during the past year, and there is good reason for thinking that the remaining portion will be lifted soon. Mr. and Mrs. Myazaki have been in charge of this Mission, and have proved themselves to be efficient workers. The school connected with this Mission has been ably instructed by Mrs. Patton, who has devoted much valuable time to the Japanese. Seven adults received baptism in this Mission during the past year. The number of Christians at present connected with it is twenty-four.

THE WINTERSBURG WORK.

Rev. B. H. Terasawa has been doing a truly Christlike work for his countrymen in Orange County, Southern California. This good brother raises half of his support by teaching, the other half coming from the Presbyterian churches in the neighborhood. Mr. Terasawa lives in a small rented cottage, a barn in the rear of the lot being used for religious services. This good Samaritan brought several of his countrymen who were suffering with typhoid fever to his little home and nursed them back to health. Four men and one woman were baptized during the year, one of them being a patient thus cared for. This youngest Mission now has about a dozen members. The members of this Mission have purchased a nice piece of ground, upon which they hope soon to erect a Mission building.

OUR MAGAZINE.

The different Presbyterian Missions have united in publishing a monthly magazine which we trust may have a wide circulation, as its purpose is to carry the Gospel message into the camps and to other places where the Japanese have no religious privileges. There are some towns in California where there are a thousand Japanese for whom nothing is being done. The Board desires as soon as possible to appoint another native worker, who shall be a missionary at large, and whose duty shall be to visit these neglected Japanese and help them to a higher moral and spiritual life.

THE OCCIDENTAL BOARD.

The disaster of last year has cast its heavy shadow over this year also. With only a part of three walls left standing, the large Mission family was left homeless. When Miss Cameron and her fifty-seven girls and children passed through the fire line, within one block of the ferry, she felt that her cavalcade was large; but in a short time she had added sixty more Chinese to her number of protégés, and they stayed with her all Summer. San Rafael opened wide its doors and proved a peaceful haven during a very turbulent Summer. November 1 the Mission moved to 477 East Eleventh street, corner of Tenth avenue, East Oakland, because the San Rafael accommodations were too small to shelter so many during the Winter. Inquiries were constant as to the whereabouts of the Presbyterian Mission Home by the Chinese in Oakland, and the demands upon its limited shelter and Miss Cameron's help and sympathy have proven the great need for the Occidental Board to be looking after its large flock, known and unknown.

Three more young girls were rescued the week before the report was mailed, one a little child four years old whom Miss Cameron found in a disreputable house, even though the father had promised a few months before to protect his little daughter from such surroundings if the Mission would withdraw the suit then pending in the courts and give him his little girl, when, after getting possession of her, he sold her to the most notorious woman dealing in girls in Chinatown.

One of the other rescued girls was most attractive, only seventeen years old, and was taken to the Mission Home at her own request. While Miss Cameron was hunting for the little girl just spoken of, this one said under her breath to the interpreter, "Take me; I want to go to the Mission." To make sure that she knew what she was saying and would not change her mind, she was asked again if she really wanted to go with them, and she said quite imploringly, "Why don't your officer seize me? My master will think pretty soon that I have asked you to take me away." She is now in the home, happy and contented. She speaks very little English, but told the girls in Chinese that when she was a little girl she was in one of the Missions in Shanghai, and they were so kind to her she always wanted to go again to the Mission where she heard of a good man named "Jesus," who was good to Chinese girls and was the "Gentle Shepherd." Those two words she remembered in English, and kept saying them over again and again.

Miss Culbertson, former superintendent of the Chinese rescue work, said before her death, as she stood with her feet on the brink and her lifework behind her, "I have rescued 1,000 slave girls, and I only regret that the result is not larger." Her mantle fell on Miss Cameron's shoulders, and since then about 500 girls have been snatched from ruin. The converted girls who have been married have founded their own Christian households, from British Columbia to Mexico and from Boston to far-away China. Many girls have been sheltered in the Home before deportation. They too have done their work.

Word has reached the Mission of one of these girls who went home to the interior of her native land, and her Christian influence converted a whole village. Another girl was seen by Miss Cameron, during her recent visit to Canton, who was in one of the Missions as a helper. She was so highly esteemed by the missionaries that all were saying, "Wait until you see this Chinese girl; she is unusual." When Miss Cameron did see her, her surprise and joy were great; for this paragon was one of her own girls and had been rescued and trained in the Mission at 920 Sacramento street.

These are some of the living records of the Mission Home, that stands as a church to the girls who have gone out into the world, a church whose doors are open seven days in the week and every night in the year, where they and their children can fly whenever trouble overtakes them, and these Oriental daughters turn to the only mother and home they ever knew, and for advice and sweet counsel from this young Scotchwoman who is all in all to them.

SCHOOLS.—The Occidental School, as the school carried on in the Chinese quarters before the fire was called, was established in the temporary Home in San Rafael during the Summer, because so many of the children from the burned-out Chinatown were housed in the grounds of the Mission Home. Rooms were scarce as the house was small, but the grounds were large and tents and outbuildings were filled with refugees; the rose arbor was pressed into service for the Occidental School. The Home School, through the kindness of Mr. Gail Borden, had a spacious tent for shelter from the burning rays of the sun. After the first fortnight following the fire the schools held their regular sessions throughout the Summer.

The Home School, now at 477 East Eleventh street, Oakland, has an enrollment of thirty-nine, without the kindergarten class whose room is not ready for them, and they have no teacher.

We are hoping that one of the more advanced girls will soon be home to act as teacher. The school is very comfortably housed in what was once the stable, which is well lighted and made comfortable with a small stove. The carriage house is to shelter the kindergarten. Miss Maud Pratt is still teacher of the advanced grades and has charge of all. The more advanced girls assist in the school as there are several grades and only one teacher. Three or four of the girls teach classes.

The primary and kindergarten school of the Occidental Board has taken a room in the Oakland Mission, 837 Harrison street, at a rental of $12 a month. The school was opened January 21, 1907, with forty scholars in attendance, and the prospects are encouraging for a very large school. Miss Grace Russell, formerly missionary at Urumia, Persia, is teacher.

EVANGELISTIC WORK OF THE OCCIDENTAL BOARD.—The earthquake and fire in Chinatown, San Francisco, changed the homes of the Chinese people, also the evangelistic work of the Occidental Board. Oakland, Alameda and Berkeley became "Cities of Refuge."

The evangelistic work followed the moving of the people, and for several months our workers were going from tent to tent, carrying comforts for bodily necessities and words of cheer to those who had lost all earthly possessions. At the present time the Chinese are finding homes, and Oakland has become the centre of evangelistic work. The need for continuing the work was never greater, first, because of the easy access to all families and the doors are open to all visitors; second, because no form of idol worship is continually before them. When asked about idol worship and incense burning the reply often is, "We same as Christians; now one god, no more;" third, the loss of their earthly possessions and the kindness of Christian people has opened their hearts to listen to and accept Christian teaching.

The Bible reader, Mrs. Wing, reports about 100 houses visited regularly, where frequently ten or more families live under one roof and many Chinese women are trying to lead a Christian life.

The question is so often asked when the Mission is to be rebuilt, it has been suggested that it be answered in this public manner.

Plans are being drawn now, and if all goes well we hope the Thanksgiving dinner may be eaten under the new Mission roof-tree. However, that may be impossible, as there are many stumbling blocks in the way, principally the high price and scarcity of labor and material which seem constantly on the upward grade.

Our Building Committee has decided all they can build will be a Class C building, that being the cheapest structure permitted by the city ordinances within the fire limits; and to locate outside the fire limits places the Mission too far from Chinatown to make it available as a refuge to the slave girls.

The report of the Occidental Board closes as follows:

In summing up the year's work, with all its calamity, all its blessings, all its discouragements, all its achievements, it would be incomplete if mention were not made in this public way of the gratitude of the people of California, and especially of the Mission workers, for the magnificent generosity in the hour of extreme need of both the East and the West, which has enabled the Mission Home to meet the enlarged outlay necessary to re-establish its work in temporary and later in permanent quarters.

It is a subject for deep congratulation that all, practically speaking, of the money subscribed for rebuilding the Mission was given by the Women's Boards, both East and West, thereby enabling this woman's work to keep out of the way of the rehabilitation fund sanctioned by the General Assembly. It has been the hope of the Occidental Board to receive a pro rata share of at least $5,000 of the General Assembly fund; but as that fund has not reached the desired proportions this was impossible. To the Women's Boards who have so generously donated to the upbuilding of the new Home and the personal friends, also women, what more can be said than that our prayer is God will bless and prosper you, and that all this may be returned to you in "good measure, pressed down, and shaken together and running over."

The good women of this Board have toiled unceasingly in their labor of love throughout the whole year. They had heavy cares in connection with their own families in this time of grievous disaster. Many of them lost their own homes and suffered serious nervous strain. But they have found, or rather taken, time to provide for the helpless Chinese girls under their care, to raise considerable money and to plan for the rebuilding of their beautiful Rescue Home. They richly deserve the sympathies and the prayers of the whole Church.

CHINESE WORK IN CALIFORNIA OUTSIDE OF SAN FRANCISCO.

This has been carried on at several places, but separate reports are not sent to the Board, as the work is under the care and is supported by the local churches or Presbyteries, except in Los Angeles, where the Board makes a small grant. The Rev. Dr. J. H. Stewart has continued his faithful labors in this important centre.

THE PORTLAND MISSION.

The work continues to be conducted under the care of the Presbytery of Portland, which superintends it through a Committee, aided and counseled by the Rev. Dr. and Mrs. William S. Holt, so long connected with our foreign missionary work both in China and in Oregon. As in New York, the Board simply makes a grant of part of the cost to the Presbytery, which is responsible for any further funds that may be required. The night school, the Sunday-school and the preaching services have been regularly maintained. It has been found unnecessary to keep open the Rescue Home for Chinese women and girls, as there have been only a few girls to be rescued and they have been cared for through an arrangement with the Salvation Army. The very fact, however, that our Rescue Home remains in existence, and that it could be reopened at any moment, serves as a warning and deterrent to the evil-minded men who are engaged in the nefarious traffic among the Chinese slave girls.

All the friends of the work appreciate highly the self-sacrificing and unsalaried labors of Dr. and Mrs. Holt. Often when her husband has been away, Mrs. Holt has assumed the whole local supervision of the Chinese work, toiling incessantly and self-sacrificingly. There seems to be no diminution in the number of the Chinese. A number of Chinese from San Francisco came to Portland after the earthquake and are still there.

MISSIONS AMONG THE CHINESE IN NEW YORK.

Rev. Huie Kin reports that during the year four converts have been baptized. Seven men have been hopefully converted. The men are visited in their laundries, and every effort made to build them up in the Christian faith and help them in their difficulties.

Chung Fay, one of the Christian men, is still teaching and preaching the Gospel in his native village. Eight of the young men are in the higher institutions of learning preparing themselves to return to China. The Sabbath-school is still carried on at 26 West Ninth street, with an enrollment of 109, and an average attendance of forty-six. A preaching service is maintained and also a Y. M. C. A. meeting.

The work continues to be carried on under the care of the Presbytery of New York, which is responsible for its care and support, though the Board makes a grant to the Presbytery's Committee of about three-sevenths of the cost of maintenance.

WORK AMONG THE KOREANS IN THE UNITED STATES.

During the year a very interesting work has developed among the Koreans, who have been coming to America in increasing numbers. Most of them went first to the Hawaiian Islands, where there are now about 5,000; but they have shown an increasing disposition to continue their journey to California. The Rev. Dr. S. A. Moffett, of Korea, who stopped in the Islands on his way home on furlough, thinks that comparatively few of the Koreans will remain there, as all whom he saw planned either to go on to California or to return to Korea. They find employment on the plantations, but the work is hard and the climate more enervating than they have been accustomed to in their native land. Christian work among them has been undertaken by the Methodists and Congregationalists.

There are now, however, over 1,000 Koreans in the United States, most of them in California, and it is quite certain that the best and strongest of the 5,000 in Hawaii will come here as fast as they can save enough money to pay their fare. There will also be a constant emigration from Korea to America, if the doors remain open, as many Koreans chafe under the restrictions imposed by the Japanese and desire to secure better opportunities for study and for the acquisition of wealth than they have in Korea. About one-tenth of those now here are Christians and most of these are Presbyterians, some of them the brightest young men and women of our Korean churches.

It seemed highly desirable that something should be done for these strangers on our shores. Providentially, Mr. Pang, a Korean evangelist, was available. He was employed in the Fall and he at once took up the work with intelligence and enthusiasm, under the general supervision of Mr. Laughlin, the superintendent of our Chinese work, aided by Dr. Moffett, who spent a part of his furlough in California. By January, Mr. Pang had enrolled about 180 Christians in several groups and had visited Los Angeles, Riverside, Redlands, Pasadena and several other places, finding Koreans in all.

The Koreans who come to America are an earnest, enthusiastic body of men who are very desirous of bettering their conditions in life. Whatever may be thought of the wisdom of their coming, there can be no difference of opinion as to the Christian treatment that they should receive while here.

REPORT OF THE TREASURER

OF THE

BOARD OF FOREIGN MISSIONS.

The fiscal year of the Board closed April 30, 1907, with a surplus in the Treasury of $749.37. That the year was closed without a deficit on the year's account, although the appropriations and disbursements were the largest in the history of the Board, is a cause for rejoicing and thanksgiving.

For the past three years the Treasurer has reported an accumulating deficit, and while 1906-07 shows a small surplus, this old deficit remains. At the beginning of the present year it amounted to $110,918.71, but special gifts have reduced it to $92,896.02. In this connection, it is interesting to note that the fiscal years 1893-97 inclusive showed a deficit; 1898-1903 inclusive showed a surplus without a break in the good record; but 1904-06 inclusive reported deficits again without interruption. This year has therefore brought a change for the better which it is hoped will prove to be the beginning of a long series of surplus years. The Church is now called upon to wipe out the accumulated deficits of past years, so that the Board may have a clean sheet and be put in a position of confidence toward the enlarging opportunities in every one of the foreign fields. It ought to encourage us to remember that although the year 1897-8 began with an accumulated deficit of $97,454.47, it was entirely wiped out that year, and the regular work was provided for in addition. We have a similar problem for the year 1907-08.

It is necessary again to call attention to the habit, now too well established, of a large number of churches and societies taking foreign mission collections and making remittances to the Treasurer of the Board during the last month or two of the fiscal year. In some cases this perhaps cannot be avoided, but in others the money might be sent in much earlier, thus providing the Board with funds for current work during the earlier months. About $100,000 is disbursed each month for mission work, and when receipts are so irregular as to bring into the Treasury only $50,000 or $60,000 a month for ten months, it can readily be seen that heavy borrowing is necessary. Such borrowing is expensive, costing the Board this year in the neighborhood of $5,000 for interest.

The increases in receipts for the year were as follows:

The net profit accruing to the Board from the operation of the Presbyterian Building was $15,517.75; from operating 5 West 20th Street, $2,148.01. Alterations are now in progress on the Presbyterian Building whereby the Assembly Hall on the ground floor will be converted into business space, which it is estimated will increase the total income some $8,000. Of this increase the Foreign Board will receive one-half.

The Treasurer has received more than $30,000 on account of China Famine sufferers during the fiscal year. This amount has been forwarded to the General Committee located at Shanghai, and is in process of disbursement by them. In addition to these funds about $35,000 came in for relief and rebuilding at San Francisco, made necessary on account of the earthquake. The total volume of cash handled by the Treasurer's office has been the largest of any year in its history, amounting to more than $2,000,000. This includes building funds, various relief funds, moneys handled for the personal accounts of missionaries, special remittances abroad, etc.

Special gift agreements have been issued during the year to the number of three, aggregating $9,640.

EXPENSES.

An analysis of the expenses of the year will be found in Schedule 5 of this Report. The percentages of disbursements in New York on account of mission work to the total sum received for the work are as follows:

|-------------------------------------------------|----------------|
| Administrative expense..... | 4.23 per cent. |
| Disbursements not administrative..... | 1.63 " " |

NEW YORK, May 8, 1907.

WM. E. STIGER, ESQ., Chairman Finance Committee,
Board of Foreign Missions, New York.

SIR :—

We have examined the accounts and vouchers of the Treasurer of your Board for the year ending April 30, 1907.

The cash and securities have been verified, either by actual count or evidence of deposit, and found in accord with the book records.

We have verified the total receipts for the year, as shown by the books, and have checked the amounts received with the detailed monthly statements published in the Assembly Herald, with the exception of March and April, 1907, which have not yet been published, and have ascertained that all of the moneys shown therein have been properly accounted for. The receipts for the months of March and April will be checked upon the publication of the Assembly Herald for those months.

The statements of disbursements by Field Treasurers for the fiscal year just closed have not been received in New York at this date, consequently the deficit shown in the Balance Sheet is subject to change, according as the expenditures have been more or less than the appropriations for the past year.

We have duly verified the Balance Sheet published herewith with the books and accounts, and, subject to the statement concerning the Field Treasurers' reports for the fiscal year, the said Balance Sheet, in our opinion, presents the correct financial condition of the Board.

Respectfully submitted,

PATTERSON, TEELE & DENNIS,

EIGHTY-EIGHTH ANNUAL REPORT.

The Board of Education respectfully presents to the General Assembly its Eighty-eighth Annual Report for the year from April 1, 1906, to April 1, 1907.

The year has been a more than usually eventful one by reason of several circumstances. In the early part of the year the Board was called upon to suffer the loss by death of its honored and beloved Secretary, Rev. Edward B. Hodge, D.D. After faithfully presenting the work of the Board to the General Assembly of 1906, he returned home in time to attend the annual meeting of the Board on the 11th of June, and was re-elected Corresponding Secretary for another year. Three days later he was suddenly stricken with an internal disorder, and was taken to the Presbyterian Hospital, Philadelphia, for a surgical operation, but succumbed the day following, June 15, 1906. The Board was greatly shocked and grieved at this sudden taking off of one who with conspicuous zeal and ability had served with them in the cause of ministerial education. Many were the testimonials which reached the Board from Synods, Presbyteries, College Presidents, students and others of the great sense of loss which they had sustained in the death of Dr. Hodge. The Board sought to express in some measure its own feelings in the following paper:

“The Board of Education, stunned by the overwhelming blow which has fallen upon it in the death of its greatly beloved Secretary, Rev. E. B. Hodge, D.D., desires in its sorrow to give some expression to the feelings of its members. The character of Dr. Hodge had greatly endeared him to his associates in the Board. In him there was a rare combination of a beautiful and gentle spirit, with remarkable mental ability, wisdom of judgment, and power of personality. Sweetness and strength were blended in him by the grace of God, so that he was a heavenly and spiritual man, and at the same time a safe and statesmanlike counselor. The relations of every member of the Board with such a man were necessarily so close and sympathetic that his death is a profound personal loss and sorrow to each, while the value of his services was so great that in his death the Board suffers an irreparable loss.

“For thirteen years he had held the office and fulfilled the difficult and arduous duties of Secretary with complete success. Meeting students on the one hand, churches and church courts on the other, his noble presence and scholarly attainments and holy manhood seemed to embody and exemplify that Christian education which he so ably advocated. The Presbyterian Church owes him a debt of gratitude because of the inestimable work which he did for the great cause of an educated ministry, and among young men preparing for that ministry.

“He has been taken away just at a time when his counsel is most deeply needed, and he will be sorely missed. The only comfort is the assurance that it was the will of God that called his beautiful soul to its reward. The members of this Board will ever cherish his name in love. In the heart of each one his memory will always live fragrant and radiant.”

A memorial service was held in the Burlington, N. J., Presbyterian Church, his first and only charge, over which he served as pastor for a period of twenty-nine years, as well as in the Woodland Church of Philadelphia, which he attended during the later years of his life. His body lies at rest in Laurel Hill Cemetery, Philadelphia.

The Rev. William P. Finney was chosen from the membership of the Board to discharge temporarily the duties of the Corresponding Secretary, and that office has been in his charge until the close of the fiscal year, when he retired upon the assumption of the office by the newly elected Secretary. Mr. Finney's election occurred at a period so fraught with difficulties, and his performance of the duties which devolved upon him was of so satisfactory a character, that his retirement deserves more than a passing notice, and the Board, by a rising vote, unanimously adopted the following:

“The Board of Education desires to give expression to its appreciation of the services which have been rendered to it by the Rev. William P. Finney as Secretary pro tem. Taking up the work at the death of Dr. Hodge, he faced a very difficult and perplexing task, and has discharged it with the highest success and acceptance. The Board cannot commend too strongly his faithfulness and efficiency. Its members have learned to admire his executive ability and his mastery of details; to rely upon his wisdom of judgment; and to love the sweetness of his character as a true Christian gentleman. His unselfish devotion to the interests of the Board has been proved. He has served it with an eye single to its advancement. The Board owes him a great debt for his beautiful service in his most admirable conduct of its affairs, and takes pleasure in recording this tribute of gratitude and affection, writing above his name the words, 'Well done, good and faithful servant.' "

On March 11, 1907, the Board unanimously elected the Rev. Joseph Wilson Cochran, D.D., pastor of the Northminster Church, Philadelphia, as its Corresponding Secretary. Dr. Cochran accepted the office, and entered upon its duties on the first of May. He has been a member of the Board of Education for three years, a member also of its College Visitation Committee, and is, therefore, to a large degree already familiar with the important work he is now to undertake.

The Board looks forward with confidence to a safe, efficient and progressive administration at his hands.

MEMBERSHIP OF THE BOARD.

More than the usual number of vacancies in the membership of the Board have occurred. By reason of his election as Corresponding Secretary pro tem., Rev. William P. Finney resigned from the membership of the Board, in obedience to the rule of the General Assembly which forbids one to serve "as a member of a Board who is a salaried executive officer or employé of said Board."

Upon Mr. Finney's retirement as Corresponding Secretary pro tem. he was immediately re-elected to the membership of the Board.

The resignation of Dr. Cochran, on account of his election to the office of Corresponding Secretary, created a vacancy, to which Rev. F. W. Loetscher, Ph.D., was elected.

Rev. Hughes O. Gibbons, D.D., after many years of service on the Board, felt constrained, out of consideration for his health, to retire from its membership, and the Rev. Edward Yates Hill, D.D., was elected in his stead.

Mr. Henry D. Moore, who was elected at the close of last year, after holding the matter under advisement for a time, finally declined to accept membership in the Board, and Edward B. Hodge, Jr., M.D., was elected to fill the vacancy.

On March 4, 1907, the death of Mr. John B. Gest occurred, in which event the Board lost one who in past years had rendered conspicuously faithful service. Though by reason of increasing years he had not of late participated actively in the counsels of the Board, yet in memory of his former fidelity and interest the Board desires here to record its appreciation of his valued and honored service.

Mr. Charles T. Evans was elected to fill the vacancy occasioned by the death of Mr. Gest.

The confirmation by the General Assembly of the above elections is respectfully asked.

The period of service has expired for which the following were elected, to wit: Henry C. Minton, D.D., J. Sparhawk Jones, D.D., Edward Yates Hill, D.D., Mr. George H. Stuart, Jr., Mr. A. A. Shumway, and Mr. Charles T. Evans. It is recommended that they be re-elected.

CO-OPERATION WITH CUMBERLAND EDUCATION SOCIETY.

In accordance with the action of the last General Assembly, which resolved that the benevolent and missionary Boards connected with the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A. and the Boards now connected with the General Assembly of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, after the consummation of the reunion and union, are authorized and directed to confer with each other, with a view to carrying on their work in harmony with each other during the year 1906-7, full report to be made by each of the above Boards to the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A. of 1907, this Board offers the following paper as containing the articles of agreement which was reached with the Educational Society of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church for the carrying on of the work of the two Boards during the year.

“Resolved, 1. That the Board expresses its judgment that it is desirable, as far as possible, that all contributions for this cause be sent to the Treasurer of the Board of Education of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A., and that, as at present legally advised, its judgment is that moneys sent to the Treasurer of the Educational Society of the former Cumberland Presbyterian Church cannot be properly appropriated in aid of students for the ministry who are under the care of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A. Accordingly this Board stands ready to assume the support of all students accepted under its rules.

“2. That the Rev. W. J. Darby, D.D., be requested to co-operate with the Board of Education of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A. in the work of this year, in its relation to the students coming from the Presbyteries in connection with the former Cumberland Presbyterian Church, by sending out application blanks and receiving the recommendations of the students from the Presbyteries, and also by visiting churches, Presbyteries and colleges in order to present the interests and needs of this Board.

"3. That concerning students at Lebanon Seminary, pending the final and satisfactory adjustment of the relation of that Seminary to the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A. (which we understand is in contemplation), aid will be granted to students there without discrimination upon the same conditions as are imposed upon candidates elsewhere, and in accordance with the discretionary power given it by the General Assembly of 1906."

It gives the Board great pleasure to report that, in accordance with the above agreement, the work of ministerial education for the reunited churches has been conducted through the year in perfect harmony and, as we have reason to believe, with satisfaction to both parties. While the contributions received by our Treasurer from former Cumberland Presbyterian congregations have naturally been small, and according to agreement whatever may have been received by the Treasurer of the Educational Society of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church has not been available for current use, nevertheless our Board has cheerfully fulfilled its promise of assuming the support of all students accepted under its rules. The number thus aided who were in connection with the former Cumberland Presbyterian Church is ninety-one. This addition to our roll of candidates has of course entailed an increased expenditure of money, to which fuller reference will be made elsewhere in this report. All of these were regularly recommended to us by their respective Presbyteries on our formal application blanks, and each case was dealt with according to our rules, in conjunction with the exercise of that discretion which was allowed us by the last General Assembly.

A similar discretionary power, in some cases, will undoubtedly need to be exercised for at least another year. The Board, however, desires to give expression to its conviction that in all ordinary cases a strict compliance with the rules should be required.

The Board makes willing acknowledgment of the hearty and valuable co-operation rendered by Rev. W. J. Darby, D.D., Corresponding Secretary of the Educational Society of the former Cumberland Presbyterian Church, who throughout the year has greatly assisted in the transfer of the Cumberland Presbyterian students to the care of our Board, and in other ways, particularly in the visitation of Synods and educational institutions, has furthered the interests of the Board. The Board has indicated its intention to avail itself of his services during the coming year. No discrimination was made against students in the Theological Seminary at Lebanon, Tenn., of whom thirty-four are under our care, and if arrangements are not completed for the satisfactory adjustment of the relation of this Seminary to the General Assembly, similar permission with reference to students in attendance upon this institution is asked again this year.

DISPOSITION OF A LEGACY.

During the year a petition was received from Mrs. Lucy F. Ottinger for a release of the Board's interest, if any, in the estate of her husband, William F. Ottinger, deceased. Also a petition from Arnold Guyot Cameron, requesting a release of the Board's interest in the estate of his father, Rev. Henry C. Cameron, D.D. Inasmuch as requests similar to these are from time to time presented to the Board, and since they raise the question in the mind of the Board as to its power to grant such release of funds devised to it for assisting in raising up an educated ministry in the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A., it was ordered that this matter be brought to the attention of the General Assembly, with request that the powers of the Board in the premises be defined.

REVISED RECOMMENDATION BLANKS.

The Board submits as part of this report, revised forms of recommendations to be used by Presbyteries in the recommendations of candidates. The experience of the past few years has shown the need of a revision of the blanks heretofore in use, and approval of the forms herewith submitted is respectfully requested.

MATTERS REFERRED BY THE LAST ASSEMBLY.

The following matters were referred by the last General Assembly to the Board for consideration and report to this General Assembly:

(1) As to the practicability of this Board's undertaking the supervision, and if necessary the assistance, of students who have in view the fitting of themselves as medical missionaries.

This matter has been brought to the attention of the Board from time to time, and it has been felt that it could not well be determined without some mutual understanding with the Board of Foreign Missions. The Board, therefore, after correspondence with the Foreign Board, adopted the following as its judgment at the present time: "Whenever, in the opinion of the Board of Foreign Missions, there exists a demand for an increase in the number of those seeking to prepare themselves for service to the Church as medical missionaries, this Board is prepared to cooperate with the Board of Foreign Missions in an effort to increase the number of such candidates, and to take such steps as may enable it to grant aid to candidates for this service."

(2) As to coöperation with the Education Committees of Synods, looking toward forming and forwarding of plans for the supply of the religious needs, particularly of Presbyterian students, in attendance upon State Universities and Colleges.

The Board respectfully submits that the matter of coöperating with the Education Committees of the various Synods as to ways and means for supplying the religious needs of the students of State Universities and Colleges, has been interfered with by the lamented death of the Corresponding Secretary. But its program of College Visitation was not altogether interrupted. In November, 1906, a member of the College Visitation Committee, while on a tour to the Synods of Kentucky, Alabama and Mississippi, visited the Theological Seminary and University at Lebanon, Tenn. Special interest attached to this visit, as it was the first made by a representative of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A. to these institutions. Several profitable days were spent also in evangelistic addresses and conferences with the students of the State University of Mississippi at Oxford.

The Secretary-elect, on invitation, was privileged to address the theological students of the Seminaries at Princeton and Dubuque.

The Board is deeply impressed with the opportunities for work presenting themselves in the new field just opened up in the South and Southwest. The General Assembly's Committee on Evangelistic Work, through its College Secretary, has done an admirable work during the past year, having visited among others the State Universities of West Virginia, Arkansas, Missouri, Kansas and Nebraska.

The Board is fully alive to the necessity of conserving and vitalizing the religious life of our young people in colleges, and especially in State institutions where distinct Christian influences are not always exerted. It is anxious to coöperate in every desirable way with the Committees of the Synods in devising a comprehensive plan of work. The Board feels justified in giving at once the most diligent attention to this task laid upon it by the Assembly, and urgently requests the Committees of the Synods to arrange for conferences with the Board's representatives, and to suggest methods by which a vigorous movement shall be inaugurated whereby the moral and religious training given to college students from Presbyterian homes may be supported and reinforced.

(3) As to the practicability of the adoption of a rule whereby the Board of Education shall require a written contract to be made by all candidates under their care, which shall bind them to offer themselves to the Board of Home Missions or the Board of Foreign Missions for a service of at least three years at a given salary.

Some years ago this general subject was before the Board for its consideration, and was examined into with thoroughness and care; but at that time it did not appear to the Board to be expedient to favor this action. At the direction of the General Assembly, however, the matter was again opened up, and after careful examination into the merits of the question the Board again expresses its judgment that the course suggested is not advisable, and therefore recommends with reference to the Overtures referred to it last year, from the Presbyteries of Corning, Dubuque and Iowa City, that no action be taken.

THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY'S COMMITTEE ON ADMINISTRATIVE AGENCIES.

The Committee of the General Assembly, appointed to consider the advisability of reorganizing the agencies for administering the benevolences of the Church, communicated their desire early in the year to confer with the Board.

The Board met this request by the appointment of a Committee, which represented it on several occasions before the General Assembly's Committee. The result of those deliberations will doubtless be reported to the Assembly by its own Committee.

COMPETITIVE SCHOLARSHIPS.

An examination was held during the year with a view to placing the Secretary's scholarship, and after a thorough and satisfactory test Mr. George M. Day, of the Middle class in San Francisco Theological Seminary, was awarded the honor, and will enjoy the income of that scholarship fund for three years.

The Newberry Scholarship, becoming vacant at the close of this fiscal year, was offered for competition to students in McCormick Seminary, and arrangements are in progress for the examinations next fall.

The Mutchmore scholarship was offered to the students of Auburn Seminary, but before the time appointed for the examination arrived circumstances had arisen which prevented the examination taking place, and it was therefore not awarded this year. On account of this accumulation of the funds, it has therefore become possible to make an offer of two scholarships on the Mutchmore foundation, one of which has been offered to Omaha Seminary and the other to Lane Seminary.

ENROLLMENT OF CANDIDATES.

The Board has enrolled during the year 788 young men, of whom 268 are new men and 520 renewals.

This material increase in the total number and in the number of new men is accounted for by the reception of the candidates from the former Cumberland Presbyterian Church.

The figures, so far as our own territory is concerned, show a decrease of forty-two new men from last year, but an increase of forty in the list of renewals.

The Board continues to feel a special interest in the students of the foreign-speaking peoples under its care. The nationalities most largely represented are German, Italian, Hungarian, and Spanish. During the year an interesting new work has developed in Porto Rico. In October last a Theological Training School was opened at Mayaguez under the care of the Board of Home Missions. After prolonged and careful examination into the matter, the Board determined to accept twelve Porto Ricans, recommended by the Presbytery of Porto Rico, for training as preachers and evangelists to the Spanish-speaking people of that island.

The Board has had under its care nineteen Spanish-speaking students, distributed as follows: twelve in Theological Training School at Mayaguez, Porto Rico; three in Menaul School at Albuquerque, New Mexico; two in the school at Coyoacan, Mexico, and two in Greenville and Tusculum College, at Greenville, Tennessee.

Seventy-seven negro students have been studying under the care of the Board. The number of German, Italian, Hungarian, Bohemian, Spanish and other candidates of foreign extraction is ninety, making a grand total of those whom we are assisting in training for the needs of our exceptional populations of 167.

DECLINE OF CANDIDATES.

The Board has been made aware that its solicitude over the present period of decline in the number and quality of candidates presenting themselves for the gospel ministry is shared by the Boards of Education of other denominations. Word has come from the Episcopal, Methodist and Lutheran bodies that the falling off, so noticeable a few years ago, is beginning to have its direct effect upon the Church. Dissatisfaction is felt in many quarters over the inability of churches to secure the highest type of consecrated manhood for the ministry. Pulpit vacancies for distressingly long periods are more and more noticeable, and complaints are heard from Committees on Pulpit Supply as to their inability to fill satisfactorily the places of those who are dropping from the ranks of the ministry. It is with grave concern that the Church at large should face the fact that in thirty evangelical theological seminaries in our country the Church is about 400 men short of the number studying ten years ago, despite the country's increase of 8,000,000 in population. There are one-third less men studying for the ministry of the Presbyterian Church than ten years ago, and yet the membership of our branch of the Presbyterian Church has increased during that period from 1,024,000 to 1,304,000. Ten years ago there was one candidate in every 640 church members; to-day there is one candidate for every 1240 members.

It is also noticeable that the South and West are being drawn upon by the East for her supply of ministers. That section of the country which should naturally supply the more needy sections, by reason of her educational advantages, is unable to meet her own needs. Universities of the type of Harvard, Yale and Princeton are sending $2\frac{1}{2}$ per cent. of their graduates into the ministry, so that the Church confronts the situation of securing from the great Eastern colleges one candidate for the ministry yearly for each five thousand of the population.

Is it not therefore incumbent upon the Church to engage in importunate prayer in behalf of the sons of the Church, that more of them may be led to turn a deaf ear to the solicitations of a commercially prosperous age, and to consecrate their talents to the work of the ministry? Should not the ministers of our Church call the attention of their people to the present situation, and by prayers and exhortation arouse the membership to larger liberality in behalf of an educated ministry, and a heartier willingness to give up their sons to this high calling? The Board feels confident that in five years a change would be experienced, and this period of decline would cease if every minister would consent to be an active agent of this Board in the search for eligible young men for the ministry, and in fearless, vigorous presentation of the cause of Education to their people from time to time.

DAY OF PRAYER FOR COLLEGES.

Reports from many institutions give evidence that this day still has a strong hold upon the interest of not a few of our educators and pastors, and in a number of instances most gratifying results were reaped from the efforts put forth in connection with the observance of the day. It is to be noted, however, that a change which has been made in many college calendars, whereby the mid-year examinations are appointed for the latter part of January, raises the question as to whether the present date, namely, the last Thursday of January, is as suitable a date as could be selected. If in the wisdom of the Assembly none more so is to be found, the Board would recommend that the last Thursday of January, 1908, be designated as a Day of Prayer for Colleges.

Respectfully submitted, by order of the Board,

WILLIAM P. FINNEY,
Corresponding Secretary pro tem.

JAMES M. CROWELL,
President.

FORM OF A DEVISE OR BEQUEST.

All that the Board deems it important to furnish is its CORPORATE NAME, viz.: The Board of Education of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America.

The State laws differ so much that no one form will answer in all the States.

The following form may be used in most of the States:

“ I give and devise to The Board of Education of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America the sum of _____ dollars, to and for the uses of the said Board of Education and under its direction, to be applied to assist candidates for the Presbyterian ministry.” (If real estate or other property be given, let it be particularly described.)

TWENTY-SIXTH ANNUAL REPORT
OF THE
EDUCATIONAL SOCIETY OF THE CUMBER-LAND PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.

Through its Board of Directors, the Educational Society of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church makes its Twenty-sixth Annual Report, submitting the same, according to the terms of Union, to the General Assembly of the Reunited Church.

With thanksgiving to God, we rejoice in the now completed union, and are happy to report a year of agreeable co-operation with the Board of Education at Philadelphia. Delightful indeed will be the work of the Master under this completed union, if the experience enjoyed by this Board during the past year of co-operation is to be taken as evidence of what we are to enjoy in the work of Education, as this closer fellowship brings us into such a blending of our common interests as will cause the separation of the past to be entirely forgotten.

We beg the privilege of inserting here a paragraph from our Report made a year ago to the Seventy-sixth Cumberland Presbyterian General Assembly. It is as follows:

“The territory occupied by Cumberland Presbyterians calls more loudly than ever before for a thoroughly trained ministry, a leadership adequate to the needs of the times. The people will have nothing less, and the Church must awake to this fact. Ours is a high mission, and most inviting is the field in which we are appointed to fulfill it. The call is ‘Forward,’ under the leadership we have, while it is our solemn duty, under God, to see to it that the ministry of the next generation is still better fitted for its work than the ministry of the present day.

“Just at this period of our history as a denomination, it seems fitting that Cumberland Presbyterians should be careful to make themselves properly understood on this subject. In the broadest sense of the term, we believe and have ever believed in an educated ministry. In the deepest significance of the words, we believe in a ministry filled with the Holy Spirit. Culture for the highest type of the Gospel ministry and evangelism for the masses of the people—these are the twofold qualities needed in the ministry of to-day. That every man called of God to this ministry may possess alike both these qualities is our understanding of the aim of the educational processes of the Church.”

Under instructions to co-operate with the Board of Education during the year, we have found the task a very agreeable one from the beginning. Leaving to that Board the matter of mentioning such details as it may deem proper to call to your attention, we simply record our grateful appreciation of the generous spirit shown by that Board, whereby we have been able to compass results so gratifying in the training of our probationers for the ministry. In some respects the year has been a very trying one to all former Cumberland Presbyterians, but the Board of Education has greatly cheered the constituency which we have hitherto represented by the cordial manner in which it has helped us to meet our responsibilities to the young men who were looking to us for aid. In the disturbed state of affairs throughout most of our territory, we would have found ourselves wholly unable to meet the responsibilities of the year but for the generous help of the Board of Education. Under the plans adopted, the interests of all young men desiring an education have been well cared for. For the first time in the history of the denomination, it can be said that every worthy young man preparing for the ministry has been able to go to school, so far as his finances were concerned.

FINANCIAL RESULTS.

Our worst fears regarding the disturbed condition of the Church have been more than realized, so far as contributions to the cause of Education are concerned. Comparing our experience with that of other Boards, we find that it has been impossible to secure serious attention to any general enterprise, so absorbed have the people been in caring for their own local affairs. It seems that we must content ourselves with regarding this year simply as a time of transition, with the hope that our people may now quickly adjust themselves to the demands of the new situation. In financial results, the year stands for less than we had hoped; but otherwise it stands for much, and in the important matter of an educated ministry there is manifestly a determined and confident spirit, which is a cheering prophecy of increased interest in the training of young men and of greater liberality in helping them to secure it.

STANDARD OF EDUCATION.

So far as we have been able to test public sentiment among our Presbyteries, there exists an intelligent recognition of the demands of the times for the best possible education for the men who are to enter the ministry. There is an evident purpose to give due regard to the standards which we have voluntarily obligated ourselves to observe. Our trust is that all these Presbyteries will be duly watchful to maintain the proper standard, and that they will loyally conform to the requirements of the Constitution of the Church which they have adopted, and that they will faithfully train their probationers to do likewise.

THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY.

According to the provisions of our charter requiring special effort to aid our Theological Seminary, we have endeavored faithfully to co-operate with the self-sacrificing men who are in charge of the Seminary at Lebanon, Tenn. The attendance has not been so large as in former years, but it has been good and the work of the year has moved forward in a harmonious way, producing results that are eminently satisfactory. As to the future work of the Seminary, we are confident that, under God, the United Church will give to it the future that will best conserve the interests of the denomination at large, and at the same time minister to that particular portion of the Church which this Seminary may be held to represent.

THE COLLEGES.

In accordance with the policy of past years, this Board has conceded to the Educational Commission the services of its Secretary for such work in college endowment as might be proposed. The times have not been favorable for raising endowment funds in our territory, and therefore but little has been done in this direction.

THE CUMBERLAND PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH, COLORED.

The schools of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, Colored, located at Bowling Green, Ky., Huntsville, Ala., and Newbern, Tenn., have been conducted during the year with a reasonable degree of success. These, however, are chiefly local in their patronage, with only a few candidates for the ministry enrolled in each school. Our policy has been to advise our colored brethren to develop these institutions into first-class preparatory schools as rapidly as possible, and to look to the colleges of the Presbyterian and other Churches for the higher education of their young men preparing for the ministry, also for the higher education of their young people in general.

As appears from Item 13 of the Joint Report on Union adopted by the General Assemblies in 1906, this Board is charged, jointly with the Board of Missions for Freedmen, with the responsibility of reporting to the General Assembly of 1907 "what may be done by the Reunited Church for the further evangelization and education of the colored people in the South and Southwest," this action having particular reference to the needs and work of the C. P. Church, Colored. Pursuant to this order, the two Boards have conferred at intervals during the year, through their executive officers, and moderate appropriations have been made by both Boards in behalf of the educational work of the C. P. Church, Colored. Looking to the work of the ensuing year, the two Boards submit to the General Assembly the following joint recommendation:

That inasmuch as the corporate existence of the Educational Society of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church is likely to be continued through another year or longer, the General Assembly of the Reunited Church shall authorize the Board of Missions for Freedmen to use the Board of Directors of said Educational Society and its Secretary, if so continued, as the agency through which such assistance may be rendered to the educational and missionary work of the C. P. Church, Colored, as said Board of Missions for Freedmen may deem proper. In soliciting contributions from former Cumberland Presbyterian Churches for the work of the Board of Missions for Freedmen, said Board may concede to all of said churches the privilege of directing all their contributions for this purpose to be applied for the aid of the educational and missionary work of the C. P. Church, Colored. The Board of Missions for Freedmen may make still further appropriations from its treasury as in its judgment the interests of said colored Cumberland Presbyterians may require and the funds available will allow. The manner of making said appropriations and the conditions imposed shall be left to the judgment of the Board of Missions for Freedmen, the same to conform as nearly as possible to the rules and regulations under which the ordinary work of said Board is conducted.

It is to be understood that any such arrangement as that here contemplated shall be made in a strictly missionary spirit, and in continuance of the policy hitherto pursued by the Cumberland Presbyterian Church in its efforts to aid the C. P. Church, Colored, in its educational and missionary work.

Particular attention is called to the need of special training in behalf of the candidates for the ministry in this denomination. The Boards feel that some special arrangement should be made, jointly with the educational authorities of the C. P. Church, Colored, whereby their young men preparing for the ministry may secure better training for their lifework.

THE BOARD'S FUTURE.

According to the terms of the union agreement with reference to the Boards, it is proposed that in due time this Board "shall proceed to orderly dissolution." Meanwhile, we are advised by legal counsel that any steps looking to this end should be deferred for the present. We therefore suggest that the General Assembly might continue the existence of this Board as "a holding corporation," and for whatever specific work might be assigned to it by the Assembly, or for such purposes as might be agreed upon between it and the Board of Education of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A.

MEMBERSHIP OF THE BOARD.

During the year, Mr. W. E. Dunaway, of Jackson, Tenn., notified the Board that he could not recognize it as the Board of Directors of the Educational Society of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, because it assumed to recognize as valid the action of the denomination in the matter of union with the Presbyterian Church, U. S. A. Mr. Dunaway having refused to attend the meetings of the Board, his action was taken as equivalent to resignation and his position on the Board was declared to be vacant, and Prof. W. P. Bone, of Lebanon, Tenn., was elected to fill said vacancy.

The term of service of the following members of the Board expires with this meeting of the General Assembly: Rev. J. M. Hubbert, D.D., Marshall, Mo., W. H. Halbert, M.D., Nashville, Tenn., and Rev. W. P. Bone, Lebanon, Tenn.

Respectfully submitted,

W. J. DARBY, Corresponding Secretary.

W. H. HALBERT, President.

ACTION OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

The Eighty-eighth Annual Report of the Board of Education was presented to the General Assembly, in session at Columbus, Ohio, May, 1907, and was referred to the Standing Committee on Education.

The Committee consisted of:

Ministers.

REV. J. F. CARSON, D.D., Chairman.

FRANK E. VAN WIE,
 I. F. WAGNER,
 WILLIAM HALLOCK JOHNSON, PH.D.,
 J. A. SAVAGE, D.D.,
 SYLVESTER F. SCOVEL,
 CLARENCE H. WILSON, D.D.,
 WILLIAM S. MARQUIS, D.D.,
 JERRY JOHNSON,
 JAMES B. CLARK,
 EDWARD B. WRIGHT, D.D.,
 EDWARD K. STRONG.

Elders.

J. B. FANCHER,
 THEODORE GILMAN,
 GEORGE B. LOGAN,
 WILLIAM CHARLES BIRD,
 H. G. HUTCHISON,
 T. W. GALLOWAY,
 E. L. GARDEN,
 GERRIT S. NEEDHAM,
 NATHAN R. LEONARD,
 J. L. WEST,
 S. K. YATES.

This Committee subsequently presented their report to the General Assembly. It was accepted, and the appended resolutions were unanimously adopted, as follows:

1. That the Minutes of the Board of Education of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A., and of the Educational Society of the former Cumberland Presbyterian Church, having been found correct, be approved.

2. That the officers and members of the Board be heartily commended for the fidelity and wisdom with which they have conducted the affairs of the Board during the past year.

3. That the General Assembly heartily approves of and ratifies the election of the Rev. Joseph Wilson Cochran, D.D., to the position of Corresponding Secretary.

4. That the General Assembly expresses its cordial appreciation of the services rendered the Board by the Rev. W. J. Darby, D.D.; ratifies his appointment as Assistant Secretary, and in his case makes an exception to the rule which provides that an officer of a Board may not be a member of any Board.

5. That in view of the enlarged work committed to this Board, it be directed to consider the advisability of enlarging the membership, and report on this matter to the next General Assembly.

6. That the General Assembly approves of the Revised Blanks for the Presbyterian Recommendation of Candidates to the Board.

7. The Board has given careful consideration to the matter referred to it by the last Assembly, as to the practicability of requiring students receiving aid from the Board to contract to give certain years to service in the Presbyterian Church, and it is recommended that the finding of the Board be approved, and that no action be taken on the Overtures from the Presbyteries of Corning, Dubuque and Iowa City.

8. In view of the fact that the work on behalf of the Presbyterian students in State Universities, and such other colleges as are not under the control of any other Presbyterian Board, has been committed to the Board of Education, in coöperation with Synodical Committees on Education, it is recommended that the Board be directed to prosecute a definite and vigorous work for the supply of the religious needs of these students, and that the Board be authorized to receive funds for this work; and it is further recommended that the Board be directed to call an annual conference of representatives of the Synodical Committees on Education, of educators connected with State and other institutions of learning; that such conference be held immediately before or during the sessions of the General Assembly, and that for such conferences the Board shall not assume any financial obligation.

9. The need of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, Colored, for a better educated ministry, as presented in the report of the Educational Society of the former Cumberland Presbyterian Church, is duly recognized, and it is recommended that the Board of Education be authorized to take such steps as it may deem proper to aid the brethren of another branch of our Presbyterian family who appeal to us for help.

10. That the authority given to the Board by the last Assembly, to use its discretion in dealing with exceptional cases of the former Cumberland Presbyterian Church, be renewed for this year.

11. That in view of the enlarged field opened to this Board, an earnest effort be made to increase the receipts of the Board, and all churches that did not contribute to this work last year are specially entreated to make some contribution during the current year.

12. With reference to the request of the Board for a deliverance on the matter of the disposition of legacies, it is recommended that the Assembly declare that such matters are wholly in the power of the Board.

13. That the General Assembly heartily appreciates and commends the work of the Student Y. M. C. A. Movement and the Student Volunteer Movement in influencing young men and young women to dedicate themselves to the work of the Christian ministry, and to mission work abroad.

14. That the last Thursday of January, 1908, be designated as the Day of Prayer for Colleges, that all Presbyterian institutions be urged to observe this day, and that some service be held in all our congregations.

15. That the General Assembly confirm the appointment of the Rev. William P. Finney, Rev. F. W. Loetscher, Ph.D., and Mr. Charles T. Evans as members of the Board, and that the Rev. H. C. Minton, D.D., J. Sparhawk Jones, D.D., Edward Yates Hill, D.D., Mr. George H. Stuart, Jr., Mr. A. A. Shumway, and Mr. Charles T. Evans, whose terms of office expire at this Assembly, be elected members of the Board for the term of three years.

For the Committee,

JOHN F. CARSON, Chairman.

RULES OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION

RELATING TO

CANDIDATES FOR THE MINISTRY.

I.—DEPENDENCE OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION UPON THE PRESBYTERIES OF THE CHURCH.

1. The Board of Education shall receive and aid candidates for the ministry of the Gospel only upon the recommendation of a Presbytery of the Church ; and the Presbytery is responsible for their examination, subsequent care, and the designation of the annual amount of aid to be granted to them, within the limits set by the General Assembly.

2. The Board will in each case look especially to the Education Committee of the Presbytery for filling out and forwarding the form of recommendation required for the reception of a candidate, and also for the pastoral care of the same until his entrance upon his official duties.

3. As a general rule the Board will receive any young man of whose examination and recommendation, in conformity with its requirements, proper notification has been given, but it shall be at liberty to refuse new candidates beyond its ability to support them ; and it will not give aid to students from the foreign missionary field unless they have been recommended by our foreign missionaries abroad, or have come to study in this country by a special invitation given from this Board upon the request of other duly recognized Church authorities, or of missionaries resident on the fields from which they come.

II.—RECEPTION OF CANDIDATES.

1. The encouragement of a young man to enter the Gospel ministry is a matter of serious concern both to himself and to the Church, and it should be given only by those who have proper knowledge of his mental and moral character, accompanied with much counsel and prayer, and directly by a single desire for the glory of God. Every candidate should join that Presbytery to which he would most naturally belong, and he should be introduced to it either by his pastor or by some member of the Education Committee after such acquaintance as will warrant his taking the responsibility of so doing.

2. The Presbytery, in examining students with a view to their recommendation for aid, must embrace such points as are indicated by the following questions, to which definite answers, by the direction of the Assembly, will invariably be required by the Board : Give name of candidate in full. Age? Residence? Date of his coming under care of Presbytery. Has Presbytery examined him on the following points, and were his answers satisfactory : Piety? Motives for seeking the ministry? Talents? Health? Promise of practical efficiency? Is he free from expensive and injurious habits? How long has he been a communicant in a Presbyterian church? Give the name of the church. If in an academy, give name of academy and class. If in college, or ready to enter, give name of college and class. If in seminary, or ready to enter, give name of seminary and class. If in a Theological Seminary, has he pursued a full collegiate course leading up to the degree of A.B. ? If so, give the name of the college of which he is a graduate. If not a college graduate, has he had the equivalent of a college course? If so, send a detailed statement of his previous studies and career. Has he been recommended to Presbytery by his Church Session? Has he thoroughly committed the Westminster Assembly Shorter Catechism to memory? Has he read a copy of the rules? Does he accept the requirements contained in them? What is the smallest amount required for his needs, in addition to all other resources at his command, for the Board's fiscal year ending April 1 next? Does he expect aid during the year from any other Educational funds? If so, how much? And from what sources?

3. Every candidate seeking aid from the funds of the Board of Education is required to set forth in a paper over his own signature the extent of his inability to provide for himself the necessary funds for his education. The same paper shall contain his pledge that he will refund to the Board of Education all moneys received by him therefrom in any of the contingencies mentioned in Rule III, 8.

4. No candidate shall be received by the Board who has not been a member of the Presbyterian Church, or some closely related body, for at least one year; who has not been recommended to the Presbytery by the Session of the church of which he is a member, and who is not sufficiently advanced in study to enter college, except in extraordinary cases.

III.—SCHOLARSHIPS.

1. The annual scholarships to candidates shall be the same in amount for theological and collegiate students, and not exceed $150; for those in the preparatory course the amount shall not exceed $100.

2. These scholarships shall be paid to a student only on the reception of particular and satisfactory reports from his professors, embracing the following points: Christian Character? Scholarship? Rhetorical Ability? Punctuality? Economy?

3. The Board may increase or diminish, in a general ratio, the scholarships in case of unusual surplus or deficiency in funds.

4. No payment shall be made in advance. Each payment shall be acknowledged by a receipt signed by the candidate or by the person authorized by him to receive it. And this receipt shall contain a pledge to return the amount given, with interest, in case he of his own accord, turn aside from his ministerial calling.

5. In order to make the times for payments correspond with the date when reports can most readily be secured from the professors, the first payment shall be made on or about the first of November, and the second on or about the first of March.

6. The Board will in no case be responsible for the debts of students, but it is expected of them that the scholarship shall be first applied to the payment of tuition and boarding.

7. The payments to the candidates shall cease regularly at the close of the collegiate year, or earlier, when the time for which they were recommended by the Presbytery has expired, and also as soon as it is determined that they are suffering from prolonged ill health, which may unfit them for the work of the ministry, or as soon as their private circumstances enable them to dispense with assistance; and if they have been manifestly improvident, or have contracted debts without reasonable prospect of payment, or if they have married since the last payment, or if they have received assistance from any other educational board or society, further payments shall be forfeited.

8. The sums of money appropriated by the Board shall be refunded to it, with interest, in case a student fails to enter on or continue in the work of the ministry (unless it appears that he is providentially prevented), or if he ceases to adhere to the standards of the Presbyterian Church, or if he changes his place of study contrary to the directions of the Presbytery, or continue to prosecute his studies at an institution not approved by it or by the Board, or if he withdraws his connection from the Church of which this Board is the organ without furnishing a satisfactory reason.

9. A scholarship afforded by the Presbyterian Church, through the Board of Education, is to be regarded by the candidate who receives its benefit as the Church's cheerful contribution to facilitate and expedite his preparation for the holy ministry, and may be accepted as a gift with the understanding that he is thereby simply obliged to a warmer interest in her efforts for the advancement of the Redeemer's kingdom, and especially to the use of the means necessary to instruct and stimulate her members in the duty of multiplying and sending forth preachers of the Gospel of salvation to all the world. If, however, any candidate should prefer to receive it as a loan, the Board of Education is given authority to lend the amount without interest, and to give the borrower a credit of $150 for each year of service spent, at the conclusion of his education, upon a mission field at home or abroad.

10. While the Church in providing scholarships for her candidates, makes no specific conditions as to the particular kind of service in the ministry which they will be expected to render upon the completion of their theological training, nor as to the character or situation of the place where they shall labor, nevertheless her judgment is that they ought to cultivate a missionary spirit, as Christlike, apostolic and timely, and that it would be highly becoming in them, under all ordinary circumstances, to offer their services, at the conclusion of their education, for work in missionary fields, ever remembering the abounding destitution in our own country as well as in foreign lands; the peculiar fitness of young men for such work; the honor, privilege and advantage pertaining to it; the natural expectations of the Church which has trained them in the hope that they would endure hardness as good soldiers; and, above all, the spirit of the last command of our ascended Lord.

IV.—CARE OF CANDIDATES.

1. Candidates are required, except in extraordinary cases, and then only with the explicit permission of their Presbyteries, to pursue a thorough course of study, preparatory to that of theology, in institutions that sympathize with the doctrinal teachings of the Presbyterian Church; and, when prepared, to pursue a three years' course of theological studies in some seminary connected with the same Church, and no work of preaching is allowed to interfere with the diligent and faithful prosecution of their prescribed studies until the close.

2. The Board can rely only upon the Education Committee of each Presbytery for the regular care of its own candidates, which should include the constant exercise of a parental oversight over them in spiritual things, and the bestowment of the counsel they need as to their mode of preparation, their place of study, their trials, and the occupation of their time, while not engaged in study, in employments which will tend to qualify them for effective usefulness as pastors or evangelists.

3. The Board shall assist the Presbytery in its care of candidates by furnishing annually to the Education Committee a summary of information from the professors' reports as to the standing of each student; and the Corresponding Secretary shall exercise a general supervisory care over them, also visit and address them, when practicable, at the institution where they are, in regard to their duties and the claims of the office which they have in view.

4. The recommendation of each candidate must be annually renewed by his Presbytery, if possible at the spring meeting, in connection with one from the Session of the church of which he is a member, and a specification must be made of the amount needed by him; and until the notification of these points has been received a student will not be considered as upon the roll for the year.

5. Recommendations, or renewals of them, made by an Education Committee in the interim of the sessions of a Presbytery, shall be received as sufficient, provided its action is reported to the Presbytery at the next session and not countermanded to the Board.

6. If at any time there be discovered in a student such defect in capacity, diligence, and especially in piety, as would render his introduction into the ministry a doubtful measure, it shall be the sacred duty of the Board to communicate without delay the information received to the Education Committee of his Presbytery, and if, on careful inquiry on the part of the Presbytery, no satisfactory explanation of the defect can be obtained, or if no response be received by the Board from the Presbytery or from its Committee on Education within the current quarter, it shall be the duty of the Board to withdraw its aid altogether.

7. Special care should be exercised by the Presbytery in the examination of students who are about to enter upon the theological course, according to the instructions of the Form of Government (Chap. XIV, Sec. 3); and this examination should be conducted by the Presbytery, and be entirely satisfactory as to the "real piety" of the students "and the motives which have influenced them to desire the sacred office," before they are allowed to take the final step toward assuming its great responsibilities.

8. The annual report, occasional publications of this Board, and a copy of the Confession of Faith shall be sent gratis to all students under its care who request them.

V.—PARTICULAR DUTIES OF CANDIDATES.

1. Inasmuch as the great aim of the Church in the establishment of the Board of Education is the increase of holy and faithful preachers of the Gospel, the young brethren who look to this work are earnestly and affectionately reminded that all intellectual acquisitions are of little value without the cultivation of piety, and that they are expected and required to pay special attention to the practical duties of religion, such as reading the Scriptures, secret prayer and meditation, occasional acts of special consecration of themselves to Christ and to His service, as their Redeemer and as the Lord of all, attendance at regular meetings on the Sabbath and during the week, endeavors to promote the salvation of others, and the exhibition at all times of a pious and consistent example.

2. Inasmuch as the scholarships granted by the Board will necessarily fall short of a full support of the students, it will be expected that they and their friends will make all proper exertions to supply whatever may be wanting.

3. When a student shall find it necessary to relinquish study for a time in order to increase his means for support by teaching or otherwise, he shall first obtain the consent of the Education Committee of the Presbytery or of the Board; and if, when given, he shall not be absent from study more than three months, his scholarship will be continued, but if longer, it will be discontinued, or continued in part, according to circumstances.

4. It shall be the duty of each candidate connected with the Board to report himself, soon after the meeting of the General Assembly, to the Education Committee of his Presbytery as to his progress, wants and prospects; and when any of the requisitions of the Board which affect him may not be carried out by teachers or others, it becomes his duty to see that they are attended to, that delays and losses to himself may be prevented.

5. The reception of a scholarship by a student shall be considered as expressing a promise to comply with all the rules and regulations of the Board.

VI.—EXCEPTIONAL CASES.

1. The Board will not ordinarily take under its care as candidates for the ministry any who have not completed a course preparatory to college. If exceptional cases are recommended by Presbyteries the Board should be certified that there has been a season of thorough trial and approval under competent teachers through two or three years.

2. Such students are not to expect the benefit of scholarships for more than two years before entering college.

NOTE.—In stating the place and stage of study of the candidate, name the class and institution in which he will be under instruction for the year which the recommendation is intended to cover; e.g., if the recommendation is made out in the spring, name the institution and class which the candidate is to enter in the fall.

In behalf of the Faculty.

This form is for the use of teachers or professors of literary or theological institutions, in reporting to the Board the progress and character of students for the ministry under their care, who have been recommended by the Presbyteries for aid from the funds of the Church. The grade or opinion on the points specified may be given in the terms High; Medium Plus; Medium; Medium Minus; and Low; or in such other terms as will best express the views of the Reporter. Under "Scholarship," the class standing may be inserted.

The report should be made carefully and conscientiously; and returned, without inspection by others, by the authorized teacher or professor directly to the Secretary of the Board. Any additional remarks or statements will be gratefully received and may be very useful to the Board.

Regular appropriations are made at the meetings of the Board in November and March. The blanks above for the name and locality of the institution, and the date of sending, should be filled up; and the reports should be mailed in time to reach the Office of the Board before the period mentioned.

It is respectfully suggested to instructors that it would be well to privately remind students, before the spring meetings of the Presbyteries, of the necessity of the annual renewal of the Presbyterial recommendation to the Board, in order that aid may be continued.

“HINTS” to the Chairmen of Education Committees of Presbyteries as to the Recommendation of Candidates to the Presbyterian Board of Education.

1. The Board desire to emphasize particularly the importance of a full and complete answer to every question pertaining to each particular case under consideration. They cannot act upon an incomplete recommendation whether it be a “renewal” or a “new case,” and omissions, with the consequent necessity for correspondence, cause delay often greatly to the inconvenience of the candidate.

2. Make sure, before any other action is taken, that the candidate has been recommended to Presbytery by the Session of his Church, as this is the fundamental requirement.

3. Always use the recommendation blanks provided by the Board.

4. Never put renewals on blanks intended for first recommendation; never put first recommendations on renewal blanks. You will thus prevent serious confusion at the office of the Board.

5. Write the recommendations plainly in ink; never use pencil.

6. Do not write anything on the recommendation blanks other than is required by the answers. Additional notes of explanation which may be necessary should be sent in an accompanying letter.

7. In stating the place and stage of study of the candidate name the class and institution in which he will be under instruction for the year which the recommendation is intended to cover; e.g., if the recommendation is made out in the spring, name the institution and class which the candidate is to enter in the fall.

8. Use new Recommendation blank for all candidates who have never been accepted and enrolled by the Board, no matter how many times recommended in past years. Use Renewal blank for all candidates who have been at any time enrolled by the Board even though subsequently dropped.

9. If a candidate, who has at any time previously been under the care of the Board, comes to you from another Presbytery, send your recommendation in the form of a renewal; and give the name of the Presbytery from which you receive him.

10. Recommendations for new candidates should be sent in as early as may be convenient; but renewals should ordinarily be deferred until Presbyteries have had time to consider each case in the light of all information obtainable as to candidate's conduct and work during the year. Such cases are not in the least imperiled by the delay occasioned by this patient consideration.

11. If the candidate does not propose to pursue his studies, preparatory to theology, in an institution which sympathizes with the doctrinal teachings of the Presbyterian Church [as our rules require, except in extraordinary cases], send us the assurance that he has the explicit permission of his Presbytery, and the reason for the permission.

12. If the candidate is from a foreign country, the assurance must be sent to us that he intends to exercise his ministry in connection with the Church in the United States.

13. In corresponding about a candidate, always mention the Presbytery to which he belongs. This will help us greatly in looking up his case.

14. Do not mutilate the recommendation blanks, but mail them, properly folded, in a large envelope. This will aid us in filing and indexing.

15. Take no action without careful study of the printed rules prescribed for our mutual guidance by the General Assembly.

REPORT OF THE STANDING COMMITTEE ON PUBLICATION AND SABBATH-SCHOOL WORK.

Columbus, Ohio, May 22d, 1907.

Your Committee on the Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work begs leave to submit the following report:

As is well known, the work of this Board is carried forward under five general divisions, viz.: The Missionary, Editorial, Sabbath-school Training, Young People's and Business Departments.

Your Committee has examined the Report and Minutes of this Board, has considered the various papers placed in its hands, and has had personal conference with officers of the Board. We find the Minutes kept both carefully and accurately, and this statement includes the Minutes and Report of the Board of Publication of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church.

Considering the detailed operations of the Board, let us turn, first, to the Sabbath-school and Missionary Department: This field embraces evangelistic and pastoral work, together with Sabbath-school development. Missionaries and colporteurs have labored in all the States and Territories except Louisiana and the New England States.

In briefest possible review, there are 15 Synodical and 118 Presbyterial missionaries, together with 30 colporteurs, engaged in this branch of the work of the Board. These men have organized, during the last year, 722 Sabbath schools, and revived 247, making a total of 969, which schools have 3,191 officers and teachers and 30,029 scholars.

Besides this great service, the missionaries have visited 108,823 families, and have held 4,828 evangelistic meetings, resulting in 2,119 confessions of faith in Jesus Christ. Besides this, 976 institutes and conventions have been held.

We can only speak, in a passing sentence, of the thousands of volumes and pages of tracts and religious literature placed in the hands of the people, the influence of which God only knows, for no man can estimate it.

Bear also in mind, please, that last year 99 Presbyterian churches were organized as the outgrowth of this missionary and evangelistic activity.

In what may be termed physical relief, this Board has distributed 76 barrels and boxes of clothing, valued at $3,500.

Your Committee desires to call special attention to, and place peculiar emphasis upon, the work among the foreigners. The year has been one of very aggressive work in their behalf. There were 30 colporteurs that worked for longer or shorter periods, and they visited more than 35,000 families, distributing by sale and gift more than 10,000 religious books, and over 5,000 pages of tracts, besides 3,700 Bibles, Testaments and Gospels, in at least twenty different languages. In every field this work has been followed with most encouraging results.

In the anthracite coal regions, for illustration, where there have been three colporteurs that worked among Slavs, Italians and Hungarians, the Gospel has been presented to large numbers, many of whom have been gathered into missions which have been established at varied points under the care of Presbyterian Committees. Several new publications for these foreigners have been begun during the year in order that we may meet the imperative needs of the situation. Among these we specially mention the "Reformed Sentinel," a 16-page weekly, for Hungarians; "The Evangel," a monthly Sabbath-school paper; and "Our Life," a monthly, of 24 octavo pages, for the Ruthenians. These, in addition to the papers already being published, will be of inestimable value in this most important and neglected field.

EDITORIAL DEPARTMENT.

Your Committee most heartily commends the efficiency of this Department, and expresses its satisfaction with the lesson helps and periodicals published. We would most earnestly and emphatically commend our own publications; and our churches are urged to use them in our Sabbath schools. We are pleased to note that a constant effort is being made to raise the standard of these periodicals; and while expressing appreciation as to the excellence of all the publications, we desire to make special mention of "Forward" and the "Westminster Teacher."

BUSINESS DEPARTMENT.

We desire to commend the business sagacity exhibited by this Department, together with the spirit and success of its administration. The business of the Board shows a gratifying and continuing net increase, not only in the face of constantly increasing cost of labor and materials, but also in the large falling off in the business of the Pacific Coast branch, occasioned by the destruction of the depository by earthquake and fire in April, 1906.

The Board was fortunate in making adjustment of these losses by fire and earthquake—the loss on insurance being only about $10,000, and the total loss less than $18,000.

The Business Department has conducted its work throughout the year with such eminent sagacity and success as to be able to transfer $25,000 to the Sabbath-school and Missionary Department; and, at the same time, add to the permanent capital of the Board the sum of $12,000.

The failure of the Real Estate Trust Company, of Philadelphia, which was thought at one time to threaten severe loss to the Board, has been finally arranged so that no loss was sustained.

It is fitting, at this place, to speak of the Cumberland Presbyterian Board. The Report of the Board of Publication of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church has been separately considered, as the situation appears to make imperative. We find a most gratifying condition in the affairs of this Board, and we commend the conservative method of valuation as shown in its report. We also congratulate the Board upon the success which has attended its efforts, and this in the face of somewhat serious defection, though the loss thereby is less than had been at first expected.

We believe that the "Cumberland Presbyterian," published by the Board, is doing much for the benefit of the Church in that region formerly occupied by the Cumberland Presbyterian Church.

SABBATH-SCHOOL TRAINING DEPARTMENT.

Here we touch a very important and basic element in the work. Sabbath-school organization must be followed by Sabbath-school training if we are to reach our highest efficiency. Our Sabbath-school workers—that vast army of consecrated men and women—must, indeed, be instructed, aided and inspired to accomplish their best possible work. We desire, therefore, especially to emphasize and heartily to endorse the plans of the Board in connection with its scheme of missionary conferences and Sabbath-school institutes, and to express the desire that this particular work may receive peculiar prominence during the coming year.

Your Committee is also of the opinion, both by observation and investigation, that our Church is not realizing its possibilities in religious education; though, let it be said, at once, that we greatly rejoice in what has been accomplished. Already we have enlisted nearly 10,000 scholars in teacher-training classes; but we are not incorporating, as rapidly as desirable in our Sabbath schools, the settled results of modern scientific pedagogy, and, comprehensively, all plans of modern Sabbath-school service. In addition to this, we are finding it a problem to secure teachers adequately trained for their important and difficult work. We note, with great pleasure, the service of the Board in its efforts to secure this most desirable end. Heartily commending the work that has been done, yet believing that this phase of the service should be greatly developed, broadened and strengthened, and trusting that what has been accomplished is only the beginning, we leave with the Board the extension, as rapidly as possible, of this service.

Recognizing both the difficulty and delicacy of teaching the Shorter Catechism in the schools, owing to the difference of opinion as to the desirability of this teaching—this, in part, because of the changed ideas of interpretation—we raise the question as to whether some brief and clear catechetical summary of doctrine might not be furnished that would be more widely used. We believe this is a consummation devoutly to be wished.

YOUNG PEOPLE'S WORK.

We note, with pleasure, the appointment of the Rev. Willis L. Gelston, of Coldwater, Michigan, to the important position of Superintendent of the new Department of Young People's Work of the Board. We bespeak for him entree to all our churches, and trust the young people will cordially coöperate with him in all plans for the advancement of their work.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Considerable discussion having arisen as to the desirability of the "Westminster Teacher" being published weekly rather than monthly, your Committee expresses its judgment as to the advantage of the change, and feels that as a weekly publication it should be carefully tested during this year.

Two Overtures have been placed in the hands of your Committee, referring to the matter of advertisements upon the pages of the Sabbath-school lesson helps. Your Committee realizes the desirability of all such advertisements being removed, and recommends that all secular advertisements be omitted from the pages of our Quarterlies as soon as possible, consistent with already executed business contracts.

Regarding the Overture relative to interdenominational Sabbath-school lessons, your Committee believe that the International Lesson System is, upon the whole, the most advantageous of the various proposed plans of lesson study, though we are convinced it is not yet the ideal. We would, therefore, ask the International Lesson Committee to consider whether it would not be possible so to modify the present scheme of study as to place it most completely in harmony with modern and approved pedagogical methods, and also give Sabbath-school scholars a wider and more intelligent comprehension of the Bible as a whole.

In the question of instructing the Board of Publication to reproduce for circulation the facts embodied in the report of the Committee on Sabbath Observance, referred by the Committee on Bills and Overtures to our Committee, we deem it inexpedient to burden the Board with this work and expense.

Regarding the Overture on the Systematic Course of Bible Study, your Committee begs leave to state that this has practically been recommended by the Committee.

RECOMMENDATIONS.

Finally, your Committee desires to make the following recommendations:

1. In view of the change in the work of the Board, in which the Sabbath-school interests have become so prominent, we recommend that the corporate name be changed to "The Presbyterian Board of Sunday-school Work and Publication;" and that this recommendation be referred by the Assembly to the Special Committee on Administrative Agencies.

2. We recommend that the Board be encouraged to strengthen and develop its Sabbath-school training work as rapidly as possible, so as to be of greater service to the Sabbath-school workers in this most important branch of our church life.

3. We recommend that the Board consider the advisability of the exclusive use of the Standard American revised text of the Scriptures in all its Sabbath-school periodicals.

4. We recommend that the pastors under the care of our Assembly be urged to press the needs of this work more earnestly upon the churches; and that the churches be urged to give more money to sustain this vital and far-reaching service; also that unremitting effort be made to secure from churches and Sabbath schools the sum of $200,000 during the next year, for the work of this Board.

5. Recognizing the valuable services accomplished by missionaries in fields that are spiritually destitute, we recommend that this distinct Sabbath-school phase of the work be kept prominently before the minds of the missionaries and church members.

6. We recommend that Rally Day be exclusively set aside as a day for special presentation of the great work among foreigners in America; and that the offerings of this day be applied in the furtherance of this most pressing and imperative work.

7. In pursuance of plans of agreement between the Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work in the United States of America and the Board of Publication of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, we recommend to the General Assembly that it increase the membership of the Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work to thirty members; and that the following six men be elected to membership in the Board: to serve for one year, John H. DeWitt and W. T. Hardison; to serve for two years, Rev. W. A. Provine and L. N. Rice; to serve for three years, Rev. Charles Manton and Hamilton Parks.

8. The Committee respectfully recommends that the following ministers and elders, whose terms of office expire next month, be reelected to serve for three years:

SIXTY-NINTH ANNUAL REPORT
OF THE
Presbyterian Board of Publication and Sabbath-School Work.

APPROVED BY THE BOARD APRIL 30TH, 1907

With gratitude to God for past and present blessings, the Board presents to the General Assembly this, its Sixty-ninth Annual Report, covering the year beginning April 1st, 1906, and closing March 31st, 1907.

The year just closed has been a year of development and progress. The profits of the business are considerably in excess of the profits of last year. The circulation of our lesson helps has increased. The contributions to our missionary work have been greater, more missionaries and colporteurs have been employed, and more churches have grown out of the Sabbath schools organized by our missionaries than in any previous year.

Detailed information of much interest regarding the work of the year will be found in the appended reports; it is our desire in this summary to call attention to its more important aspects.

MISSIONARY CONFERENCES AND SABBATH-SCHOOL INSTITUTES.

Special emphasis has been laid this past year upon organizing and developing mission schools, on the one hand; and strengthening the Church schools, on the other. Experience has taught us that one of the most effective ways of accomplishing these ends is the holding of Conferences for our Sabbath-school missionaries, and of Institutes for our Sabbath-school workers in as many centers as possible.

At these Conferences, all phases of Sabbath-school missionary work are discussed, and plans are laid to secure adequate and permanent results, in coöperation with other missionary agencies of the Church.

At the same time, we aim to provide our Sabbath-school workers with the best possible lesson helps and papers, together with Sabbath-school literature of various kinds, in leaflets, handbooks and larger volumes.

In these, and other ways, the Board hopes to be a leader in all departments of Presbyterian Sabbath-school work.

WORKING FOR THE FOREIGNERS IN AMERICA.

Acting under definite instructions of recent General Assemblies, the Board has, during the past year, increased the number of its colporteurs, and added several publications in foreign languages.

The Bohemian, sixteen-page weekly paper, has grown in circulation and usefulness, and is received with favor by our citizens of Bohemian birth. One of our colporteurs, assisted by the Board, is publishing a monthly Ruthenian evangelical magazine, for use in the home. In conjunction with the Reformed Church in the United States, we are publishing two religious periodicals in the Hungarian language: the first, a monthly Sunday-school magazine; the second, a sixteen-page weekly paper.

In addition to this, we are distributing each week, among our foreigners, ten thousand Bible picture cards, with appropriate texts and comments, in six languages.

This work is necessarily very expensive. During the past year, the Board has spent more than $22,000 upon it alone. We have received from Rally Day offerings, and other sources, some $10,000 for this work among foreigners. This leaves a debit balance of $12,000, for which we must provide from our general Missionary Funds, and which will account for the fact that we are reporting to the Assembly a debt of $5,607.

The Board realizes the importance and necessity of this special work, and is ready not only to carry it forward, but to enlarge it, if need be. To do this work thoroughly, however, will require that the Church shall supply us with the needed funds; and we ask the Assembly to make such recommendations as the necessities of the case may seem to warrant.

YOUNG PEOPLE'S WORK.

The last General Assembly assigned supervision of the work of our Young People's Societies to this Board, directing that an additional department of the Board be created, and a Superintendent employed.

At the first meeting of the Board subsequent to this action, the new work was earnestly taken up. Efforts were made in various directions to obtain a suitable Superintendent. These efforts continued through many months until in March the Board elected the Rev. Willis L. Gelston, of Coldwater, Michigan. We believe that we have secured in him just the one the Assembly had in view when it instructed the Board to create the new department, "and that one of our strongest and best young men be employed by the Board as Superintendent."

Mr. Gelston will not be able to assume active charge of the work until September next. We deem it inadvisable to submit any detailed plans of work for the new department until Mr. Gelston shall have had opportunity to study the field and to confer with the Board's Committee on Young People's Work. A general scheme, however, has been adopted, and is as follows:

The work of this department shall be carried on in the interests of the young people of the Presbyterian Church, and shall be planned for the accomplishment of three general objects—Organization, Instruction and Inspiration.

ORGANIZATION.

This department shall prepare for the organization of the youth of our Church into Young People's Societies. These plans shall, so far as possible, make use of the organizations now existing in any church, Presbytery or Synod. An effort shall be made to unify existing organizations, and new ones that may be formed in any church.

Plans shall be made for uniting the organizations of the churches of any Presbytery into a Presbyterial organization, and these, in turn, into a Synodical organization.

INSTRUCTION.

This department shall prepare study courses for the young people of our Church. These courses shall relate to such Biblical and ecclesiastical subjects as our young people should know, and shall be prepared with a regard to the differing needs and abilities of our young people. To accomplish this end, more than one study course will be necessary.

In preparing these study courses, use may be made of material already on hand, and an effort should be made to harmonize these courses with existing courses now being pursued in any of our churches.

INSPIRATION.

This department, by suitable methods, shall endeavor to inspire our young people with a desire to become members of Young People's Societies in all our churches, and so to use this membership that they shall be helped intellectually and spiritually, and, at the same time, be of service to their particular church and to the Church at large.

The methods employed at first, shall be the sending out of letters and literature, and visits of the Superintendent of the Young People's Department. Other plans may be adopted as the work goes forward.

The work of the department shall be committed to a Superintendent, who shall discharge its duties under the supervision, and with the assistance, of a committee of the Board.

The expenses of the department shall be met, so far as possible, by annual contributions from the Young People's organizations.

UNITING THE PUBLICATION BOARDS.

During the year, Committees representing the Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, and the Board of Publication of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, have held conferences to decide upon plans for the union of the two Boards.

Satisfactory plans have been agreed upon and accepted by the respective Boards. As a basis for their successful administration, it is proposed to increase the membership of the Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work to thirty members; and to choose the six additional members from that part of the Church which was formerly the Cumberland Presbyterian Church.

In pursuance of this agreement, the Board of Publication and Sabbath-school Work respectfully recommends to the General Assembly that it shall increase the membership of this Board to thirty; and that three ministers and three elders, to be nominated by the Board of Publication of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, be elected members of this Board.

It is suggested that the length of the terms of service of these new members of the Board be determined by lot; and that a minister and elder serve one year; another minister and elder, two years; and a third minister and elder, three years.

TEMPERANCE LITERATURE.

During the year, the Board has printed for the Permanent Committee on Temperance literature to the value of one thousand dollars, for free distribution among our churches and Sabbath schools.

In view of the importance of this subject, the Board proposes, with the approval of the General Assembly, to publish, in conjunction with the Permanent Committee on Temperance, an equal amount of temperance literature during the coming year, for the same purpose.

THE TREASURER.

At a meeting of the Board held on the 27th of November, 1906, the Rev. Charles T. McMullin, who had been the Treasurer of the Board for nineteen years, presented his resignation, on account of impaired health. Mr. McMullin had faithfully and efficiently discharged the duties of his office, and the Board accepted his resignation with sincere regret, arranging with him to render such service during the remainder of the year as his health permitted.

At this meeting, Mr. Frank M. Braselmann, who for twenty-one years has been connected with the Board and closely associated with Mr. McMullin, was elected to succeed him as Treasurer. In our judgment, Mr. Braselmann is well fitted to discharge the important duties of this office.

ELECTION OF MEMBERS.

The Rev. William H. Miller, D. D., was compelled to resign from the Board by failing health, which soon afterward resulted in his deeply regretted death. Mr. Henry T. Shillingford and Mr. George Stevenson also resigned during the year. The Rev. William Beatty Jennings, D. D., Mr. Abraham R. Perkins, and Mr. J. Milton Colton were elected to fill their unexpired terms respectively. The Assembly is respectfully requested to confirm these elections.

EXPIRATION OF TERM OF OFFICE.

The term of office of the following members of the Board will expire next month :

Ministers:

REV. CHARLES A. DICKEY, D. D.,
REV. ROBERT M. PATERSON, D. D.,
REV. LOUIS F. BENSON, D. D.,
REV. W. BEATTY JENNINGS, D. D.

Elders:

ROBERT H. HINCKLEY,
JOHN H. WATT,
WILLIAM H. SCOTT,
FRANKLIN L. SHEPPARD.

The Board respectfully recommends to the Assembly that these ministers and elders be re-elected to serve for three years.

REPRESENTATION AT THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

The Hon. Robert N. Willson, President of the Board, and Mr. John H. Converse have been appointed to represent the Board, in connection with the Secretary, at the meeting of the General Assembly.

SABBATH-SCHOOL AND MISSIONARY WORK

THE FIELD. During the year, the Sabbath-school missionaries and colporteurs of the Board labored in every State and Territory west of the Mississippi and in all the States east of it, excepting Louisiana and New England. Never before have our missionary efforts been spread over such a wide area. (See page 19.)

THE WORKERS. In these States and Territories, the Board has had at work 133 Sabbath-school missionaries and 30 colporteurs, laboring within the bounds of 30 Synods and 115 Presbyteries. Of these 15 were Synodical and 148 were Presbyterial workers, making a total of 163.

NEW SABBATH SCHOOLS ORGANIZED. They have organized 722 new Sabbath schools and revived 247, a total of 969, into which have been gathered 3,191 officers and teachers and 30,029 scholars, making a total membership of 33,220.

DEVELOPING MISSION SCHOOLS. Our missionaries have encouraged and otherwise aided 2,317 Sabbath schools which are under their care. The membership of these schools is 96,346.

WORK OTHER THAN ORGANIZATION. These missionaries have made 180,823 visits upon families, and have held 4,838 evangelistic services, in which 2,119 conversions came under their observation. Sabbath-school institutes and conventions to the number of 976 have been held.

An important part of the work of these missionaries is the dissemination of good literature. In this work our missionaries have sold and given away 18,774 volumes and 1,423,496 pages of tracts and periodicals. They have distributed also, by gift and sale, 9,246 Bibles and Testaments. (This includes the literature distributed by our missionary colporteurs.)

CHURCHES DEVELOPED. The number of churches developed by our Sabbath-school missionaries from their schools during the past year is 114, of which 99 are Presbyterian and 15 of other denominations. (See page 20.)

PRESBYTERIAN BUILDINGS. During the year 52 Presbyterian chapels and church buildings were erected as the outgrowth of the labors of our Sabbath-school missionaries. The value of these buildings is $94,775. It thus becomes apparent that a large percentage of the entire cost of Sabbath-school missionary work is returned to the Presbyterian Church each year in the money value of the buildings erected.

SABBATH SCHOOLS ORGANIZED UNDER THE BOARD'S OFFER OF EQUIPMENT. Forty-four Sabbath schools organized by other than Sabbath-school missionaries, have thus been helped.

SABBATH SCHOOLS AIDED. Several hundred mission Sabbath schools have been assisted, during the year, by grants of periodicals, hymnals, libraries, and other equipment.

CLOTHING DISTRIBUTED.

Again we beg to express our gratitude to the Women's Societies, Mission Bands, and Sabbath schools from which donations of clothing have been received by our Sabbath-school missionaries, for distribution among the needy on their fields of labor. The reports show that 76 boxes and barrels of clothing were distributed, valued at $3,463.81.

REVIEW OF TWENTY YEARS' WORK.

During this period 1,065 Presbyterian churches have grown from our mission Sabbath schools, an average of 56 new Presbyterian churches every year. Other denominations sharing in the fruits of the work have gathered 528 churches, making a total of 1,593, an average of 84 churches each year.

SYNODICAL AND PRESBYTERIAL SABBATH-SCHOOL COMMITTEES.

Valuable aid has been rendered by many of our Synodical and Presbyterian Committees on Publication and Sabbath-school Work.

A number of these committees have formed Presbyterian Sabbath-school Associations, and helpful Institutes have been held. We are seeking by every practical means to awaken all such committees to the importance of the work under their care, and to help them to realize their opportunities for the development and improvement of our Sabbath schools.

THE FORWARD MOVEMENT IN SABBATH-SCHOOL MISSIONS.

Last year we reported that 54 of our missionaries were being supported by specific gifts of churches, Sabbath schools, and individuals. During the year 19 additional churches, Sabbath schools, and individuals have been enlisted in this movement, agreeing to contribute, annually, sums ranging from $100 to $900 each.

GRANTS.

The following grants were made:

|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------|
| Periodicals, books and tracts, to Sabbath schools, churches, pastors and missionary workers..... | $8,405.14 |
| Bibles as rewards for memorizing Shorter Catechism..... | 511.25 |
| To American Tract Society for foreign publication work..... | 2,500.00 |
| Grant of Westminster Teacher to Foreign Mission Stations... | 426.70 |
| Total | $11,843.09 |

Contributions to the amount of $2,165.39 were made through the Board to aid in the erection of chapels, and to other special objects, as designated by the contributors.

CHILDREN'S DAY AND RALLY DAY.

A gratifying increase was shown last year in the number of Sabbath schools observing these two days and taking an offering for Presbyterian Sabbath-school missions. The total receipts from Sabbath schools amounted to $68,536.94. Earnest efforts are being put forth to bring about a more general observance of these two occasions.

MISSIONARY WORK AMONG FOREIGNERS.

The year has been one of aggressive effort in behalf of the people of foreign speech. There were 30 colporteurs at work for longer or shorter periods, among Italians, French, Spanish, and Portuguese; Bohemians, Ruthenians, and other Slavic peoples; Hungarians (Magyar); Lithuanians, and other foreigners in Pennsylvania, New Jersey, West Virginia, Delaware, Maryland, Illinois, Ohio, Texas, Nebraska, California, and New York. (See page 21.)

They visited 35,489 families, distributing by sale and gift 10,186 religious books and 508,611 pages of tracts, besides 3,725 Bibles, Testaments, and Gospels in at least twenty different languages. The total sales amounted to $1,850.03.

In every field this work has been followed with encouraging results. In the anthracite coal regions, where we have three colporteurs at work among Slavs, Italians, and Hungarians (Magyar), the Gospel has been presented to large numbers, many of whom have been gathered into missions which have been established at various points under the care of the Presbyterian committees.

Our colporteurs do the pioneer work in these communities, furnishing necessary information to the Presbyterian committees, and thus preparing the way for the establishment of mission stations, and frequently for the organization of churches.

In Chester Presbytery our Italian colporteur, Rev. Felix Santilli, who is supported jointly by the Board and the Presbytery, has been successful in organizing missions in Chester, Stratford, and Avondale. Evening classes are being conducted by members of our Presbyterian churches at these points, who have been enlisted by Mr. Santilli. It is planned to open similar work in other parts of the Presbytery, which already have been canvassed.

In the Presbyteries of Philadelphia, Philadelphia North, New Castle, Westchester, Elizabeth, Newark, West Jersey, and elsewhere, our colporteurs, through the services they have held, have succeeded in bringing many souls into a knowledge of the Truth. Most of them have been received into the Presbyterian Church and have become faithful members.

OUR FOREIGN PUBLICATION WORK.

During the year we expended more than $22,000 for the support of our foreign colporteurs, for the publication of our Bohemian, Hungarian and Ruthenian papers, and for other literature in foreign languages. Our income from Sabbath-school offering on Rally Day, and from individuals, for this purpose was less than $10,000. We are encouraged, however, by the indications that our Church is becoming aroused to the importance of this kind of work, and we are devising plans by which our churches and Sabbath schools may become better informed as to the aggressive part our Board is taking in pushing it forward.

Our Bible picture cards, published in six languages, are being used with good effect both here and abroad to the number of 10,000 per week, each card containing an explanation of the International Sabbath-school Lesson printed on the back.

Following is a descriptive list of our foreign publications:

FOR THE BOHEMIANS, MORAVIANS, SLOVAKS, AND ALL READING THE CZECH LANGUAGE.

Krestanske Listy ("Christian Journal"), an illustrated weekly of sixteen pages, containing much general information, but pervaded by a positive and earnest religious spirit. Published at Pittsburg, Pa., Rev. Voclav Losa, Editor. Subscription price, $1.50 per year.

FOR MAGYARS AND OTHERS READING HUNGARIAN.

Reformatusok Lapja ("Reformed Sentinel"), an illustrated sixteen-page weekly. This paper has been purchased jointly by the Presbyterian and Reformed Boards, and will be published under their auspices. Rev. Stephen P. Harsanyi, Bridgeport, Conn., and Rev. Julius M. Hanko, New York, Editors. This paper is intended to furnish religious reading for the Protestant and Reformed Hungarians, of whom there are at least 100,000 now here; and to enlighten other Hungarians also. Subscription price, $2.00 per year.

Oromhir ("Evangel"), a religious monthly intended for the Sabbath school and home. It contains articles by the Hungarian pastors and expositions of the International Sabbath-school Lessons. The editorial committee consists of Rev. S. P. Harsanyi, Rev. J. M. Hanko, and S. Virag. It is also under the joint control of the two Boards just named and supported by them. Subscription price, 50 cents per year.

FOR RUTHENIANS AND OTHER SLAVS USING THE CYRILLIAN ALPHABET.

Nash' a Zyzn ("Our Life"), an illustrated religious monthly of twenty-four octavo pages, intended for the home. With encouragement and assistance from the Board, this magazine is being published by one of our Ruthenian missionaries, Mr. Joseph Kosowy. He was prompted by his zeal for his countrymen to undertake this paper, and utilizes in it his skill as a trained printer and newspaper man. This is the only evangelical literature published for these people in the United States. They number certainly over 100,000 and are estimated by some to be two or three times that many. Subscription price, 50 cents per year.

SHORTER CATECHISM.

The statistical reports show an increase of 184 in the number of Sabbath schools teaching the Shorter Catechism. The total reported is 3,510.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS.

The Board acknowledges with gratitude the promptness and generosity of the American Bible Society in responding to its applications for grants of Bibles and Testaments for distribution by our Sabbath-school missionaries among those who are destitute of the Scriptures. In so doing it has greatly assisted our labors.

To the Secretaries of the Board of Home Missions, and to the Synodical and other missionaries of that Board, our gratitude is due for their valuable coöperation in every field of missionary work.

FINANCIAL.

A comparison with the report of the previous year shows an increase in contributions of $6,576.59. Our expenditures were increased by $21,180.48, practically all of which was used for missionary work. The percentage for administration during the year has been 5.09. The share of the profits of the Business Department appropriated to the Missionary Fund met all cost of administration and left $8,880.80 for the general fund.

Our expenditures for actual field work are $20,890 in excess of the total amount contributed by churches, Sabbath schools, and individuals. (See Statement II, page 41.)

The Board notes with gratitude the steady increase in contributions to its Sabbath-school missionary work, shown in the following table—an increase of more than fifty-two per cent in eight years:

| | |
|----------------|-------------|
| 1898-1899..... | $89,879.39 |
| 1899-1900..... | 99,929.04 |

SABBATH-SCHOOL TRAINING.

Sabbath-school organization should be followed by Sabbath-school training. Our Sabbath-school workers need to be instructed, aided and inspired to do the best work possible. It is the aim of our Board to help them in all of these particulars.

There are three special ways in which we do this: By the preparation of helpful literature; by encouraging the organization of teacher-training classes; and by the holding of Sabbath-school Institutes.

LITERATURE. The Westminster Teacher, since its publication as a weekly, has given special attention to this phase of Sabbath-school training.

Leaflets, treating some particular subject, are being prepared from time to time, and sent to pastors and superintendents. The leaflets on "Teacher Training Classes," "Rally Day Suggestions," and "Evangel Days in the Sabbath school," are illustrations of what we hope to be able to do in this direction.

A series of handbooks, dealing with practical Sabbath-school questions, and written by leading Sabbath-school workers, is now in the course of preparation; and we expect that the early volumes of this series will soon be ready for use.

TEACHER TRAINING. This subject is being brought to the attention of pastors and superintendents, by letters, leaflets and addresses delivered at Institutes and Conferences. We are glad to report that interest in this matter is constantly growing; and that teacher-training classes are being organized in all parts of the Church.

In 1905, the Board published, in two volumes, "The Westminster Teacher Training Course." This has been used in a large number of schools. In the light of two years' experience, we are now revising the first volume, and expect to have the book ready for use in the early fall.

SABBATH-SCHOOL INSTITUTES. As a necessary supplement to organized Sabbath-school work under the auspices of the International Sunday-school Association, the Board aims to encourage the holding of distinctively Presbyterian Sabbath-school Institutes, in connection with the meetings of Presbytery and Synod; or at such times and places as the Presbyteries may determine. In these, denominational topics can be discussed and denominational work forwarded.

The Board will gladly render assistance, so far as possible, in the holding of these Presbyterian Sabbath-school Institutes. We have prepared sample programs, leaflets relating to special topics, and a series of questions to guide a Conference, which we will send to any one asking for them.

The Rev. James A. Worden, D. D., Superintendent of Sabbath-school Training, will attend these Institutes, when it is possible for him to do so, if his help should be desired. It is proposed, in connection with the Annual Sabbath-school Missionary Conferences, to hold Institutes for the benefit of the Sabbath-school workers of the city in which the Conference is being held.

During the past year, Dr. Worden, in the prosecution of his special duties, has attended a number of Sabbath-school and missionary Conferences, lectured in our Theological seminaries, and made Sabbath-school tours in various parts of the country. In this work, the main emphasis has been placed upon Sabbath-school evangelism, the organized Bible class, teacher-training and missions in the Sabbath school.

THE LESSON HELPS

The following is a brief description of the character and purpose of the periodicals published by the Board:—

The Westminster Teacher at the beginning of this year was changed from a monthly magazine to a weekly paper. It is especially prepared for teachers and officers of Sabbath schools and for use in adult classes. It contains full and varied expositions of the International Bible Lessons. Professor John D. Davis, D.D., LL.D.; the Rev. E. Morris Fergusson; Professor Amos R. Wells, A. M.; the Rev. A. H. McKinney, Ph. D.; J. F. Carson, D. D.; and Miss Josephine L. Baldwin, furnish departments of the lesson work. Each weekly number contains not less than sixteen pages, with an attractive cover. Price, single copy, by mail, per annum, 75 cents; school subscriptions, to one address, 60 cents per copy.

The Rev. John A. McKamy, D. D., formerly Editor of the Cumberland Presbyterian publications, has been associated with the editor, and has special charge of the work on the Westminster Teacher.

The Westminster Primary Quarterly, Teachers' Edition, prepared by Miss Marion Thomas, is exclusively for teachers. It includes the notes formerly given in The Westminster Teacher besides the notes given in the scholars' quarterly. It contains 70 pages. Subscription price, 40 cents a year, or 12 cents a quarter.

The Westminster Senior Quarterly is used in older and adult classes. The principal work on this Quarterly is done by the Rev. A. H. McKinney, Ph. D. Each number contains full lesson material for three months, with Orders of Service, Maps, and other valuable matter, and contains 48 pages. Its wide circulation attests its popularity. School subscriptions, to one address, 16 cents a year; single copies, 20 cents.

The Westminster Intermediate Quarterly is designed for scholars of the Intermediate grade. It is prepared chiefly by the Rev. E. Morris Fergusson. It contains full lesson text, with notes, questions, and practical teachings. In it are found also, Maps, Orders of Service, etc. Each number contains 42 pages. School subscriptions, to one address, 16 cents a year; single copies, 20 cents.

The Westminster Junior Quarterly is designed for younger children in the Junior Department. It is prepared by Miss Josephine L. Baldwin. It is attractive in form and in its instruction. School subscriptions, to one address, 16 cents a year; single copies, 20 cents.

The Westminster Primary Quarterly is for the little folks of the Primary grade. It is prepared by Miss Marion Thomas. It gives explanations of the lessons, with hymns and music, and is beautifully illustrated. It contains 38 pages. School subscriptions, to one address, 16 cents a year; single copies, 20 cents.

The Westminster Home Department Quarterly is prepared for the use of those who, though unable to attend the sessions of the Sabbath school, yet desire to study the lesson, week by week. This Quarterly contains in each number 48 pages. Subscription price 16 cents a year for school subscriptions to one address; 20 cents for single copies separately mailed.

The Westminster Normal Quarterly was issued to cover a two years' course of lessons for use in advanced and normal classes. This course has been completed, and the eight quarterly numbers are furnished to those desiring them. The lessons were prepared by James A. Worden, D. D. The price is 40 cents a year for a single subscription; two or more subscriptions, to one address, 24 cents each. The two years' course, bound in cloth, $1.00 postpaid.

The Westminster Lesson Leaf is prepared with special reference to Intermediate and younger scholars. It is issued monthly, but is so prepared that, if desired, the leaves can be separated and distributed to scholars weekly. Each leaf contains one lesson complete, with Scripture, Golden Text, Catechism, Notes on the Lesson, and Questions. School subscriptions, to one address, 6 cents a year; single copies, per year, 10 cents.

The Westminster Lesson Card contains a brightly colored lithographic picture, illustrating the lesson of the day, with Lesson Title, Golden Text, Lesson Hymn, Lesson Story, and Questions. It is adapted in grade to younger children and to Primary classes. School subscriptions to one address, 10 cents a year, 2½ cents a quarter. Single sets, 20 cents a year.

The Bible Roll. Lesson pictures, the same as those on the Lesson Cards, but greatly enlarged, prepared as wall roll for the Primary Department. Price $3.00 per year, 75 cents per quarter.

The Westminster Beginners' Lessons cover the Two Years' International Course for young children of the kindergarten age. The lessons are arranged with reference to the seasons. They can be taken up at any time. The Beginners' Lessons, with the cards for teachers and scholars, were prepared by Miss Marion Thomas, and issued in eight illustrated numbers. These numbers were first issued as a Quarterly covering two years. They are now furnished to schools at the prices indicated below.

Accompanying the Beginners' Lessons is a series of large picture cards (12x15 inches in size), especially prepared for this course. Both the Quarterly and these cards are solely for the teacher's use in teaching the lesson. For the scholars there are smaller Golden Text Picture Cards to be given out each week.

COST OF EQUIPMENT FOR THE BEGINNERS' COURSE

For the Teacher: Westminster Beginners' Lessons, in quarterly form, 50 cents a year, 12½ cents a quarter.

Large Picture Cards, $3.00 a year, 75 cents a quarter. Song Stories for the Sunday school, 15 cents.

For the Scholar: A Golden Text Illustrated Card for every Sunday, 24 cents a year, 6 cents a quarter.

Running parallel with the Beginners' Lessons is a series of Supplemental Beginners' Lessons, which are to take the place of the formal opening exercises used in the other departments of the school. This Supplemental Course, which covers a period of ten months only, includes a series of lessons for the teacher, published in pamphlet form, elaborating the Supplemental Lessons, and a series of large pictures for use in teaching the Supplemental Lessons (7 x 9 inches in size). For the scholar there are small cards to be distributed the last Sunday of the month, giving the thought for the month, and a Bible verse, and the words of a song.

COST OF EQUIPMENT FOR THE SUPPLEMENTAL COURSE

For the Teacher: Supplemental Lessons for Beginners, an illustrated book elaborating the supplemental course, 25 cents.

Large Picture Cards, covering a period of 10 months, 43 cards, $2.00 for the complete set.

For the Scholar: Small Cards, one for each month, for 10 months, 5 cents for the complete set.

ILLUSTRATED PAPERS

Forward continues to grow in interest, as its increasing weekly circulation, now considerably above a quarter of a million, attests. No paper in the country for young people surpasses Forward in interest and popularity. It is filled every week with the choicest things for its readers. The best short story, and other, writers for the young are among its contributors. From readers of all ages we receive continually the most appreciative commendations. While intended primarily for older classes in Sabbath schools, Forward is adapted also for young people in the home, the school, and everywhere. It has a Christian Endeavor Department, with brief notes on the weekly topics, and contains articles from time to time on the work of young people's societies. The low price at which Forward is furnished brings it within the reach of all. In clubs it costs less than one cent a number. Single subscriptions, per year, 75 cents; subscriptions for two or more copies addressed to one person, 50 cents a year each.

The Sabbath-School Visitor is the oldest of the periodicals of the Board. It is adapted to a younger class of readers than Forward. It is an illustrated four-page paper, each number containing attractive and interesting matter. It is published weekly. Single subscriptions, per year, 50 cents; school subscriptions, to one address, 30 cents.

The Morning Star is issued to meet the demand in some schools for a paper at small cost. It is of the same quality, grade, and style as The Visitor, but only half its size. It is issued every week. Single subscriptions, 25 cents a year; school subscriptions, to one address, 15 cents.

The Sunbeam is a four-page weekly illustrated paper for very little people. It is attractive not only in its appearance, but also in its contents. No subscriptions are taken for less than one month. Single subscriptions, 30 cents a year; school subscriptions, to one address, 20 cents a year for each scholar.

BUSINESS DEPARTMENT

According to the statement on page 36, there have been published during the year 2,814,965 copies of books and tracts, and 52,888,423 copies of periodicals, which, together with 8,450 copies of the Annual Report for the year ending March 30, 1906, make an aggregate of 55,711,838 publications for the year.

The work of placing these publications on the market is performed by means of the main store in Philadelphia, the Depositories in New York, Chicago, St. Louis, San Francisco, and Nashville, and seven other houses where the publications of the Board can be obtained.

The Depositories conducted by the Board are as follows:

DEPOSITORIES.

New York, N. Y., C. W. Hippard, Manager, 156 Fifth Avenue.
 Chicago, Ill., W. P. Blessing, Manager, 192 Michigan Avenue.
 St. Louis, Mo., J. H. Springer, Manager, 1516 Locust Street.
 San Francisco, Cal., F. E. Heller, Manager.*
 Nashville, Tenn., J. W. Axtell, Manager, 150 Fourth Avenue North.

The other houses referred to are these:

Boston, Mass., H. D. Noyes & Co., 250 Devonshire Street.
 Cincinnati, Ohio, Western Tract Society, 420 Elm Street.
 Pittsburg, Pa., Board of Colportage, Sixth Street and Duquesne Way.
 Richmond, Va., The Presbyterian Committee of Publication, 212-214 North Sixth Street.
 Toronto, Ontario, Upper Canada Tract Society, 102 Yonge Street.
 Winnipeg, Manitoba, Russell, Lang & Co., 504 Main Street.
 Publication Committee Presbyterian Church of England, 21 Warwick Lane, London, E. C.

* Since May 1st, 1906, the office of the Depository is temporarily located at 2436 Telegraph Avenue, Berkeley, California, owing to the San Francisco fire.

These houses with the exception of the one in London, furnish all our publications at the Board's prices.

SALES.

The sales for the year in books and tracts, including our own publications and those of other houses, were $269,501.87; and of periodicals, $419,751.37. These amounts, as they include credit sales, do not agree with the Treasurer's account, which account exhibits only cash received. The Treasurer's account includes cash received for the sales of the current year, and also cash received for the credit sales of preceding years.

The aggregate of the preceding sales includes not only the ordinary sales of the main house, and of the depositories and other houses, but all sales made to the Sabbath-school and Missionary Department.*

CAPITAL AND NET PROFITS.

The capital at the beginning of the year, according to the balance sheet of the last report, was $277,397.65. The net profits of the year were $38,415.34. Of this sum two-thirds, or $25,610.23, have been placed to the credit of the Sabbath-school and Missionary Fund, in accordance with the direction of the General Assembly, and will be paid in quarterly instalments during the year. The remaining third, or $12,805.11, has been added to the capital, making the amount as now reported $290,202.76.

* The Business Department sells all its publications to the Sabbath-school and Missionary Work at "the highest rate of discount allowed on the same class of publication to the most favored branch houses in this country"; the missionaries are required to sell for cash only.

F. M. BRASELMANN, Treasurer.

PHILADELPHIA, April 1st, 1907.

The undersigned Auditing Committee, in conjunction with Mr. Charles Lewer, Certified Public Accountant, have examined the accounts of the Treasurer of the Trustees, and find them correct. The balance of cash in the hands of the Treasurer, April 1st, was Seventy-two thousand, six hundred and sixty-nine dollars and seventy-six cents ($72,669.76). They have also examined the securities in his hands, amounting to One hundred and ninety-nine thousand, six hundred and eleven dollars and twenty cents ($199,611.20), and find them in the name of the corporation, with the exception of $4,000 People's Passenger Railway Company, and $4,000 People's Passenger Railway Company Consolidated Bonds, which are coupon bonds, and were received as such from the executor of the Farr Estate.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF PUBLICATION OF THE CUMBERLAND PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

As specified in the report of the Committee on Fraternity and Union, adopted in May, 1906, by the 118th General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, and by the 76th General Assembly of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, the Board of Publication of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church was ordered to submit its next annual report to the 119th General Assembly of the re-united Church, to be held at Columbus, Ohio, in May, 1907.

In view of the lack of familiarity, in the larger Church, with the publishing work of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, the report for the period closing March 31, 1907, is prefaced with

A BRIEF HISTORICAL SKETCH.

The organized work of publication in the Cumberland Presbyterian Church is about sixty years old. It began with the appointment, by the General Assembly, of a Publication Committee, which was without experience, without assets, and without funds. A chartered Board of Publication was, a few years later, given the responsibility of construction and development. Interrupted in its early years by the Civil War, the work made slight progress for quite a period, though in spite of various hindrances its growth was as steady as it was slow.

A PERMANENT LOCATION.

The permanent location of the Board of Publication at Nashville, Tenn., dates from June 1, 1867, and the period of substantial accomplishment has been almost wholly confined to the ensuing forty years. The printing was at first done by contract, but in a few years a small printing plant was established. For a long time these printing facilities were somewhat meagre, but the plant has gradually been improved until it is now one of the best and one of the best known in the South.

THE PUBLISHING HOUSE.

The Publishing House was completed and occupied in 1891. The building is very handsome, substantial and commodious, the property now being easily worth over one hundred thousand dollars. The erection of such a building at the time was a difficult and seemingly hazardous undertaking; but the wisdom and courage of those who planned the work have been amply vindicated.

THE BASIS OF GROWTH.

The Board of Publication has, from the beginning, received comparatively little financial help. Donations and bequests placed at its disposal have aggregated less than twenty-five thousand dollars in its entire history. The handsome volume of assets presented in the report which follows have grown almost wholly out of the net earnings of the business of the House.

THE BOARD'S PERIODICALS.

Early in its history the Board began the issue of Sunday school literature, adding a periodical from time to time, until at the consummation of church union the line was more complete than that of any other denomination of equal numerical strength. Thirty-three years ago the Board purchased the several weekly papers published in different parts of the Church, and gave the consolidated paper the denominational name, which one of them already carried. Other papers have been issued from time to time in this period, but The Cumberland Presbyterian has been distinctively recognized as the leading church paper.

GIVEN A SINGLE TASK.

To the Board has been assigned the exclusive responsibility of looking after the interests of publication. Its early financial struggles, and the creation of property values and a great printing plant, have absorbed its resources and profits, and it has been permitted to devote these to placing itself in solid financial condition. It has made many donations from time to time to other denominational interests, but these have been voluntary and of only moderate volume. Though during recent years the Board has had no official responsibility for the Sunday school work of the Church, except occasionally and incidentally, yet it has done much for the promotion of that work.

RESULTS OF THE LAST FIVE YEARS' WORK.

The work made very great progress in the five years ending with December, 1905, notwithstanding for a great part of that period it was interrupted to quite an extent by the troubles incident to the movement for church union. The net profits in that time were $73,826.09, or an average of $14,764.22 a year. These profits were applied to equipment and debt-paying, the debt having been reduced in the five years from $83,624.93 to $27,736.22.

This brings the historical sketch up to the time covered by the report.

The foregoing paragraphs are designed to be only sufficiently explanatory to properly introduce the report which follows, and all reference to the faithful men who, from time to time, have figured in the more than a half century of publication work, is purposely avoided.

A FIFTEEN MONTHS' REPORT.

The annual reports of the Board of Publication of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church have been made for calendar years ending December 31. The report for the past year, however, is extended to March 31, 1907, thus conforming to the date of reports to be presented to this General Assembly.

CHANGED CONDITIONS.

In submitting this report it is proper to explain that it is made under very different circumstances from those under which previous reports have been made. In the first place, at the end of nine months, that is, at the first of October, 1906, the Sunday school periodicals of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church were discontinued and the Westminster series introduced. This circumstance took away from the Publishing House the wider margin of profit enjoyed on its own publications, and substituted for this profit the much narrower margin enjoyed on this same business by the depositories. There was also a temporary decrease in the volume of Sunday school periodical business, though this reduction has averaged to this time only about twelve per cent.

Another changed condition, of a similar character, which should be mentioned is that while we have been selling a considerably increased volume of book stock, the growth of the book trade has been mainly in stock which has been purchased, and on which the profit is small; whereas a considerable proportion of the old business was on stock of our own manufacture, which yielded a handsome profit.

A third new condition is that job printing is done for the reunited Church at a less margin of profit than for the public in general, a circumstance which renders the aggregate profit of the printing department relatively less than it has been heretofore under other circumstances.

REVALUATION.

One of the business practices of the Board of Publication has been the thorough and careful revaluation of all the assets of the business every five years, and the end of such a period was reached December 31, 1905. The Publishing House and all property belonging to the business has, therefore, been revalued. This has been done item by item, and the values recorded may be relied upon as conservative and absolutely safe. In one case revaluation was the source of substantial gain. The Publishing House property itself has been listed in recent years at figures decidedly below its actual value. In making the new valuation we have taken the current market price of the ground on which the building stands, and added to this the actual cost of the building (which was erected when everything was low in cost), to which several marked improvements have been added, without recognition in the inventory. This single item shows the only gain in revaluation. On the other hand, the valuation of the Sunday school periodicals, $15,000.00, has been taken out entirely, in consequence of their discontinuance. The valuation of The Cumberland Presbyterian has been reduced from $22,700.00 to $15,000.00. The House library, whose value is uncertain, and which had been listed at $650.00, has been taken out. From the valuation of the book plates a total of $3,752.98 has been deducted. On book stock a reduction of $2,086.37 has been made, on books in slight demand and of difficult sale. The result is that the radical reduction by revaluation exceeds the gain, leaving a net shrinkage of $2,852.22.

STATEMENT OF PROFIT.

The several sources of income of the business show an aggregate gross profit for the fifteen months of $28,039.55. This profit is distributed as follows:

THE GENERAL BUSINESS EXHIBIT.

We also submit tabulated figures from the ledger showing in simple and easily understood form the financial condition of the House. In the first column will be found the resources and liabilities of the business January 1, 1905; in the second column, the resources and liabilities March 31, 1907. The latter column includes the results shown both by the returns of the business and those following the revaluation. These columns are followed by others showing respectively the gains and losses.

† The explanation of the change in this item will be found on page 7.

THE DEBT SITUATION.

One of the facts brought out in this statement is that, for the first time in the recent history of the House, the debt shows an increase. This increase is $7,149.01. However, this is a mere incident in the business, and is of a wholly temporary character. An inspection of the tables will show an increase in machinery purchases of $16,439.06; an increase in book stock of $1,149.07 (keeping in mind the reduction of book values of $2,086.37 by revaluation); an increase in accounts receivable of $2,774.79; in paper stock, $2,390.11; and in balance of cash, $1,706.73. An item not shown in the tables, but which should be understood, is that $1,531.00 has already been paid for Sunday school periodicals to be manufactured and mailed for the third and fourth quarters of this year. Taken as a whole these figures, aggregating $25,990.76, furnish the reason for the temporary increase of the debt.

It is only proper to mention in this connection that the liberal equipment purchases of the past year render it unnecessary to add anything of great importance in the ensuing year, in which time, under normal conditions, not only should this increase be wiped out, but a substantial reduction made on the original debt.

THE FORM OF THE DEBT.

The form in which the indebtedness of the Board of Publication now stands is as follows: $20,000.00 is in five per cent bonds, which do not mature until October 1, 1910, but which may be paid off in amounts of $5,000.00, or multiples of $5,000.00, at the first of April or the first of October of any year. These bonds were originally $35,000.00 in volume, but were reduced by $15,000.00 a year and a half ago. Of the remaining indebtedness $2,520.43 also bears interest at five per cent, and consists of our Employes' Savings Fund. This fund is composed of moneys which our employes deposit with our cashier. It has not only been a convenience to the Board of Publication, but it has been a very great advantage to the employes in giving them an easy and safe way of caring for and accumulating savings from their earnings. Of the remaining interest-bearing debt $8,110.00 is in bills payable, on which the interest rate is six per cent.

A PERIOD OF NO LOSSES.

There have been no losses of consequence in the period under review. The reduction in assets through rigid revaluation has been mentioned, amounting to $2,852.22. An item of $1,000.00 for attorneys' fees will be noticed. This item was not connected in any way with the business of the past year. One-half of it was for attorneys' services in connection with litigation at Independence, Mo., over some land sold by the Board of Publication some years ago, which suit terminated favorably to the Board. The other $500.00 was in settlement of attorneys' fees in the Manlove suit, which was pending for several years beginning with the year 1898.

VOLUME OF BUSINESS.

The volume of business for the fifteen months aggregated $214,143.83. This would indicate a business for twelve months of $171,315.06, against a total for the year 1905 of $151,780.74, an increase of $19,534.32.

THE CUMBERLAND PRESBYTERIAN.

One of the periodicals issued by the Board of Publication has been The Cumberland Presbyterian, which, during the separate existence of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, was the leading, and part of the time the only, denominational weekly paper. While no longer thinking of the paper as a denominational organ, it was probably never of greater value to that portion of the reunited Church which originally imposed the trust upon the Board, and in the interest of which the paper is published, than at this period of readjustment and reorganization. This paper has been conducted during the past year under difficulties, and yet shows a margin of profit. At the first of May, 1907, it has a circulation of 11,021, against a circulation a year ago of 12,482. An increased interest in the paper has developed for some months past, and its outlook may be considered both safe and promising.

BOOK DEPARTMENT.

The book department shows a marked increase in the volume of business. The margin of profit, however, has been slender. This is explainable on the ground of increased expenses, but more particularly by the fact, already mentioned, that it has been handling products on which its profit has been less than heretofore. The growth of the book business has been very pronounced in the first three months of 1907, and the outlook is regarded as more promising in every way than at any previous time. Some months ago the book room was remodeled, furnished with tile floor and handsome furniture and fixtures of every kind. It is one of the handsomest book stores to be seen anywhere.

SUNDAY SCHOOL PERIODICALS.

It has been explained that the revenue from Sunday school periodicals has been reduced because of the purchase, instead of the manufacture, of the periodicals sold. This has resulted in a marked reduction of profit in this department. It should be noted, however, that in lieu of this the House enjoys a substantial profit on work done for the Board of Publication and Sabbath School Work; so that if the revenues from one source of Sunday school periodical work are decreased those from another are increased. Even though, on the whole, there may be a decrease of relative profit to the Nashville Publishing House, it is certain that there is a material gain to the Church at large because of the economy in production and the increase in circulation of the periodicals, incident to the combination of the two series. The periodicals of the Westminster series have been favorably received by the Sunday schools of the late Cumberland Presbyterian Church, and it is regarded as certain that they will continue to increase in favor and sale among our people.

GENERAL PRINTING DEPARTMENT.

The volume of business in the General Printing Department has increased, much of this increase coming from work for the re-united Church. A large proportion of the printing output is of a religious character, among the patrons of the House being the Southern Baptist Church, the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, and the Presbyterian Committee of Publication, at Richmond, Va. Besides, two or three papers belonging to other religious organizations are printed in the House. The capacity of the printing plant is large, and, as already intimated, is fully equal to any demand that is likely to be made upon it. Not only is the capacity great, but the equipment is up-to-date, and is as substantial and complete as can be found anywhere for similar investment. There are few kinds of printing that cannot be undertaken to advantage, but the special success of the House has grown out of its ability to handle periodicals economically and expeditiously.

THE WESTMINSTER TEACHER.

As a result of the affiliation of the two Boards of Publication reporting to your body, the printing and issue of The Westminster Teacher has been transferred from Philadelphia to Nashville, that periodical having also been changed from a monthly to a weekly. It has now been located at Nashville for over four months, and its publication has been so systematized that the weekly is being produced with special economy and promptness. Its fine mechanical appearance speaks for itself.

CHILDREN'S DAY FUND.

The Children's Day programs sent out for the Sunday schools of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church have heretofore been issued and mailed from the Publishing House. Besides, remittances for the Children's Day fund have been sent to the House. We have been winding up this business for some months past, and it will be noted that only $324.86 remains in our hands. This fund belongs to a few synods which have not drawn the part allotted to them.

THE ORGANIZATION OF THE HOUSE.

It is only just to refer to the fine business organization of the institution whose work is exhibited in this report. With nearly one hundred employes, the output of the plant and the handling of the business in the different offices is all that could be desired. It is rarely, indeed, that so fine a mechanical organization is to be found. Most of the employes have been with the House for a number of years, and have a sense of loyalty to it which cannot be expected from those whose connection with an institution is ephemeral and uncertain. The policy of the Board of Publication has been to treat employes with all consideration and fairness.

BENEFITS TO EMPLOYES.

At the end of each year a distribution of cash is made among all employes outside of the officials of the House, heads of departments, and those having special responsibilities. This distribution is made at a banquet to which all employes are invited; and those present on these annual occasions are convinced of their mutual advantage to all concerned.

Besides, not only in the clerical department, but throughout all departments, a week's vacation with full pay is given to employes. It is unusual to accord this treatment to mechanical departments in any business; but no one connected with the Publishing House fails to receive this much appreciated recognition.

At this time the official organization of the House is as follows:

BOARD OF PUBLICATION.

Members whose terms expire in 1907.—Rev. J. M. Johnston, Petersburg, Ill.; W. T. Hardison, Nashville, Tenn.; L. M. Rice, Louisville, Ky.

Members whose terms expire in 1908.—Rev. W. A. Provine, Columbia, Tenn.; Hamilton Parks, Nashville, Tenn.; M. G. Wood, Independence, Mo.

Members whose terms expire in 1909.—Rev. Chas. Manton, D.D., Paris, Texas; J. H. DeWitt, Nashville, Tenn.; J. H. Reynolds, Rome, Ga.

Officers.—Rev. W. A. Provine, President; Hamilton Parks, Secretary; J. W. Axtell, Manager Publishing House.

NOMINATION OF MEMBERS OF THE BOARD.

Under the charter of this Board the General Assembly of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church was vested with the power to regulate and control it; and it has therefore been customary for said General Assembly every year to nominate three persons for election to membership on this Board for a term of three years. As your reverend body has succeeded to the powers of the General Assembly of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church in this regard, we ask that you nominate three men to succeed Messrs. L. M. Rice, W. T. Hardison and J. M. Johnston, whose terms will expire in June of this year.

This request is made especially for the purpose of preserving the corporate entity and continuity of this Board until at least the pending litigation in Tennessee over the property questions involved in the union of the churches is determined. We have not sought to consolidate this Board with the Presbyterian Board of Publication and Sabbath School Work, or to convey to it the property held in trust by us, because of the existence of this litigation. We are working in complete harmony with the Presbyterian Board of Publication and Sabbath School Work, but we deem it wise for the present not to disturb the present independent status of this Board.

Grateful for the kind Providence which has crowned our efforts with success, praying for future blessings, and commending our work to the prayerful consideration of your reverend body, this report is respectfully submitted.

THIRTY-SEVENTH ANNUAL REPORT
OF THE
Board of the Church Erection Fund.

To the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America:

Acknowledging the Divine blessing upon its work, the Board of the Church Erection Fund respectfully presents its Thirty-seventh* Annual Report as follows:

The year has been a prosperous one, the decided advance reported a year ago having been steadily maintained, with the result that the applications exceed in number those of last year, and in total amount those of any previous year in the history of the Board.

As this is the first report which comes before an Assembly of the reunited Church, and as henceforth the work of Church Erection of the two former branches of the Church will doubtless be carried on by a consolidated Board, it seems appropriate, before presenting in detail the year's progress, to speak briefly of the history of this arm of the Church's service and the methods by which its work has been done.

The work of Church Erection was inaugurated in the Old School branch of the Church in 1844, and placed under the direction of the Board of Domestic Missions. This evidently did not prove entirely satisfactory, for in 1855 the Assembly detached the work from that Board, giving as a reason "that in view of the peculiar emergencies of the case and the increasing demand for aid in erecting churches in the new and destitute settlements of our country, some more vigorous organized effort than is now in operation ought to be made by our Church at large to supply the needs."

A special Committee was appointed, which later in 1860 was developed into the Board of Church Extension. A similar work was inaugurated by the New School General Assembly in 1854, and the next year The Board of the Church Erection Fund was incorporated by the Legislature of the State of New York. At the reunion in 1870 the two Boards were united under the charter and name of the New School Board. Since the reunion, and especially during the last twenty years, the sphere of the Board and the scope of its work have been constantly widening.

* The work was inaugurated by the General Assembly [O. S.] in 1844; the Board [N. S.] was incorporated in 1855; the two Boards were united in 1870, from which year this present report numbers.

It now has under its care no less than ten distinct funds to be used actively in the work of Church Erection.

1. The Permanent Fund of $150,000. This was raised previously to the reunion as an endowment by the New School branch. This is invested and the annual interest added to the General Fund.

2. The General Fund. This fund consists of the annual income derived from (1) church and individual contributions; (2) interest on invested funds; (3) legacies; (4) sales of unused church buildings; (5) appropriations returned by the churches. It has averaged in recent years from $100,000 to $110,000 annually, and has been distributed among needy churches, either in grants or in small loans without interest to be repaid in annual contributions.

3. The Manse Fund. This was endowed by the late Mrs. Robert L. Stuart in 1885 by a gift of $25,000, and has increased by additional gifts to its present amount of $100,000. It is loaned in small sums for manse buildings, to be returned without interest in from three to five years.

4. The Loan Fund. This fund, established in 1891 by a legacy from the Stuart estate, now amounts to about $300,000. It is loaned at a low rate of interest to churches stronger than those that come within the sphere of the General Fund.

5. The Reynolds Fund. This is derived from the bequest of the late General William F. Reynolds, of Detroit, and by the terms of his will is to be loaned at a low rate of interest to aid in building manses. It may be loaned to stronger churches and for more expensive buildings than the regular Manse Fund. Ordinarily loans are not to exceed $2,500, and are to be returned with four per cent. interest in annual installments not exceeding ten.

6. The Barber Fund. This consists of moneys annually received since 1895 from the proceeds of a bequest from Mr. Phineas M. Barber, held by the Trustees of the General Assembly. By the terms of the will the money is to be used to aid "colored Presbyterian churches outside the field of the Freedmen's Board" in church building. The amount received annually is from $2,000 to $3,000, and the fund available April 1, 1907, was $12,000. The conditions for receiving aid from it are the same as those of the General Fund.

7. The Buell Fund. A special fund, derived from a legacy, which by its terms limits its use to churches in the Western States.

8. The Van Meter Fund. A small fund, the interest of which is to be used within the bounds of the Presbytery of West Jersey.

9. The Gilchrist Fund. Derived from a legacy of $10,000, the interest of which is to be used for the benefit of churches connected with the Boston Presbytery.

10. The Hoyt Fund. To be used to aid in building manses under conditions somewhat similar to the Reynolds Fund.

11. The Stuart Fund. This was originally $20,000, and was placed in the hands of the Board, to be used at its discretion in special cases which seemed outside the general rules of the Assembly. At the present time only a small balance remains.

With the exception of the General Fund and the Buell, these are in their provision permanent funds aggregating at the present time more than $700,000.

In addition, the Board holds reversionary interests in church and manse properties, under grant or loan mortgages, of at least two and a half millions of dollars, a certain proportion of which are every year becoming available and all of which are protected by insurance policies.

How these funds have been bestowed in the past will be seen by the table given upon the tenth page.

What have been the resources from these funds during the past year and how they have been used will be seen from the following detailed statement.

RESOURCES.

The following table gives the income for the year from all sources. The total amount is somewhat smaller than last year, which was increased by one special gift of $25,000; but it is gratifying to add that the contributions from the churches are $3,856.74 larger, and in fact exceed those of any of the previous twenty years. It is less gratifying to be obliged to report that only 4,164 of the 8,118 upon the roll of the Assembly, or a little more than one-half, unite in the support of the Board. Making every allowance for the large number of feeble and newly organized churches it is still evident that there is a deplorable lack of sympathy with the needs of our many homeless congregations.

APPLICATIONS.

As has been already intimated, the applications to the General Fund for grants or for loans without interest were more in number even than last year, and in amount asked exceeded any year in the history of the Board. From the other funds the amounts asked were slightly less than last year.

Thus in all departments the number of applications was 286 and the total amount asked, either for grants or loans, was $287,820. To the General Fund (including the Buell, Stuart and Gilchrist) there were 197, aggregating $136,845, either for grants (168 : $110,495) or loans without interest (28 : $26,350); but as eleven of the loans asked were for churches also asking grants, the number of churches applying to the General Fund was 186.

To the Loan Fund there were twenty-eight applications, aggregating $91,050; to the Manse Fund, fifty-one, aggregating $33,425; to the Reynolds Fund, nineteen, aggregating $22,500, and to the Barber Fund, two, amounting to $4,000.

As to these latter funds, the applications were slightly less than last year. The total number of applications to all the funds was five less; but the aggregate asked is larger by $15,126.

It should be added, as a matter of interest and as a forecast of the future, that a score or more of informal applications also came from churches formerly Cumberland, which, however, under the agreement of this Board with the Cumberland Board, could not at present be entertained.

APPROPRIATIONS.

The appropriations have been as follows, viz.:

1. General Fund (including as under like rules the Buell, Van Meter, Gilchrist and Stuart Funds).

From this fund (including as above) grants aggregating $93,619 have been made to 153 churches, and loans (to be returned without interest in annual offerings) aggregating $13,350 to twenty-two churches. Thus the total number of appropriations was 175, and the entire amount appropriated (including, however, $2,187 to five churches from the Stuart Fund and one appropriation of $1,000 from the Gilchrist Fund) was $106,969; but as three churches received both loan and grant, the number of the churches was 172.

In number the churches exceed last year by eight, but the total amount appropriated is $6,638 less than in that record year.

2. The Loan Fund. From this fund, already explained, there have been twenty-one loans aggregating $63,500—an average of $3,013.81. The amount thus promised was $10,625 more than the previous year, but as the average amount was more the number of different churches was one less.

3. The Barber Fund. From this fund, confined in its operations to colored churches not under the care of the Board of Missions for Freedmen, there was but one appropriation and that of $1,000. It might be well if the Presbyteries within whose bounds are colored churches coming within the sphere of this fund, had their attention called to this provision for the aid of such congregations.

4. The Manse Fund. From the Manse Fund the loans were forty-three, aggregating $24,050, and there was one extraordinary grant of $1,000 to provide a home for our Church's missionary and pastor in the Panama zone and one of $100 from the Stuart Fund.

The appropriations were less than those of last year by $1,650 in amount, and as the average was larger the number of churches was sixteen less. The total including the grants is forty-five churches and $25,150.

5. The Reynolds Fund. From this fund there have been eleven loans to the aggregate amount of $11,400. The ability to loan from this fund has been limited by the fact that, so far as it is available, it is practically all distributed in loans, usually running for ten years, and thus new loans can only be made as installments upon former ones are repaid.

6. The Hoyt Fund. From this Manse Fund, the conditions of which are practically the same as those of the Reynolds, three loans aggregating $3,050 were made.

SUMMARY.

From the above statements it will be seen that there has been thus far no pause in the onward advance of our missionary work, and as what is true in the case of the Presbyterian Church is doubtless true also of all the branches of the Christian host in this country, we may rejoice in the certainty that the Church of the Living God is every year extending its sway over the hearts of men.

The following table brings before the eye a summary of the results of the year's work, so far as they can be indicated in figures.

These appropriations have been widely distributed, having reached thirty-five different States and Territories, including Porto Rico, Cuba and Panama, and 113 Presbyteries.

North Dakota has received the largest number of appropriations, viz., eighteen, aggregating $18,775.00.

During the year there have been reported as completed without debt 208 church buildings and manses, of an aggregate value of $770,332.00.

The total receipts in all departments have been $273,196.89 and the disbursements $295,940.46. The usual alphabetical and Synodical tables, indicating in detail the distribution of the appropriations, will be found in the Appendix, while upon the opposite page is a tabular view of the work of the Board from its inception in 1844.

THE FUTURE.

In looking to the future of the work committed to this Board, it is evident that preparation must be made for its speedy and marked enlargement.

The Assembly to which this report is made represents in its unity the two branches of the Presbyterian Church, reunited after three-quarters of a century of separation. The reunited Church means also the union of the administrative agencies, and the sphere of each one of the reconstructed Boards will embrace the widened territory formerly occupied by the different branches and the churches under their respective jurisdictions. With the purpose of carrying out the intent of Concurrent Declarations 5 and 7, that "as soon as practicable after the union the Permanent Committees and Boards should be reconstructed and consolidated," the last Assembly adopted the following resolution:

"Resolved, That the benevolent and missionary Boards connected with the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America and the Boards now connected with the General Assembly of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, after the consummation of the union and the reunion, are authorized and directed to confer with each other, with a view to carrying on their work in harmony with each other during the year 1906-7, full report to be made by each of the above Boards to the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America of 1907."

In accordance with the above resolution, the Board would respectfully report that, together with the Boards of Home and

* In comparing the number of appropriations with the number of churches still upon the roll which have been aided, it should be noted, as appears in the columns of payments, that about 5 per cent. do not call for their appropriations, that about the same number have received more than one appropriation, and that others from one cause or another are either dissolved or consolidated, the actual average increase in the number of churches upon the roll of the Assembly being about 65 per cent. of the number reported as organized.

Foreign Missions, it has been in conference with the Cumberland Board of Missions and Church Erection, and such conference resulted in the approval of the following plan for the consolidation of the Boards and the carrying on of their united work, which plan this Board, in common with the other Boards in conference, submits to the Assembly for its consideration.

"FIRST: That after the meeting of the General Assembly in May, 1907, the Cumberland Presbyterian Board of Missions and Church Erection should continue and maintain its legal corporate existence, for the purpose of serving the best interests of all concerned and performing such functions as may be deemed necessary; but that as soon as agreements between the respective Boards of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A. and the Cumberland Presbyterian Board have been reached, it should turn over its Home Mission stations and Home Mission work to the Board of Home Missions, its Foreign Mission stations and Foreign Mission work to the Board of Foreign Missions, and its Church Erection Funds and Church Erection work to the Board of the Church Erection Fund of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A.

"SECOND: That the corporate members of the Cumberland Presbyterian Board of Missions and Church Erection should become and be made members of the above-named Boards of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A., as follows: Home Missions, three; Foreign Missions, two; Church Erection, two.

THIRD: That a joint office for the South and Southwest should be maintained in St. Louis by these three Boards, which office should also be the General Office of the Cumberland Presbyterian Board of Missions and Church Erection.

"FOURTH: That the work to be done through this joint office by any particular Board shall be with the general supervision of a committee composed of the members of that Board, who are also members of the Cumberland Presbyterian Board, and that the appointment of agents, the granting of appropriations and loans, and the adoption of plans and policies for the South and Southwest by any particular Board shall be after such matters have been submitted to such committee of said Board.

"FIFTH: That it is the sense of the conference that the Cumberland Presbyterian Board should confer with the Woman's Board of the Cumberland Presbyterian Board at once in regard to its future relations with the work and organization of the Boards of the united Church.

"SIXTH: Resolved, That this conference is unable to make a united recommendation as to the final disposition of "The Missionary Record," but that inasmuch as this publication has been a great power in building up the work of this Board and is well known among our people, we strongly recommend that it be preserved for the present, either as a separate publication or in combination with some other similar publication, and that to insure that its influence shall not be lost the joint office above mentioned shall have ample representation in it."

Whether in the manner above outlined or in such other form as the wisdom of the General Assembly may devise, the work of Church Erection, to the end that all of our congregations shall be assured adequate church homes and comfortable manses for their ministers, is to be carried forward with increased vigor by the united Church.

As the roll of the united Assembly includes a total of more than 11,000 churches, there must be inevitably an increase of the work of this Board of more than thirty per cent. Its sphere in certain regions of the country—notably the South and the Southwest—will be increased in far larger proportion, inasmuch as these sections are filling up most rapidly with an ever-growing incoming population taking possession of the vast stretches of hitherto unoccupied territory.

These new States and the vast areas of the older neighboring States will be during the next ten years the most fruitful fields for missionary advance. As towns and villages spring up hundreds of infant churches will be organized, and if they are to live and thrive they must be provided with church homes. These homes, unless all the experience of the past is misleading, they can only secure by the aid of the Church at large; and that aid can be rendered in adequate measure and in equitable distribution only through the agency of the Board of Church Erection.

Manifestly, then, to meet this increased responsibility it must be supplied with augmented means.

Some measure of this needed increase will come from the enlarged membership of the united Church; but it must not be forgotten that such membership will not be largely from the older Eastern Synods, but from the younger Synods, covering the very missionary ground where aid is in supreme measure essential.

May not, then, the Assembly before which will come the vision of these great and promising fields—these fields already white for the harvest—sound to the churches throughout the land a trumpet call for an advance all along the line—an advance in the number of laborers, an advance in the offerings to the common treasury and, above all, an advance in self-denial and self-consecration, to the end that this vast land, growing so rapidly in population and wealth, shall grow equally in that righteousness which alone exalteth a nation, and thus be truly that happy people whose God is the Lord.

ELECTION OF MEMBERS OF THE BOARD.

It only remains to add that the terms of the following members of the Board expire at this time:

MINISTERS.

REV. SAMUEL M. HAMILTON, D.D.,
REV. WILLIAM A. HOLLIDAY, D.D.,
REV. DUNCAN J. McMILLAN, D.D.,

ELDERS.

FREDERICK G. BURNHAM,
E. FRANCIS HYDE,
JOHN SINCLAIR,
EDWARD C. VAN GLAHN.

It will devolve upon this Assembly to fill these vacancies, and if it shall approve of the plan proposed by the conference of the Boards and reported above, then in addition to add to the membership of the Board two of the members of the present Cumberland Board of Missions and Church Erection.

All of which is respectfully submitted,

ERSKINE N. WHITE,
Secretary.

DAVID MAGIE,

Report of the Standing Committee upon Church Erection.

God says: "Build the House, and I will take pleasure in it, and I will be glorified." King David as he approached the end of his life, having gathered out of his own property for the future building of the Temple what is estimated to be equal to a hundred millions of dollars of our own money, explained all of this by giving as the ruling motive of his life: "I have set my affection to the House of my God." He also prayed: "Lord, I have loved the habitation of thy House, and the place where Thine Honor dwelleth." Still higher authority! Our Lord Himself twice cleansed the Temple of those which sold and bought and made it a den of thieves. This was explained to His disciples when they remembered that it was written of Him, "The zeal of thine house hath eaten me up." To be sure the external building was not the main reason of the affection and zeal for God's House evinced by King David and David's greater Son; but this was included, and their attitude toward even the external House of God has its lessons for the people of this twentieth practical century. Presbyterians, in their fear of High Church ritualism, as regards their sentiments concerning the buildings dedicated to God's worship, often go to the opposite extreme of regarding these as only so much wood or stone. The House of God on earth centralizes and crystallizes the worship of God on earth and the truth of the doctrines of our holy religion. It conserves the best interests of humanity, physically, mentally, morally and spiritually. Even when closed it is a silent witness to the presence of God with His people, and of His people's faith in and love for the Most High. We believe that should such sentiments concerning the material building which we call God's house, prevail among the people, offerings for the sacred work of the Church Erection Board would be increased mightily, for the worshipers of God would be convinced that because of the need and profit and sacredness of God's House each congregation should be provided with its own Church Home. There will be plenty of money if the people's hearts are in this cause. Because, then, of reasons like these, the affairs of our Board of Church Election assume a high spiritual nature and make a deep appeal to the hearts and brains and prayers and purses of its great Presbyterian constituency. Your Committee have had before us the Thirty-seventh Annual Report of this Board for the year ending March 31, 1907. We find, after a careful examination by able business men and accurate accountants (members of our Committee), that the records of the meetings and business of the Board are faithfully kept and accurately recorded. We learn that from all sources the receipts of this Board for the last year have been $223,596.59. Of this amount only $63,623 came from churches and Sabbath-schools. The remainder came from individual contributions and legacies and from the revenue of funds under the care of the Board. The contributions from churches were $3,857 more than last year, and exceed those of any of the previous twenty years. The Board adds: "It is less gratifying to report that only 4,164 of the 8,118 churches on the roll of the Assembly (about one-half) unite in support of the Board."

Aid was given during the year to 257 churches, amounting to $211,069; 175 of these were aided by grants and 80 by loans (13 were by both grants and loans). These appropriations have been widely distributed, reaching thirty-five different States and Territories, including Porto Rico, Cuba and Panama, and 113 Presbyteries.

Since the inauguration of the Board in 1844 it has made grants and loans to 7,845 churches, amounting to $4,988,159. We also learn from this report that the Board controls capital in all funds of $712,400, and has reversionary interests in church and manse properties of $2,557,000. The insurance in connection with the church and manse mortgages of all funds (say 4,750 policies) aggregate $2,600,000. One splendid feature of the Board's work is that all the offerings of the people for churches and manses are secured by insurance and mortgages, thus perpetually retaining the property for the use of God's people. We should not neglect to mention the Manse department of the Board's work. While no general appeal is made to our congregations for funds for this purpose, yet by gifts and legacies the Board gives shelter to many pastors' families yearly. Last year fifty-nine churches were aided by the Manse Fund. Still another fine feature of the Board's work is the supply, some without cost and some at small expense, of architectural designs to congregations erecting churches or manses. This is an important matter. Too often by undue haste or carelessness buildings are erected which are a discredit not only to the local church but to the Church at large. It is due the Lord, who is the Author of beauty, that the house which represents Him on earth should appeal favorably to the æsthetic taste of the people.

The Assembly must be impressed with the extent of the work of the Board and the variety of its interests, necessitating the keenest business capacity, intelligent toil and large expenditure of time on the part of its officers and members, all which it evidently receives. For this the gratitude of our whole Church should be extended and is hereby expressed.

The Assembly regrets the inability of Dr. Erskine N. White, the honored Secretary of the Board, to be present, but rejoices in the presence of Dr. Duncan J. McMillan as the Board's representative.

Your Committee makes the following recommendations:

1. That the records and Annual Report of the Board be approved.
2. That the Board annually remind those congregations of their remissness which, having been aided by the Board, have failed to render contributions, after having given their sacred promise so to do.
3. That the aid and co-operation of Presbyterial and Synodical Committees on Church Erection be given to secure annual offerings from each church for the important work of this Board.
4. That more care and attention on the part of congregations applying for aid and on the part of Presbyterial Committees be given in passing upon such papers.
5. That, as a thankful memorial for Reunion, much larger contributions than usual should be given by the churches, in view of the extended calls which will be made upon the funds of the Board because of this Reunion.
6. That, in view of the peculiar situation that has arisen out of the recent consummated union with the Cumberland Church, the General Assembly recommends that the Board construe its rules as liberally as possible, in order that it may aid churches temporarily embarrassed in the erection of their houses of worship.
7. That, in order that our missionaries to our foreign-speaking peoples may have some suitable places for holding religious services, the Board of Church Erection be urged to devise if possible some plan to secure special funds, by means of which it can furnish the Presbyteries desiring them cheap temporary chapels, built on the knock-down plan, which can be moved from camp to camp as the exigencies of the case demand.

8. That the following members of the Board whose terms expire at this time be re-elected for the ensuing term, and that the Stated Clerk of the Assembly is hereby instructed to cast the ballot for their re-election, viz.:

Ministers.

Rev. Samuel M. Hamilton, D.D.,
 Rev. William A. Holliday, D.D.,
 Rev. Duncan J. McMillan, D.D.

Elders.

Frederick G. Burnham,
 E. Francis Hyde,
 John Sinclair,
 Edward C. Van Glahn.

9. Be it further resolved that the Board of Trustees shall be enlarged by the addition of two members, so that it shall hereafter consist of twenty-three members; and that the Rev. E. B. Surface, of Mt. Vernon, Ill., and Mr. Isaac H. Orr, of St. Louis, be hereby recommended for election for the term of three years as members of said Board of Trustees, and that they shall take their seats in said Board and have all the privileges and assume the responsibilities of membership therein, when any legal obstacles to such enlargement of the members of the Trustees of said Board (if any exist) shall be removed, and that the Stated Clerk shall deposit the ballot for their election.

All of which is respectfully submitted,

SIXTY WALL STREET
NEW YORK

APRIL 30, 1907.

*To the Finance Committee, Presbyterian Board of Church Erection,
New York City.*

GENTLEMEN :

We have examined the accounts of your Treasurer for the fiscal year ending April 10th, 1907, and certify that the assets as shown on his "Statement of the Position of Funds" are correct, according to the books.

We have verified the cash in office and the balances in the banks, and we have also proved the investment mortgages and the church mortgages securing interest-bearing loans belonging to all the Funds. The Railroad and New York City securities referred to in said statement and having a face value of $58,000.00 have been verified by your Committee.

Respectfully yours,

SUFFERN & SON,
Certified Public Accountants.

DESIGN FOR SMALL CHURCH
ISAAC FURSELL - ARCHITECT
117 SOUTH FOURTH STREET
PHILADELPHIA PA

This very attractive chapel can be built, according to location, for from $2,000 to $3,000. It is 24 x 48 feet, and will seat 100 in the main room and 50 in the lecture room. There is also a small room for Bible classes, etc. The building is also particularly well adapted to form the chapel of a larger edifice, to be erected in connection with it at a later date.

No. 11.

Main room 29 x 39. Seats 150. Costs from $1,500 to $2,000. A very neat and inexpensive building well adapted to the wants of a small congregation. The small room in front serves both as a spacious vestibule and as small lecture room. We have practically the same design, but somewhat larger and with entrance through a small tower.

No. 12.

Main Room.
Size - 23x34 - seats 156.

Infant Room and Class Room.
Size 10x12.

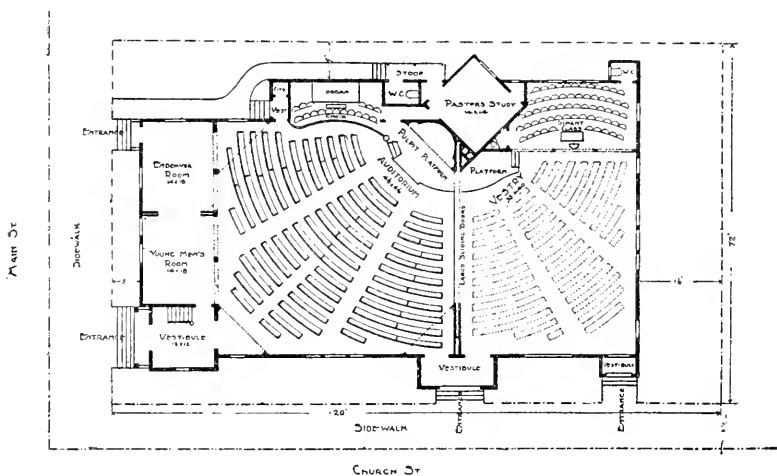

ISAAC PURSELL ARCHITECT
119 South Fourth St. Phila.

A SMALL CHURCH.

This little building can be built for from $1,000 to $1,500, of frame, costing a little more in either brick or stone.

The main room will seat 156; infant room, 30; class room, 20. The main room can be seated with chairs with reversible backs, and thus be used for the intermediate classes of the Sunday school and for social gatherings.

No. 55.

Built of pressed brick veneer. Seats 320 in audience room, 210 in side room, 63 in infant class. Can be built in part, either portion first, and remainder afterwards.

Cost of entire structure, from $8,000 to $10,000. Architects, L. B. Valk & Sons, Los Angeles, Cal.

No. 69.

This is a substantial frame building, erected in Los Angeles, Cal., at an expense of about $3,500. The expense at the present time would doubtless be 25 per cent. more. The main audience room is 45 x 45, seating about 350, and the lecture room, 30 x 30. The entire capacity of the building, when all the rooms are thrown together, would be about 500. The architect is Mr. H. F. Starbuck, Long Beach, Cal.

No. 92.

Upon the opposite page is the design of an exceedingly tasteful and churchly edifice by the Rev. Theodore Hopping, of Los Angeles, California, who on account of illness has been obliged to retire from the active ministry and resume the practice of his former profession as an architect. He writes:

“This sketch for a church has reference to economy, convenience and art in design. The foundation is stone, which on the front is carried up to the window sills. The exterior covering may be either shingle or clapboards. The roof trusses are of neat design and are exposed.

“Upstairs in the tower is the pastor’s study, nearly fourteen feet square. Back of the tower is the library room. It is intended that the Sunday-school will meet in the auditorium, but a primary room and classrooms are provided which are separated from each other and from the auditorium by rolling partitions. These may all be thrown open so as to extend the auditorium.

“The auditorium will accommodate 150 persons comfortably, while the Sunday-school room will seat 50 persons.

“This design is intended to meet the requirements of the modest congregation and can be built for about $4,000. It could be more elaborately and expensively finished if so desired.”

LOS ANGELES CALIF.

Manse No. 28.

The above represents a very neat and compactly arranged manse lately built at Belleville, Ohio. The floor plans upon the next page will give the dimensions. The house is frame, with brick foundation and slate roof. The absence of the hall upon the lower floor is compensated for by larger rooms and the ability to make one chimney in the centre of the house do duty for no less than six rooms.

The house actually cost, including the value of material and labor freely given, only $1,600, but it is considered worth at least $2,500.

Manse No. 29.

The above is a representation of the very attractive little manse at Craig, Mo. The house is very conveniently arranged and can be built for from $1,200 to $1,500. In addition to the rooms shown in the floor plan upon the opposite page, there is space for two good bedrooms upstairs.

ACTION OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

AT COLUMBUS, OHIO, MAY, 1907.

The Standing Committee on Ministerial Relief respectfully reports as follows:

We have carefully examined the 52d Annual Report of the Board presented to this Assembly, and the Minutes of the meetings of the Board for the year ending March 31st, 1907. We have also examined the Minutes of the Board of Ministerial Relief of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church for the same period, and we find both sets of minutes neatly and carefully kept.

The relations existing between the two Boards are entirely harmonious and satisfactory. They are coöperating in the most cordial manner. The Cumberland Board must maintain a legal existence until the decision of the proper legal tribunal shall have been obtained as to the ownership and control of the property, namely, the Thornton Home, Evansville, Indiana, and Trust funds amounting to about $35,000 belonging to that Board. But it exists simply as a holding Board, and has lost practically its identity in the Board of Ministerial Relief of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A. Its beneficiaries, to the number of nearly 100 families, have been taken over by the Board of the Mother Church on exactly the same terms and conditions as those who have been for years on her roll, the same forms of application having been used by its Presbyteries.

The Board has had upon its roll for the year ending March 31st, 1907, 1,024 names, as against 952 one year ago, as follows: 421 ministers, 541 widows, 34 orphan families, 1 widow of a medical missionary, 8 women missionaries and 19 guests at the Merriam Home, at Newton,

N. J. This is the largest number the Board has ever had upon its roll. This fact is explained in part by the number received from the Cumberland Church, but in addition to these there were 102 new names added to the roll of annuitants of the reunited church. Fifty-nine of those upon the roll passed within the veil during the year, namely: 38 ministers, 19 widows, 1 orphan and 1 guest at the Merriam Home.

The Roll of Honor consists of those retired ministers over 70 years of age who have actively served the Church for 30 years or more, who need the aid of the Board, and who receive an annual appropriation of $300. A renewal of application is not required on their part. Of these there were on the roll during the year 193, as against 175 last year, and 38 were added to their company during the year, 11 of whom came from the Cumberland Church. Their average age was 83 years, and the average number of years they have been in the ministry was 48. Four of these men were over 90, and 53 were over 80 years of age. Sixteen of them went home to their Father's House during the year.

The amount of aid given varies according to the need of the applicant. No one receives more than $300. The average amount paid to ministers on the Roll of Honor was only $285; other ministers received an average of $216; while widows received an average of only $150.

Your Committee regrets to report that the receipts of the Board from churches and Sunday schools were $727 less than during the previous year, gifts from individuals were $4,753 less, and unrestricted legacies were nearly $22,000 less than in 1905-06. The receipts for the Permanent Fund were $18,015, beside a bequest to the Board of $300,000 soon to be added to this Fund.

The thing that saved the day was the interest on the Permanent Fund. There is this encouraging fact, that 22 more churches contributed to the work of the Board during the past year than contributed to it in any previous year.

But 3,470 churches failed to send anything to this hallowed cause. Most of these non-contributing churches are small and receive aid in meeting their own expenses. But in some, at least, of the self-supporting Synods no needy church can receive aid unless it will give an annual contribution to the work of every Board of the Church, and the testimony is clear that such a provision has a very beneficial effect upon the giving of these churches to every good cause. Why may not such an influential provision be extended to all the churches which receive aid either from Synodical or Home Mission Board funds?

Your Committee desires to place on record its appreciation of the kindly beneficence of two individual ladies and of the Ladies' Aid, Mission, Dorcas and other societies in 24 churches whose names are given in the Report of the Board, in sending 53 boxes of clothing, dry goods, groceries and gifts of money, to needy families on the Relief Roll.

There seems to be needed some organization of the women of the Church for the Board of Relief. Women missionaries and teachers, who have spent five years or more in the service of the Boards of Home or Foreign Missions or Freedmen, and who need such aid, are among the beneficiaries of this Board, as are also the widows and orphans of ministers. It seems, therefore, peculiarly appropriate that there should be a special woman's organization for this cause. The women are already well organized and have done splendid work for Home and Foreign Missions and the Freedmen, but is there not a field of labor for the Dorcas as well as for the Marys and Marthas? The boxes and accompanying cash gifts sent last year amounted in value to $6,780, and show what can be accomplished along this line. If the Womens' Aid Societies should take this matter up, many a comfort, now lacking, could be sent to the homes of the veterans of the army of the Lord.

Your Committee has given a good deal of consideration to the subject of Special Homes for aged and infirm ministers. From all that can be learned the homes established, except the Merriam Home at Newton, N. J., and the Thornton Home, at Evansville, Ind., have not been successful in securing guests. Several causes combine to account for this fact. None of them, the Assembly can feel assured, lies at the door of your Board. But from different sources there has come a call for the establishment of a Home for Consumptive Men, who are not able to work or who can do only a small share of a healthy man's work. Such a Home, if established, should be located in Colorado, New Mexico, Arizona, the Texas Panhandle, or Southern California.

Your Committee further asks the special attention of the churches to the Apportionment Scheme adopted by the Buffalo Assembly. It has been producing encouraging results. In brief it is as follows:

(a) Churches paying salaries of $800 and less, to give at least 10 cents per communicant.

(b) Churches paying salaries of $800 to $1,200, to give at least 15 cents per communicant.

(c) Churches paying salaries of $1,200 and upwards, to give at least 15 cents per communicant, and in addition one per cent on the salaries of their ministers.

(d) Churches hitherto contributing to the Board of Relief sums considerably beyond the apportionment above suggested, to continue their generous support of the Board.

But no scheme, perhaps, is equal to that so frequently urged by the Assembly, namely, that the Ruling Elders of the Church make it a matter of conscience to see that the Endowment Fund be increased $4,000,000, making it at least $6,000,000; then these veterans who have borne the burden and heat of the conflict can receive the sum of about $500 per year, and surely that is little enough.

The Church of Scotland, from Sustentation Funds and its share of tithes, gives to her retired ministers an honorarium of $800 to $900 a year, and we believe our great Church is able to do as much. An Honorarium—that is what it is—in the word of the Board's Report: "An Honorarium is a debt paid for services, which, although it may not be a debt collectible by process of law, is nevertheless, rightly to be regarded as a just reward for services rendered. In this light we properly consider every payment made to a disabled minister. The annuity paid an aged or disabled minister is never to be regarded as an unearned increment or charity, but a recognition of a debt due for the faithful performance of duty in years gone by. The payment of an annuity by the Church to a faithful minister" (or to the widow of such a man) "is the conferring of an honor, or the giving of a recompense, or the repayment, to some limited degree, of what such a minister has given the Church in the cost of his education and in untiring service during the days of his consecrated activities on its behalf."

No minister in this Assembly expects ever to come under the care of the Board of Relief, but neither did any one of the 1,024 beneficiaries now on the roll of the Board. The statistics of the past show that one in eight of the families represented on the roll of our ministry to-day will come to the Board for assistance, and those who come will come not because of lack of thrift, or lack of economy, or lack of foresight, but because, while the average mechanic in New York City receives an average of $4.60 a day, which makes for 300 days, $1,380 a year, the reports show that 923 Presbyterian ministers received at a comparatively recent date less than $400 per year, 373 between $400 and $500, and 598 received between $550 and $950 a year. The fact is the man who carries the hod received in New York City an average of $900 a year, which is more than many thousands of ministers throughout the country received, and while no comparison is to be thought of between the two, as to compensation, one naturally asks how it would be possible for a man to save what would be a competency for the time of distress or old age, on such small salaries as those mentioned.

Your Committee presents the following recommendations for adoption :

1. That the Minutes of the Board of Relief of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A. and also the Minutes of the Board of Relief of the former Cumberland Presbyterian Church be approved.

2. That the self-supporting Synods and the Board of Home Missions and Board of Freedmen be urged to consider carefully the propriety of refusing aid to churches that will not give an offering, however small, to each of the Boards of the Church.

3. That Presbyteries be instructed to see that a Ruling Elder shall be appointed in each congregation to present this cause to his church, and that the contribution made by each church be sent in promptly to the Treasurer of the Board.

4. That the Apportionment Scheme be cordially commended to our churches.

5. That the cause of Ministerial Relief be commended to the conscience and heart of men and women of means, and they be urged to consider the privilege of giving so that those who have borne so honorable a part in the Christian work of the whole land as these veterans have borne, shall not in their declining years lack the simplest comforts of life.

6. That Presbyterial Committees be urged to combine great care, in recommending persons to this Board for aid, with a spirit of generous kindness to needy veterans.

7. That this cause be commended to the Ladies' Aid and other Societies of women in our churches.

8. That Rev. Marcus A. Brownson, D. D., Rev. William J. Darby, D. D., A. Charles Barclay, Esq., and H. S. P. Nichols, Esq., whose term of office as Directors expires with this Assembly, be reëlected for a term of three years.

9. That Rev. William J. Darby, D. D., Robert Smith, Esq., and Sanders B. Sansom, Esq., whose term of office as Directors of the Board of Relief of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church now expires, be reëlected for a term of three years.

Respectfully submitted,

ALEXANDER J. KERR,
Chairman.

ANNUAL REPORT
TO THE
GENERAL ASSEMBLY
OF 1907.

THE PRESBYTERIAN BOARD OF RELIEF FOR DISABLED MINISTERS AND THE WIDOWS AND ORPHANS OF DECEASED MINISTERS, respectfully presents to THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY its Annual Report for the year from April 1st, 1906, to April 1st, 1907.

THIS IS THE FIFTY-EIGHTH YEAR

since the organization of Relief Work by the General Assembly of 1849, and this is the first Annual Report having been made to the General Assembly in 1856 by the Trustees of the Assembly.

THE FIFTY-SECOND ANNUAL REPORT OF THE WORK,

The Book of Minutes containing the proceedings of the Board for the year 1906-1907 is also herewith presented.

ROLL.

The Board had upon its roll for the year ending March 31st, 1907, 1,024 names: 421 ministers, 541 widows, 34 orphan families, 1 widow of a medical missionary, 8 women missionaries, and 19 guests in The Merriam Home at Newton, N. J. This is the largest number the Board has ever had upon its roll.

ADDITIONS TO THE ROLL.

The number of additions to the Roll during the past year has been the largest in any year of the Board's history, but this has been caused by the large increase in the size of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A. by the Reunion of the Cumberland denomination with the old Mother Church.

There were, besides 58 names (28 ministers, 29 widows, and 1 orphan) taken over from the roll of the Board of Relief of the Cumberland Church, 102 new names added to the roll of annuitants of the Reunited Church, viz.: 58 ministers, 37 widows, 3 orphans, 2 missionary women, and 2 new guests at The Merriam Home.

DEATHS.

Fifty-nine of those upon the roll passed away during the year: 38 ministers, 19 widows, 1 orphan, and 1 guest at The Merriam Home.

CURRENT FUND RECEIPTS FOR THE YEARS

| | 1905-1906. | 1906-1907. |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------|---------------------|
| Contributions from Churches and Sabbath schools,..... | $99,043 48 | $98,315.62 |
| Contributions from Individuals, | 13,286 60 | 8,533.25 |
| Interest from Permanent Fund, | 76,493 91 | 80,046.12 |
| " " Special Funds held by the Synod of Ohio and Other Trustees, | 421 54 | 350.01 |
| Unrestricted Legacies, | 51,618 43 | 30,885.18 |
| | $240,863 96 | $218,130.18 |

In addition to these receipts for the Current Fund, the receipts for the Permanent Fund during the year, including sales of real estate, have been $18,015.64, making the total receipts for the year, $236,145.82.

BOXES.

Besides the cash contributions to the Board, from churches and individuals, the Ladies' Aid Societies of our Church have sent to families on our roll gifts of money and boxes of clothing and groceries amounting to the value of $6,780.

NUMBER OF CONTRIBUTING CHURCHES.

The Board received during the year, offerings from 4,463 churches, 3,470 churches having failed to send any contributions to this hallowed cause. The non-contributing churches are nearly all non-self-sustaining churches. 22 more churches contributed to the Board during the past year than ever contributed to it in any previous year.

COST OF ADMINISTRATION.

Salaries, office expenses, the publication and distribution of literature, traveling expenses of the officers of the Board, etc., have cost during the past year but 3.5 per cent. of the receipts of the Board.

THE ROLL OF HONOR.

The General Assembly in 1889 adopted a Rule providing for placing ministers who are over 70 years of age, and who have given over 30 years of active service to the Presbyterian Church upon a Roll of Honor, and for giving such ministers an annuity of $300, if that amount is needed.

These ministers are of such an age, that, when Honorably Retired by their Presbyteries, the presumption is they will not be able again to resume pastoral work, and, therefore, they are not required to be annually renewed for an appropriation from the Board. Their payments are made semi-annually in advance as long as they live, "unless otherwise directed by the Presbytery or the applicant himself, in view of a change of circumstances that may make the appropriation in whole or in part no longer necessary."

Of course, in the case of suspension or deposition from the ministry, or withdrawal of such annuitant from the Presbyterian Church, the Presbytery with which he is connected should promptly direct the Board of Relief to suspend or discontinue his payments.

When ministers who are under 70 years of age, or have not been in active service for 30 years, become disabled and need aid from the Board, the presumption is that they may recover their health and wish to engage again in the activities of the pastoral life, and therefore, they are required to be annually renewed for such help as they may need, and the Board may be able to give.

If ministers over 70 years of age do not need the annuity of $300 provided for Honorably Retired men, they are not expected to ask for it, on account of the limited receipts of the Board, but it is presumed that they will generously permit the money received to be distributed among the worthy families not so financially favored as they may be.

It is no possible disgrace or humiliation to an aged minister to say that he is in need of money for the support of his family. The fact that he is in need may be only an evidence that he has been faithful to his high calling, and has preached the gospel wherever in the providence of God he has been called, regardless of the pecuniary consideration mentioned in his call which was intended to keep him free from worldly cares and avocations. His salary may not have been sufficient for that purpose, and it may have been totally inadequate to enable him to provide a competency for his family in his old age, or in case of his death.

Since the provision was made in 1889 to place retired ministers upon the Roll of Honor, 406 have availed themselves of the privilege. During the past year 38 have been added to this roll 11 of whom were from the Cumberland Church, and 16 ministers who were on the roll have passed away. There have been upon this roll during the past year 193 ministers. Their average age has been 83 years, and the average number of years they have been in the ministry has been 48. Four of these men were over 90, and 53 over 80 years of age.

The total amount paid to Honorably Retired ministers during the past year was $55,100.

AVERAGE PAYMENTS.

All ministers on the Roll of Honor did not ask for as much as $300 a year, and the average amount paid to those upon this roll was $285.49.

The average amount paid to most widows was $150. Quite a number did not ask for that much. Some who were very aged and helpless, were paid considerably more than the general average.

The average amount paid to families, in cases where the ministers were not on the Roll of Honor, was $216, which was an increase in the average amount paid the previous year.

The appropriations made during the past year were $13,869 more than those made any previous year, and these appropriations were all paid promptly in full.

THE HONORARIUM PAID TO MINISTERS.

An Honorarium is a debt paid for services, which, although it may not be a debt collectible by process of law, is, nevertheless, rightly to be regarded as a just reward for services rendered. In this light we properly consider every payment made to a disabled minister. The annuity paid an aged or disabled minister is never to be regarded as an unearned increment, or charity, but as a recognition of a debt due for the faithful performance of duty in years gone by. The payment of an annuity by the Church to a faithful minister is the conferring of an honor, or the giving of a recompense, or the repayment to some limited degree of what such a minister has given the Church in the cost of his education, and in untiring service, during the days of his consecrated activities on her behalf.

The members of our Church cannot but feel it to be a sweet and delightful privilege to support the families of these venerable men in the times that try their souls, after having enjoyed the priceless services of such educated religious instructors, who have led them into the way of salvation, and been God's comforters to them in the dark days of their earthly trials, and who have pointed out to them numberless ways of making themselves useful in the kingdom of our adorable Redeemer.

The members of your Board realize more and more every year that the blessed cause of Ministerial Relief is taking a firmer hold upon the affections of God's people. They are more and more assured that, as long as ministers make their willing sacrifices for the Church and are found in need of relief and support in the days of their disability, or the widows and orphans of these godly men are found in need, there will be earnest and loving Christians who will be ever ready and willing to make sacrifices for them, and esteem it a great privilege to minister to the servants of Christ who have joyously and faithfully ministered to them through many years of arduous self-denying service.

The Honorarium, paid to the deserving leaders of the Sacramental host when they need the help of the Church, should be vastly increased. How can it be done?

A WAY TO INCREASE THE HONORARIUM NOW PAID.

Give the Board of Relief $4,000,000 more of Endowment and it can then make the Honorarium of Honorably Retired ministers $500 instead of $300 a year, and it can then give the widows an average of $300 instead of $150 a year, and it can add $200 a year to the recompense paid to ministers who are disabled, who are not yet 70 years of age.

Is it within the range of possibility to raise this large amount?

At the time of the Reunion of the Old and New School branches of the Church in 1870, the Permanent Funds of both branches amounted to but $77,551, and when the Board was organized in 1876, the Permanent Fund amounted to but $135,794. This Fund has been steadily increasing during the past thirty years since the organization of the Board, and the Board has for its use to-day the interest on $1,800,000, and, with a most noble gift through a Deed of Trust and a fourth interest as a residuary legatee in the estate of the late devoted and saintly Christian woman, Lady Kortright, by which the Board is to be wonderfully benefited, our Endowment Funds will soon amount to $2,100,000.

The interest received from our Permanent Fund is not sufficient to pay one-half of the appropriations made by the Board, and these appropriations should be very materially increased, and, therefore, we need a much larger interest bearing fund.

With the many millionaires in the Presbyterian Church, is there not faith enough in the hearts of God's people to pray for, and to believe that we shall speedily receive, at least $4,000,000 more for our Endowment Fund, with which to bless and comfort our needy and deserving ministerial households for all time to come?

With such a possible addition to our Permanent Funds, we can pay an Honorarium to the saintly heroes and heroines of our Church, that will greatly gladden their hearts and also bring a revenue of honor to the Church which we all so fondly love.

SALARIES OF MINISTERS.

The difficulty of ministers providing for the support of themselves and their families in the time of old age, arises very largely from the small salaries they receive for their support.

Whatever may be done by any plan that can be put into execution to provide annuities for ministers and their families by way of life insurance, there will always be a large number of families to be provided for by the Board of Relief.

Statistics show that one-twentieth of our ministers have never been able to buy any life insurance, and this is not surprising when we consider the facts as they exist. 1. Only about 2,500 of our pastors receive as much as $1,000 a year salary. 2. Nearly one-half of all our churches have an average membership of only 46, and those churches are not self-supporting, and the salaries paid their pastors or supplies are frequently very small—very much less than $1,000 a year. 3. Besides the difficulty arising from small salaries we have several hundred ministers every year who are in poor health, or in transitu, or without charge, looking for work which they cannot readily find, and they are not able to pay the premiums on life insurance policies.

As the Presbyterian Church goes on enlarging, there will always be these difficulties in the way of paying sufficiently large salaries to many of our ministers to enable them to provide in any way for their old age, and the Board of Relief will have its Christlike work to do to the end of time, and it will always need the largest possible endowment it can receive, and the most generous contributions from churches and individuals that they can be induced to make.

Collier's Weekly reports that the wage-earners in New York have much larger incomes than the salaries of most of our Presbyterian ministers in the United States.

Look at some of the figures showing the wages of various workmen, working 300 days in the year:

| Workmen. | Day's Wages. | Yearly Income. |
|--------------------------|--------------|----------------|
| Bricklayer | $5.60 | $1,680 |
| Plasterer | 5.30 | 1,590 |
| Tile Layer | 5.00 | 1,500 |
| Stationary Engineer..... | 5.00 | 1,500 |
| Steam Fitter | 5.00 | 1,500 |
| Carpenter | 4.80 | 1,440 |
| Electrical Worker | 4.50 | 1,350 |
| Mason | 4.40 | 1,320 |
| Cabinet Maker | 4.00 | 1,200 |
| Hod Carrier | 3.00 | 900 |

In some places the wages paid are larger than those paid in New York, and in some places they are smaller.

Josiah Strong states in his "Social Progress" that the average yearly income of the families in the United States is $751, and the average cost of living per family is $689.

It is readily seen from the above statement that our wage-earners receive more than the average income of families in this country, whilst one-third of our Presbyterian ministers have for years been receiving very much less than the average cost of living per family in the United States.

From the one-third of our ministers, who receive less than $689 the average cost of a family's living for a year, come the most of those who are in need of help in the days of their disability. And when we know that many of our ministers in past years received much less than $689 a year, we can readily understand the difficult problem each one has been trying to solve all his life: How can I make any provision for my old days, or for my family in case I must leave them behind me in the world?

When the salaries of ministers were reported in the Minutes of the General Assembly in 1873, it was shown that 598 ministers received only from $550 to $950 a year; 373 ministers received from $400 to $500 a year, and 923 ministers, so far as the report shows, received less than $400 a year.

Very many lawyers, physicians, engineers, and business men spend no more time and money in qualifying themselves for their life-work than our Presbyterian ministers do, and yet, after they become established in business, they amass great fortunes, although they may possess no greater natural endowments, nor intellectual development, nor administrative or executive ability, than many ministers who labor all their lives on comparatively small salaries, and are left dependent in the time of old age.

Look at facts concerning the army of wage-earners in general. Carpenters, painters, bricklayers, printers, and others, learn their trades in three or four years; and during the time boys are learning their trades they are paid from $5 to $12 a week, quite enough to support them comfortably, and after they have served their apprenticeship, they receive in wages twice or three times as much as the salaries of most of the ministers of the United States.

Our ministers have spent thousands of dollars and labored hard and unceasingly for ten years to obtain an education and fit themselves for their official duties; but the hod carrier, who may not be able to read or write, receives more for his year's work than any of many thousands of ministers, yet he learned his trade in a day, and on that day received full wages for his work.

Many of our ministers who received small salaries all their working days, or their families, are now on the Roll of Relief. Are they to be censured for having their names among those who are in need of support by the Church they served faithfully all their lives? Assuredly not, for these ministers, most of whom have been our Home Missionaries, are honorable and high-minded men. They have been actuated by the loftiest of motives in their great life-work. They have served well their generation. They have laid broad and deep the foundations of our Presbyterian Zion, and they have done all they knew how to glorify God. It is therefore a sacred duty and a sweet and holy privilege for our great Church to confer upon them a comfortable and commendable Honorarium when they are disabled from further service, and thereby assure all others that their loved ones will be cheerfully cared for when they shall cross the inevitable river on their way home to receive their eternal reward.

Give the Board of Relief $4,000,000 additional for its Endowment Fund, and no minister after his retirement from active service need be required to compel his family to live upon less than $500 a year, if the churches continue to give annually as much as they are now doing to the Current Fund of the Board.

If the Church of Scotland can give to her retired ministers an Honorarium of $800 or $900 a year, without calling upon her ministers to contribute a single dollar to the fund out of which they receive their annuity, the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A. ought surely to give her retired ministers not less than $500 a year as an Honorarium for past services rendered the Church.

THE APPORTIONMENT SCHEME.

The Apportionment Scheme, adopted by the Buffalo Assembly, has been producing encouraging results, and the Board earnestly and respectfully asks that it be continued. In brief, the Scheme is as follows:

- (a) Churches paying salaries of $800 and less, to give at least Ten Cents per communicant.
- (b) Churches paying salaries of $800 to $1,200, to give at least Fifteen Cents per communicant.
- (c) Churches paying salaries of $1,200 and upwards, to give at least Fifteen Cents per communicant, and in addition one per cent. on the salaries of their ministers.
- (d) Churches hitherto contributing to the Board of Relief sums considerably beyond the apportionment above suggested, to continue their generous support of the Board.

THE MERRIAM HOME.

This beautiful Home is located in Newton, the charming county seat of Sussex County, N. J., in the healthful hill country in the northern part of the State.

It has proven a success and it has been a great comfort to the guests.

The Presbytery of Newton appoints a Standing Committee each year to take the general oversight of the Home, and this Committee has rendered most efficient service.

The Committee consists of the following gentlemen:

REV. CLARENCE W. ROUSE, Chairman,
 REV. EDGAR A. HAMILTON,
 REV. EDWARD A. MCLAURY,
 REV. WILLIAM S. C. WEBSTER, D. D.,
 MR. J. D. FLOCK,
 PROF. PHILIP S. WILSON,
 HON. HENRY C. HUNT, Secretary.

The Executive Committee consists of the following members, viz.:

REV. WILLIAM S. C. WEBSTER, D. D., Chairman,
 PROF. PHILIP S. WILSON,
 JUDGE HENRY C. HUNT, Secretary.

The Board is under great obligations to the members of this Committee for the valuable assistance they have given it in the management of the Home.

RULES OF THE BOARD.

APPROPRIATIONS.

1. Only members of Presbyteries in connection with the General Assembly of our Church and the families of those who are at their death in such connection, and lay missionaries and their families, are entitled to aid; and no adults shall be entitled to aid who are not members of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America in good and regular standing, or who do not acknowledge the jurisdiction of said Church nor submit to its discipline, unless such extraordinary circumstances should exist as to make it, in the judgment of the Board, wise and right to admit their claim.

2. The General Assembly of 1889 says: "This Board works under strictly defined limitations. It is not a general eleemosynary institution. It cannot care for all the poor in the Church, or even in the ministry. Its basis of work is not need, but service to the Church." The General Assembly of 1890 directed that no appropriations can be made to ministers in ordinary cases, simply because they are poor, unless they are disabled by disease or the infirmities of age, so as to be unable to sustain themselves by some suitable employment. (Minutes of General Assembly, 1870, p. 21, and 1889, p. 32.)

3. The General Assembly of 1880 directed "That, in the case of a minister who, voluntarily and in health, leaves the work of the ministry for some secular employment, and follows that for a series of years, and then, by failure of business, has come to want, such a course should ordinarily be regarded as a voluntary relinquishment of all claim upon the funds of the Board." (Minutes of General Assembly, 1880, p. 21.)

4. All appropriations are made for one year, unless otherwise ordered; and the renewals for appropriations must be made from year to year, except in case of ministers honorably retired according to the provisions of Rule 7.

5. All the appropriations are paid in advance, provided the funds of the Board will allow this to be done. If the appropriation is not more than one hundred and fifty dollars it is paid in advance in one payment. When an appropriation is more than one hundred and fifty dollars per annum it is paid in two equal instalments, semi-annually in advance.

6. While the responsibility of recommending applicants rests with the Presbyteries, and these recommendations largely govern the action of the Board, yet there is reserved to the Board the right to appropriate according to the merits of the case and the state of the treasury.

HONORABLY RETIRED MINISTERS.

Who have been in active service in the Presbyterian Church thirty years in the aggregate as Missionaries, Pastors, or Stated Supplies.

7. Every honorably retired minister over seventy years of age, who is in need, and who has served our Church as missionary of the Home or Foreign Board, or of the Board of Missions for Freedmen, or as pastor, or stated supply, for a period in the aggregate not less than thirty years, shall be entitled by such service to draw from the Board of Ministerial Relief an annual sum for his support without the necessity of being annually recommended therefor by the Presbytery. When such a minister shall certify to the Presbytery the fact and amount of his need, not exceeding $300.00 per annum, it shall be the duty of the Stated Clerk to forward the application to the Board, with his indorsement thereon as to the years of service such minister has rendered, his field, or fields of labor with the term of service in each, and his need, as determined by his income and circumstances, and also to certify that the same has been reported to the Presbytery and is recorded upon its minutes. It shall then be the duty of the Board to pay such annual amount so long as the applicant shall live, unless otherwise directed by the Presbytery or the applicant himself, in view of a change in his circumstances that may make the appropriation in whole or in part no longer necessary. (Minutes of General Assembly of 1889, p. 32; 1891, p. 33 and p. 44; 1894, p. 35.)

See form of application, No. 6, p. 26.

DISABLED MINISTERS.

Who have not been in the aggregate thirty years in active service in the Presbyterian Church as Missionaries, Pastors, or Stated Supplies, or, if so, are not seventy years of age.

8. An annuity to a minister who has not been in the aggregate thirty years in active service in the Presbyterian Church as a missionary of the Home or Foreign Board, or of the Board of Missions for Freedmen, or as pastor or stated supply, or having been thirty years in active service is not yet seventy years of age, is granted on the recommendation of that Presbytery, or of a standing committee of that Presbytery, to which the applicant belongs; and the recommendation in each case must be annually renewed. An application for aid, in case of such minister, should state his age, his circumstances, and the number of years he has been in the ministry; whether his wife is living or not, and the sex and age of the children who are dependent on him for support.

See form of application, No. 1, p. 22.

MEDICAL MISSIONARIES.

9. Regularly appointed Lay Missionaries who have gone out from this country under commission from the Foreign Board, and their families, shall after five years of active service also be placed upon the roll of the Board upon the same conditions as ministers. In their application for aid, Medical Missionaries and their families shall be governed by the rules that apply to ministers and their families. (Minutes of General Assembly of 1889, p. 32, and Report of Board in Minutes of Assembly of the same year, p. 240.)

See form of application, No. 4, p. 25.

MINISTERS COMING FROM OTHER DENOMINATIONS AND THEIR FAMILIES.

10. Ministers from other denominations coming into our Church, or their widows or orphans, shall not be placed upon the roll of this board as beneficiaries unless said ministers shall have rendered active service in this Church for at least five years. [This rule is not retroactive, but is operative from May 21, 1904.]

WOMEN.

11. A woman who has given herself to missionary work after five years of actual service under the Home Board, or under the Board of Missions for Freedmen, or who has gone out from this country and labored under commission from the Foreign Board, may receive aid from this Board upon the same conditions as a minister. She may be recommended by the Presbytery in the bounds of which she resides, or by the Presbytery having jurisdiction of the church of which such missionary may be a member, and her application should have the endorsement of the Board under which she has held a commission. (Minutes of General Assembly of 1884, p. 48; 1885, p. 592; 1888, p. 33; 1889, p. 32; 1894, p. 35.)

See form of application, No. 4, p. 25.

12. If the application for aid be for a widow of a minister, it may be made by the Presbytery within whose bounds the family resides, or by that Presbytery in which the family is best known, or preferably by the Presbytery with which her husband was connected at the time of his death. (Minutes of General Assembly of 1884, p. 48.)

Unless the applicant is well known, the Committee of Ministerial Relief, should always secure the endorsement of the session of the church of which the applicant is a member, to the effect that she needs and is deserving of the aid for which application is made.

See form of application, No. 2, p. 23.

13. When a woman contracts marriage with a retired minister who is receiving aid from the Board, she should not be entitled at his death to become a beneficiary of the Board.

14. The widow of a minister who remarries outside of the ministry, thereby relinquishes all claims upon the Board, and should she again become a widow she would not be entitled to aid.

15. Except in extraordinary cases no appropriation will be made to the widow of a minister who has children able to give her support. (Minutes of General Assembly of 1880, p. 21.)

ORPHANS.

16. Aid may be given to orphans of ministers and lay missionaries, as the General Assembly says, who are under the age at which they are able to earn their own living; and in exceptional cases to orphans who have been from early years chronic invalids, or to those who have become chronic invalids in consequence of their care of aged and infirm parents. The same rule applies in case of orphans asking for aid, as in the case of other beneficiaries of the Board in regard to recommendations and annual renewals. (Minutes of General Assembly of 1889, p. 32; 1906, p. 35.)

See form of application, No. 3, p. 24.

THE MERRIAM HOME.

17. Applications for admission to "The Merriam Home," at Newton, N. J., are to be made in accordance with the foregoing rules. Guests are admitted to the Home in lieu of an appropriation of money. Any guest who, in the judgment of the Matron may be a hindrance to its usefulness and to the comfort of the other guests, shall be reported to the Committee in charge, who shall have power, after investigation of all the circumstances, to recommend to the Board an appropriation in money for the support of such guest in lieu of a residence in the Home. Great care should be exercised in recommending only such persons as the Presbytery believes will be agreeable companions to other guests. These guests, except Honorably Retired Ministers, must be annually recommended by the Presbyteries, and are required to fill up the blank application for admission or continuance there the same as if applying for a money appropriation.

See form of application, No. 5, p. 26.

ELECTIONS.

The term of the following Directors expires at this meeting of the Assembly:

REV. MARCUS A. BROWNSON, D. D.

REV. W. J. DARBY, D. D.

A. CHARLES BARCLAY, Esq.

H. S. P. NICHOLS, Esq.

Four Directors are to be elected at this meeting to fill the class whose term expires at this time.

By order of the Board,

B. L. AGNEW,

Corresponding Secretary.

May 2nd, 1907.

FORMS OF APPLICATIONS FOR AID.

No. 1.

MINISTERS.

The General Assembly requires this form to be filled not only for the first recommendation, but also for annual renewals, so that the Presbyterial Committee and the Board of Relief may know of any changes in the circumstances and necessities of applicants for aid, which may enable them more justly to determine the proportionate amount each applicant should receive from the limited funds at the command of the Board.

The General Assembly of 1880, page 21, says:

"WHEREAS, This Board has been requested to aid ministers who are merely out of employment, etc., and

"WHEREAS, The fund is not sufficient for such purposes, nor was it originally designed for such uses, therefore,

"Resolved, That no appropriations can be made to ministers in ordinary cases, simply because they are poor, unless they are disabled by disease or the infirmities of age, so as to be unable to sustain themselves by some suitable employment."

The General Assembly of 1889, page 32, says:

"This Board works under strictly defined limitations. It is not a general eleemosynary institution. It cannot care for all the poor in the Church, or even in the ministry. Its basis of work is not need, but service to the Church.

PRESBYTERIAN

TWENTY-SIXTH ANNUAL REPORT OF THE CUMBERLAND PRESBYTERIAN BOARD OF RELIEF TO THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF 1907.

THE BOARD OF MINISTERIAL RELIEF OF THE CUMBERLAND PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH respectfully presents to THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY its Annual Report for the year from January 31, 1906, to April 1, 1907.

This is the

of the Board, the First Annual Report having been made to the General Assembly of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church in 1882, the Board having been organized by the General Assembly at Austin, Texas, May, 1881.

In compliance with resolution seven of the joint committee on Union and Reunion, adopted by the General Assembly of 1906, a conference was had between the Board of Relief located at Philadelphia and this Board, by which plans were agreed upon for harmonious coöperation of the two Boards in carrying on the work of relief during the year 1906-7, under which agreement it was provided that offerings for Ministerial Relief for the year 1906-7 from former Cumberland Presbyterian Churches should be sent to this Board; that inasmuch as the rules of both Boards governing appropriations for aid are substantially the same, providing that all appropriations are made for one year, unless otherwise ordered, and renewals of recommendations for appropriations for aid must be made from year to year, except in cases of ministers honorably retired. It was agreed that this Board should continue to furnish aid during the year to all beneficiaries on its roll according to recommendations of their Presbyteries, until their names were enrolled by the Board of Relief at Philadelphia; that all new or original applications for aid should be made on forms in use by the Presbyterian Board, the same to be endorsed by this Board and then to be forwarded to the Board at Philadelphia for final action. In this manner the names of all beneficiaries on the roll of this Board, whose recommendations have been renewed, together with all new applications for aid, have been placed on the roll of the Board at Philadelphia in the regular routine of the work of the two Boards.

At the beginning of the year there were 84 names on our roll—33 ministers, 48 widows, and 3 orphan families. During the year 17 new names, 13 ministers and 4 widows, were added to the roll by action of the Philadelphia Board on recommendation of Presbyteries and endorsement of this Board, making a total of 101. Of these 2 ministers have died—Rev. B. L. Boydston, Alabama Presbytery, and George H. Hawks, Kansas City Presbytery; 1 widow has married. Names of 67 have been placed on the roll of the Board at Philadelphia. The names of 18 have been dropped by reason of their Presbyteries not renewing their recommendations for aid. Seven are occupants of Thornton Home. Applications of the remaining 14 are awaiting action of the Presbyteries to meet during the month of April.

Under the arrangements made for transfer of beneficiaries from the roll of this Board to the roll of the Board at Philadelphia, there was paid to beneficiaries by this Board previous to transfer the sum of $3,403.30.

As payments made to beneficiaries by this Board during the year have been, in some cases, for only part of the year and small in amount, no table showing the average amount of appropriations to beneficiaries would be of value as indicating the amount of apportionment to each.

RECEIPTS.

The amount of contributions received from our churches during the year has been unusually small. This is by reason of the unsettled condition of affairs in many of the Presbyteries. At the same time it can hardly be held that ministers or officers of churches are entirely excusable for the meager amount of offerings made to a cause that should appeal to the heart of every Christian, and particularly is this the case with ministers in charge of many strong congregations, where no offering whatever was taken. Contributions have been received from 566 congregations, amounting to $4,528.98; from 26 individuals, amounting to $487.10. This, of course, is not a fair index of the interest felt by our people in behalf of this sacred cause, or of what our portion of the United Church may be expected to contribute under normal conditions.

During the past twenty years the average number of congregations making offerings for this cause has been 1,150, the average amount for each year, for current use, being $8,231.26. While this shows the contributions to this cause have been far short of what they ought to have been, it is much more favorable than the figures for the year now closing.

The following table shows the number of congregations contributing and the amount contributed in each Synod during the year, with the amount paid to beneficiaries by this Board.

| | No. of Cong. | Contrib. | Drawn out. |
|----------------------|--------------|------------|------------|
| Alabama | 28 | $173 80 | $85 00 |
| Arkansas | 31 | 210 95 | 450 00 |
| Illinois | 61 | 475 19 | 170 00 |
| Indiana | 20 | 219 52 | 110 00 |
| Indianaola | 11 | 52 50 | 25 00 |
| Iowa | 1 | 6 00 | |
| Kansas | 11 | 72 30 | 150 00 |
| Kentucky | 25 | 203 78 | 125 00 |
| Mississippi | 25 | 167 68 | 130 00 |
| Missouri | 84 | 878 54 | 60 00 |
| Ohio | 8 | 69 10 | 64 75 |
| Oregon | 3 | 37 52 | 25 00 |
| Pacific | 10 | 171 18 | 446 30 |
| Pennsylvania | 34 | 385 17 | |
| Tennessee | 44 | 300 37 | 400 00 |
| Texas | 157 | 981 03 | 956 25 |
| West Tennessee | 13 | 124 35 | 210 00 |
| Total | 566 | $4,528 98 | $3,403 30 |

Besides the cash contributions to the Board, boxes of provisions, clothing, etc., have been received for Thornton Home and others as follows:

Ladies' Missionary Society of Albion, Ill., box, $12.00; Ladies' Missionary Society, Sharonville, Ohio, $3.00; Miss Susan P. Miller, Princeton, N. J., two boxes, $75.00; Selma, Cal., congregation, box fruit, $25.00; Hanford, Cal., congregation, box fruit, $28.00.

As we have no reliable data of the number of communicants in harmonious affiliation with congregations contributing to the Board or claiming allegiance to the Church, in many of the Presbyteries, we omit any table of amount contributed per capita.

It has been our custom to report the Presbyteries making contributions equal to ten cents per capita. We are pleased to be able to report the following as having done so the past year: Amarillo, in Texas Synod, and St. Louis, in Missouri Synod.

THORNTON HOME.

There are at present 7 guests in Thornton Home: 1 minister, 5 widows, and 1 orphan girl. A temporary home has been provided for 1 woman missionary while at home for rest and medical treatment, and 1 orphan girl while attending school.

The number of persons availing themselves of the privileges of a residence in the Home is smaller than for years past. Those doing so are, as a rule, in such physical condition that they are not able to care for themselves, and are without relatives or friends in position to give them the personal attention they need.

While it has not been the policy of the Board to receive into the Home persons requiring hospital treatment, at the same time, by reason of age and its attendant infirmities, there is demand for considerable medical attention on the part of the old people in the Home. We desire to make grateful acknowledgment of the valuable services rendered by Dr. J. C. McClurkin, who has at all times promptly responded to all calls, giving his services cheerfully without charge to the Board.

Endowment fund of the Home as reported last year, $34,955. Nothing has been received during this year.

It is earnestly desired that the endowment fund be increased so that the interest will provide for its entire maintenance.

In accordance with the recommendation of the Committee on Church Coöperation and Union, this Board endorses the proposition that it, in conjunction with the other Boards of the former Cumberland Presbyterian Church, should proceed as speedily as possible to "orderly dissolution." For reasons that need not here be given, it is the judgment of this Board, however, under legal advice, that its corporate existence should be continued during the succeeding year as a holding corporation, and for such other purpose as the General Assembly might direct, or as may be agreed upon between this Board and the Board of Relief at Philadelphia.

During the year Dr. W. G. Ralston resigned the office of president, and also from membership in the Board, whereupon Mr. Robert Smith, a ruling elder in the Walnut Street Presbyterian Church, of Evansville, Indiana, was elected a member of the Board to fill the unexpired term of Dr. Ralston. Rev. W. J. Darby, D. D., was elected president in place of Dr. Ralston, resigned, and J. E. Williamson was elected vice-president in place of Dr. Darby, elected president.

The terms of Rev. W. J. Darby, D. D., Robert Smith, and S. B. Sansom, as members of the Board, expire in June, 1907. Under the laws of the State of Indiana, under which this Board is incorporated, it will be necessary for your reverend body to nominate their successors for the term of three years.

The period of coöperation between the two Boards has been an exceedingly agreeable one in every particular, the views of the two Boards in all matters of detail having been in perfect accord. The Board at Philadelphia has placed former Cumberland Presbyterian families on its roll on precisely the same basis as those who have always been in the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America. For this marked generosity of the "Mother Church" through its Board of Relief toward our almost one hundred families, we express the sincere gratitude of the Daughter who now resumes her place at the Home Altar after an absence of nearly one hundred years.

Respectfully submitted,

S. B. SANSOM,

Corresponding Secretary.

W. J. DARBY,

President.

Extract from letter of the Rev. B. L. Agnew, D. D., LL. D., Cor. Secretary of Ministerial Relief of The Presbyterian Church in the U. S. A. :

“ I think the reading of your Address on Ministerial Relief, printed in our Annual Report on that subject to our General Assembly, will awaken a new interest in the general Cause, and will have a reflux influence upon your Church ; and the whole Cause in all denominations will be benefited by its publication.

“ Yours fraternally,

THE HONORABLE CLAIMS OF MINISTERIAL RELIEF

By DENIS WORTMAN, D. D., L. H. D.

Cast me not off in the time of old age; forsake me not when my strength faileth. Ps. 71:9.

Back in 1882, Frederick Douglas related at my home this episode of Lincoln. He was holding a public reception at the White House on the evening of his second inauguration, March the fourth, 1865. In his Inaugural Address were those inspired and inspiring words: "With malice toward none, with charity for all, with firmness in the right as God gives us to see the right, let us finish the work we are in, to bind up the nation's wounds." You know the rest.

Lincoln had struck a new national note. He was anxious lest its generous tone might antagonize the more radical, and imperil the unity of public sentiment. As the people thronged round him, he noted Douglas a little distance off, and calling his name, beckoned him forward. The crowd surged to admit him, when the burdened President grasped his hand fervently, holding it a moment, while the people waited. "Douglas," said he, solemnly, "I want to ask you a question, and I want an honest answer." "You shall have it, Mr. President." "Douglas, tell me exactly how my Inaugural to-day struck you." The representative of the race that Booker T. Washington so well represents to-day, replied: "Mr. President, that was a holy thing! That was a holy thing!" With a hearty "Thank you," those big hands of Lincoln's gave him a mighty grip; then brushing away his manly tears and with a relieved heart he turned to receive the waiting, wondering guests.

"That was a holy thing; that was a holy thing!" Beloved, through all the thronging engagements of to-day,

I seem to see the Greater Master breaking loose from others to ask your mind and heart as to what is pressing on his soul. I see Him who in better manner than all others has pronounced, "Malice toward none, charity for all," taking your hand, and asking your honest opinion of what is to be done for relief of his worn and suffering veterans, who for him and for us have so nobly contended. And I seem to hear him taking up the words of great-hearted Lincoln, and he speaks of binding up wounds and caring for those who have borne the battle, and for their widows and orphans. Oh, shall you not warmly press those wounded hands of his and cheer him with the reply? "Master, this is a holy thing! This is a holy thing!" Yes, my friends, the Master identifies himself with his faithful servants in need, and says: "Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these, my brethren, ye have done it unto Me!"

My friends, I am not soliciting your charities. I am not asking even all that which is just. For a man in the ministry, unfortunately for the Church and for himself, who is not a minister in fact, whose languor in service, deficient love, and bad un wisdom have placed him where he belongs, outside a settled pastorate, I do indeed ask your pity and your prayers, but very little financial help. That by all our Church rules is to be dispensed to the deserving. It is for the true, the consecrated, frequently for the able and the gifted, who now by sickness, or by age, or by some strange tendencies in our time, are thrust out of good-doing for the Church and wage-earning for themselves, and are in deep and dire distress, I plead; and, as to these, I am pleading, not for the Church's charity; no; but for her honorable and honoring justice to those, and the families of those, who have long served her well on a sustainment inadequate, miserly and a reproach!

Yes, this is a holy thing, my friends; holy if indeed a charity to some; holy because to most an act of simple justice, only a partial making up of past deficiencies of reward for service; a holy thing, because it not only saves from want, but from the apprehensions of coming want, infinitely more harassing to sensitive souls than actual starvation. Many can stand it to starve, but cannot stand it to worry. A holy thing as an encouragement to bright, energetic young men to enter the pastorate, who else may be by over-sensitive friends dissuaded from a calling where sustainment is so inadequate and where continuance in service to a good old age is so highly problematic and dependent on so many fancies and ficklenesses of irresponsible religious epicureans. A holy thing, because, bearing in mind the words of Seneca, "Our alarms are more than our dangers, and we suffer oftener in apprehensions than in fact," this very assurance against their casting off in old age, or long before it, will dissipate weakening fears, conserve their energies for work and lengthen years of service.

Yes, the care of pastors and their families is a holy thing; and if there be those who are not affected by such considerations of piety, but by the pitiful consideration of the pitiful expense, let them count the cost. Let them compute whether it is costlier, through right treatment and encouraging beneficences, to retain long in blessed service these well-trained and tried, these experienced and successful workers; or to be obliged to educate through ten years of academy, college and theological seminary one third more theological students than we are now at expense of! Friends, there be expenditures that save; there be economies that are too expensive; and does not common sense teach you that the costliest retrenchment in all this world is an immoral cut-down in justice and mercy?

It may, indeed, be very properly asked: Why such efforts for ministers? Why so many of them poor? Why should they be assisted more than others? To these reasonable questions, I think I may reply, that not so very many do need help; some few are well-to-do; numbers of them live in good, average comfort. A great many by rigid economies constrain themselves to freedom from denominational assistance. But even in the rich Episcopal Church, one of her bishops lately said: "The immense and overwhelming majority of our clergy are poor. To their credit, be it said, most of them bear their poverty in splendid and heroic silence." It is only too sadly known that a great many men in all the denominations are too self-respecting for an exposure of their necessities. Do you blame them if they be too sacredly proud? Do you censure them if they be too regardful of the honor of their profession and their Church, to exploit their family poverties and their churches' spiritual frugality? Ay, do you blame them if they frequently renounce the pensions they bitterly need and deserve, in order that others more distressed than they may have more?

In low life and high life the same. What if I should tell you of one of our country's worthiest and most distinguished families, that of an aged retired college president, a beloved pastor, a preacher of renown, residing with wife and two daughters, years ago in one of our fine New England towns, at last accidentally discovered to have lived for three weeks without one morsel of meat? All around, in all the denominations, are many dear households of faith and of distinguished pastoral services, who for the honor of the people they are serving in the Gospel, manage to keep up a respectable social concealment of a distressful want!

Yet most of them live comfortably, that is, if they do not look some way ahead, to the time when work possibly is shortly ended and even the small salary comes no more. I say, most manage to live comfortably in a way; but not through generous support, but through avoidance of needless expenditures and the economies and fine wit of their wives.

Beyond all question, the great bulk of those who require assistance deserve it. No doubt of it. Their work is worth it. And if some pensioning be required, it is such as is given, only on very much larger scale, to men and women in various mercantile, mechanical, railroad, and educational pursuits, in our civil service, and in the army and navy. But with no such certainty, and on no such honorable scale as these, but miserably below them all and with an uncertainty to appall any but the strongest Christian faith.

I may suggest that their manner of living, the necessary habits of their profession, the frequent demands upon them for entertainment, the expectation of people at large that they shall not enter the arena of worldly labor, their utter unfitness for it if they would, their outliving the time for learning new trades, these things cut them off from financial advantages possible in other industrial callings. Yet, with it all, they are expected to give far more than most of their parishioners to every charity, and to many a favorite social humbug. Yet they have too fine sensitiveness to display their poverty; and many reckon they must be so well-to-do because of their decent garb. Excuse them, friends:

They will not go all antiquated and unkempt,
To earn their congregations' pity—and contempt!

Perhaps I may suggest as to the ministerial financial struggle, that salaried men, whether clerks or clergymen, always assured of a certain sum on pay-day, are trained away from business habits. The ministerial salary payday comes, well, sometimes regularly, sometimes irregularly, sometimes regularly irregularly, sometimes regularly not at all; well, with more or less of a miscellaneous regularity! When salary-earning finally, and more or less abruptly, ends, he finds himself out of the line of promotion, and disqualified for other pursuits.

Early industry and training make the successful business man. It is not the boy who has lost by swapping knives at school who is going to lose by and by. It is probably the good boy who never swapped! It is not the man who before thirty has learned so many ways of losing as to have grown shy of experiments and hardened against alluring schemes of rapid transit to wealth, who shall be allured into preposterous investments. It is not he, but the innocent and untrained salary-man, be he clerk or clergyman, who never has gone through the profitable drill of early losses, who shall be warmed into a glow of admiration of the plausible promoter, backed perhaps by the inevitable clerical endorser, who invests in cheap insurance, or sinks his money in far too oily oil wells, or spreads his little fortune over city lots on the prairie, or plants it in fairly luscious imagination in orange groves up in Alaska!

It is a serious reflection, my friends, that such as are poorly paid, and expect to be shelved at sixty or possibly at fifty, and then, beyond casual and very cheap supplying here and there, have no regular work and wages, and no honorable pension, feel that they almost have to run the risks of losing their little all for a possible sufficiency in that cloudy and dark day.

The remedy? More faith on their part? Well, yes. But I am reminded of a dear old lady who felt greatly troubled over the uncertainties of her financial future. She was advised to trust in God. "Yes," she said, "with a delicious blending of pathos and humor, "but, somehow I do feel I could trust better, if I knew how it was going to turn out."

More faith on their part? Yes; and I say more faithfulness on the part of the Churches. Yes; an honorable treatment, such honest and square support as an honorable clergyman deserves, a continuance in his profession during his efficiency, perhaps an honorable retirement on half-salary with a young assistant for the other half. If this cannot be afforded in full by the local church, then an honorable denominational pensioning proportionate to his needs and his length of helpfulness and service, just as in the army and navy and many an industry. And this, O Men and Brothers, not as a charity to a poor, poor man, but as his desert; and not as a charity from the Church, but as her debt of honor to one who has served her well on insufficient wage. Ay, it is on the ground of desert as well as of necessity I base my argument and plea. My friends, we talk of the Churches pensioning the ministers. I tell you, No! I tell you it is the ministers, who, working hard on salaries from one-half to one-third what with their abilities and training and character they would average in the other professions, it is the hard-worked, criticised, half-paid, and prematurely retired ministers, who have been pensioning the poverty-stricken, and sometimes the wealth-stricken, congregations.

This tendency to premature retirement from the pastorate is growing more and more intense. In the Presbyterian Church one ministerial family out of eight is sure to come upon the funds for ministerial relief. Their Secretary said lately to the General Assembly: "Gentlemen, you may think you may need no interest in this work; but let me tell you that in the course of time one family out of every eight of you is going to come upon these funds!" This is due to the fact that the higher expenses of living are not paralleled by anything like a proportionate increase of salary.

Now, further, as to the reasons that the average clergyman is poor. One is that he is apt to be born so, a matter for which you may hardly hold him responsible. I imagine it is increasingly so to-day, not the inability to be born rich, but the fact that he is not. Years ago, the parents of a goodly proportion of young candidates for the ministry paid their sons' way. Comparatively few do now. In some theological seminaries, hardly a single one. They are not all necessarily exactly poor; many are in the middle classes; but the parents cannot and should not be allowed to bear the full expense, when the course of study is so long and costly, and sustainment afterwards so poor.

You need not be told that ministers' salaries are out of all proportion to their needs and to their assured earnings in other vocations. My own observation would lead me to say that even when half of a college class studies for the ministry, in the other half there will be likely to be one out of ten who will lay by from his professional earnings as much as any twenty or thirty together of those who enter the pastorate. It reminds me of a couple of young lads in Kentucky. A stranger preaching one day, up two little brothers came with others toward the pulpit. Taking one by the hand, he said: "What are you going to be, my boy, when you become a man?" "I am going to be a minister, sir, and preach the Gospel." To the other he said: "And what are you going to be, my son?" Scratching his head, he replied: "Well, I guess I'll be a banker, and take care of my brother!"

I may say a word about the expense of the education of the minister's family. This is a most essential factor. The parents have a high ideal; their children certainly have a presumably fair heredity. They are presumably of too good stock, in freedom from inherited vices, in the vigor of brain and heart which comes of an inheritance of intelligence and character and Christian motive, to be lost, through undevelopment, to the cause of upbuilding and transforming the world.

Do I not know the old saw about ministers' sons and deacons' daughters? One thing—they often match well! Yes, I have known indeed some few who were more or less sportive, making college lively and tutors interested in critical research in youthful criminology. Now, do you know, the fun and music, the jokes and tricks, are frequently only the outbursts of an exuberant vitality, the natural gambols of healthy young animals? They are usually without ugliness or passion or viciousness, and away above all miserable meanness. The bright fellows rectify themselves early in life; their very vivacity makes them heartier, humaner, and by and by holier, than the bloodless stupid. And so, I believe in the education of ministers' sons and deacons' daughters. God bless them! To be sure, it is expensive to educate, and it goes hard with the poor pastor and his patient, adroit, economizing, ambitious wife; but God bless them, and with more and more such children for the sake of the world; and God help rich parishioners to help these young inheritors of good religious stuff to an education that shall make it worth their while to live! We need just such stock for all the vocations of life, and we intensely need them to fill up the sorrowfully depleting ranks of candidates for the ministry. I call a solemn halt to this increasing impoverishment of the ministry, ere it develops into a sad impoverishment of candidates for this noblest office, this most imperative and honorable need of the world!

Years ago Bishop E. O. Haven estimated that one hundred ministers' families averaged one hundred sons for the ministry. That estimate will not at all hold now, for evident reasons. But the proportion is yet large; limited chiefly by the inability of many clergymen to educate their sons liberally, and by their hesitation to press their boys into a profession in which right in the midst of their years they may, by a fateful tendency of our times, be thrown out of their churches and into nowhere.

Yet, even as it is, these parents do sometimes achieve marvels. Not many years ago one ministerial family, not averaging over eight hundred dollars a year and parsonage, managed to send three sons to college and two daughters through normal college for teachers. Another ministerial family, with no means but the meager salary of a Western Home Missionary, educated three sons for the ministry and two daughters for missions, sons and daughters who rank high in their sacred callings. Only lately I had a letter from a minister with eight sons and one daughter, living on twelve hundred dollars; and not sending their children to work to help make a family living, but training them as best they can for successful Christian workers. As statistics show, from the families of ministers comes the largest average in any profession, of lawyers, doctors, engineers, merchants, of the best type, and probably it is safe to say that almost as many first-class ministers of the Gospel, as from all the other callings together.

Do you blame such parents for spending their last dollar in educating their children for the world and for God? And do you blame these young sons, if, seeing all the strictures to which their families are subject, they fail to be discouraged by it, but close their eyes to danger, open them to work, and spendily press right on into the calling they love for their father's and for the Redeemer's sake?

The most intensive and extensive cause of the frequent hard straits and necessary poverties of the ministerial life is that ministers are apt to die early. General insurance statistics show that their average expectation of life is larger than that of any other profession. This may be owing in part to the fact that the age of entrance into the ministry is high, on account of the long years of classical and theological study, during which something of a sifting process goes on with the feeble ones. Their temperate life largely accounts for it. And it may be assumed that all this is helped in the main by the more or less tranquillizing and strengthening influence of their faith in God and their purpose to serve moral and spiritual ends. Love endureth, beareth, hopeth all things. We are saved by hope in a great many ways.

Insurance statistics show clergymen live longer than other men. But Church statistics show they die younger. They live longer and they die younger than any other class of men. The dead line of the lawyer or doctor is when his pulse actually ceases to beat. The dead line of the minister is when half a dozen men or women in the congregation get the fits, and give them to their beloved pastor! At such a time he cries out: "Oh, that I had wings, that I might fly away and be at rest!" His difficulty is not so much in his flying, as in his finding a place to rest. The difficulty is like that of the aeronaut, or of the poet; not so much in flying through the azure, as in lighting! Oh, that prayer of the psalmist; it seems to have been written just for the dear old servant of God, and not necessarily old of years, but old of trouble and disappointment and a shortened service: "Cast me not off in the time of old age; forsake me not when my strength faileth!" Ah, as to the dear pastor, it is heart-failure more than old age that cries out for God's healing, and for man's.

As you all know, the fad is for young men. A young man of promise is far more readily called to a vacant pulpit than a man who has fulfilled the promise of his youth, and now is advanced in years and experience. Here is a pastor who never had a church he did not bless; some little friction, not his fault, so all will say; but he should go. Alas, he is too old, possibly approaching fifty! not too old to go—but too old to get!

Now, Friends, listen for a moment to a writer in The North American Review. (Pp. 519, 520, October, 1902.)

"At the age of fifty the successful American has developed his business to large proportions, and has acquired the experience and capital necessary to enable him to fight his way on to another success. He feels himself to be master of the calling to which his life has been devoted. His position in the community is constantly improving. His coöperation is sought from many sides; in commerce, in politics, in charity, in society. His mind is interested as never before. He realizes that his prestige has been derived from his business success, and that the two go hand in hand. No supercilious comment instils poison into the brain whose energy is concentrated on 'business.' His best efforts can be put forth in his industrial or commercial occupation, not only without fear of endangering his position and that of his family, but rather with the certainty that further rewards await him."

Now, as to the minister at fifty; able, gifted, experienced, loved by all the congregation, save a little handful. Alas, he should go. Alas, he is too old to be called elsewhere. Here is a man of rare piety, experience, everything; if in a vacancy, a church may have him for "supply" until it settles a pastor, he is eagerly sought, and all say: "How fortunate for us to have the distinguished Doctor Jones, and to have him right along until we settle a regular pastor?" Well, indeed, why not? And why not have him at once as a regular pastor? He is too old; he is sixty, fifty-five, fifty; even forty-five may be too old; not too old just now, but by and by he will be getting so. There are many congregations that might have such men at once, who would gladly consent even to this, to have charge until the people themselves determine them to be too aged for their purpose, men of brain, of affectionate devotion, of a reputation that would be an honor to them, and a distinguished blessing; no; but the sheep do not want the experienced shepherd, and they call—a kid!

Perhaps I should call that back. A reporter who would seem to have been in the dew of his youth, and evidently thought to do me and my cause a service, came near doing me altogether, by giving the great American public, through the general press agency, a sensational condensation of this part of my discourse, which resulted in leading no end of papers to attack or defend my position. All right, if it but publishes the sacred cause! Shall I take the sentence back, as being not easily comprehended, or as too terse? Well, if you allow me, I will phrase the sentiment thus:

The younglings like the younglings
 And must have their sager say;
 For the oldlings like the younglings,
 And they cannot say them "nay,"
 And the oldlings and the younglings
 Keep God's full-grown man away.
 But, O Oldlings, and, O Younglings,
 Will this way of working pay?

It were folly to suggest I am pleading against young men. Was I not once such myself? Do not years and experience increase my admiration of them, my joyous sympathy with them, my generous faith in them? The older I grow, the keener my perceptions of the humorous as well as the pathetic; the more precious is work for the Master; the more I identify myself with the new, with the progressive, with the joyous in religion and life. But I none the less deplore the displacement of the experienced by the inexperienced, and that hurt which ensues, alike to the very young man and to the Church, by this present unfortunate tendency. Better for the young graduate that his studies be deepened and broadened, that experience be gathered, that his nervous organism be toughened so as to stand the strain. I speak from the experience of a young man myself, entering upon city charges at the outset; at twenty-nine right in the midst of a great work angels might covet, and at thirty-five broken by a sudden collapse: six years without preaching one sermon, three years more before accepting a regular charge; though, thank God, hard and continuous work ever since.

Now look at it. If men were wishing a teacher in Latin, Philosophy, Science, they would choose a man of learning; but as a teacher of their children in religion, among other things, this: Is he good at baseball? If they would seek one for their physician they would ask for medical learning, sympathetic insight and long experience; but for one to help heal the souls of men and the disorders of communities—does he play golf? To settle their estates, or to defend themselves from injustices, they call for a lawyer of good experience; but to comfort them in sorrows, to educate and train their families for the skies—is the minister real jolly? To save you and your children, you want somebody who can please old Mr. Crank, or dear Mrs. Grundy, or mayhap darling little Susie and Johnnie! Why, better at once let the Infants run the churches, and for all the rest start an Old People's Society of Christian Endeavor!

Friends, were it not for the solemn farce that mingles with the matter, it were enough to make one's finger tips tingle with indignation, to see such misadjustments. In every other profession, men required; men, to do serious, trained, successful work; learning counting for something, experience counting for something, success in other fields counting for something, but of no use whatever to a minister of the blessed Gospel at that time of life when a business man is at his very prime; as a physician, years and years of practice his; as a lawyer, a continually growing practice, and in old age serving as adviser and referee in settlements of great estates and long disputes; if a judge, kept on the Supreme Court or Court of Appeals, and then retired with honor. And then? Life ended? No. All that long and varied experience called at once into the well-paid service of large corporations who are sensible enough to know they need just the advice the old judge is capable of giving them. These elderly men, vigorous and, above all, experienced, all the way from fifty on to eighty builded yet into noble structures of institutions, wealths and potencies; but the men who have grandly surrendered all for Christ and his Church, who have builded up churches and moralities and patriotisms and charities and immortalities for their fellow-men, thrown over at last into the rubbish-heap!

The hurt and horror of it can we fail to distinguish? Of course, danger to your ministers. With too small salaries, frequently, to lay up for the rainy day, even as they approach the age of forty looking out to see where they would best land so as to hold on until they grow really old; at fifty intensely anxious for a change so as to take a new hold on life, but finding it very difficult indeed; at fifty-five, just about impossible, except with the strongest backing of their past successes, and of influential friends! Ah, my friends, as even the best of them enter these crucial years, and, not properly fixed, look anxiously and prayingly around for some providential opportunity; they look, with strained eyes they look; and right over the angry portals of their uncertain future they read that pregnant sign the melancholy genius of Dante read above the entrance to Inferno; and what can they do but shrink back with somewhat of the same mortal terror, as they read: "Abandon hope, all ye who enter here!"

Ah, the testing of the dear Pastor's faith! The way he and his household muster up their confidence in their Heavenly Father; the way they now doubly economize and pray for strength to bear this load! Out in the cold at last, too old to learn new trades, with too reverent regard for their sacred calling to project their poverties before the world, with a sensitiveness that comes of spiritual living, they suffer keenlier than those roughened and toughened by the harder experiences of the world; and the reason they have kept poor was, that they hardly ever had anything else to keep—save this: they have kept the faith, their faith in God that his mighty cause shall yet somehow go on, that some day they may see the results of their labors, that somehow and some time God will provide, and that by and by they shall rest from their labors and their works shall follow them. But to God they pitifully cry: "Cast me not off in the time of old age; forsake me not when my strength faileth!"

Meanwhile, thank God, not altogether poor. Poor, yet making many rich. Poor in earthly estate, yet rich in self-sacrifices, rich in better lives, rich in a sacred confidence in God, rich in high and holy purposes, rich in offices of comfort and cheer to others in sorrow, rich in the families they train for useful service here and for glory hereafter, rich in leaving behind them an ever-expanding influence for good! Oh, so rich, though often so poor; then making others rich—the old in sympathetic consolations, the middle-aged in holding them firmly to a Christian life and service, the young in training them as happy heirs to the kingdom of God! Theirs is, indeed, a lot not to be ashamed of, or to be pitied; but a service for the Church to help them in; a mighty service of a world-wide humanity, which, if the world be wise, it will assist them and bid them God-speed in, with a comfortable old age when active work is concluded. Why, we talk of pensioning the ministers; it is, indeed, a needed, just and sacred thing; but after all, I say to you: The churches pensioning the ministers? Nonsense. It has been and still is, that the ministers, working hard on one half or one third their normal earnings in other lines of service, have been pensioning the criticising congregations!

But do we understand the hurt that comes meanwhile to the Church through this condition we have been considering? Yes, the Church is suffering, and is likely to suffer more, from this indifference to justice; suffering from her own abasement; suffering from allowing her administration to be warped by the yielding of the wiser to the less wise and the inexperienced; suffering from not giving heed to this charity—nay, this imperative desert; suffering from losing the reflex blessing of justice and mercy; suffering, to no inconsiderable degree, from want of the best type of preachers; for it is not best that the ministry be filled from one class only, be it the rich or be it the poor. All classes should contribute to its sacred ranks.

But, my friends, the Church is to-day discouraging from her pulpits many of her brightest, hardiest, most enterprising young men. A prominent clergyman told me recently of a gathering of men, not Church attendants, where the question was raised: "Why do you not attend Church?" and three at once exclaimed that they had turned off the old ministers who fed them, and given them youths who could not satisfy them. At the same time he related that at a gathering of educated Y. M. C. A. men, the question being put, why they did not enter the ministry, seven at once responded that they would be laid aside so early as to spoil their best years of labor.

The Church needs and the times demand a great number of consecrated young men of the very best type of brain and character for her ministry. Every industry is calling for the best it can get, and rewards such well. There is discovery in every direction. Faculty at invention, faculty in interesting people, faculty in influencing the influential, faculty in positions of education and trust, where brain and brawn and fidelity and the fear of God and noble purpose are the main features of demand—these traits are called for with a great, loud cry. It is the skilled machinist, the skilled lawyer, the skilled financier, the man alert, ambitious, brainy, filled with fire, who is wanted everywhere and is wanted loud.

Do you blame the bright Christian chap who wants to do something worth the while, something that will be appreciated and effective; do you blame him if he wants to do something in a line where he can keep going all along, and not be shut off when just in his prime? Do you blame him if to him it seems that under existing circumstances, he can do a larger and a longer good, not exactly in the ministry, but in the pew, coöperating with his minister, setting good example, and by his large-minded generosity stimulating the whole Church to nobler effort? Can Christians be lukewarm in their care of churches and pastors, and indifferent to their support, and thereby enthuse bright, earnest lads to enter on a work where enthusiasm is killed by coldness, and usefulness checked by congregational bickerings, and sacred work at last suddenly stopped by one's getting to be fifty or sixty years old? We want our brainiest and best, our most ambitious and aspiring, in this great age, for great ministers of Jesus Christ. Do not dishearten them. Employ the one great remedy for the present evil. And that is a loyal support of ministers who are capable and faithful, a loyal retention of them in the ministry, and the assurance that when out of the pastorate, their necessities shall be attended to, and in such worthy way as shall be honorable alike to those who give and those who receive. And this must be done by annual offerings for current needs, and the interest of such large funds as the rich may well be proud to endow.

Reasonable people will readily consider some form of the pension system as admirably suitable here. Indeed, it is. There is pensioning in the army and navy and civil service; there is pensioning of teachers, of railroad employés, of people in various lines of industry; why not in the ministry?

But there is this difference; in all of these, save the ministry, all of a class receive the pensions. No question is raised as to one's necessity, or as to his moral character, or as to his influence in the community, or as to the number of his family dependent on him. But as to the ministry, it is not for all, among the churches generally, only for one tenth, or in extreme cases, one out of eight. It goes without saying, the minister's character must be truly Christian. He must have been long in the service, and he must be in absolute financial need. He may have rendered no matter how valuable a service to the churches, he may have educated no matter how many sons and daughters for the blessing of the world; he must be in real necessity, and must be so certified by the religious body to which he belongs. And even then, save he is seventy, it may be continued only so long as necessity requires. I mean this is the general rule.

Who does not see, in the light of these considerations, and in the light of the large expense to which he has been subject in getting his collegiate and theological education, and in the light of that very striking fact that his salary is certainly not more than one half, and generally not more than one third what his character, abilities and education would have secured him in other departments of life; I say, who cannot see the absolute correctness of the contention that it is sheer nonsense to represent this as a pensioning of the minister? Nonsense, indeed! It is the hard-working and hard worked, the criticised, early-discarded pastor, who, laboring faithfully on a minimum of pay, has been pensioning the poverty-stricken and often the wealth-stricken congregation, and nearly all his days.

Is all this condition of things, which is such a sorrow and such a hurt to ministerial usefulness and to the credit of the Church, is this not going to be better understood and willingly attended to? The Roman and Greek Churches do better than this. The temples of the pagans do better than this. The ancient Hebrews did far better than this. Where is our universal one tenth for the Levites of the Lord?

Why, this sacred benefice to our clergy, my Friends, in their old age and distressful poverty, this sacred benefice to their widows and orphans when they themselves shall be no more, appeals to every generous sympathy of our natures. It touches us deeply that they who have ministered all their lives to others should not in their helplessness be ministered unto. It touches us that they who have repudiated callings in which they might have done, indeed, much good while gaining wealth, have turned heroically from them, to live on half or a third of possible earnings, so that they might make the churches rich. And must it not wound the tender heart of Christ that the churches, saved, sanctified and made useful by them, should not turn a fair portion of their earnings to their comfort?

Other causes, I know, make frequent and loud and first appeal. To these you give handsomely; to Foreign Missions, to Home Missions, and others. God bless every one of them! Yet, this cause is closely identified with them all, and supplements them all.

Give to the education of young men for the Ministry; but give to this noble beneficence, since it will encourage young men to enter the ministry, who may else be discouraged from it by the apprehension of no work and no support in their last days. Give to Foreign Missions; and our brothers and sisters, toiling amid the torrid heats of India and Arabia, among the skeptical Chinese and the ambitious spirits of Japan, and seeing how even the priests of heathen temples are cared for of the temples till their dying day, will all the more strenuously labor for Christ in happy assurance that Christian churches at home, at least as well as pagan, will see that in their old age they shall not want. Give, give generously to missions in domestic fields, East and West; but endow well this beneficence for ministerial support: for it is these men and these families, spending the bulk of their lives in new and out-of-the-way communities, East and West, who shall in their last days require your generous support. Indeed, these funds for which I plead, are annexes to these other three, and in supporting this one, you promote and perpetuate the others.

Friends, I feel it were more becoming and perhaps more effective were I not a minister pleading for my brethren. But it falls to us in the divine Providence to make the plea. And I fear that after all we ministers must largely blame ourselves that the matter has not been better attended to before. Our mistaken modesty in not liking to plead for ministers because they are our professional brethren, has had much to do with leaving the churches in ignorance, and our brethren in neglect and want.

But pardon us, good friends; do you know, it does just grind upon us too to be asking help for men and families in our own profession? It does just grind a bit. It seems to humiliate. It seems to lower the dignity of the ministry. Possibly with some it seems to bring our sacred calling into contempt. We are exposing poverties many of our clergy are painfully endeavoring to conceal for the Master's sake. But it is shockingly mistaken modesty, a false and miserable delicacy, for which we should very humbly implore the pardon of our fellow-men, and of Almighty God. It is a slander on our churches. What does our Christian faith amount to, if it be not appreciative of such facts when properly presented? No, this is a sacred cause; and for one I simply glory in it. "It is a holy thing, it is a holy thing."

What sentiment is more abhorrent to our manhood as well as our Christianity, than ingratitude? What organized nation, however base in other matters, allows itself to be unmindful of its heroes who have imperiled their lives to save it from defeat and destruction? Returned from their bloody contests, the simple silent gratitude of the delivered people is not enough, their excited applause is not sufficient, the wages paid them for enlistment and service will not suffice. If by wounds or disease they be disabled, any civilized nation on earth will be proud to give them a pension for life; and, by and by, perhaps to all who pass their three score years and ten. Who finds fault with such grateful compensation and care? Would you or I be ashamed to advocate their pensioning?

Well, I think of such in many a nation on the earth; and then I think of these other heroes of our own flesh and blood in the ranks of the Lord's Veterans; and am I not justified in exclaiming: Let our hands forget their cunning, and our tongues cling to the roof of our mouths, if we weakly shrink from heroic advocacy of those heroic men and women who in the battles of the Lord Jesus have bravely contended, and now, aged and wounded and worn and poor, surely have claim upon our sympathetic aid? Let us at last over with these treacherous modesties, and over with our misconceptions of justices as mercies, of deserved compensations as humiliating charities.

I cannot too impressively urge this contention. They be not objects of charity in any land, who, soldiering for country, are at last pensioned off at half or two-thirds pay; and whether they be common soldiers or seamen, or captains and admirals, or colonels and generals, we think of them not as pensioners on the charity of the nation. They have gone through work and weariness, risks and sore woundings, distresses and deaths flying thick around them; and they have honored their nation by their loyal courage; and we take off our hats to them, and we point them out to our boys as heroes fit to copy, patriots worthy of their fame and the affectionate reverence of their countrymen.

Well, neither be they the objects of our poor pity, humble claimants on our cheap compassions, beggars to be put off with humiliating charities, they who have laid aside all dreams of ease, wealth, wide fame; and in humble ministries have sought to save our homes, our churches, our country and the nations, by teaching the Gospel of Christ. Beside such men, and by and by beside their humble graves, I stand with uncovered head, and with far profounder homage than when some years ago, in Paris, in the Hotel-des-Invalides, I uncovered my head, as perhaps I should not, at the mausoleum of Napoleon Bonaparte, that imperial but bloody incarnation of the greatest soldiership of all our human, ay, our inhuman history!

Therefore, I say, my friends, instead of yielding to any false sentiment of delicacy, let us be greatly proud of the constituency of these poor servants, nay, good and great servants of God, these helpers of humanity, these builders of churches and builders of Christian character, who, through a misunderstanding on the part of the Church, and through the false susceptibilities and mistaken silence of us pastors, have so long suffered in want of a bold and aggressive championship. For myself, indeed, I count it a noble and inspiring closing of my life, if thus it shall close, that I may devote it to the correction of a fearful blunder, to the righting of a terrible wrong, to the rescue from want and the demoralizing fear of want, on the part of these old soldiers and their families, who deserve the loyalest and best support the Church of God can give them! Give them your thought! Give them your love! Give them your prayers! Give them of your noble wealths! I know of no soldier of any army so carelessly cared for as the old soldiers of the army of Jesus Christ!

And so I ask, where is the minister who will be so sensitive to his own delicate feelings, but so insensitive and disloyal to the hard necessities of his brethren, as to fail to press this beneficence upon the attention of his congregation? Where is the Church that will not understand its honorable and pressing necessities? Let them hear the heart-hurt rebuke of Jesus: "Inasmuch as ye did it not to one of the least of these, my brethren, ye did it not to Me!" Alas, I turn to nobler Christians, nobler women and men.

Oh, where is the man who, practicing the teachings of a beloved pastor, has risen to honor and wealth, will now help this honorable cause? Where is the man who, rescued from a life of sin in early manhood through the sympathetic attentions of a poorly supported minister, will now help build up endowment for the relief of such? Where is the minister's son, whose entrance on a business career disappointed a parent's hopes, but opened to him large influence and wealths, who will now constitute in this particular line a memorial fund to him? Where is the man who, in early life affected somewhat by these uncertain conditions of ministerial experience, honestly concluded that in a prosperous business career he might make money for God, and incidentally do a greater good, will now turn by legacy or gift some handsome portion of his fortune to this sadly neglected beneficence? Where is the man whose broken health in early life prohibited his entrance on a ministerial career, but who through a kind Providence has come to a considerable abundance, who will now pleasedly realize his early ambition, by caring for others who entered upon his labors, but shall some day come into pitiable straits? Where is the mother, whose son at very birth was dedicated to the ministry, but whom God took, who will find a sweet satisfaction now in constituting this beneficence a noble memorial to him? What wealthy minister, who never has known want, will, with great thanks to God, contribute to the endowment of a fund for this sacred cause, and kindly consent that it shall embalm his own name among the sacred treasures of his denomination? What large-hearted man or woman of wealth, so far uncertain exactly how to dispose of all the fortune to be left behind, will conclude: "This is just what I will do, and do it before I die! If I can, I will give it. If not that, I will devise it; and I'll do it now!"

For all thy reverend servants, Lord,
 Who long have served and bravely borne,
 Who well have taught and wrought thy word,
 Whose virtues still thy Church adorn,
 We bless Thee, and implore thy grace
 Till, past dark death, they see thy face.

Surcease be theirs from fears and tears
 While through these earthly wilds they roam,
 And grateful thoughts of well-spent years
 While gazing toward their nearing home;
 And ours the children's heritage
 Of sweetening their declining age.

We thank thee for their lives sincere
 That warned and wooed away from sin,
 For words of wisdom and of cheer
 That helped us worthier wealths to win;
 Lord, may we save from care and loss
 The saints that led us to the Cross!

May we who follow in their train
 Their virtues view and deeds outdo,
 And like them strive the world to gain
 For Him who to its rescue flew;
 Him and them may we join, among Thine aged made forever young!

MINISTERIAL RELIEF IN THE REFORMED CHURCH IN AMERICA.

Our REFORMED CHURCH has two methods of ministerial relief: our Disabled Ministers' Fund, and our Widows' Fund. They are alike in this, that ministers, their widows and orphans may receive this greatly needed benefit; they both have a partial endowment, for both the churches are supposed to make an annual offering; both deserve and require larger endowment and larger annual sustainment. They differ only in methods and measures of help; the former being a blessed beneficence, the latter a happily combined beneficence and insurance.

THE DISABLED MINISTERS' FUND, started in 1854, and reconstructed in 1863, is for relief of disabled ministers, and their widows and orphans in honorable need. Assistance is unfortunately limited, by want of funds, to $200 a year; and may be given only as recommended by Classis, and year by year. We seek larger annual offerings and worthier endowment, so we be not limited to such miserly amounts. The annual offering has now increased from $3,900 to $8,535; which we are bound to raise to $10,000, and keep it there, at the least. It has an endowment of $101,000, which we must raise to $250,000 at least, for which we ask and entreat large gifts and legacies from the rich. Eighteen ministers, and thirty-six widows are now enjoying this relief. Meanwhile the number of annuitants increases from year to year, and will continue to do so with increase of prices of living and the earlier retirement of ministers from active service.

Our WIDOWS' FUND is a combined beneficence and insurance, and I think a unique and inviting one. If the minister begins insurance at thirty-five years of age, or under, his premium is $20 a year for life; if he begins between thirty-five and forty-five, it is $30 a year; if between forty-five and fifty-five, it is $40; if between fifty-five and sixty, it is $45. After sixty, too late. The annuity to the widow of the insurer is $200 during her lifetime; and at her death her children, under sixteen, receive a percentage. If there is not sufficient money for the $200, the annuity is proportionate to money in the treasury. This year it is $180. The minister himself may receive this aid, when recommended by Classis, upon two physicians' certificates as permanently incapacitated for ministerial service.

The present endowment of this fund is only $114,000, and the General Synod urgently calls for its increase to at least $250,000. This last church-year ministers gave toward their own insurance $2,200, and two-thirds of our churches (the rest not strong ones, but largely missionary) gave $5,550; which latter figure ought to be $10,000. The present annuities of $185 should really be $300, to be in line with several kindred denominations. There are now on this fund seventeen ministers and fifty widows. Some should be receiving this relief who are deterred from asking because of our stringency of funds. The increasing expenses of living, the fateful shortening of ministers' terms of service, the deplorable extent to which churches and ministers are in jeopardy of a shortening service, imperil the prosperity of the churches as well as the prolongation of gracious pastorates, and discourage strong and energetic young men from perilous pastorates, short and precarious. Surely these considerations summon our men and women of wealth to handsome endowment of these precious funds! Brethren and sisters in the churches, who of you will come to our help? Who will nobly bequest? Better yet, who will nobly give? Who will attend to it now?

It will afford me peculiar pleasure to furnish further information. Strangers and friends are cordially invited to write me their views and suggestions, or make inquiries with the understanding that their correspondence is confidential, and does not commit them to any obligations to assist.

FORTY-SECOND ANNUAL REPORT
OF THE
BOARD OF MISSIONS FOR FREEDMEN
OF THE
PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH
IN THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA
TO THE
GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH
FROM MARCH 31ST, 1906 TO APRIL 1ST, 1907.

The Board of Missions for Freedmen respectfully presents to the General Assembly its Forty-Second Annual Report.

For the eighth time in regular succession the Board has closed its year's work without any outstanding obligations.

Last year the income from Church Collections exceeded that of the year before by fourteen hundred and seventy one dollars.

This year the income from Church Collections did not reach the amount of last year by nine hundred and sixty three dollars.

The amount received from other regular sources, including Sunday Schools, Young People's Societies and Woman's Societies was seventy-seven thousand, six hundred and forty-two dollars, being nineteen hundred and eighty-seven dollars more than the year before.

The receipts from Miscellaneous Sources, including individual gifts and interest on invested funds were twenty-two thousand, six hundred and thirteen dollars, being nine thousand, nine hundred and thirty-two dollars less than last year.

Legacies that last year amounted to twenty-six thousand, eight hundred and ninety-three dollars, dropped this year to twenty-three thousand, one hundred and sixty dollars, a difference of three thousand, seven hundred and thirty-two dollars.

The total receipts from all sources were one hundred and eighty eight thousand, nine hundred and eighty-one dollars.

This is twelve thousand, six hundred and fifty-two dollars less than last year.

An examination of the sources of our income shows that this loss of receipts lies mainly in individual gifts and legacies.

The following is a tabulated statement of our receipts for the past four years:

| | 1903-4 | 1904-5 | 1905-06 | 1906-7 |
|---------------------|--------------|--------------|--------------|--------------|
| Churches..... | $62,073 13 | $65,056 68 | $66,528 62 | $65,564 92 |
| Y. P. Societies.... | 731 94 | 466 92 | 499 80 | 481 51 |
| Sunday Schools... | 4,219 90 | 4,119 92 | 4,254 42 | 4,135 72 |
| Woman's Board.. | 68,023 31 | 73,047 80 | 70,910 93 | 73,025 30 |
| Legacies..... | 19,406 07 | 12,800 62 | 26,893 15 | 23,160 25 |
| Miscellaneous..... | 28,560 77 | 34,162 27 | 32,546 58 | 22,613 66 |
| | $183,015 12 | $189,654 21 | $201,633 50 | $188,981 36 |

The number of Churches that helped us in any one way this year was 5,002, a loss of 72 as compared with last year.

The number of Churches that helped us by congregational collections was 4,189, a gain of 51 churches.

The number of Sunday Schools that contributed to the Board direct was 365, and the number contributing through the Woman's Board was 436. Making a total of 801, which was a loss of 25.

The number of Young People's Societies contributing to the Board direct was 43, and the number contributing through the Woman's Board was 947, making a total of 990, a loss of 97.

The amount of money given by the patrons and friends of our School Work, as reported this year from the field was $57,171.64.

The amount given in Church work, including Church building, repairs, contingent expenses and Ministerial support, as reported to us by our ministers on the field, was $48,241.20

The total amount for both Church and School work, gathered and expended on the field, and reported to the Board, but in no way going through our Treasury, or in any way included in the Treasurer's statement of receipts and expenditures, was $105,412.84.

In addition to this, the Churches under the care of the Board gave through their Annual Congregational Collections $760.59 to the Freedmen's Board, and to the other Boards of the Church $1,722.34.

Adding the amounts contributed to the various Boards to the other amounts reported as raised on the field for Church and School purposes, we have a sum total of $107,895.77 passing through the hands of our Ministers, Elders and Teachers and expended by themselves, both directly and indirectly toward their own betterment, and toward the establishment of the Church of the living God in the world, which is the pillar and ground of Truth.

The influence of the money that is annually being expended by our Board among the Colored people of the South, together with what they expended among themselves, cannot but be for good—good for themselves, as a race, good for the people among whom they live, good for the country at large, in which, as in every other organized community of men and women, no man liveth to himself, and no man dieth to himself.

The following tabulated statement and list presents a summary of the work and institutions under our care.

On the 23d day of May, 1906, and just after we had made our last annual report to the Assembly, meeting at Des Moines, Iowa, and before the Assembly adjourned, a fire was discovered in the night in one of the upper dormitory rooms of Ingleside Seminary at Burkeville, Va., which ended in the complete destruction of the building, but we are glad to say with no loss of life. The fire occurred the night before the Commencement Exercises were to be held, marking the close of a successful year's work. With the burning of their trunks many of the students lost much of their clothing and the money with which they were expecting to purchase their railroad tickets home. The management of the roads over which they were to travel learning these facts gave orders to have the pupils carried over their lines free of charge. The building was insured and is now in process of re-erection with the hope of its being ready for occupancy by fall.

A second serious fire occurred later on, when in January of this year, Ferguson Hall of Harbison College at Abbeville, S. C., burned to the ground, and a little later in the same month two small frame dormitories in connection with Albion Academy at Franklinton, N. C., were also destroyed by fire. All of these properties were insured in the same Company, and this unusual succession of fires resulted in a readjustment of our entire insurance, at a higher rate, thus putting on the treasury of the Board an unexpected additional burden this year.

We have no reason to suppose that any of these fires were occasioned by parties unfriendly to negro education.

At Abbeville, S. C., we have had the most serious interruption to our work this year, that we have ever had in our experience. During an exciting political campaign last summer much race antagonism was engendered, out of which there arose such opposition to our work at Harbison College and such pressure brought to bear upon its President who had been the efficient head of the School for the last fourteen years, that he tendered his resignation to the Board coupled with the earnest request that it be accepted. The appointment of his successor brought out the fact that a certain element in the community was opposed to the continuance of the School. By the advice of those in the community who were friendly to us and our work, the School was closed for four months, but opened once more in February last with a greatly reduced attendance. In the midst of this trouble the burning of Ferguson Hall occurred, and it was naturally inferred at first by many, that the fire was the work of an in-cediary; but subsequent events, much to our relief, and much to the relief of the better element in the community, established the fact that the fire was of unintentional origin.

The School work and Church work at this place have been under our care for more than twenty-five years, with no previous objection to its character or continuance. Under the patronage of the late Mr. S. P. Harbison, for whom the school was named, the work has been added to from time to time until we now have, including a large farm, a plant that may easily be estimated at a value of $25,000.

The $2,500 generously contributed by Mrs. S. P. Harbison toward the building of a suitable dwelling for the President of the College, as mentioned in our last report, was being expended for the purpose for which it was given when the interruption occurred. The house was almost completed at the time, and is now being finished for future use.

We have endeavored to act wisely and patiently in dealing with this exceptional case, and are hoping the counsel of our friends, and the influence of the better element of this old and settled Christian community will prevail in securing us exemption from further interruption.

The policy of the Board has always been to carry on our work on such conservative lines as would merit the approval, rather than excite the disapproval, of the white people in the communities where we are called to labor. As a rule they that have been for us, as compared with those that have been against us, have been overwhelming in the majority.

During the past year we have completed a frame Dormitory building for girls at Oxford, N. C., in connection with our Mary Potter Memorial School, to be known as Wells' Hall, named as a tribute to the friendship and helpfulness of Miss Helen A. Wells, so long the efficient secretary of the New York Synodical, also of the Albany Presbyterial Society. The money was raised by the Woman's Societies of the Synod of New York. The building with its appointments cost $10,000.

We have also completed a brick Dormitory building for girls, in connection with Cotton Plant Academy, at Cotton Plant, Ark., at a similar outlay of funds, also raised by the Women's Societies, through the efforts of the Woman's Department of our Board. This building is to be known as Niccolls Hall, in honor of Dr. S. J. Niccolls of St. Louis, in recognition of his special interest in our work in Arkansas.

We have in process of erection a new School building at Newnan, Ga., in connection with the McClelland Academy at that place, the amount to be expended being $3,500. This also was raised through the Woman's Department.

The loss of a building by fire, is only a temporary check to the work, but when death comes, and calls for some of our faithful and earnest workers, we have a feeling that we have sustained a loss that cannot easily be repaired.

Other workers it is true, may come in, and take their places, but these workers, if at work, must leave some other place to do it. When the harvest is great and the laborers are few, the loss of a laborer imperils the harvest.

Biddle University this year has suffered a double loss. Early in the term Rev. W. M. Hargrave, D. D., Prof. of Christian Evidences and Pastoral Theology sickened and died. Only a little later, in December last, although only sixty years of age, Dr. D. J. Sanders, President of the University, began to feel the burdens of his great work and his physical inability to bear them as in former years. Little by little as his strength left him, he lost his hold on life, and on the 6th of March of this year, he peacefully passed to his heavenly reward.

This was indeed a great loss, both to the University and to the whole work under our care. We have sustained no greater loss in the death of any-one man, since the work began. He was known throughout the entire church, and respected by all for his sterling qualities. The Board feels profoundly, the difficulty as well as the responsibility of finding and naming his successor.

It is a touching incident in connection with Dr. Sanders honored career that his old mother, who was a slave for forty years, was permitted to live with him and take a motherly pride in her distinguished son throughout his whole course, only preceeding him by a few months to the better land.

It is gratifying to the Board to call attention to the success of the Woman's Department of our Board, which is also the Freedmen's Department of the Woman's Board—in securing so large a portion of the funds for which they planned at the beginning of the year, and for which they have labored assiduously and untiringly through the last twelve months. The total amount received by the Board for its work through this source is larger than that of any previous year with one exception, amounting in all, including money from Sunday Schools, Young Peoples' Societies and Women's Societies, to $73,025.30. The Board desires to put on record its appreciation of the zeal and efficiency of this Department.

The report of Mrs. V. P. Boggs, General Secretary of the Woman's Department is printed as an appendix to this report, and should be read by every one interested in any way in our work.

Rev. H. T. McClelland, D. D., Field Secretary, made to the Board at the close of the year his third annual report, only a portion of which is herewith reproduced, but enough to give some idea of the nature, extent and variety of his labors.

"Your Field Secretary attended and briefly addressed the Assembly at Des Moines. He attended and addressed, and cultivated as extensively as he could, the personal acquaintance of the Synods of Nebraska, at Lincoln; Minnesota, at Minneapolis; Kansas, at Phillipsburg; Missouri, at St. Louis, and Tennessee at Maryville. He also attended and addressed the Presbyteries of Clarion, Cedar Rapids, Chicago, Philadelphia, Washington and New Castle.

"In connection with these Presbyteries he addressed popular meetings in Linn Grove, Ia., Lincoln, Neb., Phillipsburg, Kan., Maryville, Tenn., and Pokomoke City, Md. He addressed a meeting at which the Presbyterial Society of Cedar Rapids was present; a meeting in Minneapolis at which many members of the Synodical Society were present; and addressed Synodical Society of Tennessee at Maryville, Tenn.

"The Field Secretary pleaded for our cause in the First, Westminster, and Memorial Churches of Cedar Rapids, Ia.; in the First and Lyons Churches of Clinton, Ia.; in the First and Castellar Ave. Churches of Omaha, Neb.; in the First and Second Churches of Lincoln, Neb.; in the First Church, Hutchinson, Kan.; and in the First Church Emporia, Kan. He preached also in the Fourth Church, Knoxville, Tenn.; and in the Fourth Church of Philadelphia, Pa.; and to a Union Meeting of the Presbyterian Churches of Bridgeton, N. J.

"By the kind arrangement of Dr. Geo. N. Lucecock of the Oak Park Church, Chicago, the Field Secretary pursued an extensive itinerary within the bounds of the Presbytery of Chicago, reaching several of the leading Congregations, such as Oak Park, Lake Forest, Second, Woodlawn Park, the Covenant, etc.

"He met personally, in our interest, most of the Pastors of our Churches in that great community, and besides wrote personal letters in behalf of our work to the majority of the Pastors and Sessions.

He took pains while in Chicago to discover individuals whom God has blessed with much substance, and with the grace of giving, and thus developed information which he trusts may yet prove very valuable to our cause.

“Through the efficient co-operation of the Rev. John M. Waddell, of Doylestown, Pa., the Field Secretary was enabled to carry out an itinerary which reached on Sabbaths and Wednesday evenings, with one or two exceptions, the stronger churches of the Presbytery of Philadelphia North. He found frequent opportunities, which he took, of speaking to Sabbath Schools, Men’s Classes, and Young People’s Meetings.

“Besides the work of the regular itineraries he presented, as opportunity offered, the cause on Sabbaths to such churches as that of Cambridge Springs, Pa., Beaver, New Brighton, Ambridge, Shields, Coraopolis, McKeesport, 1st Washington, Pa., 3d Monongahela City, Bridgeville, Waynesboro, Pa., Greencastle, Pa., Johnstown 1st, Sewickley, Indiana, Pa., Kittanning, Pa., Oakmont, Bellefield, Pittsburgh, Pa., Harlem and North Churches, New York, and Overbrook, Philadelphia.

“He lectured before the Brotherhood and a good body of their friends in the Ingram Church on the “New South.” Whenever it was possible he spoke in connection with collections for our General work, but took every opportunity that offered, collection or no collection, to plead for wisdom, justice and mercy on the part of our people toward the Negro Millions of the South.”

“The Field Secretary was instructed by the Board at the beginning of the year to appeal, as he might have opportunity for contributions to meet the conditions of Mr. Carnegie’s offer to build a $12,500 library building for Biddle, viz.: to raise $12,500 for library endowment. He understood that in soliciting for this special object he must carefully guard the general income and by no means divert from that. Accordingly he planned to secure individual gifts for the library fund. And since Biddle is the one Negro College supported as such by our church, it was planned to make the appeal to many individuals throughout a large portion of our denomination.

“First, the Field Secretary learned through Dr. Sanders, that the constituency of Biddle in the South would be good for $600. Then the whole amount was laid suggestively upon 1,000,000 members $12.50 to a thousand. He secured formal action on the part of the Synods of Nebraska, Iowa, Minneapolis, Kansas and Missouri, approving the plan, and authorizing a canvas within their respective bounds for the amounts suggested for each Synod. Then in each Synod named he secured a good man to canvass in his Synod. He then opened a correspondence with the Presbyteries east of the Synods named and north of Mason and Dixon's line and secured in forty-one Presbyteries the promise of the Chairman of the Committee on Freedmen or some other brother to conduct the quest in their several territories. Suitable literature and subscription forms were prepared by the Field Secretary and sent to the helpers, and the work begun. Besides these, appeals were made in Chicago, Pittsburgh and Philadelphia to individual givers. The matter was set forth in five of our Church papers simultaneously, and in one or two of them was favored and pressed editorially.

"So the work was begun and pressed until in March, when the Field Secretary learned of the falling off in general receipts, he turned his attention for the closing weeks of the year to stirring up through the mails the Churches that were probably delinquent and that might possibly be persuaded to help us out."

As appears from item 13 of the joint report on Union and Reunion, adopted by the General Assembly of 1906, this Board was charged jointly with the Educational Society of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, with the responsibility of reporting to the General Assembly of 1907—"what may be done by the re-united Church for the further evangelization and education of the Colored people of the South and South West"—this action having particular reference to the needs and work of the Cumberland Church, colored.

Pursuant to this order, the two Boards have conferred at intervals during the year, through their executive officers, and moderate appropriations have been made by both Boards in behalf of the Educational work of the Cumberland Church, colored.

Looking to the work of the coming year, the Board submits to the General Assembly the following recommendation:—

That inasmuch as the corporate existence of the Educational Society of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church is likely to be continued through another year or longer, the General Assembly of the re-united Church shall authorize the Board of Missions for Freedmen to use the Board of Directors of said Educational Society, if so continued, and its Secretary as the Agency through which such assistance may be tendered to the Educational and Missionary work of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, colored, as said Board of Missions for Freedmen, may deem proper.

In soliciting contributions from former Cumberland Presbyterian Churches for the work of the Board of Missions for Freedmen, said Board may concede to all said Churches the privilege of directing all their contributions for the purpose to be applied for the aid of the Educational and Missionary work of the Cumberland Church, colored.
